County Assessor Completes Return of the County

Increase of Intangibles Over $3,000,000 as Shown by Precinct Assessor Returns

The abstract of the assessment of Cass county for the year 1929 has just been completed by County Assessor W. H. Puls and the return made to the state board of equalization and assessment at Lincoln and shows some very interesting facts. One of the matters that has shown the largest gain is that of intangibles which County Assessor Puls states has shown an increase of over $3,000,000 from last year as many items have been reported that were not taken in under the old law. The bank deposits returned totaled $2,049,464, with money reported at $297,546 and savings accounts of $309,790. In the stocks and bonds section of the intangible property there is reported $96,507 in shares of corporation stock not assessed or taxed in this state, building and loan shares of $46,695 and notes not secured by real estate mortgages of $568,735 and book accounts and open accounts of $187,787. The total of money items is $2,781,172 and in stock, bonds and accounts, $1,318,712.

The total of cattle reported is 21,657 while the horses in the county lister, number 8,409 and 1,677 head of mules.

The assessors report discloses that there were 24,862 head of hogs in the county that were returned to the precinct assessors while the sheep and goats listed numbered 2,031. The poultry of the county was listed at 10,373.

In the grain crops reported of the assessor as being on hand on April 1st the list shows that there were 1,597,331 bushels of field corn and 59,210 bushels of wheat, 1,540 bushels of rye and 1,911 tons of hay on the farms of the county.

The schedule of the returns shows that the residents of the county are well supplied with autos and trucks as 4,370 are returned and these do not include the cars or trucks that were secured after the first of April.

In the line of farm machinery returned there were 501 tractors and 174 threshing outfits and combines.

The march of time shows in the fact that but four bicycles were reported to the assessors and marks the rapid decline of this once popular sport of cycling or else someone failed to list their wheels. On the other hand there were three aeroplanes listed as being owned in the county.

The pianos that were reported numbered 1,362 and organs 82 while phonographs and other mechanical musical instruments numbered 302.

The printing interests of the county listed eight type setting machines in the several shops of the county, while the motion picture houses of the county listed five of these machines.

The total number of taxpayers returning schedules numbered 5,834 for the entire county.

The assessors figures on the lands in the county show 331,443 acres of improved farm lands of the value of $38,598,080 while the city lots reported are 12,493 and valued at $4,722,510.

GAVE A FINE CONCERT

The Elks band last evening gave a very fine concert at the court house lawn and which was enjoyed by a very fine crowd of the music lovers of the city and vicinity and in which Herr Holly and his musicians acquitted themselves with real artistic ability in the numbers given.

The program was one that pleased everyone as it covered a wide range of musical selections from the winsome "Bridal Rose" overture and the familiar plantation songs of Stephen Foster, to the snappy strains of "Sunrise to Sunset" and "I Faw Down and Go Boom," as well as the entrancing "LaPaloma" and the swaying measures of "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Special features of the concert was the visit of the golden voiced "Beans" O'Haver of the Seventeenth Infantry band, of Fort Crook, and who gave "Sonny Boy" as the request vocal of the evening and which was received with the greatest approval, the singer being compelled to respond to a number of encores.

Another feature of the concert was the cornet solo, "Cosette," given by E. H. Koger, one of the members of the Seventeenth Infantry band, and which was given most artistically.

HAS TONSILS REMOVED

This morning Tom McGuire departed for Omaha where he will have his tonsils removed at the St. Catherine's hospital as he has been suffering a great deal in the past few weeks from the effects of the illness. He was accompanied by his father, Charles McGuire and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edgar McGuire, who will remain with during the ordeal.

HON. E. M. POLLARD HERE

From Thursday's Daily—
This morning Hon. E. M. Pollard, head of the state department of labor and public welfare, motored down to look after some matters for his department in the county relative to handling the disposition of cases of neglected children and cases of a similar nature. While here, Mr. Pollard held a conference with Judge James T. Begley, County Attorney W. G. Kieck and Miss Alpha Peterson, county superintendent, as these officials have the handling of the cases involving children and school matters under their direction.

