Walter Franks shelled and delivered his corn to the Rehmeier elevator on Thursday last week.

Mrs. Thomas Stoull has been in poor health the last few weeks and went to Milford to consult a doctor there.

At the village caucus recently held the following were nominated: P. J. Lynch, R. M. Coitman, Will Stewart and John Banning.

George F. Braun and wife of South Bend were guests for the day on last Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yeager.

W. B. Banning and wife of Union, were visiting in Alvo for a short time on last Monday, stopping while returning from a business trip to Lincoln.

Ben Minchau shelled and delivered corn to the Rehmeier elevator in Alvo the same being delivered by the enterprising of Coitman and Stoull.

Frank L. Edwards and the good wife were called to Lincoln on last Wednesday afternoon where they were looking after some business matters for the store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curvey, who make their home in Lincoln, and Mrs. L. Muir, also of the big town, were visiting in Alvo for the afternoon on last Wednesday.

The L. T. L. met with Joan Cook on Saturday afternoon. There were 22 children present with Messdames Bennett, Leonard and Muenchau leaders of the group.

On Tuesday of last week, Charles Godbey and the good wife were visiting in Lincoln, being guests while there at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. E. Dickerson.

On Monday evening the friends and neighbors of Mr. Frank Daugherty gathered at his home to tender him a surprise party in honor of the occasion of his birthday.

John D. Foreman of Lincoln was looking after some business matters and also visiting with his many friends in the bustling little city of Alvo on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bornemeier entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bornemeier and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Bornemeier of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Stolz of Milford.

W. W. Coitman and wife and their two daughters, Miss Ruth and Ethel of Elmwood, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of R. M. Coitman and the family where all enjoyed the occasion nicely.

Edgar Edwards and wife were guests for the day on last Sunday at Plattsmouth where they were visiting for the day at the home of Mrs. W. H. Rainey, they being relatives and where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Another car trying to occupy the same space which was last week by S. C. Hardcock one day last week resulted in both of the cars being somewhat damaged, but fortunately it was neither occupants of the cars were injured.

On last Wednesday morning John B. Skinner with the big truck was a visitor in Omaha, having a pickup load of stock for the market there and which was of the stock of W. L. Cople, Neal Lewis and on his return trip he brought a load of sheep for Herman Aulhouse.

Edgar Edwards was called to Lincoln on Wednesday of last week where he had some business matters to look after, and some purchases to make for the store. While he was away he has the old reliable hardware man look after the business, R. M. Coitman. And he could not have done better.

John Skinner has been doing his portion to make the city of Alvo the very best as he has been constructing concrete walk when he has not been kept busy with other work. He started the work when the snow came and had to desist, and again on last Wednesday afternoon started the work again and with the night came rain, but only in a mild way. But don't fear, John will get the

Making Home Modern.
L. D. Mullen, who has one of the finest homes in any small city and endeavors to have things convenient as with the assistance of Joe Armstrong, who is sure a worker and able to do any job he tackles, were last week constructing a cess pool at the home that they may have the advantages of a sewer system even if the town does not provide for it.

Slippery Roads Causes Damage.
Paul Coitman was coming to town after a rain, to deliver the students of the Alvo school to their homes in the country he being the driver of one of the buses for that purpose, struck a particularly slippery place which slipped his truck into a culvert post, resulting in the badly damaging of the truck. He however, soon had another vehicle and got the scholars to their homes. Then was the tug of making the truck good this was a longer and more expensive proposition but with the recovering of Arthur Dingus who was in front man, they had the truck so that it was able to make the trip on Wednesday.

Married Twenty Years.
Last Sunday marked the anniversary of the wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Rehmeier, and as they were quietly at home, they were surprised by a large number of their friends and relatives from Weeping Water, where they with well filled baskets and a disposition to enjoy the day to the very best. This they sure did made this happy couple know that they had friends who were anxious to make them happy. There was there for the occasion Cris J. Elgaard and family, Otto Hanson and family, Carl Petersen and family, Jans Mogensen and family, Cris Rasmussen and family, Henry Mogensen, C. Rehmeier and wife, parents of Mr. Rehmeier and Fred Rehmeier and family, brother of Simon, all of near or at Weeping Water, Otto Hanson and family of near Louisville and Adolph Hanson and family of near Wabash. To say that they had a good time would only be half telling the matter.

Death of Former Resident of Cass County
Mrs. John Tighe Passes Away at Home of Daughter at Glenwood; Funeral Services Monday.
Mrs. John Tighe, for many years a resident of the vicinity of Manley, passed away on Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Huse on the Duppely farm east of Glenwood, at the age of seventy-eight years.

