Dr. Clark Fulmer to be Speaker at Commencement

Rev. C. O. Troy Will Deliver Baccalaureate Address; Final Graduation Plans Being Made

With school progressing well into the final quarter of the year, arrangements are now being made for the annual Commencement activities. Unless some should fail in the final examinations, fifty-eight seniors should graduate from Plattsmouth high school which will bring the total number of graduates of the high school from 1882 through 1931 to 1,229, according to figures just compiled at the Principal's office.

One of the most important of Senior activities is the Senior play. A splendid comedy drama "Holiday" has been selected and the cast chosen. This will be presented on the evening of May 1, 1931, at the Parmelee theater.

Another important affair to the graduates is the Junior-Senior banquet. Mr. Harold Jordan and Miss Tressa Haley, sponsors of the Junior class, have been making plans for this unusual event for the year past. It will be given on the evening of May 9 at the American Legion building.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered this year by the Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the Methodist church and will be held at the Presbyterian church on the evening of May 17. Music for the occasion will be supplied by the Methodist church choir. Rev. H. G. McClusky and Rev. O. G. Wichmann, will assist.

The Commencement orator this year will be Dr. Clark A. Fulmer, former Chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan university and now State Director of Vocational Education. Dr. Fulmer is an educator and lecturer of state wide popularity and should be a splendid speaker for this occasion. In addition to these activities the members of the year class and gowns have been taken, the class invitations have been selected, rings have been purchased, leaving only plans for the annual Senior Sneak-Day to be made.

ENJOY FINE MEETING

The members of the Catholic Daughters of America enjoyed their first social meeting following Lent, on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred G. Egenberger, who was assisted by Mrs. Charles M. Gradoville, Mrs. Anna Zitka and Miss Theresa Rauth as associate hostesses.

The ladies enjoyed the evening most delightfully at cards, playing a large number of tables of bridge, pinochle and rummy, in which a great deal of pleasure was derived. Prizes were awarded Miss Minnie Guthmann in the bridge games, Mrs. John Kubacka in the pinochle and Mrs. Joseph Libershal in the rummy games.

During the evening Mrs. Egenberger, past regent of the local court, on behalf of the members of the society, presented Mrs. Frank Mullen, the present regent and newly elected grand monitor of the state, with a very handsome corsage of sweet peas, a gift that reflected the pleasure that the court has felt in the naming of this talented lady to the state office and which has brought an honor to the local court.

At the close of the evening dainty and delicious refreshments were served that added very much to the pleasures of the occasion.

ON BEAUTIFYING JOB

Dr. J. H. Hall is lending his best efforts to the beautifying program of the citizens in landscape work on lawns and yards and has taken on a real job as his part of the program, that of trying to make the parkway in Main street, south of the Hotel Riley, a place of floral beauty. The Dr. has grown tired of the battle that the barberry bushes planted by the city around the parking have put up for life, getting busy to assist in trying to give the bushes a better chance for existence. The soil around the bushes is being stirred up through a hoe in the hands of Dr. Hall and his assistant, William Thorburn, and it is contemplated having rows of the bright hued petunias planted there so that their bright blooms may greet the eye of the passing tourists and Emmons Richey's boarders at the hotel.

ENTERTAIN'S CLUB

Mrs. A. D. Eigenbrodt, Mrs. Frank Downey and Mrs. Albert Thierolf entertained the Plattsmouth-Lincoln club on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Elmer M. Tait. Twenty-three members were present who spent the time informally. The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the afternoon when a color motif of yellow and green was used in the appointments and the colors were repeated in their eyes and which will be removed and it is hoped will restore the patients to their former good eyesight.

FUNERAL OF LITTLE CHILD

The funeral of Silas, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Green, was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Sattler funeral home, with Rev. C. O. Troy of the First Methodist church conducting the services, speaking comforting words to the grief stricken parents and relatives who have been so shocked by the death of the little one. During the service Mrs. E. H. Shellenbarger gave two of the old loved hymns, "Precious Jewels" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery west of the city.

Unveiling of Store Windows Attract Many

Young People Especially Tour Business Section to Strive to Locate the Letters

From Thursday's Daily—The streets of the business section of the city were well filled last evening when the blast from the Burlington shop whistle sounded the signal that was to mark the unveiling of windows of many of the local business firms which claim as the crowning feature of Bargain Wednesday.

The number of young people was especially large and they continued to tour the business sections until a late hour to try and locate the windows that might contain the letters of the hidden word contest.

A very large number of the business houses had their window decorators busy preparing some very artistic windows and which at the signal were revealed in their beauty and attractiveness as the concealing draperies were removed and the lights blazed forth to add to the handsome appearance of the business section.

There were a number of the returns in shortly after 8 o'clock at the Journal office where they were deposited and to await the examination by the judges as to the successful ones in the contest of skill and which tested their spelling knowledge.

