

Alvo News

George Scheesley was delivering some wheat to the Rehmeier elevator on Wednesday of last week.

Uncle C. H. Kirkpatrick who has been feeling rather poorly for some time past is reported as being much improved at this time.

The wind of last Monday morning blew over the corn crib at the home of John Elliott and also lifted the hay rack from one of his wagons.

Simon Rehmeier and wife were enjoying a very pleasant visit during a number of days last week from the parents of Simon, C. Rehmeier and wife, of Weeping Water.

Uncle Henry S. Ough and his daughter, Mrs. Clo O. Scheffer, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weaver, of South Bend, where all enjoyed the day very nicely.

The faculty and students of the Alvo schools have been beautifying the school campus by the planting of a number of shrubs and flowers, which is adding much to the appearance of the building and surroundings.

Frank Heinrich and wife and their son Kenneth and M. R. Meyer and wife and daughter, Jacqueline, all of Favelock, were visiting last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Steeles, where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church were meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the parlors of the Methodist church of Alvo, where they were looking after the business of the church and also enjoying a social time. They did not forget having something good to eat.

They Ate and Talked.

The Mothers and Daughters club, of Alvo, were very pleasantly occupied on Friday evening of last week, when they held their banquet in the basement of the Methodist church. They sure had good things to eat as well as good things to talk about. This organization has been of great service to Alvo in making a better working team of the women of the city for all good causes. They sure had a good time and good eats.

Arthur Hits His Hand

While the clever mechanic and worthy mayor of the city of Alvo was about his daily avocation at the garage and was using a hammer more or less dextrally, the hammer caromed from a piece of steel which helped compose the car on which he was working on, careening to the back of the left hand of the affable official, with the result that a portion of the contents of that hand member was removed—and how? Certainly not according to the best surgical ethics. The injured member is getting along nicely and Arthur is feeling better.

Graduating Exercises Tuesday

The commencement or graduation exercises of the Alvo school will be held on the coming Thursday and the orator for the occasion is to be Dean McPreud of the Wesleyan university, and a man well known to educational circles as a most able man, and it is the good fortune of the Alvo schools to be able to secure him to address the graduates.

Storm Played Pranks

At the home of Lee Stewart, on last Monday, the storm blew down a large maple tree and as it fell lodged in a neighbor tree, where it remained until Wednesday morning, when, while Lee was engaged in milking, a wind came from another direction, blowing the tree from its resting place and depositing it on a steel gate nearby, crushing it to the ground.

Baccalaureate Sunday

Yesterday there was held at the Methodist church in Alvo the Baccalaureate services for the graduating class of 1930, and they were wise in their selection when they chose Rev. R. H. Chenoweth as their speaker for the occasion, for his sermon was filled with inspiration and good advice. The church was crowded and all present enjoyed the splendid service arranged especially for the members of the graduating class.

Spending Summer in Germany

'Evidence Man' Gets in Bad for Giving Hootch
Frank Biggs, Who Was Engaged as "Undercover Man" Here Jailed at Nebraska City.

An "evidence man" for the state, Frank Biggs, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail by Judge John M. Dierks Wednesday afternoon after the defendant had pleaded guilty to giving away some "evidence" he had procured from an Otoe country man, says the Nebraska City News-Press.

On April 17, according to a complaint filed by County Attorney George Heinke, Biggs gave a drink to Roy Bryant, Otoe county man, and a companion by the name of Kelly. Previously the liquor had been obtained on a "buy" from Bryant, to be used as evidence against the man. Biggs pleaded guilty to the charge.

Biggs has been an "undercover" man for state deputies in several other liquor cases in Cass and Otoe county recently. He was the man who disguised as a farmer, visited Nebraska City places recently and got evidence used to obtain conviction.

Prior to the Biggs' conviction Wednesday afternoon, which was a busy day in county court, Bryant, from whom Biggs obtained the liquor, pleaded guilty to an amended complaint charging sale of liquor and was fined $100 and costs.

MRS. FREDERICK STOHLMAN CELEBRATES 64TH BIRTHDAY

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stohlman, prominent farmers south of Louisville, celebrated the 64th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Stohlman at their home on Sunday, April 27. A fine dinner was served and Mrs. Stohlman was showered with good wishes for many more happy birthdays.

On account of weather conditions, all the children could not be present. Those who attended the happy family gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stohlman and son, Martin, Misses Martha Stohlman, Alta Huested and Erma Nielson, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan G. Althouse, of Alvo; Herbert Heil and Harvey Decker.

On last Sunday the children from Omaha came down with baskets of good things to eat to spend the day with their parents and to wish their mother many happy returns of her anniversary and all enjoyed the pleasant day on the farm together. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCafferty, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Kroeber and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Morse and their families and Mr. Larson's uncle.—Louisville Courier.

Cedar Rapids Man Spent Small Fortune Seeking Relief—New Medicine Brought First and Only Help.

MR. VERNON A. KELCHNER

"For three months I was confined to my bed because of stomach and kidney disorders," said Mr. Vernon A. Kelchner, 138 F Avenue, West, Cedar Rapids. "Even after that stage, I was forced to bed for two or three weeks at a time. I spent a small fortune in search for health, but nothing seemed to do me any good. As soon as I had finished a meal, I was attacked by terrible pains. Then my kidneys became disordered and brought on severe back pains. Nervousness followed and I became a physical wreck."

