

Happy Hundred to Feature the Poultry Show

Supper at Presbyterian Church Will Bring Here Many From Out of the City for Meet

The "scratch feed" banquet which is a part of the Tri-County Poultry and Pet Stock association show, will be merged with the local Happy Hundred supper for the month of December and will be held at the Fellowship room of the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, December 10th.

The supper will be largely devoted to the boosting of the big poultry exhibition that is being held here and will, it is hoped, have present a very large number of the exhibitors and officers of the association who are present for the show.

The chief speaker of the evening will be L. C. Oberlies, well known Lincoln resident, who was for several years a member of the state board in charge of the control of the state institutions and who is now with the publicity department of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph company. Mr. Oberlies has been here on several other occasions as a speaker and his coming assures a very able and interesting address.

The officers of the poultry association will also be featured in the program and will be given the opportunity of meeting the local people and be given the recognition that they deserve for the fine exposition of Nebraska poultry that they have so successfully promoted in the past four years and which they are presenting here this year.

The committee in charge of the Happy Hundred state that Searl Davis has again consented to act as the chairman of the meeting and will have the task of guiding the toast list and introducing the speakers of the evening.

The serving will be in the hands of the ladies of the Presbyterian church and it goes without saying there will be a fine menu prepared and served to the large array of male visitors that will be gathered around the festival board.

MOST SUCCESSFUL EVENT

The bazaar and chicken pie supper which was held at the Fellowship room in the First Presbyterian church on Thursday, proved a very successful affair in every way and the ladies of the church will derive a very neat sum for their church as the result of their labors. The ladies auxiliary served the chicken pie supper in their usual pleasing manner that has made the Presbyterian chicken pie suppers to be looked to for each season and which provided a most delightful repast in every way.

The bazaar society was in charge of the Q. Z. society and which organization has made every effort to provide a real treat in the way of an opportunity to secure the dainty needlework articles as well as home made candies and other dainties. Taken as a whole the event was one of the most successful that the society has held and the members are feeling well pleased for their efforts.

GIVES LIGHTEST SENTENCE

Omaha—Merle Herold, seventeen, Moberg, S. D. youth who was recently dubbed the "repeater bandit" by police, and who admitted several robberies in Omaha, was sentenced to three years in the state reformatory late Friday by District Judge Fitzgerald. This is the minimum sentence left open to the judge's choice. Judge Fitzgerald announced following sentence, that he will intercede with the state pardon board to cut down the sentence. Herold was named the "repeater" when he adopted the habit of re-visiting scenes of his operations for a second holdup. In all cases he used a cigarette holder that had the appearance of an automatic pistol.

Dr. Herbert Worthman Wins Omaha Bride

Wedded to Miss Ann Shalander, at Home of Bride's Parents on Tuesday Evening

The wedding of Dr. Herbert Worthman, of Louisville, and Miss Ann Shalander, of Omaha, occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shalander, of 3546 North 28th avenue, Omaha, on Tuesday evening, the immediate families of the young couple being present. Rev. T. Hartman, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church at this place, officiated.

Dr. Worthman is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Worthman, of Louisville. He is associated with his father in the practice on medicine here and is meeting with splendid success, due to his excellent training and educational advantages and also to the high standing of his father, who has practiced his profession in Louisville for about thirty years and who is loved and respected by the whole community.

The young doctor is following in his father's footsteps and is fast making a name for himself and winning a place in the hearts of his father's friends. The bride is beautiful and accomplished and has visited in Louisville frequently and is loved and highly esteemed for her many charming qualities of heart and mind and she will receive a hearty welcome from the people of this vicinity.—Louisville Courier.

WEAVER FAVORS ST. LOUIS MAN

Lincoln, Dec. 3.—Though Governor Weaver had been discussed throughout Iowa and Nebraska as a potential candidate as successor to the late James Good, secretary of war, the Nebraska Tuesday added his indorsement to suggested selection of Cleveland Newton of St. Louis, a former congressman. Governor Weaver added his explanation that he is not exerting any effort in his own behalf for the appointment by President Hoover.

John W. Gamble Named Agent for Peters Trust Co.

Former Plattsmouth Resident Will Have Charge of Liquidating Large Trust Company

From Saturday's Daily— Governor Arthur Weaver yesterday following a conference with Secretary Bliss of the state department of trade and commerce and Attorney General Sorenson, announced the selection of John W. Gamble of Omaha at liquidating agent for the Peters Trust Co., of Omaha, which was taken over by the state department a week ago.

The selection of Mr. Gamble is one that should meet with the approval of all who are interested in the affairs of the trust company as Mr. Gamble has had a wide experience in banking and general business affairs in Omaha for a great many years since leaving the position here of superintendent of the city schools to go into the state metropolis for a business career. For a number of years he has been connected with the First National bank of Omaha and a large number of private business enterprises that gives him a broad business experience.

In the handling of the liquidating of the trust company, the state will place Mr. Gamble on a straight salary of $7,500 a year until the affairs are closed up which is thought more economical than a receivership where a percentage would have to be paid the receiver from the assets of the company. The legal advice necessary will be provided as needed.