Hold Up Pulled Off Here During Band Concert

Farmer Stuck Up and Bobbed Within Half a Block of Band Concert—Robber Escapes

Last night within a half block of the scene of the weekly concert of the Elks band occurred the first hold up or highway robbery in many, many months when some unknown man stuck up a resident of near this city and relieved him of $2.45 and made his escape. The robber stated that he was hungry and needed the money.

The robbery occurred on Third street between the Hartford coal office and the I. O. O. F. building and as reported by the police, the stranger came up to one of the residents of near this city and getting in close produced a gun and gave the command to "stick 'em up."

The victim of the robbery complied with the request of the stranger and produced $2.45 in change which the robber pocketed and after a warning to keep quiet, the holdup man turned and disappeared in the direction of the Burlington station.

The victim of the holdup at once came on up to the vicinity of the band concert and finding Officer Dave Pickrel reported the matter and a search for the robber was made through the railroad yards and in the vicinity of lower Main street in an effort to locate the party but which was without success and the robber made his getaway.

A telephone message was received by the police later in the evening from the Missouri river ferry that some man was relieved about 10 o'clock passing the ferry landing in a skiff, the man lying down in the boat as it came opposite the ferry and it is thought possible that this party was the same man that pulled off the hold up.

HAS PLEASANT SURPRISE

Mrs. A. G. Bach was given a very pleasant surprise yesterday in honor of the passing of her birthday anniversary, or rather two very pleasant events were arranged for the occasion by the friends and which were carried out without the knowledge of the guest of honor until the appropriate time when they completely surprised their friend.

Mrs. Bach had planned on going to Omaha and it required a great deal of diplomacy on the part of the friends to secure an excuse to detain her at home and as she was at the home and on her arrival there found a very jolly party of friends awaiting her. The afternoon was spent in visiting and a general good time and the presentation of a number of gifts to the guest of honor as tokens of the esteem felt by the many friends. At an appropriate hour the well laden baskets were produced and a fine array of delicious refreshments were served. Those attending this event were Mesdames W. T. Distell, F. I. Rea, Joseph Liberthal, Edward Brantner, L. L. McCarthy, Cyril Kalina, Frank Millen, W. H. Woolcott and Miss Betty Bergmann.

As the evening came on a group of the friends induced Mrs. Bach to go out for a motor ride and this culminated in a very delightful picnic party on the spacious lawn at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warga and on this event Mrs. Bach received a further surprise when her sister, Mrs. John Carney, Sr. and Mrs. John Carney, Jr., motored down from Omaha to join the birthday party.

The picnic featured the fine array of fried chicken and other dainties and served to keep all of the members of the party entertained until a late hour. Those who enjoyed the picnic were: Messrs and Mesdames Edward Brantner, W. H. Woolcott, Frank Millen, Joseph Liberthal, Miss Anna Jrousek, Miss Antonia Vavok, Richard Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warga and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bach.

Special features of the concert was the visit of the golden voiced "Beans" O'Haver of the Seventeenth Infantry band, of Fort Crook, and who gave "Sonny Boy" as the request vocal of the evening and which was received with the greatest approval, the singer being compelled to respond to a number of encores.

Another feature of the concert was the cornet solo, "Cosette," given by E. H. Koger, one of the members of the Seventeenth Infantry band, and which was given most artistically.

He was accompanied by his father, Charles McGuire and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edgar McGuire, who will remain with during the ordeal.

Civic Body is Addressed by E. M. Pollard

Directors of Chamber of Commerce Also Hear of Poultry Show and Suggestions on New Road

This noon the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held their regular meeting and luncheon at the Barclay Inn and with a very large number of the members in attendance and a group of guests present to enjoy the occasion.

Hon. E. M. Pollard of Lincoln, state labor commissioner and head of the department of public welfare was present and was given a most enthusiastic reception in his home county and briefly discussed the plan that he has for the creation of a county probation officer in each county to check up the cases of mothers and children and families that are in need of aid and care and to supervise the general welfare of the children that may be in need of this supervision. This is a plan used in many states and Mr. Pollard is to initiate the first trial of the plan in his own county of Cass.

