Well Known Young People Announce Marriage

Miss Delores Wiles and Frederick Trilety of This City Were Wedded a Year Ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wiles are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Delores Jane, to Frederick Paul Trilety, of this city, a year ago on Sept. 28, 1928.

That the marriage was kept secret a year, the news comes as a great surprise to the many friends and relatives of these two popular young people.

It was desired to keep the marriage a secret as both parties were students, and wished to finish their respective courses, Mrs. Trilety being in nurse-training at the Nebraska M. E. School of Nursing, and Mr. Trilety attending the University of Omaha.

Mrs. Trilety is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wiles, west of Plattsmouth, and was born and reared in this vicinity. Both of these young people were P. H. S. graduates and their marriage is a culmination of a romance of high school days.

Mrs. Trilety while attending school in the class of '26 here, was one of the active members of her class, and a member of the P. H. S. orchestra, playing the double bass cello for three consecutive years.

Fred Trilety is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trilety, and is held in high esteem by all who know him. He was a member of the class of 1925 of the Plattsmouth high school. He is at present, engaged with an electrical appliance company at Omaha, and they have established their home at 3159 Davenport St., Omaha, Neb.

SEEKING AID FOR HOME

The local committee that is supporting the efforts of the Nebraska Children's Home society, is preparing to start a drive in this community for donations that may be used in the home and which will serve the purpose of helping care for the little ones who are residing at the home.

The local committee is composed of Dr. R. P. Westover, president; Rex Young, vice-president; Mrs. William Baird, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. J. E. Wiles and Miss Alpha Peterson as the members of the executive committee.

This committee this year is not making a drive for financial aid for the home but are soliciting donations that may be desired to be made by the residents of this community of potatoes, eggs, apples, canned fruit, carrots, cabbage and all winter vegetables, all of which can be used very nicely at the Home and assist in the problem of seeing that the little folks are properly fed and cared for.

This Nebraska Children's Home Society was incorporated in the state in 1893 and has been the means of placing thousands of children in suitable homes over the state in the years of their useful service. This society is endorsed by the service councils over the state and by religious organizations. It is not a denominational organization of kind and children of all faiths are taken into its care.

The society maintains its receiving home at 3549 Fontenelle boulevard, Omaha and here the children are cared for until they can be placed in homes that are approved by the board of the society.

The last report of the public welfare department of the state gives this Home the credit of placing forty-one per cent of the children out of the total in the state who were charges.

The campaign will be for one week, those having donations may leave the same at the Wells Gracery on South 6th street.

POLICE PICK UP STRANGER

From Saturday's Daily—Last evening shortly after 8 o'clock Officers Pickrel and Hadraba found a stranger parked in a garage near the plant of the Plattsmouth Motor Co., and in the car occupied by the man who gave the name of Bob Strickler, was found two wrecking bars and a small sack saw. The man was taken to the city jail and pending an investigation of the matter and to locate, if possible, if the man had any record at other points or was wanted elsewhere. The man was using a baby Overland car that bore a Montana license plate, although the man claimed to be a resident of Kansas. He had no papers indicating his ownership of the car and this has led the officers to hold the man while inquiries can be made.

It was developed that the hacksway was purchased in the city on Friday afternoon. As the man has committed no offense here beyond the suspicious circumstances attaching to his being found, unless some trace of his being wanted elsewhere is developed he will be released.

Judge Troup, Veteran Jurist, Hit by Auto

Omaha Judge Well Known Here, Probably Fatally Injured on Wednesday Afternoon

District Judge Alexander C. Troup, aged 77, of Omaha, one of the oldest members of the district bench and well known in this city, is at the Lord Lister hospital at Omaha, suffering from probably fatal injuries received Wednesday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Elmer R. Porter, wife of Dr. E. R. Porter of 302 South Forty-Ninth street.

Judge Troup became well acquainted in this city where he held court for several weeks in the November term of 1923 when many of the cases arising from the indictments returned by the grand jury were tried, he presiding in the trial of the case against former sheriff C. D. Quinton and William Grebe. He is serving his twenty-first year on the Douglas county bench.

The condition of the aged judge at the Omaha hospital given as critical although he was reported as "resting." The injuries comprised a broken thigh and severe body injuries.

Porter said she had driven Dr. Porter to work and was returning west on Farnam street to her home at 302 South Forty-ninth street.

"Judge Troup ran across the street for the street car, like a 15-year-old boy," she said. "I didn't have a second's time to stop the car."

Mrs. Porter said her auto knocked Judge Troup about 15 feet. She stopped her auto and ran into the Colonial hotel to telephone Dr. Porter. In the meantime she had taken Judge Troup to the hospital and she drove home.