The opportunity for the public will cover the entire week and the contest will be held on Main street, Wednesday night, April 22nd at 6 p. m., giving ample time for all to make careful surveys of the city store windows and pick out the letters they may feel are correct. Letters that appear more than once are all displayed in the windows on Main street from Sixth street east and should be listed in the order of their appearance from Sixth street.

Chairman Holly of the window contest committee announces that more than one answer may be given by any individual.

COMPLETES WORK HERE

From Friday's Daily—Captain L. R. Annette, U. S. engineer department, who has been here for the past year engaged in supervising and inspecting for the U. S. government the work of placing the pipeline of the Continental Construction Co., across the Missouri river at this point, left today for Kansas City, his headquarters. Captain Annette has enjoyed his stay here very much and made a very large circle of friends that he regrets very much to leave and trusts that his work may again in the future bring him to this city for a stay with the friends. There is prospect of an additional commercial natural gas pipeline to be built through this section and which would make the crossing under the waters of the river as has the Continental company and in which case the genial captain might again have the opportunity of coming to this city and he and the friends as well are hoping that this may be true.

SECURES COMPENSATION

Ivan S. W. Hiatt of Sidney, Iowa, has been granted $3,301.26 for disability resulting from his services in the world war. The claim was pushed to a successful conclusion by Mrs. J. P. Jensen, of Blair, the service officer of the American Legion in Nebraska who was able through her hard work to secure a rehearing of the case after the compensation claim had been once refused. The award of the claim was made on the rehearing before the rating board of the veterans bureau. Mr. Hiatt is a brother of Mrs. Frank R. Gobelman of this city and is known here to a great many of the local people as he is a grandson of the late I. S. White and wife, pioneer residents of Rock Bluffs.

GO TO HOSPITAL

This morning Joe Mason and Riley McFarland, well known residents of this city departed for Omaha where they will enter the University hospital at that place. The two men are suffering from cataracts which have formed on their eyes and which will be removed and it is hoped will restore the patients to their former good eyesight.

Jury Reduces Recovery in Pipe Line Case

Appeal from Award in Case of John C. Spangler, Et Al, Results in Gain for Company.

From Thursday's Daily—The hearing of the case involving the amount of damages to be paid for the destruction of the gas pipe lines through the farms of John C. Spangler, near Louisville, was completed yesterday afternoon when the issues were submitted to the jury. The hearing being on two cases consolidated for trial, the jury returned a verdict last night fixing the recovery of Mr. Spangler and the Metropolitan Insurance Co., the appellants in the sum of $1,106.70.

The case is an appeal carried by Mr. Spangler and others from the award made by appraisers in the condemnation proceedings started by the Missouri Valley Pipeline Co., to secure a right of way for their line from Wabash into Louisville.

Following the commencement of the condemnation proceedings by the pipeline company, appraisers were appointed by the county court as required by law and these appraisers held hearings on the matter as well as made personal visits to the land in question to determine the amount to be recovered. The appraisers awarded Mr. Spangler $1,895 on one tract of land and $1,340 on another farm, both of these being considered in the present trial and for which a verdict of $1,106.70 was given as to be recovered.

The hearing will result in reducing the amount of damages to be recovered on the two farms from $3,165 to the verdict, $1,106.70, or a reduction of $2,058.30.

The jury passed on the question of the damage based on the price of the farm lands before the placing of the pipeline through them and the present sale price as embracing the damages and the question of future damages or conditions that might arise.

Style Show Arrangements About Complete

Booths Placed in American Legion Building and Decorating to Start at Once

The booths that will be used by various business houses of the city in the Spring Style Show and Trade Exposition, which opens on April 22nd for a four day showing, are now being erected in the American Legion community building and will be completed Sunday.

The work of decorating the various booths will be started on Monday and from that time on the building will be a very busy place as the various firms and business concerns are arranging their exhibits and doing the decoration of the hall.

With the show opening on Thursday, Chairman W. R. Holly, of the committee in charge, has been a very busy man and assisting in getting the booths arranged so that they can be turned over to the various people who have entered for the show.

This event will be one of the big features of the late spring season and many from all sections of the country are expected to come in for the various entertainment features that will be given each evening and which will feature the style show as perhaps the largest single event, there being very large showings planned by the local firms that carry lines of the ladies garments and millinery, this making a most colorful and attractive feature of the four day exposition.

The business houses having booths at the exposition will also stage demonstrations of their various lines of merchandise and taking the opportunity of acquainting the public with their stores.

There will be entertainment each night and the committee in charge hope to have one of the most successful and pleasant exhibitions that has been held in the city.

The Style Show and Trade Exposition is sponsored by the Hugh J. Kearns post of the American Legion of this city, which organization has staged the local high schools in the past three years and in which they have found a fine spirit of co-operation from the business men of the community. The show gives a fine opportunity to become acquainted with the various business houses of the city and as awards will be given to the best of the event that applies on the indebtedness of the community building.