The discussion of the poultry show in December was made a part of the meeting with Watson Howard of Greenwood, president of the Tri-County Poultry association being present as well as L. R. Snieszko and D. D. Waincock, of the Cass county bureau and J. W. Reed of Papillion and George Rosenfeldt of Malvern, representing Sarpy county and Mills county, Iowa. The poultry boosters held a short meeting this afternoon to definitely set the date of the show. Other guests present were R. R. Otereky and W. L. Garbriel, both recent arrivals in the city and who received the greeting of the many friends.

The Chamber of Commerce received an expression of thanks from Florence Schatz and George Lepert, for the assistance given them in their recent trip to the 4-H club meetings at Lincoln.

The Chamber of Commerce received the following resolution from the Women's Relief Corps and which was approved and which has served the will be given the support of the civic body:

Plattsmouth, Nebr., July 13, 1929.
To the Chamber of Commerce, Plattsmouth, Nebr. Gentlemen:

Whereas it is reported there is to be a highway to the new Missouri River Bridge passing over or near Wintersteen Hill

And whereas this Hill was made a historic spot in the annuals of Nebraska History and American History when an American flag made by pioneer women of Plattsmouth was presented to Company "A" of the First Nebraska, whose Captain was Robert Ramsey Livingston of Plattsmouth who performed distinguished service in the Civil War, and during the years following was so highly honored and respected as a citizen of Plattsmouth

And whereas his son Henry Guy Livingston gave his life in the service of his country in the Spanish American War

And whereas this pioneer family has contributed to this community and surrounding territory the services of four, family physicians of a type that is now rapidly passing away, their lives having been devoted to the relief of suffering, namely:

Dr. Robert Ramsey Livingston Sr., Dr. Theodore Philip Livingston, Dr. Robert Ramsey Livingston Jr., and Dr. John Stuart Livingston

Therefore be it resolved that the Women's Relief Corps of McDonagh Post G. A. R. No. 50 petition the Chamber of Commerce to use its influence to have this new road called "LIVINGSTON ROAD" in honor of this pioneer family.—Mrs. Robt. Troop, President; Mrs. Frank Mulren, S. V.; Mrs. W. S. Purdy, J. V.; Ella Kennedy, Secretary; Mattie Egenberger, Treasurer; Nannie Burkle, Chaplain, and Martha Peterson, Conductress.

GRAVEL PROJECT ASSURED

It now seems a certainty that the three miles of road leading north from Nehawka to the Murdoch corner will receive a three-inch coat of gravel in the near future. One inch will be put on by the state and the remainder of the expense will be shared equally by the county commissioners and the people along the road and others donating in town. G. A. Murdoch was busy with a petition for this purpose and the last time we received a report, only a small amount was needed to insure the project.

A number living north of this corner are in hopes the three inch gravel can be extended further and they are working with this idea in mind. It would be a splendid thing if the project could be extended to the Red Ball highway out of Murray and many in this community would like to see it accomplished.—Nehawka Enterprise.

CHANGE IN BUS SCHEDULE

Clarence Cotner, of the Cotner Bus line, which operates between this city and Omaha, is announcing a slight change in the running time of the afternoon bus from Omaha to this city. The bus at the present time leaves the Union Bus station at 16th and Jackson streets, at 2:30 p. m., but effective Monday, July 22nd, the time of leaving Omaha will be at 4 o'clock. Otherwise the schedule will remain as it is at the present time.

The change in time will be more convenient to the Plattsmouth people who may be in Omaha and desire to reach home in time for the evening meal.

Natural Gas Lines May Pass Thru This City

Oklahoma Interests that are Planning Line from Gas Fields to Iowa May Cross Here.

This section of the state has long been questioning the matter of having a natural gas line extended from the Oklahoma gas fields to this part of the west and this matter was checked by the turndown of the proposition by Omaha and since that time the matter has been dormant until recently.

Now, the large gas interests of the southwest are planning on extending their lines to the north, with Des Moines, Iowa, as one of the larger cities on their route and this is followed by the general opinion of the gas men that the line would probably come north through Kansas and eastern Nebraska and with the pipe line crossing the Missouri river at either Plattsmouth or Nebraska City.

