

WEEPING WATER

Miss Lenore Reed was a visitor on last Saturday at the home of friends at Plattsmouth, driving over in her car.

Don Critchfield of Bethany was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Monday looking after some business matters for a short time.

Searl S. Davis of Plattsmouth was both visiting with friends and relatives here and looking after some business matters on last Tuesday.

Peter Miller was a visitor for a short time in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday where he went to visit at the home of his son, James Miller and family.

Fred Burch was spending a number of days in the western portion of the state where he has land interests and where he was looking after them. He drove out in his auto.

Frank Davis and wife of Broken Bow were visiting in Weeping Water for a few days last week and also arranged for on their return to be accompanied by Mrs. Davis' mother.

Mesdames H. M. Frans of Murray, and Martha Wetenkamp of Plattsmouth, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wiles for a number of days during the present week.

Mrs. Lottie Rainsford of Okama, Kansas, of Howard Brookings of the Liberty theatre, was a visitor in Weeping Water for the past two weeks and a guest at the home of her son.

Harry Grady and family who have been making their home at Mountain Home, Arkansas, where they moved early in the spring, are visiting here for a short time. They report the summer very dry down that way and the crops very poor.

Mrs. Joan Carter entertained the Kniekerbocker club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abrams on last Saturday evening at a pleasant game of bridge, there being five tables of the guests. A most pleasant time was had and the guests were served with a very delightful luncheon.

Oscar Linville whom it will be remembered was injured at Fort Riley, Kansas, last spring and who has been in the hospital of the army since, was able to make a visit home last week and sure enjoyed meeting his many friends here. He will have to return to the hospital at Fort Riley for further treatment.

Frank Plymale, Edward Dowler and A. R. Dwyer were over to Lincoln on last Tuesday evening where they attended a banquet at the office of the DeTeau Chevrolet Company of that place and where there was a gathering of the dealers and salesmen who handle the Chevrolet.

Mrs. Joe Abrams entertained on last Monday evening at her home in Weeping Water in honor of two of her nieces who were visiting here from Council Bluffs, Iowa. In the contest the high score was made by Mrs. Art Markland while the second high was made by Mrs. Olive Olson. A most pleasant time was had.

Our friend, Cris Rasmussen, who is a lover of football, and who has a son who sure is a fast player, with the closing of the store at noon, accompanied the football team and the other friends who were anxious for success to Elmwood where they gave all moral encouragement possible for the success of the Weeping Water lads.

Has Modern Home. Late last week Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rough moved into their new and beautiful farm home which has been building for some time past. W. W. Davis, the carpenter and contractor having charge of the building of the home and who was also assisted by Mark Wiles. The home is a very commodious one, and well appointed with all modern conveniences. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rough will enjoy living in it.

Hold Excellent Meeting. At the Congregational church in Weeping Water on last Monday evening was held a special missionary meeting at which two famed speakers were present and made very fine addresses. One who has spent many years in Japan, gave very vivid descriptions of the country and of the need of work by missionaries which made a very direct appeal to the people. The other gentleman who has spent some thirty years in South Dakota where he has worked among the Indians of that position of our home land, and told of how successful the work had been carried on there. All in all, the meeting was a wonderful one and one filled with inspirational cheer.

Visited Here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George Hline of Decatur were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Michelsen where they were also joined by Teddy Klunhouse of Blair, and family, as well as by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Parkening of Omaha. All enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Loss Little Son. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blake whom it will be remembered resided here some years ago but who have been making their home at Springfield for some time past are mourning the loss of their little son, Robert Thomas Blake, two years of age. The little one dying on Tuesday morning, the funeral being held on Wednesday.

Rebekahs Will Elect Officers. The daughters of Rebekahs of Weeping Water have prepared for a meeting on November 21st at their hall when they will enjoy a covered dish supper and a merry time following the regular meeting at which they will also elect officers for the coming term.

Observed Armistice Day. Long there has been a contest between the football teams of Elmwood and that of Weeping Water and no occasion ever comes when they do not try for mastery. The game for Armistice day fell to be played on the Elmwood athletic field and there at noon the schools of Weeping Water were dismissed and all who could find accommodations for making the trip went to Elmwood to root for the Weeping Water team. The stores were most all closed at noon and the town was nearly deserted as all enjoyed the going to see the contest between the two teams and it has been alternate winning by each team taking the honors one time and only to be followed the next by the other team. The score of this game was not obtained.

