Taylor, Pastor.

Quarterly Conference Sunday. There will be the Fourth Quarterly Conference at the Methodist church Thursday August 15th at 2:30 in the afternoon. All members and friends invited. All officers members will be present. Let all who have reports to make please have them ready.—W. A. Bowden, Pastor.

Has the Right Idea.

Lannie Meade, who conducts the eating house between the filling station and the garage when he finds a piece of paper and other refuse in front of his place of business, gathers it up and burns it, thus getting out of the way so it does not litter up the streets. Seems a good idea.

James Wilson Called to Rest. James Wilson was born in Iowa, September 13th, 1885, and when two years of age, with his parents went to Texas to make their home, and there resided until twelve years of age, when they returned to Nebraska, where they found a home in Nebraska, arriving June 25th, 1887, just following the close of the Civil war. The family and Mr. Wilson remained here until in June 10th, 1875, when he, then a young man, went to Seward county, then a frontier territory for Nebraska, where he settled on a homestead and remained there until he had proven up on it, and he returned to Otoe county, south of Union. On March 22nd, 1898, he was united in marriage with Miss Mary Etta Boudett, Mrs. Wilson passing away on January 11th, 1925, after they had lived happily for nearly thirty years. Mr. Wilson again on June 18th, 1925, about six weeks since was united to Mary B. Leopold of Lincoln. They were particularly adapted to each other and lived a very happy life until on last Thursday, August 1st, Mr. Wilson who was afflicted with heart trouble had a very severe attack of palpitation of the heart and with the faithful wife they went to Nebraska City to consult their family physician. The weakened condition, made it necessary for him to be taken to the hospital there. He continued to grow weaker and on August 2nd passed away, just as the day was dawning at 4 a. m. The remains were brought to Union for burial and the funeral was conducted from the Baptist church of which the deceased was a member and was conducted by his beloved pastor, the Rev. W. A. Taylor, whom he had known for so many years, assisted by the Rev. W. A. Bowden of the Methodist church. The interment was made in the Union cemetery where it will remain until the trumpet of the Arch Angel Gabriel shall call for the just to arise and ascend to the Glory World. Mr. Wilson leaves to mourn his departure the wife, Mary B. Wilson, one half brother, Louis Wilson, and a host of friends, who will miss this excellent man.

"I cannot say, I would not say. That he is dead but gone away. With a smile on his face and a wave of his hand, and He had traveled into an unknown land. And left us dreaming how very fair. It must needs be since he is there."

The pallbearers who had known and loved him during his life very tenderly bore the remains to the last resting place in the cemetery were: Frank Bauer, R. D. Stine, James C. Niday, John Liday, J. W. Woodward and Charles Garrison.

Union School Faculty for 1929-30.

The board of education have been very selective in the assembling of members of the faculty of the Union school for the year 1929-30 and have gotten an excellent corps of instructors. They are: James M. Wells, superintendent; Wm. H. Wells, principal; Miss Lois Maura, assistant principal; Mrs. Bessie Garritt, teaching from sixth to eighth grade; Miss Ruth Moore, teaching fourth and fifth grades; Miss Mary Chase, teaching the primary. The school year opens September 2nd, the first Monday in the month. E. A. Fletcher will be the care taker of the building.

Return to Home in West. The Misses Alice and Mary Chalfaut, who returned with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning from Burlington, Colorado, have been meeting many of their former friends and schoolmates, they having lived in Union and attended the school until they moved with their parents to Colorado and as they just graduated from high school their former acquaintances at Union were glad to see and congratulate them and entertain them in different ways. Saturday evening Miss Gussie Robb and Mrs. W. B. Banning entertained a number of the younger set at a garden party. The lawn was attractive with flowers and the guests were seated at three small tables after serving their own trays from the many good things on the dining table. After a jolly time of eating and talking and laughing, Miss Robb took the girls to a movie at the Union theater. Friday morning Mrs. R. E. Foster and daughters, Darath and Louise, entertained at breakfast for them. The other guests being the campfire girls. After a jolly time at this lovely home they and a half dozen other girls had dinner with Mrs. Cal Snavely. Sunday was spent in Omaha with friends and relatives who arranged a picnic dinner at one of the beautiful parks, then they departed on an evening train for their Colorado home, feeling they had enjoyed every moment of the time spent in Nebraska.

MERRY GO ROUND

Here is an opportunity to make money. I have a merry-go-round, complete with the exception of the tent to cover same. I will trade same for an auto, stock on horses, or what you offer. There are twenty-four ponies and sleighs for sixteen persons, making capacity of forty. Tell me what you have to exchange. E. E. Leech, Box 1, Route -- Union, Nebraska. as-1w&d.