It has been urged that the extension of the natural gas line into the smaller cities of Nebraska would allow the securing of this cheaper fuel for manufacturing purposes and this was one feature of the proposition that was so strongly urged in the Omaha effort to secure the gas line there.

This city has been fortunate that it has already a gas plant operated by the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power company and which has served the residents here in fine shape for years and given the Plattsmouth people an advantage that all of the smaller cities do not possess.

In the event of the natural gas line being placed through this city, it is probable that the local plant would be secured and the natural gas handled through the present gas mains.

RETURNS FROM CALIFORNIA

Paul Vandervoort, city mail carrier, and Chris Bull, who have been enjoying their vacation by an auto trip to the west coast returned home yesterday after a most delightful outing that has taken them through a large part of the west. The boys returned tanned and refreshed by the outdoor trip by car and feel that it was a real treat in the journey to the west. They were accompanied by Los Angeles by Louis Sedlak of this city who is remaining there where his brother, Fritz Sedlak has been located for the past year and Louie will be employed in the coast city in the future. While in the west Mr. Bull visited with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindeman at Orange and with Miss Edith Bullin who is making her home in the western coast city.

The party left Winner last evening at 7:30 and arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning having reached Omaha at 7 o'clock and stopped for a short visit with Mr. Briggs' sister, Mrs. Fred Franzen and family.

PREPARING TO RIPRAP

This morning a force of some fifteen men and boys were started on the task of chopping willows that will be used in rip-rapping on the Iowa side of the Missouri river north of the Burlington bridge at several places where washes of the river are feared. The willows that will be used in the construction of the rip-rap mats are being cut off the land of T. H. Pollock just east of the Burlington station and right of way. The willows will be cut on the land, tied in bundles and hauled into the city where they will be loaded on cars for shipment to the scene of activity on the east side of the river.

Elmwood Men Injured When Car Overtakes

George Bogenreif and Marion Morgan Are Victims of Wreck Near La Platte Last Night

George Bogenreif, well known resident of Elmwood and Marion Morgan of that place, narrowly escaped very severe injuries or death last night shortly after 11 o'clock when the Buick car in which they were driving was overturned several times on the highway at La Platte.

The two men were en route home and Mr. Morgan was driving the car and as he was not familiar with the road was on the curve just where the slight hill leads to the railroad crossing at La Platte, a car having preceded him and which had raised considerable dust that obscured the vision of the driver, which with the lack of knowledge of the highway caused the accident. The car, instead of making the turn, hurried on across the road and struck a road sign and was turned over several times, the two men being caught in the wrecked car.

Fortunately for both Mr. Bogenreif and Mr. Morgan, the car was lodged across a small ditch and which enabled Mr. Morgan to crawl out and assist his companion, who was bleeding in a serious manner, from the wreck. The men had to remain helpless and partially dazed from the effects of the accident, sitting along the highway until Clarence Cotner came along with his southbound bus and who stopped to render what aid was possible and brought the two injured men onto this city.

Mr. Bogenreif was bleeding from many cuts that rendered his face, head and hands a mass of blood and dirt and made his condition seem even more dangerous than it really was, and reaching here he was taken to the office of Dr. E. J. Gillespie where his injuries were cared for and some twenty-one stitches required to close the various cuts. The injured man suffered deep cuts just over each eye and several smaller cuts over the head while Mr. Morgan's head was bruised and caused the loss of a great deal of blood and rendered the patient very weak when he was finally taken to a surgeon.

Mr. Morgan suffered from a severe sprain of the right shoulder caused when the car overturned and caught him between the steering wheel and the car was practically demolished and was left straddling the ditch with the wheels up in the air and it required some work on the part of the wrecking crew in charge of Frank Krejci to get the car on into this city and where it will be repaired if possible.

The dressing of the injuries required some little time and after it was completed the two men were taken on to their home at Elmwood by Sheriff Bert Reed, an old friend and who had been notified at the request of Mr. Bogenreif.

BARGAIN DAY GOOD

The merchants of the city who participated in the Dollar Day special sales offering yesterday in this city found that the day was one of the best that has been staged for several months and the offerings of the large array of real buying opportunities found a very ready response from the residents of the city and the surrounding territory, altho the necessity of the farmers being kept closely at work served to keep many from getting in until the evening.

