

GREENWOOD

Phillip Reese and brother, Oscar Reese of Ashland, were visiting for a short time in Lincoln on last Sunday.

Elmer Bennett was the 14th person to secure one of the Heatrolas which are being put out by the campaign which has been carried on for their sale by the firm of White & Bucknell.

Byron Golding of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Greenwood for a short time on last Wednesday, looking after some business matters as well as visiting with his friend, B. A. McElwain, for a time.

Miss Catherine Coleman was a visitor in Ashland where she was the guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ella Marshall, and also with the family of W. P. Bailey, of near that place on last Sunday.

E. O. McClery purchased some of the extra rooms and buildings which Fred Ethrege had on his home and has moved them over to his home on the west side, where he is putting them in shape for his needs.

E. McDonald and wife are visiting at the home of a brother of Mr. McDonald at Kearney and were accompanied by H. M. Carr and P. E. Clymer, the men also enjoying a hunt for pheasant of which they were able to get many.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bucknell entertained for their relatives last week when Mrs. Dan Menchau, Raymond Bucknell, were their guests, and who are making their home at Burlington, Colorado. The folks also visited at Lincoln, Alvo and Elmwood.

John C. Lomeyer is home and feeling much improved, though he is looking rather peaked and says he is feeling so. He is improving and getting a long nicely. He says that the 25 days which he put in in the hospital, notwithstanding he was given the best of service, were sure long days to him.

Ernest F. Smith who was taken so suddenly ill a few weeks since is still kept at his home and while he is much improved was not so as to be back to the place of business when the writer was in Greenwood last week. All his friends are hoping he may soon be well again and able to be about the store.

Mrs. L. C. Marvin entertained at her home on Thursday of last week the members of the L. C. C. club, when a most enjoyable time was had, by the ladies as they also entertained their husbands and had good eats, and a very good time. Just who won or lost we were not informed but were assured that they all enjoyed the occasion.

Al Ethrege who has been assisting at the farm of Louis Harner, with the tearing down of an old building and building a new one as well as some smaller ones has completed his work and returned to town. While they were at it they constructed a cattle shed 24x30 and also two dog houses, one for Mr. Harner and one for Mr. Ethrege.

Frank Rouse has been busy on the removal of the house which has stood on what is now wanted as a highway, for Fred Ethrege and will have the building to the roper place in a short time. Mr. Ethrege is making the building new and entirely modern and will make a very fine home for Fred. One thing about the place it will be a little large for one man, but you know there is an opportunity for him to share it with some good looking and good cook, who would admirably care for the house and Fred, as to that. No one can tell, you know.

After Many Years. Some thirty-eight years ago, Silas Farrall appeared in the neighborhood of Greenwood, then a frontier village of western Cass county and stopping at the home of Wm. Leesleys, made his home there and for some five years, worked on the farm, and was by the way, an excellent hand. He knew farming from the beginning to the end, and was a most trustworthy man and a first class farm hand. At the time he came to the Leesley home, W. H. Leesley, better known as Harry, was a mere lad of some five years. Mr. Farrall was a tutor to Harry in farming and it was from this gentleman that Mr. Leesley got his first instruction in the art of agriculture. After some six years on the farm, the scene changed and Mr. Farrall sought other places to reside, going to Oklahoma where he resided for a number of years, living in St. Louis for a time, and also he has been making his home in Kansas. The farming operation in Kansas has not been as profitable this year as formerly, and Mr. Farrall hearing that the crops were good in Cass county and longing to see the places and people where and with whom he had spent the years long ago, drifted here, arriving last Wednesday, and visited at the Leesley home. He will pick corn in this vicinity during the picking season and return to his home in Kansas, where he has a farm. Mr. Leesley was pleased to see his old time friend.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. The members of the L. O. O. F. and the Daughters of Rebekah, who were celebrating last week at the meeting of the grand lodges of the order at Beatrice, returned during the latter portion of the week and were well pleased with the very successful meeting which was had. The one thing which they might have wished different was that the larger accommodations might have been had as the buildings were, while very spacious, not large enough for the throngs of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs who were there. The local members at Beatrice extended every courtesy as also did all the city but the meeting was much bigger an affair than had been anticipated and it was with difficulty that they were able to cope with the situation.

Ate 255 Kernals of Corn.

The rooster which has been on a diet for some time and was allowed to eat his fill at the Radio Circus held at the store of White & Bucknell on last Saturday, was well satisfied when he had eaten 255 kernals of corn and refused the tempting morsels after that. For the nearest guess Mrs. Clyde Newkirk was given a 26-piece silver set, valued at $20, while others to secure gifts were Earl Hartsock, knife and fork set; a dinner set to John Gummerding, and others to get gifts were L. H. Gustafson, Laverne Coleman, George Meyers, James Dimmett, P. E. Clymer and Mrs. A. W. Schulke, this comprised the gifts with the exception of the rooster himself, which went to J. E. Stradley. Taking it all in all it provided a great deal of sport and attracted large crowds. The firm sold some sixteen Heatrolas.

