The young folks of Alvo one day last week enjoyed a slumber party whose chief feature was not going to sleep as long as they could stay awake and then not waking up as long as they would be allowed to sleep. Poor rule that would not work both ways.

Attorney C. D. Ganz demonstrated good judgment when he made the purchase of a new car, making it a 1929 Model A, and we are certain he will get the very best service from his new acquisition, for we have been associated with one for some time which has proven very reliable.

Mr. and Mrs. Obed Clarke who conducts a barber shop and beauty parlor at Sheridan, Wyoming, were visiting the past week at the home of relatives and friends here and will visit with relatives in Kansas also before returning. Walter E. Barrit, son of Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick who makes his home at Los Angeles, arrived in Alvo and was a visitor with the mother for a number of days during the past week. some heifers at Sioux City and desired them brought to Council Bluffs near where he claimed to have a farm on which he desired to place the young cows. He negotiated with John as to hauling them down and they departed for Sioux City, and when arriving, he said he would get the money to pay for hauling the cattle and that John could eat meanwhile. This John did, as he was very hungry, and when he came back, nothing of the cattle dealer was to be found and after searching and putting the matter up to the police he returned home, with no cattle but more experienced. Hereafter the would-be cattle man must show his credentials.

The Young Fishermen.
The Young Bunch of Fishermen of Alvo were out last week and with very fair success, for among the larger fish which they landed was one which tipped their beam at seven and one half pounds and cat. The boys were wearing smiles for a time.

MISEGADIS FAVORS BAN ON ALL FORMS OF DEMOCRACY
Talmage, Neb., Aug. 1.—A. A. Misegadis, candidate for the republican nomination for congress in the First district, in a statement today reiterated his stand in favor of upholding all clauses of the constitution, but said that in order to establish a republican form of government, following the example of Abraham Lincoln, "all forms of democracy must be relegated to the scrap heap."

He favors repeal of the direct primary, initiative and referendum as unconstitutional. He is for complete restriction of immigration for 10 years; for amending the constitution to give congress power to regulate manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages; against entry into the world court until all nations join; for flood control, for development of water power in the state through private enterprise; for higher Panama canal rates; for repeal of all class legislation like the bank guaranty law and the act permitting purchase of grain or other commodities; against interference of the federal government in state affairs, and for full party control.

SUIT BROUGHT OVER LAND
Spokane, Wash.—The suit filed here Thursday by the United States against the Northern Pacific railroad involving millions of dollars and millions of acres of land seeks to decide differences between the government and the railroad and to make a final adjustment of land grants.

In the complaint the government charges that as a result of violations of legislative contracts, the carriers' right to additional lands was lost; that the road wrongfully obtained several million acres of land and that it took an unnecessarily circuitous route thru the state of Washington thereby acquiring wrongfully 1,500,000 acres of land.

Another government contention is that because of erroneous classification of the Northern Pacific, it has the right to satisfaction for 2,400,000 acres of alleged mineral lands returned to the government.

Charles Donnelly, president of the railroad, authorized a statement saying the Northern Pacific agrees with the government that questions involved can only be settled in court.

DOING VERY NICELY
From Saturday's Daily—
The reports from the hospital at Omaha are to the effect that Mrs. E. C. Ripple who was operated on Wednesday as the result of her badly crushed shoulder, received in a fall at the home here, is showing a very pleasing rate of progress. The operation seems very successful but the patient has felt very much the necessity of remaining bedfast with the arm held in braces and splints, the hot weather also tending to make the ordeal more trying of the patient.

START CAMP LIFE
From Saturday's Daily—
The De-News of today has a very interesting group of pictures of C. M. T. C. at Fort Crook and in which a Plattsmouth boy, Robert Bestor, is shown. Robert who was the smallest member of the camp reporting, 5 feet 2 inches in height, was shown posing with Charles E. Grader, Jr., of Omaha, 6 feet 7 inches in height. The two were attempting to swap their issue clothing to secure the proper fit.
News that a bridge club in Lawrence, N. Y., has barred women because they wanted to play for high money stakes, and are thus undesirable for membership, is discouraging to say the least.

