George Sheldon Wins Long Fight in Mississippi

Former Nebraska Governor and Ex-Resident of Nehawka Named for Revenue Collector

George L. Sheldon, governor of Nebraska from 1907 to 1909, and who has for many years since leaving the sided at Wayside Mississippi, has won good. a long fight in that southern state with the republican leaders over the federal patronage, as Washington dispatches state the former governor has been named as the collector of internal revenue for the southern

Mr. Sheldon and family since leaving their Nehawka home have resided on a plantation near Wayside, Mississippi, and in the great flood of 1928 were heavy losers as the Charles Purdy Passes Away Saturwaters of the great river swept over the rich delta lands were their plantaiton is located.

Governor Sheldon in the past few years has waged a warfare with the dominant forces in the republican party in Mississippi which was led by the national committeeman, a colored leader, and while Howard was the victor in the struggles during the Coolidge administration, Sheldon has won the ear of the new administration apparently,

Sheldon was elected to the governorship of Nebraska in 1906 as the leader of the famous reform movement which overthrew the railroad polotical machine. It was during his political machine. It was during his mary system came into existence, and the supreme court membership was by A. C. Shallenberger in 1909 when the latter was swept into office as the democratic ticket, led by William | Jennings Bryan for president for the third time, carried the midwest. The selection of Mr. Sheldon is a

ATHLETICS WIN SUNDAY

the federal government,

real credit to the Hoover administration and will be much more satisfactory to the people of Mississippi who have long opposed the naming of colored men to the chief office under

The Plattsmouth Athletics enter- From Monday's Daity-Comets, their foes, received 13.

The work of the Plattsmouth back-

Koubek as the battering ram, a steady ern part of that state, a condition lowers of strength of the locals.

In the lineup of the visiting team was Richard and Poisall Herold, former Plattsmouth boys and who played a good game for their team. The visitors scored first on an intercepted pass that they carried down over the Plattsmouth goal and later in a

CAR IS OVERTURNED

From Monday's Danycupants of the car were cut by the broken glass and shaken up considerably and were brought on into this city by passing autoists and given medical treatment and able later to resume their journey back to Lin-

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

SUFFERS FROM BROKEN JAW

From Tuesday Daily— The reports received here at the office of Sheriff Bert Reed are to the effect that P. G. Kelly, who was severely beaten up here on last Frilay afternoon by a man named Linday, boss of the grading gang on the new Missouri river raodway, is suf-

Mr. Kelly is in quite serious shape and it will be necessary to have the injured jaw wired to keep it in place while the member is healing and while he is now doing as well as could be expected under the circum-

fering from the effects of a broken

Death of Former Resident

day at Home in Livingston, Montana, Aged 62

From Monday's Dally-

The message was received here yesterday announcing the death at Livingston, Montana, on Saturday afternoon of Charles Purdy, aged sixtytwo, a former resident of this city and the only son of Mrs. Frances Purdy of this city.

The deceased was born in Plattsmouth where his parents were among the early settlers and in this city Mr. Purdy grew to manhood and received his education in the schools in this city. On reaching manhood, Mr. Purdy entered the service of the Burlington railroad in the local shops, learning the blacksmith trade increased from three to seven. Two a number of years. Later Mr. Purdy W. B. Rose and J. R. Dean, are still he was employed by the railroad comwas sent to Seneca, Nebraska, where tisuously and Dean for all but a perhis home at Livingston where he tion in passenger railroad rates to his none at livingston where he two cents per mile, as well as great the particular to his family and was among the particular to his part that place.

