Crops in Good Shape, Declares Bank Governor

W. J. Bailey, Federal Reserve Director for Tenth District Finds Small Grain Good.

Conditions in the Tenth Federal Reserve Bank district are generally good, according to W. J. Bailey, Kansas City, governor of the reserve bank who with members of the board of directors met in Omaha Thursday.

Governor Bailey said that crops are spotted somewhat due to excessive rains.

Wheat and small grain will make a good harvest, but parts of the corn belt have had entirely too much moisture," he said. "But taking it as a whole the general business conditions and credits are in good shape."

Mr. Bailey said oil interests are doing a heavy business due to an advance in crude prices.

The directors met with directors of the Omaha branch of the Tenth Federal Reserve bank at the bank's offices.

In Omaha for the meeting were: C. C. Parks, vice president, First National bank, Denver; Frank Sponable, president Miami County National bank, Paola, Kan.; E. E. Mullaney, president Farmers and Merchants bank, Hill City, Kan.; J. M. Bernardin, J. M. Bernardin Lumber Co., Kansas City; L. E. Phillips, Phillips Petroleum Co., Bartlesville, Okla.; M. L. McClure, Federal Reserve bank, Kansas City; E. M. Brass, farmer and stockman, Grand Island, Neb.; T. C. Byrne, Bryne-Hammer Dry Goods Co., Omaha; J. W. Helm, cashier, Federal Reserve bank, Kansas City, and F. W. Goeddel, Liberty National bank, Kansas City.

CASS COUNTY MINISTERS ORGANIZE MONDAY

A splendid attendance of ministers of Cass county was had at the meeting held at the Methodist church Monday for the purpose of forming a ministerial society. The ministers represented almost every denomination and the meeting was a very informal one in which all those present took part.

Rev. Norenberg of Murdock opened the meeting with a short talk leading up to the organization. Rev. Klein of Elmwood also favored them with a short talk and a lively discussion followed.

Rev. Harold Sortor of Plattsmouth was elected president of the organization and Rev. Knosp of Murdock, secretary and treasurer.

While the ministers were in session the ladies were busy in the church parlors preparing the lunch. A plentiful supply of good things to eat was served, after which a short business meeting was held, at which time dues were paid and bills allowed. The meeting then adjourned to meet the first Tuesday in October at the call of the president.

The meeting was all that had been anticipated. A fine, brotherly spirit dominated the entire meeting and everyone enjoyed a pleasant social time as well. Eighteen ministers were present as well as some of their families, all of whom had been invited for the occasion. Some, however, found it inconvenient to attend, and they were missed. Every minister of the county is cordially invited to become a member of this newly organized ministerial society. —Weeping Water Republican.

TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

From Thursday's Daily—
The many friends of the L. L. Pickett family in this city will regret to learn that Mrs. Marjorie Pickett Campbell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pickett is in the hospital at Omaha where she was taken yesterday for treatment and will probably have to undergo an operation the first part of the coming week. The young lady has not been in the best of shape for some time and it is hoped that the operation may result in her improvement.

Northeastern Nebraska Swept by Bad Storm

Twister Follows Downpour of Hail Near Creston; Many Oat Fields Are Ruined.

Creston, Neb., June 27.—Crops were destroyed over an area four miles wide and more than eight miles long by a severe hailstorm, last night. A twister followed which wrecked several farm buildings east and west of Creston. Damage to crop will run into thousands of dollars.

Oats and corn crops were pounded into the ground by the hail. At one time hail eight inches deep covered the highway between Creston and Humphrey.

The twister struck one mile south of Creston on the Leonard Hamel farm, where it lifted a chicken house into the telephone wires. All shingles on the house were torn away.

Barn Swept Away.
On an adjoining farm, owned by George Daniels, a new cow barn was lifted off its foundation.

At the farm of Mrs. Minnie Gorman tops of trees were sheared off.

The new house of Ernest Wierman was badly damaged by the hail. All windows were broken and the water poured into the rooms. Oat crops on all these farms were totally destroyed.

All farmers living south of Humphrey in the bottoms suffered considerable damage from the hail. Creeks overflowed their banks and inundated pastures. Water raced over the highway east and west of Creston.

Five Horses Killed.
At West Point, five horses were burned to death when lightning hit the barn on the August Goranfen place.

Following an eight-hour delay due to a washout one mile north of Hubbard, the first one at that place this year, train service on the M. & O. line between Norfolk and Sioux City was resumed today.

Rain washed out a section of track on the M. & O. line near Pender. Trains were delayed for hours.

VISITS FORMER PUPIL

Prof. J. J. Schmauser, Ph. D. instructor of Dramatic Art at the University of Nebraska, was here Wednesday and Thursday visiting his former pupil and friend, F. W. Burr of Los Angeles, California. Mr. Burr will return with Prof. Schmauser to spend two weeks in Lincoln at the Kappa Phi fraternity, his home, to be a guest at a series of formal, Prof. Schmauser was very impressed with the city of Plattsmouth.