"I secured several bottles of Konjola and started the treatment. I began to grow better almost immediately and my friends remarked upon my improved appearance. My stomach was cleansed and invigorated and my digestion became better than in years. No matter what I ate, I was not troubled with pains. My kidneys and nerves were restored to normal activity. Today I am well and happy. I know this sounds impossible, but every word is the truth."

Konjola works with the important functional organs of the body. It drives the poisons from the system, regulates the organs of elimination and brings abundant and glorious relief. It is recommended that Konjola be taken from six to eight weeks to get the best results.

Konjola is sold in Plattsmouth, Nebraska by Manzy Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

APPROVE STOCK QUANTINE
Washington—State livestock and poultry quarantine laws will be restored under the Anderson bill which approved Wednesday by the house agriculture committee.

Under a recent court decision, states were held not to have quarantine powers except by authority of congress. The Anderson bill would permit states to quarantine against shipments from a state where livestock or poultry diseases exist.

John R. Mohler, chief of the bureau of animal industry, testified in behalf of the measure.

Mary Louise Wiley Resident Here 67 Years

Funeral Services of Old and Loved Resident is Held at Home South of This City.

Mary Louise Craig was born near Paris, Ill., June 18, 1846 and passed away at her home near Murray, May 4, 1930 at the age of 83 years, 10 months and 16 days, after an illness of but a few days.

Her husband, William Wiley, preceded her in death May 18, 1912. She came to Nebraska in 1859 with relatives and located near Rock Bluffs where she resided until her marriage to William Wiley on Jan. 27, 1863. They moved to the old home where she has resided ever since for the past 67 years. Grandma Wiley celebrated her 70th year in Nebraska last fall.

To this union was born fourteen children of which eleven and two step children survive, they being Mrs. Lizzie Jenkins, Truitta, Colo.; Mrs. Josephine Timblin, Alvo, Nebr.; Charles Wiley, Montezuma, Wash.; Will Wiley, Fayette, Idaho; Rose Hesser, Los Angeles, Calif.; James Wiley, Le Fleur, Washington; Nettie Ellington, Plainview, Nebr.; Warren Wiley, Venango, Nebr.; George Wiley, Eustis, Nebr.; Sarah Smith, Cozad, Nebr.; Addie Park, Murray. The two step children are Mrs. Mary Wiles, Weeping Water, Nebraska; Wiley, Plainville, Kansas. Also 26 grandchildren and 39 great grand children besides a host of loving friends.

Mrs. Wiley became a member of the Christian church at the age of 15 and was an ardent worker as long as she was active. She loved her church and was loyal to its teachings. She was devoted to her home and her love and thoughtfulness for her children and grand children marked her as a true mother and home lover.

The life time of Mrs. Wiley has covered many important events in the history of her country. Her life in Nebraska has seen this locality emerge from the wild unsettled plains country skirting what was known as the great American desert to a great and wonderful state. With these other daring pioneers who came to new out a new part of the nation, she has suffered the wants and privations of the early day and by her personal efforts and labors has assisted in the advancement of her home, county and state.

She will be missed not only by those near and dear to her but by her many friends and neighbors. Her funeral services were held from the Christian church in Murray Monday afternoon, May 5th at 3 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Robert Hanson assisted by Rev. J. C. Stewart. Music was furnished by a male quartet of Plattsmouth, composed of Roy Knorr, Demmie Hiatt, Frank Clويد, Rev. H. G. McClusky, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Knorr. The songs were "Jesus, Saviour Pilot Me," "Rock of Ages," and a solo "Fence to Fence," by Frank Clويد.

She was laid to rest in the family lot at the William Young cemetery east of Murray.

The pall bearers were six grandsons, Willard, Harold, Rhea Timblin, Malvern Read, Carl Park, Verle Smith.

Relatives present were: Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wiley, Margaret and Warren, Jr., of Venango, Nebr.; Geo. Wiley, Eustis, Nebr.; Mrs. A. J. Smith, Cozad, Nebr.; Mrs. S. E. Ellington, Plainview, Nebr.; Algerian Wiley, Fanning, Kansas; Mrs. George Wiles, Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. George Park, Mary and Carl, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Kidwell, Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read, Helen and Malvern, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Verle Smith, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Will Timblin, Willard, Harold and Rhea, Alvo, Nebr.

Manley's New School Building
The Board of Education of the Manley school has taken steps looking to the beginning of the actual construction work on the erection of the building in the near future. The board has a committee in the field, known as its building committee, composed of J. C. Rauth, Oris Schlieffert, Theo. Harnes, W. J. Rau and Rudolph Bergmann, and they have had plans drawn by a capable architect. In the very near future they will be ready to submit the specifications for bids from the different contractors. This new building will be a fine thing for the school district, as there has been a great need of better accommodations for the pupils for some time past, and the tax payers have wisely decided to provide a suitable building for the work.

GRUNDY AGAIN IS TARGET

Philadelphia—William F. Kelly, international vice president of the United Textile Workers of America Wednesday night declared that while Joseph R. Grundy, candidate for the republican nomination to succeed himself in the United States senate, was the "high priest" of protection in the republican party, he nevertheless had equipped his mills in Bristol "entirely exclusively with British made textile machinery."

"Senator Grundy refuses to purchase American machines and he operates nearly 700 pieces of machinery made either in England or in Scotland," Mr. Kelly asserted. He accused Grundy of "contributing to unemployment."

"You refuse to buy American machinery," he said, "you have helped to throw mechanics out of work by your persistent purchases of British machinery."