The offers made by the merchants covered all lines and gave the opportunity to the careful shoppers to add to the family budget on the savings made with the days bargains.

The advantage of the bargains was added to by the fact that the shoppers were able to personally inspect the goods purchased and to know that they were sold by reputable business houses whose owners stood back of their offers and were ready to see that their patrons received their full money's worth.

That the buying public is making a study of where they can secure the best prices and offers was shown by the fact that the shoppers were busy in calling for the articles that were advertised in the Journal and many were carrying the paper with them to remind them of where they could secure the articles that they might wish or need.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS

The message was received here this morning by relatives announcing the death yesterday at Los Angeles, of Tom Froggatt, husband of the former Miss Eleanor Schulhof, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Schulhof. The death came as a very great shock to the relatives here and came as Mr. Froggatt was undergoing an operation for appendicitis which he was suddenly taken. The condition of the patient made the operation necessary at once and the patient failed to rally from the ordeal. The deceased is survived by the wife and a number of relatives residing in California.

EASTERN STAR INITATES

Last evening the members of Home Chapter No. 189 of the Eastern Star held a very interesting meeting at their lodge rooms in the Masonic temple and in which the impressive ritualistic work of the order was conducted by the officers on a class composed of Mrs. Ray Wiles, Mrs. Earl Becker, Mrs. J. ## Burglars Pay a Visit to the Lugsch Home

Strange Man Discovered Searching House Last Evening But Nothing of Value Taken

From Friday's Daily—
Last night at 1 o'clock Officers Pickrel and Hadraba were called to the home of Fred Lugsch on Pearl street where a burglar was reported as ransacking the house but the man evidently alarmed made his escape before the officers reached the scene, the burglar having become aware apparently of the fact that the household had been aroused by his prowling.

Mr. and Mrs. Lugsch had retired to their apartments on the second floor of the home about 12:30, having returned from a bridge party and had only retired a very short time when the burglar aroused his husband with the statement that someone was prowling around the main floor of the house and Mr. Lugsch came to the hall on the upper floor and could see the man moving about through the rooms and with a flashlight searching around the house. Mr. Lugsch called to George Hild, a neighbor who resides in the residence just east of the Lugsch home, and who called the police, but by this time the prowler decided to make a fade out on the scene.

The family were unable to discover anything of value missing from the house and the burglar had overlooked a small amount of money that Mrs. Lugsch had left lying on a dresser as well as the pocketbook of Mr. Lugsch which he had left in his trousers pocket and left these lying on a chair on the lower floor of the house.

The entrance to the house was secured through the garage and thence into the furnace room and up the cellar stairs to the main floor of the house where the burglar had been prowling.

While en route west Mrs. Reese stopped for a time at Fort Wayne, Indiana, with relatives and friends.

MEETS WITH PAINFUL ACCIDENT

While J. M. Clarence was assisting in the unloading of lumber on old Saw Schwab place, some ten miles south of Plattsmouth, at the saw mill which is conducted by the Livingston Brothers, and while Mr. Clarence was offerring a slab which he was removing from the saw and saw carriage, the end was caught by the rapidly revolving saw with the result that the plank was hurled in the face of Mr. Clarence knocking him down and scraping the skin and flesh from his face and forehead. It was fortunate that his eyes were not torn from their sockets as the skin and flesh were torn in part his face. Dr. Gilmore rendered medical assistance dressing his wound and he is resting as well as it is possible under the circumstances.

APPEALS CASE

A petition in error has been filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in the action entitled, Robert E. Earls, plaintiff in error vs. the State of Nebraska, defendant in error.

The petition in appealing from the conviction in the county court of the defendant alleges error in that the court granted the motion of the state for a thirty day continuance and allowed the jury to go to their home and later re-convene and try the case.

Another case of error as stated in the petition filed by J. A. Capwell, attorney for the plaintiff, is that the plaintiff in error was arrested on May 12, 1929, and confined in jail to the time of the sentence or a period of thirty-eight days, and received in addition a sentence of sixty days or a total of 146 days in the jail when the law fixes the penalty at merely sixty days in jail.