The deceased is survived by the mother. Mrs. Frances Purdy, who is features awaiting them. in her eighty-eighth year, also survives the passing of the son and to her the deepest sympathy of the many friends in this community will be extended in the loss that has come to darken her declining years of life.

ment will be held at Livingston. NUT CROP IS POOR

tained at home Sunday with a red R. H. Patton of this city, who has hot football game to please the fans large interests in the state of Georand with the result at the gun of gia in pecan groves in the southern 26 for the Athletics while the Omaha part of that state, returned home yesterday and reports that the conditions in the south are not the best. In the nut raising sections of Georsmashing and shifting attacks of the gia there has been a very light crop of the souveniers from China as well of the pecans and almonds as well as travel pictures by Miss Marie three horsemen, Frank Koubek, as the other nuts which form a very Kaufmann George Sedlacek and Homer Spang- large staple crop of that state. Large ler, kept the visitors plenty busy and acreages of the orchards have yieldin the line football the locals were ed but small returns as the heavy most effective in making their downs winds in October swept away much and forced the visitors to largely rely of the crop before it was matured. On the way south Mr. Patton trav-The superiority of the Athletics eled through a heavy snew in Tenwas shown in their ability to smash nessee where the average was five through the visitors' line and with inches over a great deal of the eastmarch down the field to the visitors' that the residents there stated was goal marked a feature of the game, most unusual, being the heaviest the touchdown being made by Sed- snow in thirty-two years. Mr. Patlacek. The pass received by Dick ton also saw large sections that were March also was one of the thrillers under water as the result of the of the game for the locals as was overflowing of the streams in the the clever playing of Spangler, for- states of Tennessee and Alabama and mer high school star and one of the which made a great deal of suffering among the residents of the flooded sections.

CHANGES IN BARBER SHOPS

city was considerably shaken up this pecting to take part in the offering spectacular passing game, marched morning by a number of changes that be on hand. over half of the distance down the were made in the ownerships of shops field to another score, completing and places of business. The shop some six passes in this part of the which has been formerly owned by Ross Baker was disposed of to Arnold Lillie and who took possession faces in many of the shops.

DEATH OF ALICE COWLES

The message was received here today by the old friends of the family The condition of Edward Fuller- for many years a resident of this city young farmer of this community, of the range at that place. Mr. Mil- service to call up and talk to the parton, well known barber, is growing and who passed away Monday at who is there recovering from the lion for a period of several years has ents for a few moments and it is Reichstadt was made very happy father and for the words of sympathy better, word from his bedside now Modesta, California, where she has effects of a serious illness and oper- done wireless work on passenger and needless to say that this was very yesterday when a fine seven and a given. Especially do we wish to states, and while he is still confined made her home for the past two years ation, is doing very nicely and it commercial ships, going to all parts much enjoyed by the parents and Ed half pound son came to reside with thank the force at the Nebraska to his home he is able to be up and with her daughter. The funeral was is hoped will soon be on the high- of the world. Previous to coming to as well. He reports that both he them and to share the journey of Masonic Home and others for the around a part of the time and it is held at Modesta, today. The passing way to recovery from his illness and Plattsmouth to make his parents, rea and his brother, Herbert, who is life with the parents. The mother beautiful floral remembrances and to hoped will soon regain strength suf- of this estimable lady will bring a at the present rate of improvement siding north of town, a visit, Mr. located at Oakland, are doing fine and little one are doing nicely and all who took part in the funeral servficient to allow him to resume his great regret from the many friends in is hopeful of soon being able to re- Million came here direct from China and enjoying their work on the west the event has brought a great deal ice.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manners this city and community.

Hunters are Causing Trouble on Farms Here

Authorities Are Kept Busy Keeping Off Invasion of City Hunting Parties on Farms

From Monday's Dairy-

hunters.come in and proceed to tramp for another year. over the farms in search of the wild game and regardless of the wishes or desires of the owners of the farms.

The authorities have been called out several times by reports of hunters shooting recklessly over the in Montana farms, making it dangerous for live stock and poultry as in many cases farms, making it dangerous for live the hunters are not any too good marksmen and form a real menace to the farmers of the county.

Most of the farm owners have no objection to hunting parties if they come and secure permission to hunt on the lands and are careful in their shooting, but to have a carload or two of hunters unload and proceed to start shooting and in many cases wounding animals and fowls belong ing to the farmers.