Celebrated Second Birthday. Little James Frans, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Frans was guest of honor at a reception and merry evening on last Monday at the home of his parents when a number of friends and relatives were gathered to do him honor. He was enjoying the occasion very much as well as those who came to enjoy it with him.

Have Splendid Motor Trip. Fern Frans and Mildred Harris of Union and Lois Smith and Helen Weider of Lincoln returned from a motor trip to Spirit Lake and Lake Okoboji.

Their cottage (The Queen Fishers Nest) was located at Spirit Lake, a third of a mile from Templar Park. Two weeks were spent boating, swimming and sight seeing. We were granted all privileges at Templar Park where we played tennis, gold, shuffle board, etc.

One of our sight seeing trips was a tour twenty miles to Minnesota. We stopped at Jackson, Minnesota for lunch. The most thrilling experience was a speed boat ride in the "Teaser" on Okoboji which traveled one mile a minute. This ride was taken two days before the terrible boat collision of the "Thriller" and the "Zipper."

Pioneer Resident Celebrates 90th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Louise Fitch Observes Event at Union Where Family Gathers to Pay Honor

On last Sunday August 4th, a very pleasant gathering was held at the home of Mrs. Jennie Frans in Union the occasion being to celebrate the 90th birthday of Grandma Fitch. Mrs. Frans planned a little surprise for her mother by inviting her to her home to take dinner with her little great-grandson, Jimmy Frans, whose birthday is the 5th, when she arrived she found a number of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren had gathered to help celebrate.

A long table was spread on the lawn and was loaded with all the good things to eat, such as fried chicken, boiled ham, salads, pies, sandwiches, pie, ice cream and cake, served cafeteria style. A small table was provided for the guest of honor, which was adorned by a beautiful birthday cake, sent by Miss Pearl Dusey of Omaha, granddaughter, who could not be present. The children and grandchildren were invited but could not be present.

Those who were present were Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Robert Fitch and family of Plattsmouth, John Fitch of Nebraska, Rue H. Frans and family of Syracuse, J. I. Fitch, Grandma Fitch, Evaline Exaline of near Murray, Louis Fitch and wife, Exa Frans and family, Ed Lewis and wife and son, Ray Frans and family, Mrs. Jennie Frans, all of Union, Mrs. A. L. Becker and Mrs. Mary Allison called in the afternoon to extend congratulations.

The weather was all that could be desired, the shade was fine and each and every one enjoyed the day to its fullest extent. Mary Louise Lewis was born in Jackson county, Missouri, on August 4th, 1839, and was united in marriage with R. H. Fitch in Donavan county, Kansas in 1856. The husband passed on many years ago, but the children and grandchildren do her honor. Mrs. Fitch has struck many a hard blow to reclaim the state of Nebraska from a pioneer state, and make it the wonderful state it is, for she came here in 1863 and has lived here for sixty-six years they coming from Iowa Point, Kans.

By Gum! There's no Gum in PARCO

IF YOU'VE ever had trouble with a clogged carburetor screen, sticky valves or caked spark plugs it was probably due to "gum" content in your gasoline. Poorly refined gasolines are full of it. A new refining process perfected by Parco chemists (patents applied for) keeps Parco Gasoline definitely free from gum, even after long storage.

This highly refined, high grade motor fuel is not only free from serious "gum" residue but it approaches perfection in every other respect. It is chock full of extra miles because of its balanced distillation range. It starts quick, explodes fully and delivers maximum power. A marvelous gasoline.

BOOZE CASE IS HEARD

From Wednesday's Daily.—The case of the State of Nebraska vs. Alvin Anderson was the chief feature in the county court Tuesday and occupied the greater part of the day before Judge A. H. Duxbury.

The complaint against Mr. Anderson was that he sold on May 27th 1929, to Jacob Witt, well known resident of Salt Creek precinct, a bottle containing alcoholic beverage of a higher content than allowed by the law.

The matter has been pending for some time as the defendant in the case has been at the hospital at Lincoln taking treatment and only a few days ago was able to return home and have the case heard by the court.

The state was represented in the matter by County Attorney W. G. Kieck while Attorney H. A. Bryant of Wahoo was present to represent the defendant in the case. The state had as their witnesses, Mr. Witt, the man claimed to have purchased the liquor as well as his son, Russell Witt, who was the state's chief witness.

After the hearing of the evidence submitted Judge Duxbury found against the defendant and placed the punishment at a term of thirty days in the county jail.

The defendant through his attorney filed an appeal to the district court for trial at the November term and bond was supplied to cover the appeal.