WATER AND DUST-PROOF ROADS HELP THE FARMER

Good roads, in the opinion of Dr. Julius Klein, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, "have revolutionized the business of the nation, and the end is not yet."

In 1904 the State and Federal governments spent $2,500,000 for highways and in 1928, the last year for which complete statistics are available, they spent $827,000,000, or 330 times as much. In addition, the expenditures of counties and other local units of government reached the total of $332,000,000. Since 1921, the annual aggregate expenditure for roads has been above $1,000,000.

These are impressive figures and one might think we have all the roads we are likely to need for some time to come. But such is not the case. Our cities have been adequately provided with expensive streets and highways but most of the agricultural and rural country depends on the same type of road that existed in the horse and buggy days. Five million of our 6,250,000 farmers are cut off from their markets during several months of each year by a barrier of mud. It is a lucky farmer who is assured of all-year contact with the outside world over water and dust-proof surfaced roads.

Good low-cost farm-to-market roads offer better economic and living conditions to our farms.

OPPONENT'S SON SHOT BY DEFEATED CANDIDATE
Wilburton, Okla., July 30.—J. W. Callahan, county judge, was charged with assault with intent to kill here today, following the probable fatal shooting of Frank Briggs, 18, son of Claude Briggs, who apparently defeated Callahan yesterday as a candidate for the democratic nomination for the state senate.

Later officers took Callahan out of the city, because of feeling manifested against the county judge. His whereabouts was kept secret.

The shooting followed a conversation between Callahan and young Briggs.

FATAL FREE FOR ALL FIGHT
Madrid—Five persons are reported to have been killed and twenty wounded Tuesday at Santiago de Cuba in a free for all fight that broke out during celebration of a religious holiday. Dispatches from the town, which is located in an isolated region that has poor communication facilities, said the fighting began between groups of young men from rival towns. A band of visitors made disparaging remarks to the residents. Hot words were exchanged and this quickly led to fighting with revolvers, clubs and stones. About 100 shots were fired. Many were arrested by police sent from other towns. Order was restored in the evening.

Nebraska Candidates Facing Run-Off Voting

Non-Party Selections Are Made Between Two Best of Primary; Two in Contests.
Lincoln, Neb., July 30.—Nebraska candidates for non-political offices, Justice of the supreme court, members of the board of university regents and those who seek the office of superintendent of public instruction, face about the same in elections as do Texas candidates for state political positions, for they must go through a "run off" contest.

Where two or more candidates are filed for any one of these offices, the two receiving the highest number of votes are eligible for the November "run off."

If only two are filed, both are included in the November ballot regardless of the division of the vote in the August primary.

In the impending primary there are only two contests, that for the nomination of two candidates for superintendent of public instruction from either Charles W. Taylor, incumbent, and George L. Jackson of Lincoln.

The other is the Second district where voters will send either R. M. Switzer, Omaha; William C. Ramsey, Omaha; or A. C. Stokes of Omaha to the November election for selection of one as a Second district member of the board of regents.

Justice George A. Eberly of Stanton is practically assured of a re-election to the supreme court bench unless 9 per cent of the voters of the Third district should write in the name of an opponent at the primary.

NEWSPAPERS ONLY FOR ADVERTISING OF FOX THEATERS
New York, July 27.—After a careful survey of the field of motion picture advertising, the Fox Theaters corporation operating hundreds of movie houses announced today it had instructed its house managers, without decreasing their advertising appropriations to drop all other forms of advertising and spend the money for newspaper space.

The Fox company has found newspaper advertising a more effective medium to advertise current programs to the motion picture public. G. S. Yorke, director of advertising, declared. He listed six reasons for this decision.

Frequently the theaters must make quick changes in programs. These can always be advertised in newspaper columns.

"The newspaper columns also permit the best use of decorative advertising which is so essential to the advertising of our theaters."

"Increased space is always available in newspaper columns."

"Newspaper advertising can be changed or corrected with greater dispatch, minimum cost and greater convenience."

"Except in rare cases, theatrical advertisement do not have to compete with nontheatrical copy."