The reckless type of hunters makes it difficult for the careful sportsman who may enjoy a little shooting on Sunday and arouses a most antagonistic feeling among the farmers and Home.

for which they cannot be blamed. Yesterday Constable Tom Svoboda was called out several times to farms in this locality on the reports of E. Keller, worthy matron and Lyle Heart," a very charming and popuevidently decided to bandon the well as visiting with the members of shooting as they were absent when the constable arrived to look them

OFFERS FINE ENTERTAINMENT

est enjoyment to all of the large widow and five sons, William, Leo, crowd attending and those from all Charles, Franklin and George Purdy, parts of the city who were gathered all of who reside in Montana. The there found many fine and attractive

The features were three shows in one which brought as the opening offering "A Thanksgiving Party" in which the young people of the school gvae a varied program of instrumental and vocal selections that was a presented. The funeral services and inter- worthy tribute to the fine musical Quimby with piano accompaniment of the Sabbath day. by Miss Estelle Baird. One of the features of this part of the enter-

given by the fifth grade students. "A Night in Foochow" arranged by Miss Grace Shawhan, one of the local teachers offered a fine showing

"Farmer Brown's Cornfield" was popular place as here was the delicious refreshments that added to the enjoyment of the occasion. The Columbian P. T. A. and the schol will realize a neat sum as the | Hear the Voice of Jesus Say." result of this clever entertainment.

MANL ATTEND REHEARSAL

From Monday's Dally --

Yesterday afternoon there were some ninety of the vocalists of this city to journay to Omaha where they attended the rehearsal that was had of the chorus for "The Messiah," the oratorio that is to be given at the city auditorium in Omaha on December 16th. There was a total of 900 present at the Omaha rehearsal from Omaha and the nearby towns.

The next rehearsal will be held on December 8th and at which time the orchestra will be used and it is The barbering fraternity of this necessary that all those who are ex-

CAR IS BURNED UP

Sheriff Bert Reed and Deputy Rex at once, and R. W. Cavender, who the Amick school southwest of this Young were called to the vicinity of has been at the Trilety shop, was city Saturday evening by the resecured by Mr. Lillie to assist him port that an auto was burning near while Mr. Baker goes to the Hotel that place. When the sheriff ar-Yesterday afternon an auto bear Riley barber shop where he will as- rived it was found that the car was ing a Lancaster number was over- sist Howard Fullerton during the ill- a mass of ruins and a mysterious turned on the detour several miles ness of Ed Fullerton, the other mem- phase of the case is the fact that west of this city, the occupants of her of the firm. Mr. Robbins, who the license plates on the car had been ments were provided that added to the car claiming that they had been came the last of the week to assist removed from the car apparently the enjoyment of all of the party sideswiped by a passing car and the in the Baker shop is now located with before the fire. The car was a and this was featured by the large auto overturned in a ditch. The occupants of the gar were suit by the large and the shift in places Studebaker and was burned com- birthday cake which marked the of employment has brought in new pletely up with only the metal parts spirit of the occasion. of the car remaining when the officers reached the scene.

DOING VERY NICELY

From Monday's Dailyturn home to this city.

HERE FROM DAKOTA

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Zuckweiler, ormer residents of this city, motored in Saturday from their home at Miller, South Dakota, for a visit here with the old time friends and relaives in this city and at Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Zuckweiler brought with them two of the children to enjoy the sights in this old home of the parents, the twin boys being left at home in South Dakota with the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zuckweiler. Mr. Zuckweiler reports his parents as feeling fine and en-The hunting season is now on and joying life very much in the home the farmers of this locality are suf- in the Dakotas. While here Mr. Zuck-

Fine Programs are Presented at Masonic Home

ter 189 Eastern Star Present the Programs

The Nebraska Masonic Home resimusical programs during the afteras a pleasing diversion to all of the in a very pleasing Scotch song, "The charming violin solo by Mrs. Mar- young people a review of the things garet Grant with the accompaniment | that the Rotary stands for and the at the piano by Miss Mallory while a work that they are hoping to ac trio of piano, violin and voice by complish. lings.

In the afternoon some fifteen ing the farms but the hunters had and presented a short program as program.

Home Chapter Program.

