Will Have to Have Signs.

If things continue to get more congested in this way, there will have to be signs put up both in town and country advising people the country is full of Fords, for in truth the people should know about it. During the past few days the following have secured new Model A's and are well satisfied with them: Gusie Brubacher, coach; E. S. Tutt, coach; Gust Hollenberg, coach; A. C. Long, four door sedan; Lester Dill, coach; Joe Long, sedan; Henry Addleman, roadster; Chester Sporer, coach, and Martin Sporer a coupe.

W. C. T. U. MEETS

From Wednesday's Daily—The W. C. T. U. held a most delightful meeting on Monday afternoon at the Hotel Perkins where they were entertained by Mrs. Edward Brantner and Mrs. W. W. Wasley and a very fine program featured the day.

The ladies opened the afternoon with the singing of "Some Glad Day," the song of the Union and the meeting was then turned over to Mrs. George A. Weaver of Myard, who had charge of the devotions.

The program was filled with the greatest of interest and a large number of delightful readings and papers were given on subjects of the day.

Miss Janet Westover was heard in two numbers, "Grandma's Memory Quilt" and "Why You," Mrs. J. A. Capwell serving as the accompanist for the little reader.

Mrs. Charles A. Troop gave a fine discussion of the new liquor law of the state that was followed with a great deal of interest by the members of the party.

"12,000 Young People Pledge Support to President Hoover," was the title of a very interesting paper given by Mrs. Malcolm and which was much appreciated.

Mrs. W. T. Richardson of Myard gave a very interesting paper on the "Prohibition of Prohibition in Washington, D. C., after Six O'clock."

Gecil and James Costock favored the members of the party with two very clever piano duets and also James Costock gave a trumpet solo with Cecil Costock at the piano.

Little Miss Dorothy E. Duxbury was heard in a very cleverly given reading, "My Garden" that proved a fine feature of the program.

Miss Elizabeth Spangler in discussing current events told of the death recently of two fliers, responsibility for their death being placed at the door of drink.

Mrs. A. H. Duxbury gave a very interesting paper, "Prohibition Not Coming, It Is Here" and in which various phases of the question were discussed.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses that aided in the interest of the meeting.

DERAILMENT NEAR GILMORE

Traffic on the main line of the Missouri Pacific railroad was tied up this morning as the result of a derailment of a stock train on the Union Pacific line just north of Gilmore Junction and which blocked the line into Omaha for the M. P. The Union Pacific line is used from Gilmore on into Omaha by the Missouri Pacific and the result was that the northbound passenger train, No. 105 was held at La Platte and the passengers transferred to Burlington train No. 15 to be taken on into Omaha.

A party of Missouri Pacific officials which was on the train bound to the north, transferred at this city to the Burlington and were taken on into the metropolis.

An Acrostic

Women of the community,
Of which you are one,
May mould public opinion,
Energy so expended brings rich rewards—
Neighbors work together for the betterment of Plattsmouth.
(Service is a word pregnant with meaning.)

Club life gives you an opportunity to serve!

Let all Plattsmouth women Unite in this democratic organization.
Better homes and a better town will result.

SUMMER RESORT WEATHER

From Tuesday's Daily—The temperature this morning was of the kind that made the residents of the community feel that they had no need to seek relief in the mountains, the northern lakes or the far north. The temperature was 61 degrees this morning, the coolest for a great many months and which made everyone feel the welcome relief from the high temperature of last week.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE

The wedding of Miss Mary McDaniel and Lawrence Frederick occurred on Saturday afternoon at the court house, the young people motoring down from their home at Omaha and after securing the necessary license had Judge A. H. Duxbury perform the ceremony that made them as one. The wedding was witnessed by Miss Olive K. Ebert and Ivan McDaniel, also of Omaha.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Second Largest Club Camp in Nebr.

