Sketch of Life of the Late Mrs. Josn Heineman

Deceased Lady Former Resident of This City and Member of One of Old Families Here.

Friends of Mrs. John Heineman were surprised and shocked last Friday, July 2nd, when word went the rounds that she had passed away that morning at 6 o'clock, the victim of heart trouble. While Mrs. Heineman had been known to have been a sufferer with her heart, and in spite of the fact that she had been in ill health for the past month, her passing was entirely unlooked for.

Ella Agnes Hunter, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hunter (deceased) was born at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, June 8, 1882. She was born and reared in that city, having received her education there, including the first two years of high school.

At the age of sixteen years, she was converted, and was baptized and united with the Christian church of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, of which she was a faithful worker, for she loved God's work.

On April 16, 1902, she was united in marriage to John F. Heineman, then pastor at South Omaha. After making her home at Plattsmouth until March, 1908, she, with her husband and family, moved to Hitchcock vicinity, where she lived until her death. She suffered from heart trouble for several months, but her condition was not considered serious until four weeks ago, when complications set in, and she was placed under several doctors care. But on the morning of July 3rd at 6:00 a. m. the Master called this loved woman to live with Him, in that place where sorrow is over. The deceased was a member of the Crandon Settlement church at the time of her death.

This beloved wife and mother was of quiet nature, but was possessed with those beautiful traits of character.

Local Young Man in Philippine Islands

Frank Gradoville Now Teaching at Tuguegarao, in Province of Cagayan

Frank Gradoville of this city, graduate of the University of Nebraska who taught in the schools at St. Edwards and Schuyler for a number of years, is now engaged in teaching work in the far off Philippine Islands, where he is in one of the government schools at Tuguegarao, in the province of Cagayan, on the east side of the island of Luzon some 300 miles from Manila.

Mr. Gradoville found the trip from San Francisco to Manila very interesting and one that gave him the opportunity of viewing many places of interest and a short stay at the Hawaiian islands on the way of the far east.

The differences in living and customs of the residents of the islands has much impressed the young man and he is well pleased with the manner in which the schools are conducted and the apparently high type of the native students, altho at the time of his writing home he had not taken up work in the school to which he had been assigned, but taught for a few days at first on the large cities of Luzon where there were 1,500 in the high school in addition to a large number in the trade schools. The schools of the island are using all available teachers. He states that the students, both boys and girls attend school in white suits and dresses and in favoring white is the general color work by both men and women in the islands. Mr. Gradoville states that the fruit of the island is most delicious and is grown in great abundance in all parts of Luzon. The labor cost in the islands is very low and the American residents secure house boys or help at a very low figure.

SEIN LOUISVILLE LAKES

Lee Hudleson of Lincoln, and his gang of five employees from the State Fish and Game Commission, were at Louisville this week seeing the lakes in the state reserve. They are using a 300 foot seine 35 feet deep and Mr. Hudleson states that even at that depth the seine is not deep enough to touch bottom in some parts of the lakes.

They are removing the coarse fish and at the same time desire to pick up a few extra large specimens for exhibition purposes to be shown at the state fair.

Chief Game Warden Frank O'Connell was there Wednesday evening looking after conditions in the lakes of the state. Mr. O'Connell stated that it was the intention of the department to keep the state lakes well stocked and was surprised when told of the large number of people who visit these lakes weekly and promised to increase the supply of fish to be planted this fall. Deputy Game Warden Ed Schlatter stated that more than a thousand people visit this resort every week and with so many fishermen it is difficult to keep the lakes stocked as well as they would like to have them.

In one drag Tuesday afternoon there were a number of bass in the net, some of which would weigh five to six pounds.

MANY ENJOY SCOUT CAMP

A number of the Plattsmouth members of the Boy Scouts have been enjoying the opportunities of an outing at Camp Wilson, the Nemaha area camp near Nebraska City in the past few weeks.

The boys that attended the second period at the camp, Herbert, Geo. Petring, William Highfield, Harry Stodola and Richard Hatt, found the greatest pleasure in the many activities of the camp and when the third period opened there were three of the local scouts to take up the camp work, William Jensen, Francis Libershal and William Woolcott being in the party that enjoyed the camp from July 6th to July 13th.

From the first clear call of the bugle in the morning until taps there is a full program of activities in the camp and every minute is one of the greatest enjoyment to the boys who attend. The camp is beautifully located and has every convenience for the carrying on of the Scout work.

The boys were taken to camp and returned by L. D. Minor, Geo. Petring, R. M. Walling and L. D. Hiatt.