TAKES PART IN MEET

Bernard Galloway, former Plattsmouth high school basketball and track star, now a junior at the State Teachers college at Peru, was among the members of Coach Gilkerson track team competing against the team of their old coach, Lon Graf, the Creighton university at Omaha Friday.

Galloway was entered in the mile and two mile events and in these two events was second, making a good time on the cinders, but outdistanced by Kubat of Creighton, an old time foe of high school days.

The night team were the winners of the meet and the skill of Graf as a developer of athletic talent was strikingly shown. Many of the Peru contenders had served one year of their training with Graf at Peru, when he was the leader of the athletic department.

Garland McCleary Stars in Track Meet

Secures Only Firsts for the Plattsmouth Team in the Triple Meet at Glenwood

From Thursday's Daily—Garland McCleary, in a very brilliant showing at the Glenwood track meet yesterday, gave the local school the greater part of the seventeen points scored.

The tall boy who last year gave so much promise of his ability in track and field work, scored firsts in the high jump, the pole vault and the broad jump and eliminated the stars of Glenwood and Tabor high schools in the events in which he participated, to make the showing for the local school.

The records hung up by McCleary were: high jump, five foot, three inches; pole vault, nine feet, three inches; broad jump, nineteen feet, ten inches.

In the 440 James Begley secured a third while in the mile Richard Edwards was also third for the locals.

The meet was won by Tabor as their showing in the track events was the best of the three schools competing.

Chet Wiles, speedy track man of the last two seasons, did not participate in the meet at Glenwood and John Galloway, mile and two mile pacer, was also among the absent.

Coach Rothman had expected the meet but only three of the members of the squad were able to deliver, to secure placement.

The local team will go to Peru on Saturday where a meet of southeastern Nebraska teams will be held and next week the locals have the car which the Nebraska City tracksters on the local grounds. The School for the Deaf at Omaha will also be here for a meet in the early part of May but the date of which has not been fully determined.

CARS HAVE SMASHUP

From Saturday's Daily—Last evening when Louis Rothmann of Minneapolis and Charles Kunsman of this city, were returning home from Omaha where they had spent a few hours, they were unfortunately enough to have the car which Mr. Rothman was driving, badly damaged in an auto collision.

The car had reached the Pappio bridge when a car came from the south and in passing the Rothmann car the brakes of the other car evidently failed and the car was swung into that of Mr. Rothmann and with the result that the car was quite badly damaged.

In the wreck Mr. Kunsman suffered a badly sprained back and was bruised up to a greater or less extent but fortunately sustained no broken bones. Mr. Rothmann escaped with the severe shaking up while the occupants of the other car were not injured to any extent.

The damaged car was brought on into this city to be repaired and placed back in service.

The full detailed report of the convention will be given on Monday evening at 7:30 at the club meeting to be held at the public library auditorium and which report will be given by Mrs. William Heinrich.

Jury Finds for Mrs. Morgan in Insurance Case

Verdict for $5,187.65 Is Rendered Against United Benefit Life Insurance Co. of Omaha.

From Friday's Daily—The jury that heard the issues in the case of Mrs. Kate Morgan of this city against the United Benefit Life Insurance Co., in which the plaintiff sued to recover the sum of $5,000 on a life insurance policy of Gertrude Morgan, deceased daughter of the plaintiff, returned a verdict last night at 8 o'clock finding for the plaintiff and giving her judgment in the sum of $5,187.65.

The plaintiff presented in her petition that Gertrude Morgan had on June 5, 1928, secured a policy from the defendant company in the sum of $5,000 payable at the termination of a certain period of years to the holder of the policy or in the event of her death to the beneficiary, in this instance being the plaintiff, Kate Morgan. That the company had through its agents agreed that commissions on payment of policies secured by Miss Morgan as agent of the company was to apply on the payment of premiums and that this was to care for the policy. Miss Morgan died on August 19, 1929, in California, and at that time proof of death had been made on the policy and its payment refused.

The defendant company contended in their issues of the case that the policy payment to the plaintiff, Mrs. Morgan, had passed without the payment of the premium and that the policy then became null and void and released the company from all obligation.

The verdict of the jury gave Mrs. Morgan the full value of the policy and interest from the date of filing of the claim.

AN APPRECIATION

Following the visit here of the Lincoln cathedral choir on last Sunday, Director Rosborough of the choir has written to friends here expressing the appreciation of himself and the members of the choir on their reception in this city.

"It certainly was a wonderful occasion—a fine audience and such splendid attention—such a pleasant whole evening. A town can be proud that can display such a fine appreciation. Our songs are the very finest in all vocal literature and it requires rather unusual understanding and a high grade of musical intelligence to follow through such a class."

"The choir and its conductor take a marvelous journey together when we go through those songs—it is an indescribable experience."

"I do thank all the ladies and the minister and others who did so much to make our visit in Plattsmouth so enjoyable."

"JOHN ROSBOROUGH."