Mrs. Tighe was the wife of the late John Tighe, a well known resident of Cass county and Mrs. Tighe had been in failing health for several weeks when her condition became critical.

The body of Mrs. Tighe will be taken to the family home at 116 North Fortieth street, Omaha, and the funeral services will be held on Monday morning from the St. Cecilia cathedral at Fortieth and Burt street.

The deceased lady is survived by two sons, Leo of Omaha and Paul of Herman, Nebraska, and six daughters, Miss Anna Tighe of Chicago, Mrs. Charles Cowan of Canning, South Dakota, Mrs. Walter Mockenhaupt of Manley, Nebraska, Sister Alexia of Rockford, Illinois, Miss Lillie Tighe of Omaha and Mrs. J. A. Huse of Glenwood, Iowa.

The Tighe family were early residents of Cass county and Mrs. Tighe has spent the greater part of her lifetime in this community, the family being among the most prominent in the central part of the county for a great many years. The husband, John Tighe, deceased, was at one time deputy sheriff of Cass county, serving in that capacity under his brother, William Tighe, the then sheriff.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tighe were active figures in the St. Patrick's Catholic church at Manley for many years and their large circle of friends over the county will regret very much to learn of the passing of this splendid lady and long time resident.

ARNOLD BENNETT IS DEAD
London—Arnold Bennett, one of the leading figures in the world of literature, died of typhoid fever at the age of sixty-three. The famous author had made a gallant fight for life, and there was a slight rally after a blood transfusion giving temporary hope that he would survive, but this and every other remedy finally proved vain. He was the author of a score or more of novels known all over the English speaking world and of several plays.

News of the death of Bennett, who wrote some thirty novels and more than a dozen plays, was unexpected, came as a shock to his personal friends as well as to hundreds of thousands throughout the English speaking world who were familiar with his works. His earlier novels of the drabness of "The Five Towns," England's "Piers," "The Great Expectations," "The Old Wives Tale," were rated as classics even in the author's lifetime.

If baby has COLIC
A CRY in the night. Cried No cause for alarm if Castoria is handy. This pure vegetable preparation brings quick comfort, and can never harm. It is the sensible thing when children are ailing. Whether the ailment is colic, or the little bowels, colic or constipation, or diarrhea. When tiny tongues are coated, or the breath is bad. Whenever there's need of gentle regulation. Children love the taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it safe for frequent use.
And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than strong medicine meant only for adult use.

HAVE AUTO WRECK
From Saturday's Daily—
Last night while a truck of the Darling Co. of Auburn, was going south on No. 75, with Albert Roland as the driver, it was crashed into by a car driven by George Ecker of Nebraska City, the accident occurring near the Rock Creek filling station.

The truck had some twelve ton steel rods used for concrete re-enforcing as their load and a trailer was carried on the truck to help carry the load of rods that projected over the rear of the truck. They also had the red lantern displayed as required by law.

The car with Mr. Ecker and son was also going south to Nebraska City and approaching the truck evidently misjudged the distance from the truck or the load that was carried as the first intimation of the danger was when the Nebraska City car crashed into the rear of the truck and it is a matter of guesswork to the occupants of the car that the radiator of the car struck the trailer. As it was, the steel rods broke the windshield and a few inches more might have killed the occupants of the car.

None of the parties were seriously injured and the Nebraska City people were taken on home by Mr. Minford, residing nearby, but had to leave the wrecked car here.

Farmer Wants U. S. to Give Back His Meteor
Retains Legal Aid to Effect Return of Heavenly Body Found on Farm; Just Loaned It.
Galesburg, Ill., March 26.—J. H. Sexton, a farmer, wants his gift from the heavens returned to him. He has retained legal services in an effort to get back a meteor which he found on a farm near here and which is now in possession of government experimental laboratories at Washington.

Sexton said he loaned the meteor, which weighs 28 pounds, to John Connell of Monmouth who showed it to Clifford P. Ramback of the naval reserves who in turn sent it to Washington. Later he said Connell showed him a letter Ramback received from John J. McFadden, director of the United States experimental laboratories in which he reported that scientists had found in the meteor traces of what they believe to be a new metal, "perhaps the only kind that will resist fire."

The letter expressed hope that Ramback would "take pleasure in donating this to the government as it was going to keep it."—World-Herald.