TO TRAIN AT CHICAGO

"Tuffy" Fleischman, Louisville boxer, who has been attracting a great deal of attention in this section by his clever ring work, is departing soon for Chicago where he will become a member of the boxing string of Johnnie Coulan, well known trainer of boxers and who sees in the Louisville boy the possibilities of a comer in the fist world. "Tuffy" has had a number of good bouts in this section and in which he has showed real class. So far he has secured two knockouts, one decision and one draw. His next battle will be on Tuesday, July 21st, at Shenandoah, Iowa, where he is to meet Wingle Matthews in a six round bout.

Sketch of Life of Old Resident of Cass County

Mrs. Katherine Dorothea Bornemeier Is Laid to Last Rest in Murdock Cemetery

Katherine Dorothea Bornemeier, nee Rueter, was born in Haver, Germany, June 12, 1862, and passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Rosenow, near Elmwood, Neb., on July 8, 1931, having attained the age of 69 years and 26 days. At the age of 12, she with her mother, brother and a sister, came to America, arriving at Louisville, Neb., where she first made her home with relatives. On August 28, 1881, she was united in holy wedlock to Simon Bornemeier, who preceded her in death in 1921. To this union were born nine children of whom two died in infancy. Together they settled on a farm near Manley, Neb., where the greater part of her life was spent and she endured the many hardships of early pioneer life. In 1922, a year after the death of her husband, she moved to Elmwood, Nebraska, where she lived until the last few years when her health became of such condition that she no longer could remain in her home alone. Then she stayed with her daughters, most of the time with Mrs. Mary Rosenow, where she received the best kind of attention, and where she felt very much at home. In this home the daughter did everything possible that the mother might be comfortable.

In her early life she was converted under the labors of the Evangelical ministers and joined the Evangelical church and remained a faithful member until she was called into the great beyond.

She leaves to mourn her loss three daughters, Mrs. Mary Rosenow, Elmwood, Neb.; Mrs. Anna Ricker, Wabash, Neb.; Mrs. Martha Kissinger, Glenview, Neb.; four sons, Edward and Emil of Elmwood, Neb.; Albert of Wabash, Neb.; and Daniel of Naperville, Ill., who is a member of the Nebraska Conference, and at the present time is preparing for the ministry. Seventeen grandchildren, one brother, Peter Rueter of Anaheim, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Bornemeier of Elmwood, Neb., and a host of relatives and many friends.

Time like an ever-rolling stream— Bears all it daughters and sons away; They fly forgotten, as a dream— Dies at the opening day. Death is but a path that must be trod If man would ever pass to God.

The funeral services were held from the Evangelical church in Elmwood, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Chas. Lewien and assisted by Rev. H. R. Knosp of Murdock. Interment was made in the Evangelical cemetery northeast of Murdock. The pallbearers were: Fred Leutschens, Herman Leutschens, Carl Schlaphoff, Otto Fleischman, Wm. Pahl and Henry Vogt.

Music was furnished by a quartette composed of Mrs. Joe Kunz, Mrs. H. R. Knosp, Mrs. M. J. Knosp and George Lenz, with Mrs. Frances Vogt at the piano.

HAVE COMPLICATED CASE

From Saturday's Daily— The county authorities last evening had a very complicated case brought to their attention and which involved the ownership of a Ford car and the right to possess the car in question. Some time ago M. S. Bird, who is engaged as a gravel inspector for the state of Iowa at the local sand and gravel pits, purchased a car of the Plattsmouth Motor company that he has used to convey himself to and from the pits north of this city. Yesterday afternoon a fellow workman called his attention to the fact that two men were driving the car away from an investigation Mr. Bird was told that the car was being taken by a finance corporation. Mr. Bird came on into this city and after consultation filed a complaint with the county authorities and one man was held on the charge of auto stealing. Later the two men that had drove the car away appeared on the scene but the car had been carefully covered and so far has not been recovered. The story seems that the car was one of a number on which a blanket mortgage of $5,000 had been given by a Lincoln man who later was sent to the penitentiary and this one car seems to have been sold a number of times, passing through the hands of a number of purchasers until it was finally taken in a trade at the Plattsmouth Motor Co. and where Mr. Bird secured it, the Motor company or Bird neither knowing anything of the complicated title of the car.

The men who made away with the car for the finance company were held here until the man was supplied and they were released to appear later in court when the tangled threads of the case will be brought up and the title and right to the car be determined and the question of taking the car without due process of law will be investigated.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

From Saturday's Daily— The many friends of Merle McCrary, local young man so severely injured Thursday night, will be pleased to learn that Merle is doing just as well as possible under the circumstances and while he has suffered a great deal of pain he is bearing the ordeal splendidly. The attending surgeons anticipate a successful recovery in a short time for the young man although it will be several days before his condition will give him much relief.