In the evening Home chapter No. known musicians of the city to be a new aspect as that of a musician.

and dramatic talent that the young singing of the old hymns by Frank of the club were heard in several people or this school possess, while A. Cloidt and the entire program was clever stunts and their dialogues special vocal numbers were given by one that partook of a sacred nature made a great deal of entertainment Miss Ruth Lindsay, Miss Helen and beautifully carried the message for all of the club and the young

Miss Gertrude Vallery was heard in a very delightful reading while tainment was the Virginia Reel Miss Marie Vallery gave a charming violin selection that reflected the skill of this talented lady.

> Miss Marjorie Arn, one of the accomplished planists of the city was Christmas box to Bulgaria was made. heard in a finely presented piano Some of the girls of this organizanumber given in her usual artistic tion have been writing girls in the > Frank A. Cloidt gave a tenor solo, 'The Vesper Prayer" in his usual fine ing a Christmas box, they having manner and with Mrs. Hal Garnett sent one to China to the school with was heard in the beautiful duet, 'I

A special duet number, the beautiful "Sweeter as the Years Go By." was given by Mr. Cloidt and Miss Estelle Baird as the completion of the program of the evening.

GIVE FRIEND SURPRISE

Saturday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. William H. Wool- tribute to this box, please bring your cott and in honor of the occasion she gift to Sunday school Sunday or give was given a very pleasant surprise on Saturday evening when a large group of the members of the local court of the Catholic Daughters of America gathered at the Woolcott home on South 8th street to remind their friend and associate of the happy occasion.

The evening was spent in playing Tango and in which prizes were awarded to Mrs. John L. Hadraba, Mrs. Charles Gradoville, Mrs. Joseph Hiber and Mrs. E. Bennett for their skill in this pastime.

The evening was one of the rarest pleasure to all of the members of the party and as an appreciation of the friends she was presented with a very handsome gift as a remembrance of the friends.

At asuitable hour dainty refresh-

CALLED BACK TO DUTY

Louis Million, a wireless operator, received a telegram from Washington, D. C., Airways division, Civil Service, The reports from the Clarkson telling him to report for duty at Des hospital at Omaha are to the effect Moines, Iowa. Mr. Million and famand Japan.

Rotarians Pay Visit to High School Today

Program Presented at the School Today by the Members of the Plattsmouth Club

From Tuesday's Daliy-The Plattsmouth club of the International Rotary this afternoon engovernorship in this state has re- stances, his condition is far from fering from the usual influx of hunt- weiler called at the Journal to re- joyed a visit at the high school where ers on Sunday from Omaha, as the new his subscription to the Journal they presented a program before the up with a few yells. several hundred students of the school in the main auditorium of the school building and had the pleasure of meeting and greeting the boys and girls who are completing their educational work in the Plattsmouth educational center.

The program was presided over by searl Davis and who introduced to he yuong people of the school, Dr. S. Livingston, president and Dr P. T. Heinemann, secretary of the Plattsmouth Rotary and who greeted Lincoln Chater 148 and Home Chap- the young people on behalf of the

The program was featured by the piano number, "Under the Double Eagle" with E. H. Wescott, the Rolents Sunday had the opportunity of tary wizard of the ivories and whe enjoying a very delightful series of gave this stirring march in his usual finished manner. William Baird, superintendent o members of the large family at the Bell of Danoon," that was very much enjoyed by all of the audience. Frank A. Cloidt, the song leader of hunting parties from Omaha invad- M. Stover, worthy patron, came down lar number as his contribution to the "The Aims and Purposes of Ro tary" was taken up by County At-This program embraced a very torney W. G. Kieck, who gave the has reared his family and was among the highly respected residents of at the Columbian school on Friday Mrs. Grant, these artists making a Nights" added to the interest of the A fine duet number, "Neopolitan evening was an occasion of the great- very fine presentation of their offer- program with L. O. Minor and Frank delightful number was most artisti-> musicians. 189 visited the Home where a fine In the musical portion of the proprogram was given under the direc- gram A. S. Ghrist of the Rotary was tion of Mrs. John F. Gorder, past also presented in an instrumental worthy matron of the chapter and solo that was much enjoyed and gave

During the program, L. D. Hiatt The entire party was led in the and Fred Rea, the Weber & Fields people of the school.

