Eat Picnic Dinner at Des Moines.
George Rough Dane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Dane of Iowa City has been enjoying a visit for the past three weeks at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Rough and when the time came for the school to begin, had to go home. It was arranged that the parents were to drive from their home at Iowa City to Des Moines where they would be met by Mr. and Mrs. Rough with the young man, George Rough Dane. There they arrived about noon and as each had baskets of good things to eat they picnicked at a park and visited until 3 o'clock, when they both returned home. George Rough Dane returned with his parents.

Enjoy Third Annual Reunion.
At Epworth Assembly park near Lincoln on last Sunday, were gathered the various members of the Sturm family, to the number of 120, where they enjoyed the occasion in true reunion style. The Sturm family came to Cass county many years ago when the country was new and they have been instrumental in the wedding of the raw prairie and forest to the excellent country which we are enjoying today. They seen many hardships during the early time which would put to shame the so-called depression of today. Then, when times were hard, they were real hard and not simply a depression. There were no such things as well as many from other points in the state, a number of families from Kansas and a family from Colorado Springs, Colorado, named Miller. Among those to attend from Nehawka were A. F. Sturm and wife and their two sons, Victor and Ralph, Mrs. John O'Veiser and children, Henry Schumacher and family, Fred C. Schumacher, Leo Switzer and family, Joseph E. Behrens and family, John G. Wunderlich and wife and their daughter, Mrs. Sadie Strader, and son Gerald, C. D. Adams and wife and son, Berwell, and Mrs. Walter J. Wunderlich and the family. Mr. Wunderlich was at Fort Crook and was unable to attend.

Attempted Burglary.
On last Sunday night, F. R. Cunningham was assisting in hauling cattle to the South Omaha market and while so engaged a sister of Mrs. Cunningham, Miss Valley, was staying with Mrs. Cunningham, and obtained the night they heard someone down stairs in the home as they were sleeping upstairs and finally the footsteps came upstairs and they thinking it was Mr. Cunningham, spoke to him, when they found out it was someone else, they screamed and the intruder ran away and obtained his car which was left near the Methodist church. The alarm was given but whoever it was, was able to make his escape in his car. Even during the afternoon on last Thursday when Messdames Frank Sheldon and daughter, Mrs. Tucker were away someone pried open a door and the faithful watch dog frightened the would be burglar away and so he got nothing. Only a short time since the cellar of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Copenhaver was robbed of some 20 jars of canned fruit.

Celebrated Birthday Sunday.
Not that the birthdays came on Sunday for some of the folks and that some afterward but the time was ripe for the celebration and so they had it at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and enjoyed the occasion very pleasantly. There were there for the occasion, Dan Anderson and family, Louis Ross, of near Nehawka and Alfred Adams and family of Omaha. A good time and good eats as well.

Woodman of the World.
The Woodman of the World of this portion of the state will celebrate at Naevres park near LaPlatte on the coming Sunday when they will have a very fine program composed of games, races, dances and many other amusements. Frank Lemon and wife will attend, as well as many others of the order. Charles Bates and wife are also booked for the event.

Attended Old Settlers.
Richard C. Leles Denier of near Elmwood, with the family were attending the Old Settlers reunion on last Saturday and was meeting their many friends here for they have a large number of very close friends in the vicinity of Murray, Nehawka, and Union, as well as many relatives. They surely enjoyed the coming here very much.

THE FUNERAL HOME

Modern conditions and standards of living have called into being an entirely new kind of institution for meeting a universal human need—The Funeral Home.

Planned for the specific purpose which it serves, it offers greater efficiency and greater convenience than was possible in the past.

We are proud to be able to offer the communities which we serve the use of such an establishment.

Edward Dowler was looking after some business matters in Omaha on last Tuesday afternoon.

Business called S. Ray Smith to Plattsmouth on last Saturday and so called to Lincoln on Tuesday of this week.

Chris Rasmussen was called to Ogo to look after some business matters on last Tuesday afternoon and made the trip in his auto.

Messdames George Olive and Joseph Abrams were visiting with friends in Lincoln on Monday of this week and were also looking after some shopping as well.

Arthur Rough and family, Rudolph Hart and family were enjoying a trip which was from Wednesday of last week until Saturday where they visited with friends and relatives and saw the wonderful city on the Kaw river.

A. J. Wilson of Lowery City, Mo., where he has been farming for some time past, is now visiting at the home of his brother, Eli Wilson of near Cedar Creek, was in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon looking after some business matters and was seeking to find a farm to rent as he wants to farm in Cass county rather than in Missouri.

John J. Young, who resided over towards Murray, was a visitor in Weeping Water and was looking after some business matters for a short time on last Wednesday evening. Mr. Young and the good wife had just returned from Hartington where they resided for the past twenty years, and where they have been spending some two weeks at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. J. Sears and Miss Gertrude Young, who also makes her home there. They enjoyed a very good visit but found the country dry and parched with no crops to speak of.

The Cass County Fair.