Cass, Otoe and Johnson counties can boast of having the second largest 4-H club camp in the state. A tent took an active part and each contributed his bit to help make this camp a success. This camp was held at Murray July 31 to August 2.

The program consisted of educational demonstrations on poster making by Mr. Gooding of the Extension Department; cement work by Horace Young of the Portland Cement company; canning by Miss Elsemann of the Kerr Glass company; dyeing by Miss Conner of the Rit Dye company; judging contests were conducted by Mr. Gooding and Miss Noyes of the extension department; health work by Miss Noyes; recreational games by Miss Tauchen, from the extension department; athletic tournament and swimming.

Wednesday evening Mr. Gooding had charge of vespers. This was followed by an evening's entertainment of harmonica and readings by Mr. Gooding and Miss Tauchen and moving pictures of club activities.

Thursday evening Miss Bally, assistant county agent from Otoe county, had charge of vespers. This was a stunt night and each group was responsible for a song, yell and a stunt. These were put on around a camp fire and much talent was displayed by club members.

Friday morning, Searl Davis of Plattsmouth, in his impressive way, talked to the club folks on the importance of preparation for life's work. He spoke of the part that club work plays in this preparation and stressed the importance of a lot of good reading. A whistling solo by Miss Bally and numbers by the harmonica band completed the morning program.

Following is a list of those attending: Johnson County, 6; Otoe County 38; Cass County 122; Lincoln County 6.

The following list is the Cass County leaders who attended and assisted:

From Weeping Water: Leader—Mrs. Mary E. Ranney with one club member; Leader—Miss Marjorie Joyce with four club members; Mrs. Ray Norris with five club members.

From Nehawka: Fifteen club members (No leader)—Miss Lucille Christensen with two club members.

From Greenwood: Leader—Mrs. Ted Carnes with four club members; Leader—Mrs. Fred Hoffman with three other club members.

From Eagle: Leader—Watson Norris with three club members.

From Union: Leader—Mrs. Chas. Atteberry with eleven club members; Also ten other club members.

From Plattsmouth: Leader—Miss Helen Johnson with four club members; Also three other club members.

From Avoca: Leader—Mrs. Ernest Norris.

From Cedar Creek: Leader—Miss Leola Heil and one club member.

From Elmwood: Leader—Miss Clarice Hottle with five club members.

From Murray: Ten club members. Other leaders and members attending part of the time were: Allen Vernon, Murray; Donald Belknap; Otto Schafer, Murray; John Kaffenberger, Plattsmouth, with one club member; Jesse Livingston, Weeping Water; Clarence Kintner, Weeping Water, with six club members; Ruth Ranney, Weeping Water and two other club members; Mrs. Chas. Atteberry, Union; Miss Evelyn Wolph Nehawka; Mrs. Conant Wolph, Nehawka, with six club members; Mrs. Carl Hoffman, Greenwood.

It was a tired bunch that rode camp Friday afternoon and the general parting remark was "Can we have another camp next year?"

We certainly appreciate the co-operation and courtesy shown us by the Murray people.

Lost and Found

Many articles, too numerous to mention, were found after breaking camp and are at the Farm Bureau office. Get in touch with this office if you lost anything while at camp.—L. R. Snipes, County Extension Agent, J. H. Baldwin, Asst. County Ext. Agent.

LETTER FROM OLD HOME

From Wednesday's Daily—Mrs. Hans Seiver of this city today received a letter sent from her old home at Hamburg, Germany, by her sister, Miss Mary Thode, the letter having arrived in the mail carried by the great airship, the "Graf Zeppelin" which arrived Sunday at the landing field at Lakehurst, New Jersey, and will leave this evening on the return to the home port in Germany. The letter was a part of the mail sent on the second voyage of the Graf Zeppelin, on which trip the airship was disabled and compelled to return to its port, holding the mail until this very successful voyage over the Atlantic to the new world.