STANDARD BEARERS MEET

The Standard Bearers met Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church. Preparations for sending the American Bible school at Lovetch. So the Standard Bearers are sendwhich Miss Shawhan is connected awakened, and had the alarm not performance and this group comwith.

year's lesson book. which is on Burma for the December meeting. Several items of business was dis-

If any of the girls who were not present at this meeting care to con-

PASSES 55TH ANNIVERSARY

to Alice Funk.

In honor of the passing of his fifty-fifth birthday anniversary, Jess Elliott superintendent of the aCss ant surprise last evening when a ger have the sympathy of their host number of the relatives and friends of friends all over the county in this the old fashioned theme of the play, dropped in to spend a few hours with the guest of honor and in seeing that the anniversary was most fittingly

The evening was spent in games and music as well as in making the presentation of several very attrac- day by John Nelson, foreman of the and dramatic department of the tive gifts to Mr. Elliott as a token local tinshop of the Burlington, an- school and whose success in her of the love and esteem in which he nouncing the death of his brother, teaching career here in these lines is held among the many friends here. At an appropriate hour a very dainty luncheon was served by Miss Havelock. Mr. Nelson had been manner in which she handled the Mildred Elliott and Misses Mildred troubled with heart weakness for production and for the selection of

HAS A PLEASANT EXPERIENCE

Patterson had a very pleasant sur- brothers, most of whom reside in the of Robert Hartford. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. R. F. prise given them when they had a long distance call from their son, Edward, who is located at San Franof the death of Mrs. Alice Cowles, that John Rummel, well known ily departed at once to take charge of the excellent telephone trunk line From Tuesday's Dailycoast very much.

FRESHMAN CLASS PARTY

On Friday night, November 22, the Freshmen class of Plattsmouth high had their class party at the high school. There were fifty-nine present making nearly the whole class and including five of the

Robert Hall with the aid of a few others directed the games which "Little Women" as Given by the were very good and the teachers joined in the games, making them still better. The party started about 8 o'clock and lated until quite late and every one went home happily. After the games the refreshments were passed out and the party ended evening gave a very charming pre-

Local School Debaters Make

Enjoy a Discussion Here With North character was presented as well as High of Omaha on Monday Afternoon and Evening.

From Tuesday's Dany-

the floor for Plattsmouth high school chord in the life of everyone and in the opening debate of the season, in its joys and sorrows unfolds the a double-header, against North Oma- book of life, the children, the first ha high school yesterday afternoon marriage, the coming of the grandnoon and evening and which came the local railroad shops, was heard and evening. At four o'clock, Platts- children and the taking away of one mouth took the affirmative side of of the family circle, a well told and the state question: "Resolved that ably presented cycle of everyday life Trial by Jury in Criminal Cases amid the wholesome early American Should be Abolished." The speakers life as Miss Alcott has written of members of Lincoln chapter No. 148 the club, gave one of his delightful were: Robert Livingston, captain; and the young people of our school of the Eastern Star with Mrs. Jessie offerings "In the Garden of My Mary Swatek and Charles Nowacek, revived and gave life on the stage, Omaha was represented by Russell The story revolves around mem-Rullman, Earl Hallgren and Hubert bers of the March household and in Modlin.

team, expressed herself as being well and irritable "Aunt March," was A. Cloidt as the vocalists and this pleased with the results of the argu- one of the outstanding characters

Omaha Central here on next Tues- the household life was the faithful day afternoon and evening and will "Hannah" in which part Carlyne make an effort to smooth out a few Thomas was well chosen and gave a rough spots in argument and presen- very clever rendition of her role which afforded many of the well the well known furniture dealer in tation before that time. It is early The male roles were rather overcast to make any definite prediction of by the trend of the story dealing the local team but the showing yes- more intimately with the romance terday indicates that the squad has and happiness of the March girls, made a good start.

