

Alvo News

Mrs. T. M. McKinnon was enjoying a three days visit with a niece in Omaha last week. Lytle Miller, Stirling Conman, Carl Rosenow and Walter Vincent, were over to the Platte river on last Sunday where they went to become acquainted with the ducks which sometimes frequent that portion of the state. Alas they did not need a truck to bring the game home, their car held it all.

On Thursday of last week the Woman's Reading Club of Alvo enjoyed a very pleasant meeting, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kitzel who reside near Waverly. A very enjoyable time was had and many of the members from Alvo were over to the Kitzel home to enjoy the program.

Wm. Stewart, the well maker, and plumber as well, has just completed a new well at the grounds of the Rock Island road at Prairie Home which is supplying a good lot of pure water, and which is a good proposition as the road was needing a good well at that place and which had been a hard job to get.

George W. Warner of Arkansas, a brother of our townsman, W. H. Warner, was visiting for a couple of days with his brother here, and enjoyed the visit very much. They were both guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Skinner for dinner on Wednesday of last week. Mr. George Warner then going to Lincoln where he visited for the remainder of the week at the home of his brother, Frank Warner and family. On Sunday Billie Warner also went over for a week end and visited with his town brothers.

Entertained at Bridge. Mrs. Arthur Dinges entertained a number of her friends and there are many when it comes to enumerating them, at a bridge party on Friday of last week. She served a very delightful luncheon also which added to the afternoon.

Alvo Sure Went Wet. And what town would not be the same with five inches of rain during one night, filling the cellar with water. Simon Behmeyer was the inheritor of some grief for the water filled the pit in which his elevator boot is located and also in which he had some corn. This caused this good natured gentleman some damage and loss. The cellar of John Hanning's house also was filled with water.

Installs New Gas Tank. Art Dinges, the hustler when it comes to work or looking after any business as well as in all other lines, has just had a new gas tank installed to the garage so that he can serve the best of gasoline. The new tank was installed last week and is ready for service. Drop around and see the new arrangement.

Will Farm Again. The matter of living in a city when one is used to the wide open country is sometimes very loathsome and palls on one. It is not to be wondered at for a man used to activity cannot conform himself to putting on a white bolted shirt and wearing pointed toe blacked shoes. Well Perry G. Cook, who has stood it as long as he can will again farm the coming year. He will farm the place where Mr. Steel now lives and a few more pieces. He will equip the place to handle it with power machinery. The family will still remain in Lincoln but Perry will come out where he can get plenty of good air to breathe and also plenty of work to do as to that. Now that makes it necessary for Mr. G. E. Steele to find some other farm to bestow his labors on and find a place to eat and sleep. If any one knows where he can get a farm tell him.

Ladies Do Good Work. The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church, met on last Thursday at the basement of the church where they were working in the making of quilts and other needle work, also putting on a most worth while program and a very delightful luncheon was served. There was a short playlet also given by the elder ladies of the society. The hostesses for the occasion being Mesdames C. D. Ganz, Frank Taylor, S. C. Boyles and Earl Bennett.

COMMISSION HEARS WOW-WCAJ DISPUTE. Washington—WCAJ, station of the Nebraska Wesleyan university, continued its battle to defend its 590-kilocycle frequency and present broadcasting time before the radio commission here Thursday. Prof. J. C. Jensen, in protecting the interests of the Lincoln station, stated before the commission that the broadcasting scope of the educational and extension programs at the university would be seriously impaired if the station's activities were confined to a daylight channel.

PROP SPLIT ON COSTE'S PLANE. New York, Sept. 10.—The Question Mark, first French plane to fly from Paris to New York, developed a split propeller during the flight, it was learned Wednesday. The damage was brought to light at the plane's hangar while Coste and Bellonte were inspecting it preparatory to the national air tour, which begins next week. Coste immediately cabled to Paris for a new propeller, which ought to be here within six days.

French Fliers to Stop in Omaha on September 22

Will Go to Omaha from Minneapolis by Way of Sioux City; Tour is Limited; Ends Oct. 10. Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, who conquered the Atlantic ocean from Paris to New York, will fly their famous plane Question Mark to Omaha September 22 on their forthcoming good will tour, according to an Associated Press dispatch from New York, says the World-Herald.