CAMP FOR SCOUTS

The log cabin recently leased by the American Legion, and which is located on the Mrs. Bertha Shopp farm land southeast of the city, is to be used during a portion of the summer as a camping place for the Legion Boy Scout troop which now has a very large membership.

Scoutmaster Raymond Larson has given much of his time to promotion of Scout activities among the members of the Legion troop during the past six months and his efforts have been rewarded by great advancement among the individual members.

In acquiring possession of the cabin, the Legion has two ideas uppermost in mind, first to provide a place where the Scout troop could spend a week in the open, under the leadership of a competent instructor and aide, and second, to provide a picnic and recreation grounds for Legionnaires and members of their families during the time it was not being occupied by the Scouts.

Due to the large number in the Legion Scout troop, it is likely the camping parties will have to be divided into groups, so that each boy may be given opportunity to enjoy at least a few days roughing it in the open.

Big Crowd at the Carnival on Thursday Nite

Shows All Do Big Business and Young and Old Enjoy Themselves—Matinee Saturday

From Friday's Daily—
The attendance at the Bernardi Exposition shows at the Tourist park last evening was the largest so far in the weeks' stay of this high class entertainment feature in the city. From the opening of the carnival at 7 o'clock until after eleven the grounds were teeming with the large and good natured crowd that entered into the carnival spirit with real earnestness.

The shows as well as the riding devices and thrill produces were well filled from early in the evening until late with the Hawaiian shows, the great side show and the freak shows doing a very large business while the other fun producing features of the shows were finding an increasing patronage from the public. The riding devices were very popular and especially with the little folks while the faithful old Ferris wheel was the source of happiness to the couple who were for a few moments elevated above the rest of the world.

Manager Bernardi announces that on Saturday afternoon at the Matinee performance all of the residents of the Nebraska Masonic Home who wish to attend will be guests of honor and local Masons will assist in the afternoon holiday by bringing the old people by auto from the home to the carnival and back.

DOING IMPROVING

The Livingston Loan & Building association which closed active business a number of years ago and is at present under the receivership of Searl S. Davis, is doing a very good service to the community and showing the earnest and able efforts of Searl S. Davis to not only keep up the property of the association but make it an asset to the stockholders who had lost in the failure several years ago.

Mr. Davis has taken active management of the association and has gone a long way toward making of heretofore idle or run down property an asset to the city instead of a detriment. The receiver has by careful management been able to have several pieces of residence property and placed in good shape and most of these are now occupied by tenants and making a return each month to the association. The building at Fourth and Main street occupied by the Coryell furniture store has had the front painted and the roof repaired as well as the apartments on the second floor placed in the best of shape and now rented. The Olson building at Third and Main street is also being placed in shape and made to be able to give some return.

In the last few days Mr. Davis has rented the building in the middle of the block from Third to Fourth on Main street to George Petring for a used car salesroom and which will mean a paying proposition there in a heretofore unoccupied structure and which will make another live proposition for the stockholders instead of a "dead horse" and which has caused some needed improvements to be made on the building.

In this work Mr. Davis is to be commended and with a few months of this successful management the association should be able to realize some benefits to the stockholders as the property is gradually made into a paying proposition.

BRUSH-MILLER REUNION

A family gathering of the relatives and friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Miller on Sunday, June 23, 1929.

This was rather an unusual affair as the immediate family had not had the occasion to be together for thirty-two years.

Brush and sons Truman and Richard, Bartlett, Neb.; Mrs. Alice Brush Miller and husband Ellis E. Miller and family, Marjorie, Fern, Jeannette Miller of Elmwood, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. August Lange and daughter Veryl, of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Miller of Unadilla, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mickle and niece, Maxine, Avoca, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ganzel, daughter Wandajune, and son Ronald, of Otoe, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mickle and daughters, Anna and Geraldine and Miss Vera Morin, Avoca, Neb.; Mrs. Sabria Miller, Weeping Water, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Worman, Avoca, Neb.; Mr. Harry Ahren, Syracuse, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall, Elmwood.

Pictures were taken of four generation groups of Brushes, and Millers.

All the immediate Brush family were present except Mr. and Mrs. Theo. B. Brush of Richfield, Idaho, who were unable to be present this mother and the rest of the family at Coin, Ia., on June 30th.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

OLD RESIDENT HERE

From Thursday's Daily—
One of the early day merchants of this city was here today for a few hours stay while on his way west to Lincoln, this being Simon Mayer, who in the late seventies and the eighties operated a clothing store here in Plattsmouth and later was one of the most prominent merchants of Lincoln. Mr. Mayer came here with his brother, Charles Mayer, in the late seventies and located in the building then standing just east of the I. O. O. F. building at Third and Main streets and later the business house of S. & C. Mayer was moved to the present location of the Arries pool hall where it remained during the occupancy of the Mayer Brothers. In later years an interest in the clothing business was sold to Frank J. Morgan and the firm of Mayer & Morgan established and following which the two Mayer brothers removed to Lincoln to open a store there that was for years one of the leading business houses of the west. The brother Charles has passed away in the last few years and Mr. Simon Mayer is now making his home in London, England, and is in this