HOME BURNS EARLY TUESDAY

home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Berger family and as his doting grandfather, was found burning and when dis- an important figure in the drama, only had time to make their escape, "Mr. March" while Paul Iverson was with barely clothes enough to wear, a revelation as "Prof Bhaer," the The fire was first discovered by Wm. center figure of the romance of faith-August who called by telephone, ful and devoted "Jo March." arousing Mr. and Mrs. Berger, who The presentation was featured by hastened to make their escape from a large number of clever specialities the building. The shingles were fall- and musicial numbers, the Cardinal's ing through the roof when they were furnishing the music preceding the been given as soon as it was, the prised Sam Arn, director, Donald Alice Funk had the lesson. This probabilities are that both Mr. and Rainey, Winifred Rainey, Bob Hall, being the first lesson from our new Mrs. Berger would have perished in Donald Cotner, Edward Egenberger, the flames. The alarm came too late and James Comstock. was nothing compared to the loss sus- disgruntled gossip. tained. What Mr. Berger had on Miss Margaret Shellenbarger was the household goods was not learn- very charming in her musical readed. His mother owned the house and ing and her delightful stage presence of insurance. condition and the home modern to and grace added much to make a full the last moment. Mr. and Mrs. Ber- appreciation of this stately old dance.

their loss. RECEIVES SAD NEWS

From Monday's Datty-

A message was received here to- Tidball, instructor in the English Vigo Nelson, which occurred this has been outstanding. Miss Tidbail morning at the family home near is to be congratulated on the fine some time but his case was not the cast. thought particularly dangerous and A large number of the class memthe news of his passing came as a bers assisted in various ways toward very great shock to the relatives here, making the smooth running of the widow and one son, as well as several direction was under the management of pleasure to the proud father.

vicinity of Lincoln and Havelock. NEW SON ARRIVES

Junior Class Presents Very Pleasing Play

Junior Boys and Girls Proves

Real Dramatic Treat From Wednesday's Daily-

The members of the junior class of the Plattsmouth high school last sentation of a story that will long live in the annals of American literature as a sweet and simple story of home life in the New England states in the early sixtles. "Little Women," which the pen of Louisa May Alcott gave to the world in the close of the civil war period.

Season Start formed the cast of characters, are The juniors, or at least those who entitled to a great deal of credit for the delightful way in which each for the time and trouble apparent in the settings of the play and the costuming of the various roles. The play is one that in its simplicity is most appealing as it has the A quartet of veteran debaters took great human touch that strikes some

In the evening, Gerald Sperry took and "Amy," Hazel Harkins, Ves-Charles Nowacek's place on Platts- tetta Robertson, Josephine Janda mouth's negative team while Theo- and Maxine Cloidt were cast and dore Miles took the place of Earl gave a very charming presentation Hallgren on North's affirmative team. mother, "Mrs. March," Constance This is the second meeting between Rea offered a very sweet and lovable North and Plattsmouth in debate and figure of the mother of the sixties, ments and invited the Plattsmouth of the play and made her part supply cally presented by the two talented team to come to Omaha in January. a great deal of the fun that came The Platter speakers will engage into the fine old story. Adding to Towner Livingston was a very clever "John Brooke," the college professor that had won the heart of the charming "Meg." while James Begley was a carefree and happy figure as At 4 o'clock Tuesday morning the "Laurie," the playmate of the March a short distance north of Nehawka "Mr. Lawrence" Robert Bestor was covered was so far along that they Richard Spangler was well chosen as Jean Hayes will have the lesson for the saving of the most meager sketch, "The Gossip," Jean Hayes apparel. There was an insurance pol- won a real place in the hearts of icy on the building amounting to her auditors with her clever renditwelve hundred dollars and which tion of the part of the soured and > it was her that had the insurance on added to the beauty of her offering the house. This is a severe loss and during the intermissions of the play one which cannot be estimated. Of . The grace and beauty of the old course a new house can be built, but time minuet, the dance of our forenothing even to start for the amount fathers was given most delightfully by three of the junior girls, Patricia, The building was in excellent Rose and Ruth Ferrie, whose charm

> > Miss Lucille Albert, carrying out presented two numbers, "An Old Fashioned Garden" and "The Second Minuet" in her usual pleasing manner. The play was arranged and coached for the juniors by Miss Mary Jane

Mr. Nelson is survived by the play possible and the general stage

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation of the many acts of kindness shown to us in our recent bereave-