

Greenwood Department!

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Greenwood and Surrounding Vicinity

Miss Alpha Peterson, county superintendent was a visitor in Greenwood on last Wednesday, where she was visiting the schools.

M. E. Peterson and wife were over to Lincoln on last Wednesday, called there to look after some business matters connected with the garage here.

W. E. Pailing and Bert A. McElwain were visiting and looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Tuesday, they driving over in Walter's car.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McDonald were over to Lincoln on last Wednesday afternoon where they drove to consult a specialist regarding the health of Mrs. McDonald.

Ray Friedrichs has added a new fanning mill and grading machine to his equipment for the handling of the large volume of seed corn which he is at this time enjoying.

Mrs. Earnest F. Smith at their beautiful home in Greenwood on Thursday afternoon of last week, entertained the members of the Ladies Card club of Greenwood and where all surely enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mrs. Watson Howard who has been quite poorly for some time is reported as slightly better at this time. Mrs. Howard has been not in the very best of health, and while at times much better other times her health has not been so good. She however, makes the very best of the health which comes to her and keeps going as much as possible.

At this time there is being done a lot of repair work, in the way of changes of residences, barns and out buildings, as well as new hog and poultry houses, all of which is bringing good business to the Searle Chapin Lumber company and keeps Dewey Headley hustling the most of the time. He has also been selling much cement to the road crew who are to soon begin operations on the highway.

Robert E. Mathews and family were over to Manhattan, Kansas for the week end last week, where they spent the time making a very pleasant visit with Mrs. Belle Wilson, mother of Mrs. Mathews. Robert took particular notice as to the progress the farmers were making and found them much ahead of this country as it was much warmer and spring farther ahead there then.

Has Eight Hundred Chicks.
Watson Howard, who is in the poultry business mostly for the production of eggs, he having well selected stock of good layers. He has some eight hundred chicks and all healthy and thrifty chicks and will expect to hatch some eight hundred more, and from the entire hatch will select the layers for the coming year. The roosters will be used for table and market. Watson has made a very marked success in the production of eggs, many of his eggs going direct to the eastern market where they command a very fancy price.

Married at Omaha.
Mrs. Ada Gullion of Grand Island and a sister of Mrs. E. A. Landon, Mrs. A. N. Wright and Miss Catherine Coleman, who formerly resided here but who has been making her home in the west for the past nearly twenty-five years, was united in marriage with Mr. Charles Dahlgren of Polk, who is a prosperous farmer of that portion of the country, the marriage being celebrated on March 5th. Following the ceremony, the newly wedded couple came to Greenwood, where they visited for a time with the relatives of the bride here and enjoyed the visit. They then departed for their future home at Polk, where they will live on a farm and enjoy the best which the world affords.

Entertained the Eastern Star.
At the beautiful home of James and Margaret Greer south of Greenwood on last Wednesday afternoon Miss Margaret Greer entertained the members of the order of Eastern Star, at a 1 o'clock luncheon, when there was a most merry time and a good afternoon followed by one of the very best dinners possible. The ladies of the order declared this one of the very finest afternoons which they had spent in this beautiful country home in years. They are looking for the coming of another such pleasant time.

Enjoyed Fellowship in Iowa.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hudson and Mrs. Travis departed last Saturday and going via Plattsmouth and the new bridge, and thence to Glenwood, Iowa, and via Sidney over the newly paved highway to Shenandoah where they spent the Sunday in the magic city, and enjoyed the excellent programs put on by the broadcasting stations. Of course to keep in line they had to spend twenty-five cents to see if the bargains were sure what they were purported to be. They say they had just as well have saved the two-bits.

Oddfellows Entertain.
The I. O. O. F. of Greenwood who are always ready for anything which gives evidence of a good time, were visiting last Monday at their regular meeting night by some 28 members of the Ashland lodge and following the regular business which was but limited, they put on a stock judging contest, and naturally their ideas went to the different kinds of cattle selections were made as to the different breeds and the selection lighting on A. R. Birdsall, L. J. Waldrat, George Bucknell and Marian Dimmett. As the committee of judges passed on the contestants, they gave L. J. Waldrat 62 per cent as a Galloway, Marian Dimmett was given 73 per cent as an Ayrshire, George Bucknell, 32 per cent as a red polled while A. R. Birdsall was accorded 99.7 as Jersey and won the first ribbon.

Will Consider Good Roads.
The Greenwood Commercial club will meet on Friday, March 21st and will have their guests the farmers surrounding the city, and others who are interested in the welfare of this hustling city and community. At this meeting it is expected to take up the proposition of having the town line running east from Greenwood graded and made into a good road and furnishing an outlet from the new bridge across the Missouri river at Plattsmouth. The club will be entertained at their next meeting by the celebrated entertainers, Ben Howard, Phillip Reese and Charles E. Calfee.

Making Beautiful Home.
Fred Ethrege who had to move his home to accommodate the pressure of traffic is getting things in fine condition about the new home, and is working every day to make it more beautiful and convenient as well as a better place to live. By the time he has concluded the work he will have the home modern throughout and will have electric lights and a modern heating plant as well as water and bath, with hardwood floors, thus making a very beautiful home for himself, and probably room for another. Anyway we are hoping.

Started Home Last Week.
A letter from Riverside, California, where O. F. Peters and son, Glen, are at this time, and where they drove from Greenwood and enjoyed a good visit and are ready to return, they expecting to depart for home late last week.

Curtains Studied by Club
Mrs. Wm. Renwanz, Sr., was hostess to the Greenwood Achievement club, Wednesday, Feb. 26th. Curtains appropriate to windows of different rooms and of different proportions were explained by Mrs. Fred Hoffman, assisted by Mrs. E. Landon. How to make curtains, how to hang them and appropriate shades were also shown.

Plans for a local achievement day were discussed and Mrs. Carl Hoffman, Mrs. Floyd Grady and Mrs. Ted Carnes were appointed as a committee in charge of the program.
Mrs. Henry Tool and Mrs. Chris Kuppe of Murdock were out-of-town guests.
The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lulu Hurlbut on Wednesday, March 25th to study towels. Members who were not present may have back lesson by calling for them.

IMPOUNDS OFFICERS' GUNS
Fort Pierce, Fla.—Impounding two guns used by Fred Brownlee and two border patrol inspectors when they killed Perle S. Thomas near here three years ago, Judge Jefferson B. Browne Friday said he believed his action would "tend to prevent further commission of murder or murder assaults." In entering an order refusing to deliver the guns back to the United States government, Judge Browne said he was taking "judicial cognizance of the many murderous assaults that have been committed by federal officers and others and the necessity of preventing the same."

The judge denied a motion by Federal Attorney Hughes for return of the weapons, and in his order further set forth that he "has no assurance that if these two guns, which were used to murder an innocent citizen, be returned, the war department will not wrongfully entrust them to other murderously inclined persons."

ARMY REFUSES MUTTON
Grand Island—The Central Nebraska Sheep Feeders association, meeting in monthly session here was advised that its recent effort to have lamb and mutton placed on the army and navy menus had met with failure. The sheep feeders had enlisted the aid of Congressman Howard of Nebraska in their attempt to promote the use of lamb and mutton as a food.

A communication from F. H. Pope, army quartermaster, which was read at the meeting, stated that "for economic reasons as well as for the purpose of maintaining the morale of troops, it is considered inadvisable to recommend that lamb or any other class of meat other than beef be prescribed as the basic meat for the ration."