Are Building New Sheds.

The Farmers Union are building five new coal sheds for the storing and handling of coal which they handle. The sheds are constructed with concrete foundations and also with concrete floors, while the sides or walls and the roof is being made of galvanized steel. They are having five of these bins constructed which will care for a large amount of coal.

Kings Daughters Meet.

On Friday of last week the members of the Kings Daughters Bible school class of the Christian church met at the church and in an all day session enjoyed every minute of the time, with their work, the social problems and had a most worthwhile dinner at the proper time as well as a supper at six o'clock. They had the husbands and friends to the eats which enhanced the occasion and made the day the more pleasant.

Graveling North End.

A crew of truck drivers were in Greenwood last week and were completing the graveling of the road from Alvo to the Lemons school which was a good road connection from their town to Omaha, and which they are expecting to have continued to the O street highway this putting the town on connection also with Lincoln as well. The people of Alvo and vicinity have demonstrated a large degree of perseverance and pluck in their efforts to get a good road for all the year round out of that town to the markets. They have been rewarded as they should.

Hunted at Loup City.

On last Tuesday a party of hunters consisting of Roy Comstock, George and Robert Mason, Jerry Dart, and Ralph Westberg, went to Loup City where they celebrated the opening of the pheasant shooting season, they getting there in time to get some extra good shooting in, and before they had gotten started they took a count and found that they had gotten within one of their limit and had to stop. They hastened home and with the high powered car which they were using arrived at Greenwood at a few minutes after midnight and were ready for bed and a good sleep as they had started early the morning before.

In Honor of the Bride.

Mrs. Fred Hoffman entertained on last Tuesday evening at the wedding of bride, Mrs. Thelma Birdsall McCarty, who was united in marriage with Mr. E. L. McCartney recently, and whose work immediately called him to Denver where he is stationed with the Burlington railway. A large number of the friends of the bride were present and a most enjoyable afternoon was had, and with many very useful and beautiful presents given in token of the high honor and esteem in which this young lady is held by all the host of friends in this community. There were many friends in attendance from near Waverly and Alvo, at which place the groom, Mr. McCartney has many relatives and friends.

Wahoo Hornets Trim the Platters Here Friday

Score of 7 to 0 Secured by the Visitors From the Saunders County Seat—Many Injured

From Saturday's Daily—The Plattsmouth high school team which was doped to win the annual struggle with Wahoo yesterday afternoon on the local lot, gave the old dope bucket a dirty kick and what they failed to do the Wahoo Hornets did—result, Wahoo 7, Plattsmouth 0.

There was an exceptionally large crowd present for a game with business and professional men crowding the sidelines with the school folks and rooting for the locals but in a vain effort.

The blue and white were unable to gain consistently in the game and all attempts to gain through the line at critical stages of the game were without result and beyond two successful passes of many attempted, the locals did not show much ground gaining strength although Hershel Dew, quarterback made small gains and Chet Wiles and John Galloway receiving passes, were able to gain some ground but succeeding plays failed to advance the ball.

In the opening quarter the Platters were threatening for a time when by means of a long pass to Galloway the ball came into the vicinity of the Wahoo goal line but the blue and white warriors were unable to successfully advance the ball for the needed score.

The visitors by short passes and the driving power of Gus Anderson, quarterback of the Hornets, were able several times to be a real threat to the Platters and only the fine defensive work of the local team halted a touchdown long before it occurred.

The scoring of Wahoo occurred in the opening of the fourth quarter of the game when the two teams had battered and fought to what seemed would be a scoreless tie when the visitors unloosed a combination of short passes and Anderson that eventually won them the game.

SHOWS REAL SPIRIT

From Thursday's Daily—The stock of the Popular Variety store is being moved from the former location in the Golding building to the new one in the Masonic building and last evening the members of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. of this city, of which R. W. Knorr, the owner of the Popular Variety store, is a member, showed their fraternal spirit by getting out and helping in the moving of the stock. There were some forty of the Masons out for the work and in a very short time they had all of the stock that was wished moved to the new store room. The response to the call for volunteers for the work found a very large group more than willing to do their bit in helping Mr. Knorr in his moving.

Elmwood People Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ferguson Observe Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary; Many Attend Event.

