Funeral of H. F. Gansemer Largely Attended

Hundreds Gather at Late Home in Mt. Pleasant Precinct for Last Tribute to Friend.

The funeral services of the late Herman F. Gansemer were held on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at the late home northwest of Murray, being one of the largest funerals ever held in the county and attesting the high respect and esteem that the departed had been held by his friends from every part of Cass county.

Long before the hour of the services the friends commenced to gather and the vicinity of the home was packed with cars that had brought the friends to give a last measure of respect and to take a last farewell.

The services at the home were conducted by Rev. A. Lentz, pastor of the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church, who paid a tribute to the memory of the departed and brought to the sorrowing relatives and friends the comfort and hope of the future meeting when the partings of earth are past.

During the services the choir of the Eight Mile Grove church composed of Mrs. A. Lentz, Mrs. Julius Engelkemeier, Arthur Hill and Glen Kraeger gave two of the old and loved hymns. Miss Thelma Kreager served as the accompanist. L. D. Hiatt of Plattsmouth, a close friend of the departed gave a solo number, "Abide With Me," in which he was accompanied by E. H. Wescott at the piano.

At the conclusion of the services at the home the funeral cortege drove to this city where the body was laid to the last long rest in Oak Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were six of the nephews of Mr. Gansemer, Lester, Clell and Leo Gansemer of Murray, Frank Pollard and Harry Knabe of Nehawka and Joe Habel of near Weeping Water.

A number from this city were gathered at the cemetery here to attend the brief commitment service at the grave.

In the sudden and unexpected calling away from his activities of life of Herman Gansemer, the community has suffered the loss of one of its outstanding citizens and one who has left behind him the memory of a high standard of character, one that will serve as an inspiration to his family and friends in the future years. Few men have possessed the friendship of so many from all parts of the county as did Mr. Gansemer and it was his pleasant and kindly personality and rugged honesty that won for him the high respect of all and endeared him to those who had the privilege of being numbered among the close friends and associates in the years that he has made his home in Cass county. To the loved ones of his family circle he has left the priceless heritage of a loving memory of a kindly husband and father to sustain them in the hours of separation. Truly Herman Gansemer was the true measure of a man and one whose living has given to the community in which he was a resident, a splendid citizen.

POPULAR GIRL MARRIED

From Tuesday's Daily—The wedding of Miss Genevieve Goodman of this city to Mr. Earle Russell of Arnold, Nebraska, took place on Friday, September 6th at Omaha, announcement received here today states. The wedding was a very quiet one and the bridal couple were unattended.

The bride wore brown velvet with hat and shoes to match while the groom wore the conventional dark suit.

Mrs. Russell is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school and spent her girlhood in this city where she has a very large circle of friends, after her school work here she attended the University of Nebraska and has in the past few years has taught in the Nebraska schools, being located at Arnold for the past two years.

Mr. Russell is the state agent for the Mountain State Life Insurance Co., and is located at Arnold. He is a graduate of the Fargo, North Dakota, high school and has attended the University of Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell departed at once after the wedding for Arnold where they have a home awaiting them in that pleasant little city.

CONTINUES QUITE POORLY

From Monday's Daily—The many friends over the city of Mrs. J. C. Coleman will regret to learn that this estimable lady is quite poorly, suffering from attacks of heart trouble and which has made necessary her going to Omaha where she is taking treatment and is spending a short time at the home of her sisters and who are assisting in her care. Mr. Coleman is spending a part of the time at Omaha assisting in the care of the wife. Sunday her condition seemed some what better and gave hopes that she might improve soon and be able to return home.

CARS HAVE SMASH UP

From Monday's Daily—Yesterday morning a small auto smashup occurred at the intersection of Granite street and Chicago avenue when the auto of Attorney C. A. Rawls and the oil truck of L. McCarty crashed. Mr. McCarty had been delivering supplies to his station near Murray and was returning home, driving north on Chicago avenue and when nearing Granite street saw the car of Mr. Rawls come east on Granite street and he supposed to turn on north into the avenue but Mr. Rawls was going on east on Granite and accordingly in order to avoid a serious accident Mr. McCarty also turned into Granite street, saving a bad wreck and the only damage was a slightly damaged side of the rear portion of the car of Mr. Rawls where the side of the truck had swiped it.

J. V. Simons to Take Place in Detroit School

Splendid Offer in Large City Technical School Is Accepted by Local Principal

J. V. Simons, who has for the past two years served as the principal of the Plattsmouth high school, has received a very flattering offer from the Cass Technical high school of Detroit, Michigan, which was such a distinct advancement that the local board of education did not feel they should deprive Mr. Simons of the opportunity and accordingly he will be released to take up the new work.

The offer is in the biology department of the school, Mr. Simons having a masters degree in this line of teaching and will take up his work in this department as soon as possible.

The Cass school is one of the largest in the country and the offer coming to the Plattsmouth school man is one that shows the high educational qualifications of Mr. Simons and his standing among the teachers of the country.

With Mr. Simons leaving the city at once, the work of the principalship of the school has fallen to R. Foster Patterson, assistant principal and head of the social science department of the school, who will act in this capacity until the meeting of the board of education to discuss their policy in regard to the principalship.

The many friends of Mr. Simons in the city will regret to see him leave the city but will be pleased to learn that he has received such a splendid offer from the large eastern school. It is fortunate for the school that they have one so capable as Mr. Patterson to take up the work of the conduct of the school room and the high school work.

HOLD A FINE MEETING

From Monday's Daily—Yesterday afternoon the Standard Bearers of the First Methodist church met at the church in a very interesting session and which was enjoyed to the utmost by all of the members, there being some eighteen in attendance. The regular business was taken care of by the ladies and the members of the class then proceeded to name Miss Grace Shawhan, one of the members of the local teaching force of the school as assistant leader of the class, which is under the leadership of Mrs. E. W. Wescott.