Second Version Given Mrs. Troup, who with her son, Wallace, rushed out of the hotel and took the judge to a hospital in an ambulance, denied Mrs. Porter's version of the accident.

"Witnesses in the hotel told me Mrs. Porter's auto was not going west on Farnam street, but went south on Thirty-eight and turned onto Farnam, striking the judge as he was walking across the street," said Mrs. Troup.

"They told me the judge could not have seen the auto, coming from behind, without turning around, and that he was in no way at fault. They said he was dragged 30 feet by the auto."

"The judge, who is 77 years of age, never ran."

HAPPY HUNDRED SUPPERS

The committee that has charge of the Happy Hundred suppers sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce once each month during the fall and winter, has sent out letters to some 125 of the local men in which they are asked to signify their desire to have these suppers continued. The committee is asking that the men who wish to have the Happy Hundred supper continued signify by sending in the amount of $3 to cover the cost of the first three of the suppers.

These suppers will now be in their seventh year and have proven very successful in every way and it is hoped by the committee that the response will be such as to justify the continuing of them.

It is felt that there should be enough interested to take care of the list for the first three suppers and if this is done the committee will be willing to go ahead and take up the remaining three later but unless there is a generous response by Monday evening the committee will probably abandon the plans for the continuation of the suppers.

The reservations may be sent to L. O. Minor, treasurer of the committee.

EXTENDING ROAD WORK

The paving and surfacing program on highway No. 75 from Omaha to Union has been carried along until the large part of the work has reached this point, the highway from the Junction of Chicago avenue and the Louisville road and south to the way and Lincoln avenue being now closed and being placed in readiness for the paving, the tiling and grading being carried on now to get the road in shape.

The highway paving has been completed from Union to the Murray corner and the pavers have started and the Glen Perry farm south and have gotten within a short distance of the Murray corner, expecting to have this all completed this week and then starting on the north end of the project from Plattsmouth.

The work of making this highway into a permanent paved roadway has proven a little inconvenient to the traveling public but when completed it will be well worth all of the inconvenience that it may have caused anyone.

SUFFERS A SEVERE FALL

From Friday's Daily—Mrs. R. W. Cavender is confined to her home today as the result of a very serious fall that she sustained yesterday afternoon, when she fell from the porch of her apartments in the Wetekamp building.

Mrs. Cavender had received a request to call Mrs. Amelia Wynn, a neighbor, living in the adjoining building, to the telephone and it was while on this mission that the accident occurred.

The roof of the rear of the Wynn building is somewhat lower than that of the porch of the Wetekamp building and as Mrs. Cavender leaned on the railing to call Mrs. Wynn, the railing suddenly gave way and she fell some six feet to the roof of the Wynn building and just escaped getting on the ground some ten feet farther to the ground and where she no doubt would have received fatal injuries.

Mrs. Cavender was able to call although she was unable to move and her son, Ray Cavender, working at the Smith & Platt garage heard her call and ran to the home to find the mother lying helpless on the roof. Mr. Cavender was called from the barber shop and the injured lady carried into her home and medical aid called. It was found that there was no bones broken or internal injuries although the patient is very sore from the effects of the fall and will have to remain in bed for some time.

Murray Robbers Given Sentence to Penitentiary

Ernest Verhule Receives Seven Years and Thomas Hunt Three Years at Hard Labor

From Saturday's Daily—This morning the district court was occupied in hearing the charges against Ernest Verhule of this city and Thomas Hunt alias "Thomas Martin," both men being charged with the crime of breaking and entering of the store of Earl Lancaster at Murray on the night of October 13th.

The two prisoners had entered a plea of guilty in the county court and waived preliminary hearing and on being arraigned in the district court renewed their plea of guilty and received their sentence, Verhule receiving seven years in the state penitentiary and Hunt three years at hard labor.

The first of the men to be arraigned was Ernest Verhule and a pathetic note of the proceedings was the fact that his aged mother with her snowy hair and partially crippled condition was present in the court room and stood with the son a part of the time as he was reciting his story of the crime.

Verhule stated at the opening that he had no reason to offer for not receiving his sentence but asked the court to be as lenient as possible on account of the aged mother. In questioning by Judge Begley, Verhule stated that he had served a previous term in the state penitentiary of Nebraska for two years and had been released three years ago. He gave his occupation as that of linotype setter and that he had been working for the Omaha Linotype Co. prior to his getting into the robbery at Murray. He gave his age as twenty-five years and his home residence as this city. He stated that he had been out with another party drinking quite heavily on the night of the robbery and that no plan of the robbery and the Lancaster store had been made until they had reached Murray. In regard to the car that they had driven, Verhule stated that he did not know where the car had been secured, but that the other man secured the car. Mr. Verhule stated that he had not had a gun or done any shooting but on questions by the court the sheriff and county attorney stated that shots had been fired at Murray and evidence indicated that the prisoner was the man having the gun.