On last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ferguson celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary at their home in Elmwood, when about eighty of their friends and relatives called to congratulate them upon their sixty years of happy wedded life. On account of the rain on Saturday some were unable to call on Saturday and did so on Sunday and Monday. Number of telephone calls and many letters of congratulations were also received from those unable to attend.

Mrs. Eva Clapp and Mrs. George Blessing received at the door, and the Misses Mildred Ransom, Doris and Lois Parsell assisted in the dining room, where ice cream and wafers were served.

Altogether it was a very happy occasion and many old time friends of pioneer days, who had not met for years enjoyed exchanging reminiscences of early days in Elmwood and vicinity.

Mr. Ferguson came to Elmwood in 1868, and Mrs. Ferguson in 1869. They homesteaded part of the farm southwest of Elmwood, which they still own. They endured the hardships of grasshopper time, drouths, etc., with true pioneer spirit and have enjoyed seeing the growth of eastern Nebraska, from a vast prairie into a prosperous farming country, dotted with cities and towns.

In 1885, they moved to the farm, a part of which is now Ferguson's addition to Elmwood and where they still live, although in a different house, the original one which was located on the corner, where the Bronn home is located, having been torn down. This was the year the M. P. R. R. built the branch from Lincoln to Weeping Water.

This little verse was sent to Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson from Mrs. A. J. Hollenbeck of Rock Falls, Ill.

"The sun will shine after every storm. There is a solution for every problem. And the soul's highest duty. Is to be of good cheer."

Out of town guests were Mrs. Lucretia Ransom and daughter, Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ransom, daughter Frances, and son, Wilbur, all of Dixon, Illinois; Charles Ferguson of Omaha, and Abner Ferguson of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Troy Davis, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson and daughter, Nellie; Mrs. Armina Spencer, Paul and Rossie Gerard, Mrs. Lena Custer and daughter, Dorretta, all of Weeping Water; Mrs. M. H. Lum of Avoca; Mrs. M. Wileman of Hiawatha, Kansas; Mrs. Kittie Beck of Grant, Nebr.; Mrs. Robertham, Mrs. D. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Eberline and daughter, Jeanette of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Horn of Eagle.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

You will see in this issue a registered Red Polled bull for sale by Arnold Schliefert, and if needing an animal of this description, better look after it before it is gone.

Arnold Schliefert was fortunate in that he was able to pick up a good corn picker during the middle of last week and this put him in good position to move along with his work.

M. R. Mullen and family, of Kansas have been visiting for several days last week at the home of their friends and relatives, Harry O'Brien and father, as well as Hugh and Walter.

The Manley schools are going to celebrate the occasion of Halloween in the proper way, as they are having a box social at the school on the evening before the event, and are going to have some good eats as well.

Walter Mockenhaupt is having a double crib built on his farm, and is hurrying the work on it so as to be able to have some place to store this year's corn crop. Harold Krecklow and Henry Eiseeman are doing the building of the structure.

Herman Rauth and father, J. C. Rauth, were still working on the covering of the barn on the place where Herman lives, with corrugated steel, but were expecting to get the work completed by the last of the week, so as to get after the picking of the corn.

Teddy Harms was a visitor in Lincoln on last Monday and was accompanied by Mrs. Harms, where they were looking after some business matters and making some purchases for the store here. While they were away, the store was looked after by Henry and Otto.

George Bauer, who has been at the hospital at Omaha for some time past, where he underwent an operation, has been making good gains during the recent weeks and was able to return home on last Tuesday, being brought home by his friend and neighbor, Herman Rauth.

Found the Trouble

For some time past something has been interfering with the best working of the radios of Manley and vicinity, but just what it was was not known until the electric company noticed a leak in their power lines, and this caused them to send an expert trouble seeker, who came and after having gone over the lines carefully, discovered a leaky lightning arrester, which when replaced by a new one, stopped the electrical disturbance in the radios.

Royal Neighbors Hustling

The members of the Royal Neighbors of Manley last week were making a drive for funds, they having a meeting and also sending out invitations asking the ladies to whom they sent the invitations to send in their waist measure in inches, in so many cents. This would indeed be a fine way to raise funds where all the ladies were good and robust.

The invitations which they sent out read as follows: This neat little apron is sent to you; And this is what we wish you'd do: The little pocket you plainly see For a special purpose is meant to be. Now measure your waist line inch by inch, And see that the measure does not pinch! For each small inch you measure round, In the pocket, put a penny sound. The game is fair, you will admit; You waist your money; we pocket it.

At the bottom of this unique announcement there also appeared the following: "Lots of fun and good eats, Oct. 24th, 2 p. m. at hall."

The ladies said lots of fun and good eats, which sure was a veritable truth, for did you ever know when the members of the R. N. A. met in