DOUSED WITH ITCH POWDER
Nelson, B. C.—Itch powder has come to vex the doughboys. Seven doughboy women set sunning themselves on a fence near Truman-Spring had come, and the sunbathing was there for the doughboys, a regiment, set, are champions of the wife. Police, reporting the matter, said the women were near the highway and railway. Officers told the doughboys to seek shelter and put on some clothes. The law met resistance whereupon the constables unlimbered a unique contraption and sprayed the women with itch powder. The official report of Staff Sergeant Stephenson said the officers "dusted the doughboys with itch powder."

"Finally," continues the Sergeant's report, "after much dusting of itch powder and by force, the women were sent into their homes."

SUED ON NOTE, BLAMES LINCOLN BANK IN HOLDUP
Lincoln, Neb., March 25.—The Lincoln National bank, which transferred its banking business to another concern last fall after being robbed of a sum estimated at one million dollars has filed suit in municipal court here against Felix A. Lorenz, college Vice, builder, on a five hundred dollar note.

Lorenz, in an answer filed today, charged the management of the bank with gross incompetence in letting the robbers steal two thousand dollars which he said had been left at the bank as security for the loan.

He asked that the bank's plea be turned down and that he be given the right to try and recover the two thousand dollars collateral.

John A. Stander and wife were visiting in Omaha for the day on last Sunday where they were enjoying the day with relatives and friends.

Theo Harms who is still at the hospital where he is receiving treatment to place him in better condition for the operation, is making good progress and it is hoped that he will continue to improve and that following the operation he will be in the best of condition.

Treated Him Rough.
While Henry Foster was in the act of loading coal from the bins of Crane, Murty and Curvey, on last Tuesday and the wind was blowing a gale, the wind caught a door of the bin whirling it around and striking Henry on the side of the head, shoulder, arm and side, knocked him down and bruising him badly. While it made one eye very black, that did not bother him as much as the sore spot on the side of his head and shoulder.

PIONEER OF LOUISVILLE CELEBRATES HIS BIRTHDAY
R. Loberg celebrated his 77th birthday anniversary on Thursday afternoon of last week when Mrs. William Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Karl Baum, spent the afternoon with them and brought along a fine lunch in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Baum had baked a beautiful birthday cake which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Emil Anderson, a neighbor, was also present.

In the evening, Mrs. Emil Anderson entertained Mr. Loberg and wife at a chicken dinner honoring his birthday and the following day the festivities continued with a day in the country at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexen, where a beautiful dinner was served.

Mr. Loberg has lived in Louisville for the past 49 years or more and his many friends join us in extending heartiest congratulations and good wishes for many more happy birthday anniversaries attended with good health and happiness.

Sunday School Lesson
International Sunday School Lesson for March 29
JESUS, THE WORLD'S SAVIOR
Golden Text—Acts 10:38
Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.
The quarterly review gives fine opportunity to fix in mind to studies during the past three months. We are in the midst of a six months course on the Life of Christ and all the lessons are based on the Gospel of Luke. First read chapters 1-12. Do this with a map at hand. You can supplement reading parallel and other events in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and John. Only by getting all the content of each can you obtain the fullest picture of His wonderful life among men.

The title is a fine generalization. After thirty years at Nazareth Jesus announced the Kingdom of God and stated its nature and principles in the Sermon on the Mount. Some of the disciples of John the Baptist left the wilderness preacher to sit at the feet of the Master Teacher. From a large number of such students, Twelve were chosen as apostles and had intensive training. These men journeyed often with Jesus. School was held by the wayside in the fields, porches of resting and when they camped at night.

Three general periods define the reception of Jesus. At first He was in Obscurity. Then favorably after He was gained because of His miracles. During the long ministry in Galilee He was in His approach to Jerusalem through Perea. The Golden Text indicates what it is all about: "Jesus of Nazareth—who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with Him." Acts 10:38.

BOUND OVER ON SECOND DEGREE MURDER CHARGE
Valentine, Neb., March 25.—In a preliminary hearing today, Lee Davis, 25, of Coala, Neb., was charged with second degree murder, following the death last week of Herbert Farmer, 44, also of Coala. Davis was bound over to district court under 10 thousand dollar bonds.

Farmer's death resulted from a fractured skull, after it is alleged Davis struck him on the head with a shovel following an argument.

Senate Lessens the Proposed Truck Fee Boost
Top for Six-Ton Vehicle Licenses Made $250 Instead of $500—Length Is Limited
Lincoln, Neb., March 26.—License fees for commercial trucks, which ranged as high as five hundred dollars for six-ton vehicles in the Schepman bill as it was reported out by the standing committee, were cut in half by the state senate this morning.