After the statement of Verhule, Judge Begley pronounced the sentence and in view of the fact that the lives of parties had been endangered by shooting he gave the prisoner a sentence of seven years in the state penitentiary at Lincoln. When the prisoner received the sentence he expressed a desire to withdraw the plea of guilty but as the sentence had been pronounced this was not allowed, the prisoner expressed the desire to take a chance on a jury trial in the case but too late in the proceedings.

The companion of Verhule, Thomas Hunt, alias "Thomas Martin," was then brought before the bar of justice to relate his story of the crime. He stated that he was 27 years of age, married and had a child, that his occupation was that of a salesman and that he had been engaged in this work up to the time of the robbery. He had met Verhule a week before the robbery in Omaha at a candy kitchen. No plans had been made as to robbing the store at Murray that he knew of until he and Verhule had reached Murray. He stated that Verhule had a revolver and had fired four shots during the getaway from the scene of the robbery. Hunt stated that he had served time in South Dakota for breaking and entering in 1925 and had been released after serving his time. He stated that he and Verhule had planned to go to South Dakota when they drove to Murray and Verhule wished to stop in Plattsmouth to see his mother.

County Attorney W. G. Kieck in response to the inquiry of the court stated that Hunt or "Martin" had aided the officers in the case and his aid had resulted in the arrest of Verhule. Judge Begley stated that while his aid of the officers should carry some measure of leniency, that Verhule was quite bad and both he and his companion were in the class of hardened criminals.

Hunt supplemented his first statement as to the incidents of the robbery by stating that Verhule had fired a shot at his feet in front of the Murray store to induce him to join in the robbery. The first intimation that the prisoner had of the robbery was when Verhule had asked him if he wished to make some money and Martin had inquired how this was to be done and then Verhule had said "in this store." The prisoner had then refused and Verhule had fired the shot at him and in fear of his life he had entered the store of Earl Lancaster with Verhule.

The court then sentenced Hunt or Martin to three years in the state penitentiary at Lincoln at hard labor. Both men were remanded to the custody of Sheriff Bert Reed and were later in the day taken to Lincoln to start serving their terms.

The repast was most delicious and served in a very charming manner by the ladies.

The death was announced to the relatives in the old home by a message received Sunday by Attorney Henry E. Maxwell of Omaha, a brother, but did not give the cause of the death. The funeral was Tuesday from the late home at Jamaica.

Anne Maxwell was born in Fremont, the daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. Samuel Maxwell. She grew to womanhood here, graduating with high honors from Fremont high and the University of Nebraska, after which she attended Wellesley college in the east.

Miss Maxwell taught for a few years in the Plattsmouth high school and also in the schools at Fremont, her old home, prior to her marriage. She was united in marriage to Dr. Clyde R. ## TWO YEARS OVER TIME

The Bible says that man's allotted time is three score years and ten, and then it says something else which we will not quote, but this is expected to say that while a man is expected to live three score years and ten, he is especially expected to use to the best advantage the years which he borrows afterwards. Our friend, Phillip E. Sauter, was born at Farmington, Iowa, in Van Buren county, on the 23rd day of October, 1861, and with the parents resided there for some four years and just long enough for young Phillip to know when they moved away.

That was an early day even in Iowa, and with the family he went to Keokuk, where they passed over the Mississippi river, this during the first fighting in the civil war, and went to Monmouth, Ill. There they resided during the civil war, and longer for they went to Manitou, south of Peoria in 1868, three years after the close of the war. This was near the first of Mr. Sauter's experience in school though eleven years of age.

Here Mr. Sauter worked with his father who was a shoe maker and later Mr. Sauter took up the harness making trade, and was united in marriage with Miss Mabel McKinney on the 14th of May, 1884. They continued to make their home in the vicinity of Pekin, Ill., until in 1891, when they came to Plattsmouth, where he embarked in the harness making business, remaining here for seventeen years and at that time closing out his business, departing for California, where they remained for nearly seventeen years, returning to Omaha in 1923, and after having resided there for some three years, they came to Plattsmouth to make their home at the Nebraska Masonic Home.

Here both Mr. and Mrs. Sauter are known for their kindly ways, and general sociable disposition. They seek each day to do some good turn for some body thinking that is the best use they could possibly put their time.

On last Wednesday they quietly celebrated the passing of the 72nd birthday of Mr. Sauter, and as he is better known as Phil, receiving congratulations and well wishes from their many friends both in and out of the Home.

While here Mr. Cathey also had built on his farm west of Murray, where Mr. Clifton Meisinger resides, a crib, for the corn raised on the place. After having enjoyed a most delightful visit with their other many friends, they departed on last Friday via auto to their home at Waterloo, Iowa.
