

A Wonderful Week's Program

—at the—

--Parmele!--

We have promised to run some big pictures during the Festival Season—and here they are—

Tonite—

"The Night Watch!"

Trapped in her lover's cabin as the war ships move into battle—why was she there? Who killed Capt. Bramberg? Why was this beautiful wife afraid to tell? See the answer in Beautiful Billy Dove's most gorgeous screen creation—made by the director of "The Yellow Lily."

Tuesday Only!

A big feature comedy—Charles Murray in—

"Do Your Duty!"

Charlie Murray goes into the underworld to cop all the laughs—and tears, too. Just like "McFadden's Flats." You don't know whether to laugh or cry when a beautiful brunette almost vamps Charlie out of the Police Department. It's by far the best picture he ever made—don't miss it.

And Remember This

The admission prices to all the above big shows will remain just the same—

Children 10c—Adults 25c or we will admit—

The Entire Family—

Father—Mother—and all of the children for—

—Only Fifty Cents—

Death of Old Time Resident of Elmwood

Henry Brockman, Well Known Throughout County Is Laid to Rest Near His Old Home

Death has removed one of our best and most substantial citizens. Henry Brockman answered the final call on last Friday, after a brief illness. He has been a resident of Cass county and Elmwood for a good many years, having some of the very best land, one of his farms being located just south of Elmwood, where he made his home. He was an industrious, successful and progressive farmer. In the removal of Mr. Brockman by death, one of our best citizens has gone and he will be greatly missed.

Following is an outline of Mr. Brockman's life:

Henry Brockman, Sr., was born in Itzehoe, Holstein, Germany, June 9th, 1864. He had been ill since March, but was able to be about the farm and look after his affairs until Monday, August 5th, when he was taken with a stroke of paralysis, and was taken to a hospital at Lincoln, for treatment, and passed away at 5:40 on August 9th, 1929, at the age of 65 years and 2 months.

He came to Castle Garden, N. Y., April 17th, 1883, and later came west and settled near Avoca, Nebraska. He was married to Minnie Gollner, at Avoca, on March 3rd, 1892. Here he worked as a carpenter until 1905, and then moved to a farm near Palmyra. In 1914, the family moved to the farm a half mile south of Elmwood, where they resided at the time of Mr. Brockman's death.

He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran church in Germany, and of which church he was a member until he joined the Methodist church in Elmwood in 1929. He leaves to mourn his departure besides his wife, Minnie Brockman, eleven children: Mrs. Herman Brinkman, of Palmyra; Mrs. Ray Futtiman, of Unadilla; Mrs. Henry Rockman, Jr., of Humbolt; Dewey Brockman, of Caldwell, Idaho; Mrs. H. J. Fisher, Lincoln; Henry, Jr., Holman Everett, Arthur and Fred Brockman of Elmwood. Also seventeen grandchildren, three sisters and two brothers in Germany, and one brother, Chris Brockman of Burwell, Nebraska.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon from the Methodist church, conducted by a former pastor, Rev. Victor West of Lincoln. Interment was made in the Elmwood cemetery.—Elmwood Leader-Expo.

The members of the Poverty Point Pig club were taken to Weeping Water Friday by Mrs. Frank Ross. There they were examined so they could be entered in the health contest.

Mrs. W. A. Jones, Blanche and Clinton and Mildred, and Roscoe Johnson drove to Omaha Sunday to visit Clyde Jones and report him as improving nicely. He will soon be able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Winget, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Winget, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rager, Mr. and Mrs. Will Kershaw and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kershaw and family spent Monday at the Bert Rager home south of Ashland.

The Poverty Point Women's club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Ross. Each member brought in a covered dish. Also there were two freezers of ice cream. The day was spent socially and all present report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeFrees and children, Marie and Gilbert, Mr. Stern Huff and children all of Nebraska City, and Mr. Virgil Brown were Sunday guests at the Melvin Baum home. Mrs. DeFrees and Mrs. Baum are sisters.

Mr. Graham resumed his duties as agent at the Burlington depot Monday after an enforced vacation of three weeks due to an accident while putting up hay on his farm two miles west of town, which resulted in two broken bones in his left hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kershaw and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kershaw and family left Tuesday for their home at Silver Creek after spending several days at the William Winget and Bert Winget homes. Mrs. Will Kershaw was formerly Daisy Rager and is a sister of William Winget.

COLORED BOYS SENT HOME

From Thursday's Daily—This morning Officer Joe Hadraba gathered in two young colored boys who had come to this city from Pacific Junction and who were found near the Burlington station. The boys stated that they were out on a little journey but on reaching Pacific Junction decided that they would prefer being home and accordingly had come to this city en route to their home. The boys were sent on to Omaha and home by the police.

MYNARD COMMUNITY PICNIC

The Mynard community picnic will be held on Thursday, August 22nd at the E. H. Spangler grove. Basket dinner at noon. A program of music, entertainment and games will be given in the afternoon. Ice cream and cold drinks may be secured all day. Everyone is invited to be in attendance. 128-129 St.

Wednesday Night—

Last Wednesday night the special feature picture at the Parmele was attended by a larger crowd than has been in the Theatre on a Wednesday evening—for a long time—

The fact that the entire family is now being admitted for 50 cents is no doubt partly responsible for the increased attendance—but more reason than price alone is the fact that Big feature pictures are being shown—

This WEDNESDAY we are showing a picture that has been drawing large crowds—night after night—in the big theatres—a picture you could sit and see two or three times—and enjoy every moment—The scenes are as beautiful as the story—the greater part of them being laid in India—The story is called—

"The Wheel of Life"

and Features Richard Dix—as a British Soldier—

There will be a complete show—after the band concert

Don't fail to come to Plattsmouth WEDNESDAY—if you can't come during the day—come in the evening.
