Warner is leaving this evening for Almyra,

The event was very much enjoyed and especially as it brought together practically all of the members of the family circle to meet the splendid group of brothers. It has been twenty-five years since Rev. George W. Warner was here to meet with the members of the family here and on which occasion he had the pleasure of officiating at the marriage of his niece, Miss Mildred Warner to Mr. Roy E. Howard, who were members of the family party at the picnic.

During his stay here Rev. Warner has spoke at a number of the churches here and in this vicinity and had the opportunity to meet the residents of this city and the nearby community and which has proven a real pleasurable occasion to the Cass county people.

At the picnic yesterday the members of the party enjoyed the wonderful Nebraska summer day in visiting and with the celebration of the Fourth of July in an appropriate manner with fireworks as well as a wonderful picnic dinner that the ladies of the family had arranged and which made a most delightful part of the day's program.

During the course of the afterartistic violin number by Wallace Beth Ingwerson.