In adopting an amendment classifying trucks according to their farm, city, and commercial uses, the senate also agreed on blanket fees of $8 and $12 for farm and city trucks, depending on whether they have a carrying capacity of more or less than 2,600 pounds.

The effect of these changes is to fix fees ranging from $10 for commercial trucks operating between cities and towns having a carrying capacity of less than one and one-half tons, to $250 for commercial trucks carrying six tons or more.

The city classification applies to all trucks operating wholly within a city or town or near the city limits. The farm truck classification limits the use of such trucks to the transportation of the owners' products or those of a neighbor in exchange of service.

Senator Charles Allen of Cozad attempted to insert an amendment which would have stayed a provision limiting the length of a vehicle to 50 feet until 1924, but was unsuccessful.

Members of the senate, however, were almost unanimous in their contention that trucks used to carry automobiles are a hazard and should be restricted immediately.

FARM PROGRESS FOLLOWS DISASTER RELIEF
Washington, D. C.—Agriculture in sections of Louisiana which suffered in the great Mississippi flood of 1927 has been benefited markedly by the reconstruction work of the American Red Cross, according to a report received at the Red Cross National headquarters from the Louisiana co-operative extension service in agriculture and home economics. This report says that "there can be no doubt that the after-effects of the Red Cross rehabilitation work have been far reaching," and of permanent benefit to the farmers concerned.

The culture of soy beans, which was introduced by the Red Cross, "accelerated almost beyond comprehension," the report finds. Pure bred pigs are displacing inferior swine, corn yields are increased by superior methods of tillage, dairying has been successfully introduced, and pure bred leghorns are being widely raised in the place of poor breeds of poultry of pre-flood days.

Due to the co-operation of the Red Cross and the state and county agricultural services, one crop farming has quite generally yielded to diversified farming, resulting in the economic improvement of the people.

"CHICK, CHICK, CHICK" WINS CALLING CONTEST
Orono, Me., March 26.—Mrs. Hannah Hendrickson, Wiscasset, demonstrated that it made a better impression on humans an chickens to say the latter by calling "Chick, chick, chick," instead of "Luncheon, luncheon, luncheon."

She won the first prize in Maine's first chicken calling contest, held here in connection with the University of Maine's annual Farm and Home week, while the best A. W. Finch of Pembroke could win with his "luncheon" call was second place.

Nine Prisoners are Guarded by Alabama Militia
Six Confess Attacking Girls After White Boys Thrown from the Box Car.
Scottsboro, Ala., March 26.—Cold breezes from the mountains, about 70 national guardsmen and the sheriff, his nine deputies and several citizens today preserved quiet around the jail here where nine Negroes are held for an alleged attack on two white girls who were "bumming" their way home on a freight car.

A mob that varied from one hundred to three hundred—included local citizens and mountaineers who came to town to see the Negroes in automobiles—menaced the jail last night and the guardsmen were called. The crowd lingered for some time, but as the cold of a mountain night increased all but a score dispersed to more comfortable places.

The sheriff Weir said that six of the Negroes confessed and Judge J. A. Hawkins announced early call of a grand jury to investigate the case. Physicians said the girls were not badly hurt.

The girls, one 17 and one 21, garbed in overalls, were riding in the freight car with seven white youths en route from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Huntsville, Ala., officers said 12 Negroes boarded the train near Stevenson, Ala., and ordered the white boys off. A fight ensued and five of the white youths were thrown from the train and the two others knocked unconscious.

A posse intercepted the train at Paint Rock and took off nine Negroes, the two girls and the two injured youths. What became of the other three Negroes was not learned.

The girls said they had left Chattanooga because they could not find work.—World-Herald.

MRS. McCORMICK DECLARES RUMORS ARE VERY FUNNY
El Paso, Tex., March 27.—Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, former congresswoman from Illinois good-humoredly said when she arrived here today from Albuquerque, N. M., that "if the newspaper reporters had their way" she and Albert Simms of Albuquerque, former New Mexico congressman, already would be launched on the sea of matrimony.

"It's screamingly funny," said Mrs. McCormick. "Both myself and Mr. Simms are getting a great kick out of it."

"Due to the fact that I might be considered the only congressional widower," Mrs. Simms' only congressional widow, I dare say reporters thought the eligibility of such a match about perfect."

Mrs. McCormick came here to spend a part of her birthday in El Paso. She was 51 today.

"Getting to the 50 mark was a horrible nightmare," she declared, "but leaving it is much better so bad."

Accompanied by her 14-year-old son, Medill, she planned to spend three days in San Antonio and a week in Mexico before returning to Colorado Springs to be with the boy during the Easter holidays.