The fliers, the dispatch reported, will start the tour September 15 and end October 10. The itinerary of the tour was made public in New York by Charles Hayden, chairman of the committee sponsoring the tour.

Will Farm Again. The tour, which will begin and end in New York, will include the following western stops: Friday, September 19—Chicago to Milwaukee, lunch; Milwaukee to St. Paul-Minneapolis. Saturday and Sunday, September 20 and 21, will be spent in Minneapolis.

Monday, September 22—Minneapolis to Omaha, lunch, via Sioux City; Council Bluffs-Omaha to Denver. The fliers will land only at those cities indicated as overnight and lunch stops. They will circle other cities mentioned on the itinerary and drop messages of greeting.

Hayden said that the committee had several limiting factors with which to contend; limited time at the disposal of the fliers making it impossible to duplicate the tour made by Colonel Lindbergh in 1927; the fact that the season of good weather is drawing to a close; and the strain a prolonged tour would place upon the French airmen.

Will Circle Cities. Major George Witten has been appointed tour manager and will travel along the route in a plane provided by the aeronautics division of the department of commerce. Rene Ravey, business manager of the fliers, will accompany them as interpreter.

Mr. Hayden pointed out that in addition to the stopping places, which were designated at state capitals wherever possible, the Question Mark will circle over other cities en route and drop messages of felicitation to the citizens.

Coste and Bellonte will be honor guests at a Chamber of Commerce public affairs luncheon while in Omaha. Commissioner Eastburn announced Thursday night. The chamber wired an invitation several days ago asking the fliers to visit Omaha.

Sen. Wheeler Has Renounced Prohibition

Heretofore a Dry Leader, He is Convinced Dry Law a Failure—Favors State Regulation. Washington, Sept. 12.—Senator Burton K. Wheeler (Mont., dem.), ranked among the drys in congress, issued a statement today saying: "I voted for prohibition in Montana because I felt that the old saloon was a curse to the American people and I wanted to do away with it. In the old days the breweries in many instances owned the fixtures, the buildings and the license and in many instances controlled local politics.

"I am no more in favor of the sale of liquor today than I was before but under prohibition you have in many cities more dives and speakeasies where they are openly selling rotten whisky than you had in the old days. Today in many communities, the bootlegger is becoming a greater political power and has more influence than the old time saloon keeper, as evidenced by the fact that he is able to reach many of our higher officials. He is generally a much lower type of citizen. He has had a frightful social, moral and political life.

"In view of the fact that this administration and the previous administration have apparently been helpless in stamping out the evil I am reluctantly forced to the opinion that national prohibition is a failure and that each state should be left to regulate the liquor traffic as a majority of its citizens deem advisable.

Wheeler last February introduced a resolution asking a judiciary committee investigation of enforcement. No action was taken. In view of his statement today a renewal of his inquiry demand is in prospect for the next session.

Senator Walsh, the democratic colleague of Wheeler from Montana and a dry, said last spring he would be willing to submit a referendum to that state on prohibition and to "stand by the result." His attitude coincided with one expressed just previously by another of the strong senate drys, Jones of Washington.

Volcano Eruption Kills Five People. Mount Stromboli Sends a Stream of Lava in Italy—Earth Shocks Felt. Messina, Italy.—At least five persons were killed and several scores injured, some seriously, in a simultaneous earthquake and eruption of Stromboli volcano near here Thursday.

The eruption blew off the cone of Stromboli, which is on the island of the same name in the Aeolian group near here, and poured burning rock on the town of Gimotra and San Bartolo.

Four of the dead were killed at Stromboli and one at Gimotra. All of the 400 houses in the former town were made uninhabitable by the great stream of lava which descended. Fields around the ruined towns were destroyed and flourishing vineyards were wiped out by the searing river. Many buildings were set on fire.

Aid Is Under Way. Five ships, including four war vessels, were sent from here to aid the stricken region. They carried food, tents and medical supplies as well as fire fighters and officials. The volcano soon returned to its normal activity.