Death of Dr. J. G. Smith Occurs at Wahoo Home

Father of Councilman C. C. Smith of This City Dies After Illness of Several Weeks

From Friday's Daily— Dr. J. G. Smith, for many years a resident of Wahoo and Saunders county, died yesterday at his home at Wahoo after an illness of several weeks and in which time he had gradually been failing until death came to his relief.

The deceased was seventy years of age and a native of Kentucky where he spent his younger years and later moved to Missouri where he resided at Albany for a number of years, coming to Wahoo some thirty years ago and has since been a very active citizen of that community and engaged in his practice until ill health made necessary his retirement from active work.

Dr. Smith was very active in the civic affairs at Wahoo and was a member of the city council for a period of ten years and this spring was re-elected to another term in that body. He has also been very active in the chamber of commerce at Wahoo since locating in that city. He is survived by the widow and three children, one of whom is Claude C. Smith of Plattsmouth, who has been with the father a great deal since his illness several weeks ago.

Athletics Have Good Grid-Iron Record

Local City Football Team Has Played Some Hard Teams and Made Excellent Showing

With the game at Fairbury last Sunday when the Plattsmouth Athletics held the Fairbury team, rates as one of the best in northern Nebraska, to a 0 to 0 tie, the curtain dropped on the football season for the local aggregation of beef and brawn.

The season this year has been a very pleasing one for the team and the locals have won from Valley, Fontenelle, Omaha Athletics and Omaha Comets, while they dropped one at Omaha to the Omaha Athletics after defeating them here and also at Murray to Malvern. Two ties are also in the season record, so as a whole it has been a splendid showing for the team, the members of which are all employed at various capacities that does not permit their active practice.

The players who have battled in the season are George Sedlacek, who has officiated at half and fullback, Frank Koubek, beet footed half, Homer Spangler, another of the fast players of the team, Frank Krejci, quarter. The line of the Plattsmouth team has been a real one and was the terror of many a foe in the course of the season and in this line were found Henry Krejci, guard; Louis Lohnes, tackle; Chet Renner, tackle, Louis Svoboda, center; Dick March, end; Ted Svoboda, tackle; Frank Sedlacek, guard and tackle; Carl Kell, end; and Charles Fulton, tackle. The team is composed of local men and has been a credit to the community in their athletic work.

ELECTED GRAND TREASURER

From Thursday's Daily— At the session of the grand council held at Omaha yesterday in connection with the meeting of the grand chapter of the R. A. M., Hon. James M. Robertson, of this city, past grand high priest, was re-elected as treasurer of the grand council, a position that he has held for a number of years.

Santa Claus to be Greeted by Guard of Honor

Schools of County Will Select Representatives to Escort Santa Into the City

Santa Claus has sent word to the local committee of the Chamber of Commerce that he will be here on Saturday, December 14th, without fail and that he expects to come here on his eastward trip from Chicago and will reach the east end of the new traffic bridge over the Missouri river at 1:45 p. m. on next Saturday and will come direct to the main section of the city, arriving via Third street, and owing to the road work in progress Santa may have to skirt around the south end of Wintersteen hill and come on down Lincoln avenue.

He will be greeted at Third and Main streets by the honor guard composed of elected representatives from the various classes in the schools of Cass county, who will be suitably designated and ready to greet Santa. Mayor John P. Satter will also be there to extend the glad hand to the entire city. Santa and his caravan will come west on Main street to Sixth and thence north to Vine street and the American Legion community building where Santa will look after the distribution of the gifts to the children in person.

At the Legion building it is urged that only children of twelve or under try to gain admission to the hall as it is to be used to care for the smaller children in case of bad weather.

New Beauty Shoppe Holds Its Opening

New Beauty Shoppe Opens Its Doors Today in Ghrist Building on South Sixth Street

From Saturday's Daily— "The Powder Puff," the new beauty shoppe that has been in the process of being arranged for the past ten days, in the room in the north section of the building on South Sixth street, occupied by the Ghrist Furniture Co., opened its doors today to the public.

The new shoppe is a place of real charm and beauty as the interior of the room has been arranged in the modernistic style of decorative features and the decorative features of the new shoppe carry this note in the papering of the rooms as well as in the black, red and gray blocked flooring.

The fixtures of the shoppe are in shades of pink and add to the general brightness of the interior decorations. The shoppe is arranged so that each operator can have privacy for her patrons while the hairdressing or beauty treatments are being given and this is a feature that will be much appreciated, curtained partitions being arranged around the operating chairs and which also excludes the work room from the waiting section of the parlor.

The latest in beauty appliances are provided at the new shoppe and which in the hands of the skilled operators makes it possible for the customer to have the best that skill can give in the way of treatments or hairdressing.

The operators at the Powder Puff are so well known that they scarcely need any introduction to the Plattsmouth public as they have been engaged here in this line of work for some time. Miss Florene Tritsch, who has for the past few years conducted a beauty parlor at her home on North Eighth street, and Miss Mildred Newton, who like Miss Tritsch, is a very experienced operator, and has been engaged in the operation of her parlor on the second floor of the Ritz theatre building. The two ladies are ranked very high in their work and in the past have been engaged in the conduct of a beauty shoppe at Peru, but disposed of this in order to be home at Plattsmouth and has opened the new shoppe for the accommodation of the local ladies.