MRS. MILLER POORLY

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt and daughters, Maxine and Frances and Mrs. Frank Brinkman motored to Alvo where they visited the H. J. Miller home for the day. Mrs. Miller being a sister of Mrs. Brinkman and aunt of Mrs. Cloidt. Mrs. Miller, wife of former county commissioner H. J. Miller, has been in poor health for a great many years and in the last few months she has failed a great deal and her condition has caused much or less apprehension to the family and friends.

WEEPING WATER

Chris Rasmussen and the good wife were visiting and also looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Monday.

Wm. Spangler and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, they driving over in their car for the occasion.

Mogens Johnson is walking with the assistance of a cane, on account of the very lame back which he has on account of a strain which he got a few days since.

Newton L. Grubbs and wife were over to Omaha on last Sunday where they were enjoying a visit with friends and relatives for the day, they driving over in their auto.

Nathan Everheart, 85, who has ever worked hard as a stone mason in and about Weeping Water is feeling rather poorly at his home in the eastern portion of Weeping Water.

John Cole and wife accompanied by Mrs. Walter Cole, mother of John, were visiting and looking after business matters in Omaha on last Tuesday, they driving over in their auto.

Godlieb Rehmeier and the good wife are visiting for the present week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Taylor and husband, south of Alvo, where all are enjoying the visit very much.

B. F. Wiles of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday, he coming to visit with his brother, Isaac Wiles, who has been rather poorly for some time past, and who is kept to his home most of the time.

Harold Baker was a business visitor in Beatrice on last Tuesday, where he was in consultation with the Black Brothers milling company, regarding the handling of their products in Weeping Water and territory.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stickley of Lincoln, the latter daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Teegarden, of Weeping Water were spending the day on last Sunday at the home of her parents, where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Rev. G. R. Birch pastor of the Congregational church of Weeping Water, accompanied by the wife and daughter departed early this week for Brule in their car, where they will visit for a time with friends and relatives.

W. D. Baker and son, proprietors of the Baker Cream station have a car load of chick feed coming. Many varieties and the laying mash which they handle is now being fed to some thirteen hundred hens in the vicinity of Weeping Water.

O. A. Johnson has been feeling rather poorly for some time past and was over to Omaha on last Tuesday to consult a specialist about the condition of his health. During the time he cannot be at the safe, Elmer Loberg is assisting at the safe.

Martin Johnson departed last week for California, where he and wife will expect to enjoy a long visit, they driving and accompanying Oscar Domingo, who also departed about the middle of last week. They will expect to be away for some two months.

On Wednesday C. E. Pool and wife accompanied by their two daughters, Misses Hazel and Eloise, and Miss Agatha Colbert, departed for Niagara Falls, driving in their car where they will expect to visit, including the trip over and back for some four weeks.

While working on a spring of a photograph, N. L. Grubbs had the misfortune to have one of his hands injured by the broken spring which has greatly interfered with his work at the blacksmith shop. He will secure a man to assist and to catch up with the work which has crowded since he has had his hand injured.

Henry Holman has purchased a new two door sedan of the Universal Model, a car which he is liking very much and with the heavy sales of this excellent car, the quote of the Cole Motor company has been used, which was ninety, but arrangements have been effected for the getting of more of these excellent cars, which have proven so popular.

E. E. Moore was in the country on last Tuesday afternoon making some needed repairs on a tractor for Wm. Beatty, the tractor had a broken part which could not be brought to town to have the repairs made, and like Mohamit and the mountain, as the mountain could not come to Mohamit he had to go to the mountain and so also had Mr. Moore to go to the country.

C. J. Eigaard recently purchased one of the celebrated standard sedans of the biggest and better six Chevrolets of the Dowler brothers and which will make him a most comfortable and convenient means of transportation. Wm. Hunter also received a coach, while James H. Keatch got a coupe. These took all that the Dowler brothers had on hand, but they had another car load on the way which were unloaded on their arrival and placed on their show floors. Better drop around and see them.