Organize Legion Post. Weeping Water, with a large number of members of the American and many ex-service men who had their membership elsewhere, has been without a post until last week when they organized a post with some thirty members to return to on Monday and is feeling much improved, the wounds healing nicely. He will have to return occasionally to allow the physicians to care for the wound as he convalesces. His many friends are pleased that he is able to be home again.

Will Make Home in Weeping Water. Mrs. Agnes Keathley who has been making her home at Lincoln for some time was a visitor in Weeping Water for a time on last Tuesday and arranged while here to return to Weeping Water to make her home. She returned to Lincoln and arranged for the shipping of her goods to Weeping Water. She has many friends who will be pleased to have her return to her old home town to reside.

Nehawka

J. E. Woods is painting at the home of Eugene Nutzman during this week.

Last week D. C. West was enjoying the attending of the Nebraska State Bankers association which was in convention at Omaha.

E. E. Hadley living east of Nehawka has been on the sick list for some time, but is reported as being some better at this time.

Parr Young has the top as to the yield of corn, he having a piece which made seventy bushels and which is excellent for this year.

Mesdames M. L. Swingle and V. P. Sheldon were enjoying a visit in Lincoln, they driving over to the big town in their car on last Monday.

Edward Murray who has completed the picking of his corn is assisting his brother, Albert Murray, over towards Cedar Creek with the picking of his crop.

Walter J. Wunderlich of the Nehawka bank was called to Omaha on last Monday to look after some business matters, he driving over to the big town in his car.

Martin Ross who has been hustling about the picking of corn has his all out and in the crib and is pretty well satisfied for there could be a break in the weather any time.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon and their daughter, Miss Ruthan, were over to Lincoln on last Saturday, they visiting with friends and also looking after some business matters.

Otto Schafer and wife were host and hostess on last Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hanson on last Sunday, for the evening and supper, they driving down in their car for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coursey and their son of Omaha, were visiting for the week end at the home of the mother of Mr. Coursey, Mrs. H. H. Stoll, where all enjoyed an excellent time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. August who departed for their home at LaMar last week, arrived safely though slightly late in the evening, enjoying the trip and making very good time without accident.

Albert Wolfe was over to Murray on last Monday afternoon where he went to work in the T. J. Brendel barber shop while Mr. and Mrs. Brendel were over to Omaha looking after some business matters.

Uncle Peter Opp who has been staying in Nehawka for some time departed late last week for Omaha where he will visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Lloyd and husband, for some time.

T. L. Davis of Weeping Water was a visitor in the neighborhood north of Nehawka on last week looking after some matters on his farm, and getting cribs ready for the corn crop which is surprising in its quantity.

On last Sunday J. G. Wunderlich and wife were over to Unadilla where they went to visit for the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Von Ackereh whom they have known for many years. They all enjoyed the visit.

Guy Burton and wife of Palmyra were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton for a portion of the day on last Sunday and following their visit here they drove past Murray and visited the father, J. H. Burton for a time before going home.

Olaf Lundberg sold during the latter part of last week, two radios, one of them going to W. F. Jurgensen of Plattsmouth, manager of the Standard Oil Co. and the other one being taken by Mr. E. E. Hadley, both are well satisfied with their purchases.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stuck of Stirling, Colo., the latter the daughter of Mr. D. Adams, were visiting here for a short time last week. Mr. Stuck having a brother making his home at Johnson, and whose wife died, Mr. and Mrs. Stuck of Colorado came to attend the funeral and also visit in Nehawka.

W. A. Hicks who has been hustling in the matter of picking of his corn, has now completed the task, and says that the next thing on the calendar will be coon hunting. Mr. Hicks has some good coon dogs and as he also likes the chase, he expects to enjoy the matter of hunting the festive coon now in a short time.

John Opp and the family, hitching up the limousine on last Sunday, went to Nehawka, where they stopped at the Waubensie bridge, went to Percival Tabor, Glenwood and there visited for a short time the parents of Mrs. Opp, George Curtis and wife, and Hears Father Had Died. Mr. A. G. Cisney and brother, Joseph, hearing their father was very poorly at his home at Coleridge, departed there early last Sunday morning and found the parent very low on their arrival in the evening. They did all possible to make him comfortable, but realized the end was near. On Monday morning at six o'clock, the messenger of death came and the father rested in peace. The boys remained to do all possible in the hour of grief and also to give their parents the best burial and every honor possible which loving sons could render their father and in honor of his memory. This was the second stroke and from which it was not possible for him in his advanced years to rally. The boys here and their family, have the sympathy in this their hour of sorrow.