Lipari Island, where the Italian government confines noted political and other prisoners, felt the earthquake at the same time as Stromboli. There was an instant panic and several hundred soldiers garrisoned on the island were turned out for special guard duty. Those on Lipari were able to see Stromboli erupt. All of the Aeolian islands felt the earth shocks.—State Journal.

SUPPORT OF DRYS URGED. Chicago.—The National Women's Christian Temperance association issued a statement Friday over the name of Mrs. Ella Boole of New York, its president, urging voters to support all dry candidates, regardless of party, and to vote "no" on the Illinois referendum asking if the eighteenth amendment should be repealed. After saying that the prohibition "referendum has been forced on Illinois by the republican party," the statement continues:

"In general it has been the policy of dry forces to ignore any non-mandatory referendum. But the platform of the republican party in Illinois pledges the republican candidates to accept the result as mandatory. Former referenda on prohibition were advisory, but in this case the republican senatorial candidates promises she will be bound by the direction given her by the voters. It is generally inferred that many candidates for congress and the legislature will abide by the result of the referendum in their home districts."

Boys Who Set Off Stench Bombs Free. Kansas City.—Three college boys from Chicago who released stench bombs in a downtown theater here were released after police decided the novelty store clerk who sold the bombs was responsible for any disturbance of the peace.

Name T. S. Allen as Chairman of State Democrats

Organization Formed to Push Party Interest Between Elections—Plan Far-Reaching. Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 13.—Fired with enthusiasm generating from the bright prospect for victory next November, more than 40 members of the democratic state central committee returned to their homes tonight from a meeting held here this afternoon "with their sleeves rolled up and ready for work."

It again headed by T. S. Allen of Lincoln, veteran state chairman, who in the face of unanimous demand from representatives of every section of the state reversed his previous decision to resign from the chairmanship, the committee laid organization plans which, although centered on the present campaign, will be far-reaching in bringing about success of the party in future years.

Form Permanent Organization. A permanent organization was inaugurated which will continue its work during the interim between elections. It will center around a committee headed by Colonel Frank Warner of Norfolk, and including William Allison of Laurel, William H. Smith of Seward, O. W. Meier of Lincoln, Irl Tolen of Ord, William Ritchie of Omaha, Mrs. J. P. Jensen of Blair, National Committeeman Arthur Mullen of Omaha and Mrs. Evelyn Ryan of Grand Island, national committee woman.

In addition to this committee, an executive committee which will be charged with directing the present campaign was named. It includes L. W. Kinney, Hastings; Phillip Tomek, David City; Mrs. Ida M. Thrubler, Lincoln; Frank Warner, Norfolk; Anna J. Phillips, Blair; Mrs. B. F. Farrell, Schuyler; J. H. Hanley, Omaha; Irl Tolen, Ord; T. A. Wilmore, Hebron; Dr. C. W. Doty, Beaver Crossing; Janet Meisner, Harvard, and Mrs. W. D. Oldham, Kearney.

O. E. Bernecker of Seward was elected vice chairman of the state committee and Laura W. Whitmore, Aurora, secretary.

AN INTERESTING RELIC. Byron Golding of this city, in going through some documents and articles belonging to his parents, has discovered a very interesting book that discloses a little of the censorship and supervision that was a part of the life of the dweller in European countries. The book is one used by the father of Mr. Golding, Carl Ernest Golding, carrying his life's history as well as all of the identification data of Mr. Golding and which it was necessary to carry and have stamped when going from place to place. Mr. Golding, who was born in 1828 in east Prussia, studied as a barber at Koenigsberg, the capital of East Prussia, in those days the service of a barber covering a wide range of activities as he was also the physician of the smaller cities and his services as a bleeder were often called for.

The book shows the journeys of Mr. Golding in the late forties and the last entries are at Frankfurt on the Main in 1850 and Cologne in 1851, each entry being stamped with the seal of the town and the notation of the burgenmaster.

The data in the book gives a brief sidelight on the religious persecutions that were a part of Europe at that time. Mr. Golding making the entry as his religion as that of Lutheranism, the state religion, altho he was a member of the Hebrew race and held their religious belief, the necessity of the day made this bit of irony on the Prussian government to which he owed allegiance.