Well Appointed Funeral Home

W. L. Hobson and son, Richmond, are having some very important changes made in the new home which they have recently purchased for their funeral business. T. J. Jamison is building an elevator on the north which will lead to the upper story and will greatly facilitate the handling of the stock as well as the remains when necessary. There are three rooms on the lower floor which are thrown together for chapel use, and a work room on the south, where all the work is done, and a closet in which is kept the fluids which are used in the course of their work. Then on the north is the slumber room where the remains are allowed to repose on a couch until placed in the casket for the funeral and burial.

Parking space on the north is reserved for the funeral coach, and on the east is space for the autos of the friends of the departed. French doors lead from the chapel to the elevator and where the casket and remains are placed in the funeral coach to be taken to the cemetery. Mr. Hobson and son are having new entrance steps and a new walk constructed surrounding and in front of the funeral home which greatly enhances the appearance.

For Sale. Fordson tractor and plows in fine shape, also one team of horses. Call or see J. W. Kintner, Weeping Water, Nebr. 21WW

Mrs. Mary Wulf Deceased.

Mrs. Mary Wulf, wife of the late Fred Wulf of near Eagle, passed away at her home near Eagle on last Friday August 2nd, at the age of a little over 76 years, she having been born June 21st, 1853. She leaves to mourn her departure five sons, they being William, Rudolph, Frederick, Victor and George, while the daughters were Miss Mary Wulf who made her home with the mother, Mrs. Fred Oberle, both of Eagle. The funeral was held from the North Lutheran church of Eagle of which she was a devoted member, and the interment made at the Eagle cemetery, east of Eagle on O street. In her death the children lose a very devoted mother and Eagle one of its very best citizens who was ever ready to serve to the utmost all who were needing any ministrations.

Returned From the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cole, who were spending some time near Oskosh Nebraska, which is near the western portion of the state, where they enjoyed a visit for some four weeks, and where they were the guests of three daughters, who make their home in that neighborhood, returned home last week and report having had an excellent time while away.

Accepts a New Position.

Wm. Van Every who has been the faithful and efficient salesman in the C. H. Gibson store, and where they have gotten along the very best, has accepted an offer for work in another line, that of selling oils and gasoline for the Consumers Oil company of Council Bluffs and will conduct the wagon out of Weeping Water for them.

Will See the World.

No, not all of it, for that would be impossible, but they, Wallie Johnson and his friend, Neal Manakera of Casper, Wyoming, who is visiting here with Mr. Johnson, departed early this week for the east and will see on their tour, Kansas City and St. Louis, where they will visit for a time, then they will be going east and south and finally visiting at Washington, Boston, New York City, and spending some time at Niagara Falls, and returning via the northern route to the west. They will expect to be away for about four weeks.

Entertained for Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mogensen entertained at their beautiful country home on last Sunday and had their guests for the occasion, and for the excellent dinner which Mrs. Mogensen had prepared, the following friends, who also assisted in making the day a most pleasant one, Harold Thomason and family, Carl Peterson and wife, and daughter, Miss Olga, Fred Rehmeier and family, Rasmus Jensen, Henry Mogensen, Weldon Maxwell and family, consisting of wife and son.

WILL DEPART ON VACATION

From Wednesday's Daily—County Attorney and Mrs. W. G. Kieck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt and daughter, Maxine and Frances and Miss Madeline Cloidt, will leave Thursday for vacation trip to the northern lakes. The party will make the trip by auto and go from here to Henning, Minnesota, where they will enjoy a short stay at East Battle Lake and later go to Itasca Indian reservation where they will spend a short time at the source of the Mississippi river. They are anticipating a very fine trip and the gentlemen at least are planning on doing plenty of fishing while in the northland.