Miss Shawhan is a former supervisor of kindergarten work in one of the mission schools in China where she spent five years in this work, training the native girls in the kindergarten work and which they later took up among their own races. The many interesting facts of the foreign mission work was discussed by the new assistant leader.

It was decided to have the meetings held at 3:30 p. m. on the second Sunday of each month at the church and that refreshments would be served at the meetings.

Any young girl of high school age who is interested and would like to study the foreign mission work of the church is cordially invited to attend these meetings and enjoy them.

YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED

The Methodist church parsonage of this city was the scene of two very pretty weddings on Saturday and Sunday, the wedding of Harold E. Layman and Miss Dora Wegener of Louisville taking place on Saturday evening while on Sunday Rev. Sortor was called upon to unite in the bonds of wedlock Miss Esther Olson of Hancock, Iowa, and Gerald M. Johnson of Harland, Iowa.

WILL ATTEND NEBRASKA

George Swatek, graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1927, who has been engaged in working for the past two years at Omaha will enter the University of Nebraska on next Monday to take up his work in the great school. Mr. Swatek was one of the highest ranking students in his class and with his marked ability should make a very fine record at the University.

Local Firm to Help Equip New Bellevue College

Gas System to be Installed by Bestor & Swatek at the New Junior College at Once.

The new junior college at Bellevue, which opens next Monday for the fall term, will have in its laboratory a fine up-to-date Skellgas system, which is to be installed by the firm of Bestor & Swatek in the college at once and will be ready for the opening of school.

The new college, which is just starting in its work, has received a very large number of applications from the young men and women in this section of the state, who find there a school that can care for their first two years of college work and which permits those who reside in the vicinity of the college to attend college and also remain at home and at a great saving.

The college takes the students the first year from their leaving high school and carries them to their junior year, when they are fitted to enter the larger colleges and universities.

The staff of Bellevue will be headed by C. A. Spacht, former instructor here in the high school, as the president of the college and among the directors are E. H. Wescott and Rev. H. G. McCuskey.

The local firm will give the college a fine up-to-date gas system that will make it possible to operate the laboratory of the college in the best of shape and have this part of the school all ready to function when the opening comes on next Monday.

GIVES SHOWER FOR BRIDE

A lovely miscellaneous shower was given on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Anna Maria at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Klemm. Mrs. Klemm being an aunt of Miss Martia. The bride-to-be was showered with many beautiful gifts and well wishes for the forthcoming happy occasion. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served that aided in the completion of a very pleasant time.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

From Tuesday's Daily—This morning Judge Allen J. Beeson, for some twenty years county judge of Cass county, arrived from his home on the Pacific coast for a short visit with the old friends and to look after some business affairs for a few days. The genial jurist has still the same hearty handclasp and greeting for his friends and the alluring visions of the Pacific coast bathing beaches have not blinded him to the old time friends. Judge Beeson, who resides at Los Angeles reports his wife and daughters and their families as doing nicely and that Mrs. Morgan Waybright, one of the old time residents here and aunt of Mrs. Beeson, is still hale and hearty and enjoying life very much. Judge Beeson has been in Omaha since Saturday and is a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Herbert H. Cotton and family.

Mrs. Anna Horn Passes Away at Colorado Home

Body Was Brought Here Wednesday and Services Held at St. Paul's Church.

From Tuesday's Daily—Mrs. Anna Margaretha Horn died early this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rose Kunzmann near Weldona. "Grandma" Horn, as she was affectionately known thruout the Weldon valley, was 83 years old at the time of her death.

The body is at the Acre-Robinson Memorial chapel where it may be viewed by friends Tuesday until 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. It will be sent to Plattsmouth, Neb., for burial.

Anna Margaretha Nickel was born in Sambach, Germany, Jan. 21, 1846. She joined the Lutheran church at the age of 14 years in 1860 and she adhered faithfully to that denomination until her death.

In her young womanhood she came to America, making Pekin, Ill., her home where she lived with her aunt, Mrs. Phil Nickel, and her oldest sister, Mrs. Phil Eidmann.

In 1867 she was united in marriage to Mr. George Horn of Pekin, Ill. To this marriage seven children were born. They are Fred Horn of Beaver City, Neb., Louisa Rummel of Beaver City, Mrs. Rose Kunzmann of Weldona, Clara Eshelman of Franklin, Neb., John Horn of Goodrich, Colo., and a son named Peter who died in Illinois when an infant. George, another son, died in Denver at the age of 20 years.

Of the family of six brothers and sisters of Mrs. Horn, only two survive here. They are Mr. Peter Nickel of Elmwood, Neb., and Mrs. Lena Hartman of Sambach, Germany.

Brothers and sisters who preceded her in death were Leonard Nickel of Sambach, Germany, Mrs. Phil Eidmann of Stuart, Neb., and Peter and Phil Nickel of Elmwood, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Horn farmed south of Pekin, Ill., until 1886 when they moved to Plattsmouth, Neb., where they continued to engage in farming. In 1905 they purchased a farm in Furnas county, Nebraska, south of Beaver City, where they lived until Mr. Horn's death in 1915.

After her husband's death she lived with her oldest daughter, Mrs. Louise Rummel, and her youngest daughter, Mrs. Clara Eshelman, until June, 1927, when she came to live with her daughter, Mrs. Rose Kunzmann of Weldona.

Grandma Horn was a great lover of children and spent a great number of her later days trying to please the nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed by them as they all loved her. She also leaves many friends and relatives to mourn her death.

Mrs. Horn had been bedfast for four months and was always loving and gentle toward the ones who cared for her in her last hours.—Fort Morgan (Colo.) Times.