"Newspaper advertising can be digested at the convenience of the reader."

The decision was based largely on the experience of the Rosy theater in New York which has used newspaper advertising exclusively.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

Carl Hofacker, who was injured Monday afternoon in a collision with a truck near Fifth and Main streets, is now able to be up and around although he is still feeling to a great extent the effects of the injury. He received his head quite sore as the result of the severe scalp wound and also the fact of the loss of the lobe of one of his ears. It is not thought that the young man will suffer any serious after effects of the accident save in the loss of a part of the ear. With the chance that he was knocked down on the paving by the impact with the truck he is very fortunate not to have sustained a fracture of the skull.

Nebraska Youth Dies in a Car Crash

Deceas at Wheel En Route to Lincoln — Companion Also Hurt as Auto Turns Over
Lincoln, July 28.—Elmer Skov, copy reader on the Lincoln Star, died at 3 Monday morning of injuries suffered in a head-on crash between a light sedan and a loaded truck two and one-half miles west of Ashland.

Ned S. Gomon, another member of the Star staff, riding with Skov, suffered a badly sprained back, but is not seriously injured.

At the time of the crash, Gomon, driver of the car, was driving in the east beside Skov. Though he could not explain the crash, he advanced the belief that Skov had temporarily fallen asleep.

Pinned Beneath Car
Skov's body was pinned beneath the car, Gomon, pinned under the steering wheel, was able to release himself. The latter and the truck driver extricated Skov and rushed him to Ashland, where he died from a fractured skull.

The accident occurred while the two were returning from Omaha.

Ready for Degree
Skov's home was in Riverdale. He would have received his degree from the University of Nebraska this fall on completion of an extension course. The two preceding years he had been a student at the Kearney Normal school, where he was a member of the basketball team and editor of the weekly school paper. At the university he played freshman basketball and was a varsity substitute last winter.

Last summer Skov was physical director at Camp Sheldon, state Y. M. C. A. boys' camp near Columbus.

SITUATION IS "DESPERATE"
Omaha—As cash and futures wheat prices Wednesday declined in Omaha to the lowest levels since 1914, President Hugh A. Butler of the Omaha Grain exchange, issued a statement describing the situation as "desperate to both producers and speculators" and blaming the federal farm board for the condition of the market.

"We can expect a seasonal decline with the beginning of the harvest," said Butler, "but the one this year is out of all proportions to the usual recession and the federal farm board is directly responsible by forcing the speculators to bid for the market."

"Before the advent of the farm board the grain dealers carried the load for farmers and consumer by trading in futures, but now they are afraid to deal extensively in futures, because a statement from Washington might ruin them overnight," Butler stated.

POLA NEGRI PREPARING TO DIVORCE MDIVANI
Paris, July 30.—Pola Negri is again preparing to divorce Serge Mdivani. The Polish screen star is wealthy because the Georgian prince has refused to break off his friendship with Mary McCormic, Chicago opera singer.

"I will not say a word about it now, but the world will know everything when the case comes up," Pola said today.

Prince Mdivani declined to make any comment.

"Let Pola do the talking," he said. Mary McCormic also refused to make any statement.

SAYS AL SMITH TO RESUME ACTIVITY IN POLITICS
New York, July 29.—The New York Times says former Governor Alfred E. Smith will resume active participation in politics in the fall by taking a prominent part in the state democratic campaign, and also by making at least one speech for the democratic national committee.

The part Mr. Smith will play in the state campaign will be determined at a conference with Governor Roosevelt within the next 30 days, the paper says, and he probably will make several campaign speeches for Governor Roosevelt.

MOTHERS OBJECT, BUT SITTERS EAT
Red Oak, Ia., July 30.—Despite the dubious comments of two mothers, Ethel Redmon, 12, and Cleland Cooney, 10, of Red Oak Iads, are off on a tree-sitting contest at the Redmon home, and after 24 hours the mothers were carried three meals to the lads.

Red Oak escaped the flagpole sitting craze, possibly because there are few poles here, but with the advent of the tree-sitting contest several other lads have signified intentions of entering.
