

GREENWOOD

Col. P. L. Hall was looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Wednesday, driving over to the big city in his car.

Wm. Copes was caring for the business at the S. S. Petersen blacksmith shop during the absence of Mr. Petersen in Missouri last week.

Mrs. R. E. Mathews has been enjoying a visit for the past week with her sister who has been here from her home at Powhattan, Kansas.

While E. L. McDonald and the good wife were visiting in the west last week Pearly Clymer was assisting in the care of the business at the McDonald store.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Peters were enjoying a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Barys Lewis and husband near Verdun, they going the middle of last week and remaining until Sunday evening.

George Trunkholz was cleaning out the sewer drains and getting them so that when the snows of the winter come and the consequent wet weather that there will be no flooding of the streets and that the roads will be kept in best condition.

With a smile of satisfaction A. L. Jardine announced that he had concluded the picking of his corn, and getting it all in and under cover during the very fine weather which has prevailed for so long. This sure has been an exceptional fall for the getting the corn from the fields into the cribs.

The police court of Greenwood was busy grinding out the justice which it is noted for last week. On Wednesday evening two sessions were had one at 7:30 in the evening which had to be rushed to get out of the way of the second case which was to be held at 9 o'clock. Judge Armstrong knows how to mete out justice.

Greenwood Transfer Line We do a general business—make trips regularly to Omaha on Monday and Thursday, also to Lincoln Tuesday and Friday. Pick up loads on those trips. Full loads at any time. FRED HOFFMAN.

Home From Northwest. On Monday of last week Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Birdsall who have been visiting for the past three weeks in the northwestern portion of the state their principal place of visiting being in the vicinity of Gordon and Bloomfield. They made their home at Gordon for some seven years and were well acquainted with a large number of people there. The time was put in enjoying their visit, and they could have remained much longer for something was doing all the time.

On their return trip they stopped at Bloomfield where they visited at the home of their daughter Superintendent of the city schools, John Weatherhogg and their daughter, Mrs. Wetherhogg and the kiddies. The entire visit was one of much pleasure and they counted it much too short.

Makes Extended Trip. Fred Hoffman has traded in his old truck and gotten a new one in this it is a Speed Wagon of the celebrated Reo make, and one which will carry large loads in safety as well as make good time. Last week Fred took the household effects of Dr. W. H. McFadden to Chicago and went on over to Detroit, where he secured a truck load of Firestone tires which he delivered to an Omaha house for distribution. Fred is well satisfied with his new truck.

Make Your Dollar COUNT

Your dollar for the Red Cross roll call, which begins on Armistice day will aid some one who is very badly needing help. You could not put a Dollar in a better earning position than to invest it in a membership in this great humanitarian organization that accomplishes so much good all over the world. Do it NOW, at the beginning of this 1931 Roll Call!

Standard Oil New Manager. With the resignation of Carl Hoffman who has been the manager of the Standard Oil company in Greenwood, and who will farm the coming season a short distance from Greenwood, Watson Howard has been prevailed upon to accept the management of the company's business in Greenwood and vicinity. No better man could have been selected for this territory than Mr. Howard for he is well and very favorably known and will look after the business of the company to the very best. He has purchased a new truck which he will use in the distribution of the goods of the company.

Will Occupy Calfee House. The two families of White and Bucknell who have been making their home near the Searle Chapin Lumber Co.'s yards will in a short time move to the house which was formerly occupied by C. E. Calfee and wife, and which is at this time being refurnished and put in the best of condition by that excellent painter, Fred Wolfe.

Visiting In the West. For the past week E. L. McDonald has been visiting with his father in the western portion of the state. The father has heretofore been a rancher and has retired. Mr. McDonald was accompanied by Mrs. McDonald, they making the trip in their car. They were fortunate that the weather and roads were fine and they sure enjoyed the trip and the visit.

Gets More Work Now. John E. Stradley who has the maintenance of the roads east of Greenwood, and who has had to rustle will in the future have some more of the same kind as the opening of the new paving will require the old D. L. D. to be maintained which has been returned to the county and falls to John to look after.

Tries Picking Corn. On last Tuesday Sophas Petersen who likes the out of doors, went to the home of his friend, Lud Gustafson, where they two went after the matter of picking corn for the afternoon. They hustled and as the corn was fair for this season, they were enabled to get for the afternoon one hundred and five bushels. They put in four hours and five minutes in actual work, and Sophas said that he thought the last fifteen minutes was sure a long hour. Well this matter of picking corn is no child's play. Real work these farmers are doing.

Visiting in Old Missouri. On Sunday morning S. S. Petersen who has been working pretty steady, as the paving gang kept him humping, and later getting the wagons in condition for picking corn, has made him and the partner, Mr. Copes sweat during the warm days, but as work has slackened, Sophas with the auto tuned just right, slipped away while the others were sleeping and went to New Hampton, Mo., where he is visiting this week with his old time friend, A. J. Stevens. Each year Sophas takes a vacation and spends it in Missouri.

Fathers and Sons Enjoy Eats. At the Father and Son banquet which was served on Friday night of last week there was a large representation of the lads and the dads and they sure had a fine time and good eats which the ladies had prepared. Good fellowship prevailed and all enjoyed the occasion. These meetings are a very fine way of getting the men and the boys closer together and working in unison.

Attend Second Degree Work. A number of the members of the I. O. O. F. of which Walter Palling and Fred Ethrege were a portion, were enjoying a meeting of the I. O. O. F. at Havelock last week when the degree team from Weeping Water, which is considered one of the very best in the state, put on the work. This team will also put on work when they will confer the second degree on four candidates for the lodge at Plattsmouth.

Guy Simms Second in Husking Contest Harlan County, Neb., Man Runner-up to Fred Stanek for the Championship. Norton, Kas.—Fred Stanek, thirty year old Iowa farmer, speeded thru a dusty Kansas cornfield Friday into his fourth national husking championship. Stanek didn't mind the dust. He proved it by shucking a net load of 30.34 bushels in the eighty minute contest. In previous years he conquered other handicaps imposed by nature. The net load of the Port Dodge farmer, 2,123.8 pounds, was 380 pounds short of the national record established in 1925 by Elmer Williams, the praying husker from Toulon, Ill. Guy Simms of Harlan county, Nebraska, took second place with 2,075.5 pounds or 29.65 bushels. Theodore Balko of Redwood county, Minn., was third with 28.83 bushels. Ray Hanson of Cottonwood county, Minnesota, first in gross production, was awarded fourth place by the judges after deductions for corn left in the field and shucks upon the ears. The other contestants and the or-