Entertained Woman's Club. Mrs. Olaf Lundberg and assisted by her friend, Mrs. Harold Dodson, entertained the Nehawka Women's club on Friday of last week when there were a large number of the members of the organization present and a most worth while program was presented. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was had.

later coming out to the river, crossed at Plattsmouth on home having had a very pleasant day.

Frank Leitch and wife were over to Lincoln on last Sunday where they were visiting with Miss Helen Cramer who is slowly recovering from her injury which she received in the wreck when the father was fatally hurt. Miss Helen is still very poorly, but is showing some improvement which is hailed with pleasure by her many friends.

H. M. Chriswesser notwithstanding his three score of years, can pick corn to the queens taste, for on last Saturday afternoon he picked fifty bushels at the home of Ray Chriswesser, his brother. This after having worked during the morning. He is able to make and does make a rate of one hundred bushels in a day, and sixty years at that.

Mrs. Ruth Pollard entertained at her home on last Sunday and had as her guests for the occasion the family of Mr. and Mrs. Edna Mae who was ill, the children of Oren Pollard, they being her sons, Mrs. Oren Pollard who is in the hospital at Omaha was unable to be present, but while she has been very sick for some time is slowly recovering and was able to be turned over in bed on last Sunday.

Harry L. Kruger was down to Nehawka last week from his home at Plattsmouth and was looking over the Nelson Berger home and also doing some work as he will assist Edwards Woods in the finishing of the new home. This week the plumbers are busy at the house and the painters are thereby crowded out. It is expected that the painters will be back to work again the coming week.

Our old time friend, and a jolly genial one he is at that, H. H. Stoll, likes to hold on to the warm weather and the warm weather sports was over to Cedar Creek on last Monday afternoon and was accompanied by his grandson, Guy Stoll of Wayside, who is here visiting for a time with his two sets of grand parents, Messrs. and Mesdames T. E. Fulton and H. H. Stoll. The boys sure had a good time fishing for the weather was fine.

AN APPRECIATION To My Friends in Cass County:— As I cannot see you all personally, permit me through the medium of the newspaper, to express my deep appreciation to you for the splendid support you gave me at the polls November 4th. While you are returning me to the House of Representatives, yet I cherish far more the esteem and confidence which you have placed in me, than the mere holding of public office, which has its cares and responsibilities as well as its reward for work well and conscientiously done.

My sincere desire is to serve the people of my county and state in such a manner that whatever influence I might have in furthering the business and enacting laws for our great state, may be thrown in the balance for the furtherance of a just and righteous government.

Most sincerely,

Four Towns to Participate. Representatives from the towns of Union, Nehawka, Murray and the community center of Lewiston, have arranged to give a concert from WAAW on November 15th, the evening Saturday, beginning at twelve fifteen and continuing a half hour. Be sure and tune in and get it.

AWOENT CAMP FIRE MEETS Friday, October 31, the Awoent Camp Fire held a Halloween party at the home of Rachel Robertson. The basement was decorated by the committee, Joan and Rachel, and was adorned with pumpkins, black and white paper, to say nothing of ghosts and coffins. Entertainment, Marjorie Anne and Mary Jane consisted of ducking for apples, telling ghost stories and other Halloween pastimes. An older sister acted as fortune teller and revealed the futures of the members. All were present except Edna Mae who was ill.

Refreshments were managed by Harriet and Jacquelyn and enjoyed by all. The prize winners were Mary Jane, first prize, and Mary Katherine, second prize, for costumes. The total cost of the party was ninety-two cents.

At a suitable hour the party broke up and the members went home voting their guardian the best ever for making happy plans.

Last Wednesday we met at the home of Miss Alice Crabill and held a short business meeting presided over by the president, Mary Katherine Wiles. Then we assisted in arranging a work room in the basement and proceeded to the mending of toys for others for Christmas, this proving that we are trying to be useful as well as ornamental.

The girls bought an Indian name book for the library. The committee, Mary Jane, Marjorie Anne and Rachel presented the book to the library Thursday after school.

ENJOY OYSTER SUPPER chinsky at an oyster supper which was served at the Stewart cafe. The event was in acknowledgment of the council's shower of congratulations of the fourth ward councilman on the occasion of his recent marriage and will be very pleasantly remembered by the councilmen who laid away the feast prepared for them.

Last evening when the members of the city council had ceased their deliberations and prepared to adjourn, they, with Mayor Sattler and City Clerk Thomas, were invited to be the guests of Councilman Lus-