It is the fact that the operators have a large clientele among the ladies of the city, it has been arranged that patrons may call either operator to make their appointments for work.

GIVE CLEVER PROGRAM

One of the cleverest convocation programs held usually every Friday at the high school under the auspices of the student council, was the program put on by the boys and girls glee clubs under the direction of Miss Ruth Lindsay yesterday morning.

The first part of the program was given over to the girls glee club, a splendid group of thirty voices, which was heard in two numbers which were enthusiastically received by the student body. "Sing We and Chant It" and an old familiar favorite, "Mighty Like a Rose."

"The Musical Surprise," a one act play depicts a desperate musical director (Ira Mumm) in search of talent with which to win fame and fortune. An artist of heavy voice and chest (Geo. Sayles) was the first to answer the director's ad and he proclaimed himself a basso profundo and demonstrated the quality of his voice in a most heart rending number. A couple of sopranos next appeared, (Margaret Shellenbarger and Marjorie Ann.) Margaret sang a number for the approval of the director, then her bashful and modest companion (Marjorie) was persuaded to submit her voice for approval. To cap the climax, a swanky, highly sartorial gentleman appeared, (Chester Lund) and with his English accent and sky-rocketing voice, proclaimed that he was a first tenor. After some very humorous repartee with the director, he sings a number while the audience keeps its attention focused on the monologue. Chester proved to be a real "find" as a character player. Finally to pacify the four temperamental artists, the director persuaded them to all sing at the same time, if not together. The artists were accompanied at the piano by a sleepy pianist, (Charles Nowacek.)

The student body expressed its appreciation of the efforts of Miss Lindsay, the glee clubs and the cast with hearty applause.

CASE IS HELD OVER

From Saturday's Daily— The case of the State of Nebraska vs. Peterson, which was to have been held today at the county court on the preliminary arraignment, was continued over until Tuesday, December 17th, at the request of the defendant. Mr. Peterson was charged with having stolen some batteries from the Merritt sand pits near this city and to which charge he entered a plea of not guilty. The delay was granted in order that the defendant might secure witnesses from distant points in his behalf. The state examined and had the testimony of their witnesses taken in the case today.

George Mark, Long Time Resident Passes On

Death Comes to Member of Well Known Cass County Family After Long Illness

From Saturday's Daily— This morning at 7:40 at the family home on North Fifth street occurred the death of George Mark, well known resident of Cass county for a great many years and who two years ago moved to this city from Weeping Water where he had been a resident for many years.

In the past few years Mr. Mark has been gradually failing and in the last few days his condition has been such as to give little hope of his recovery, he gradually sinking into the last long sleep of death and which brought him a blessed relief from his suffering with heart disease and other complications.

George Martin Mark was born September 1, 1858, in Jackson county, Ohio, and made that state his home for his younger years, he being married in Ohio in 1877 to Miss Jane Wood, who preceded him in death July 23, 1916, and by this marriage there were born two children, Mrs. Daisy Patridge and Mrs. Muri Gussett, both residing at Weeping Water. Mr. Mark was married the second time to Dora B. Rupe, at Pomeroy, Ohio, and of this marriage there was born one son, George Martin Mark, Jr., who is at the home here with the parents.

Mr. Mark came to Cass county in 1895 where he resided until 1918 when he moved to Perkins county to reside for a year as he returned here in 1919 and located again at Weeping Water until the family moved to this city.

While a resident in Ohio many years ago Mr. Mark was affiliated with the Masonic order.

There is left in addition to the widow and children one brother, William H. Mark of Union, one sister, Mrs. Anna Farley of Martin's Ferry, Ohio; one stepson, Clyde E. Rupe, Fairmont, Nebraska, as well as six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

HAS INFECTED FOOT

The many friends in this city of Paul Grassman, former Plattsmouth boy and now making his home at Omaha, will regret to learn that the young man is confined to his home as the result of a serious infection that has developed in one of his feet. The trouble was not thought serious at first and Mr. Grassman continued at work but the middle of the week it became so painful that medical attention was given to the affected member and since that time the infected part has been lanced several times in the hope of giving some relief and at last reports the swelling caused by the infection was somewhat going down altho the foot is still in serious shape.

TO VISIT SANTA CLAU

From Saturday's Daily— This morning Miss Edith Cook, teacher at the Wintersteen Hill school departed for Omaha and taking with her a group of nine little girls who are students in her room at the school, the party going to pay a visit to the various Santa Claus exhibitions that are being featured at Omaha. The party was a very enthusiastic one and the children were anxiously awaiting the time when the train would arrive and start them on their journey.

VISITING RELATIVES HERE

From Thursday's Daily— Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Pugsley and little Miss Marian Propst of Hayward, Nebraska, motored in from their home in the western part of the state for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stamp. They also came to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Dr. Pugsley's father and mother at Woodbine, Iowa, last Sunday.