NEW STREET MARKINGS

From Wednesday's Daily—Chairman Kunsmann of the streets, alleys and bridges committee was engaged yesterday in seeing that markings of highway No. 75 along the streets of the city were installed and placed along the intersections on Sixth street where the travelers find more or less confusion in keeping to the highway, as many either drive clear over the South Sixth street hill or east to the foot of Main street. The signs installed will relieve a great deal of the annoyance caused to the traveling public and enable them to stick to the highway in better shape.

RECEIVES POST CARD

From Wednesday's Daily—County Attorney W. G. Kieck received a post card today that had been brought over on the Graf Zeppelin, being sent by a cousin of Mr. Kieck, Louis Zimmer. The post card was originally sent over on the second trip of the Graf, but the airship was compelled to abandon the trip and the mail was accordingly held until the present successful voyage as the letters and cards are largely in the nature of greetings from Germans to the American friends and relatives.

MOTORS TO THE EAST

From Tuesday's Daily—This morning Mrs. Merle Rainey departed for her home in New York City and was accompanied by Miss Clara Rainey who will spend a few weeks with her brother and wife in the great eastern city. They were accompanied by Newton Sullivan who is to visit at Toledo, Ohio, with another sister, Mrs. Frank Cross, formerly Miss Marie Sullivan. The party are anticipating a very pleasant visit and to enjoy the many points of interest in the territory that they will travel through on their way to the east.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Miss Anna Heisel and Mrs. E. A. Taylor who have just recently returned from a vacation at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, where besides meeting former residents of Plattsmouth, they also met some prominent people of the world of artists. Among those who they had the distinction of meeting was Mr. J. L. Wolfe of Burlington, Kansas. Mr. Wolfe is author of about three hundred poems and is very well known in literary circles.

Another was Miss Elizabeth Lynn, age fourteen, who sings for the radio and whose voice has attracted the notice of many. Mrs. Lynn offered to sing for the Plattsmouth ladies.

Another was Lewis Stone, famous moving picture actor who was at the Springs for his health and who was traveling incognito.

William Peterson a former Plattsmouth boy is now located at the Springs. Mr. Peterson is very well known around that part of the country as an inventor. Besides this he is one of the most popular men in the city. He operates the best and most sanitary bath house at the Springs, giving sulphur and salt baths and making lots of friends and a great reputation for himself. He is married to one of the prominent ladies of the Springs, and they have a wonderful daughter, Miss Doris Peterson, who recently graduated from the largest nursing home in Kansas City.

INSTALL NEW REFRIGERATOR

The Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co., have just completed the installing of one of the latest types of the General Electric refrigerator in the L. B. Egenberger grocery store. The new refrigerator is one of the best that the General Electric supplies and is of an unusually large size and one of the only two of its type in the state, one having been installed a few days ago in the Omaha Country club house. The new machine is ample to care for the needs of the store in handling milk, meat, fruits and vegetables. The refrigerator requires a low temperature and is a most attractive addition to the store. Mr. Rea, manager of the local office of the light and power company and Mr. Gabriel, sales manager are very proud of the handsome new refrigerator. It will be a feature of the Egenberger store.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Ross Baker, well known barber of this city is still at St. Joseph, Missouri, where he was called yesterday by a message announcing the serious condition of Mrs. Baker, who has been taken there on Sunday to be placed in a hospital for treatment. Mrs. Baker has not been well since the family arrived here to make their home and her condition grew such that it was decided to have her taken to the hospital in the former town of St. Joseph. No word has been received from Mr. Baker as yet but the condition of the wife at the time that he left here was most grave.

VISITS OLD FRIENDS

Rev. F. M. Drulliner, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, for a number of years and who has since been in charge of a number of the churches in the Nebraska district, was here yesterday in company with his son, Tracy Drulliner, who lives at Indianapolis, Indiana, where he is engaged in a large wholesale clothing house. When the Drulliner family were resident here, Tracy was a very small boy and his associates of childhood days has, like himself, grown into manhood and womanhood estate and engaged in their various spheres of life.