Remember the fair gates which are September 1st to 15th inclusive and at the grounds of the Association which they have gotten in good condition now, they having repaired the buildings and gotten everything in readiness. Bring your farm products to this the greatest fair which has ever been held in Cass county. The management of the fair have let nothing stand in the way of a good fair and we are sure to have it. Bring the family and enjoy the entire four days and win a premium on something that you have that is better than the other fellow.

Marshall Family Enjoy Picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Marshall, their son, Alva, and the family, and Frank Marshall and family of near Washburn, and Sheldon Marshall, Ray Leonard and wife and their two daughters, all journeyed to Nebraska City on last Sunday where they enjoyed a very pleasant family picnic with a dinner under the shade of the state trees and which was the morning her early girlhood was known as Arbor Lodge for the many years prior to the taking over of the property and making it a state park. Mr. E. F. Marshall and son, Alva, have just returned from a trip to Youngstown, Ohio, the boyhood home of Mr. E. F. Marshall and where they visited for some ten days and enjoyed the trip very much. All at the picnic at Nebraska City enjoyed the gathering very much.

Back At The Work.

The Rev. Ralph Pinkham and the good wife who have been spending the past two weeks on their vacation in Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota and seeing some of our own state of Nebraska, arrived home on last Saturday night well pleased with their trip and happy to get back home again.

Have Pleasant Trip.

Bill Johnson, better known as Wm. Johnson, better known as Wm. Johnson, accompanied by the mother, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, three daughters, Esther, Clara and Doris, were enjoying a visit with friends for several days at Kearney last week, returning home on last Saturday night and having a very fine time while away.

Girls Return From Trip.

Mrs. Creda Johnson, Freda Baker, her sister, and Misses Ruth and Edith Rannie and Blanche Little, who were seeing the west, driving their car, and had been away for about a week, were apprised by telephone when they could be gotten, of a very serious illness of Mrs. Byron Baker, the mother of Mrs. Johnson and Miss Freda Baker. They hastened home, and arrived only a short time before the passing of the dear mother.

Well Satisfied Here.

R. S. Shields, the new dry cleaner and tailor, who has established his place in the building where the Maytag Washer was formerly, and opened the business on last Saturday, August 22nd, and is well pleased with the business which has come to his place. He had installed an entire new outfit of machinery and all of the latest character and is doing some excellent work and is receiving a good business. He says he is well satisfied with the location, the town and the business which is coming his way.

Will Make Nice Shop.

John E. Johnson, who has established himself in the blacksmith business on the south side, with the association of Ed Olander are to fix the building in which Newton L. Grubbs has recently obtained an extension of the lease for three years. Messrs. Johnson and Olander will place a new roof on the building, paint it on the outside as well as on the inside and this will make the building a very nice place for the shop of Mr. Grubbs and the interior will be made white and thus afford much light for the work.

Disposed Of Hardware Stock.

Harold L. Richards, who was engaged in the hardware business for some time and who had a sale some time since, recently disposed of the residue of the stock to Omaha parties and will now devote himself to plumbing, heating and pump work. Mr. Richards is a very fine workman in these lines and will be ready for any work anywhere in the county. Mr. Richards is doing the plumbing on the new building of A. E. Jamison when he is building as well as installing the heating plant.

Get Ready For School.

There is but little time now to get ready for the school which begins on Monday of next week, August 21st. There is school supplies to provide for the kiddies and to see to their wardrobe, and get them to school for they have been enjoying the out of doors and now they must go to work again for this is surely work studying for the little ones for it is hard enough for the grown-ups.

Mrs. Baker Answers Summons.

Mrs. Byron Baker, nee Miss Margaret Loretta Houseman, was born in Ohio in the town of Somersville, March 13, 1869, and when five years of age came to Nebraska with her parents and lived in Howard county, where the family resided there until with the husband, Byron Baker, they came with their family to Weeping Water in 1901. Miss Houseman was united in marriage with Byron Baker on February 28, 1886. Mrs. Baker was a most kindly woman and during her early girlhood united with the Lutheran church and remained a communicant until after moving to Weeping Water when she united with the Methodist church and has ever remained a very devoted follower of the lowly Nazarene. Mrs. Baker was very active in church work and was always ready and willing to do a kind act to any one in need. This union was blessed by ten children, Blanche preceding the mother to the other world some twenty years ago. Mrs. Baker has been in poor health for the past nearly twenty years and had to undergo a number of operations for the restoration of her health. The restoration was only partial and with the last operation she has always had much trouble.

During the last few years she has been ill a good portion of the time but her conditions were not thought to be gravely worse until within the past few days. Two of her children, Mrs. Creda Johnson and Miss Freda Baker had gone west on their vacation, the mother apparently as well when they left as ordinarily. However, the patient succumbed rapidly and calls were given over the west to find them with they were able to do so in time for them to return and able to see and greet the mother before her departure. Mrs. Baker passed away on Sunday, August 23rd, a very patient sufferer for years and with a consolation that the Saviour was waiting over the river to receive her into that world where there is no sickness, sorrow or death. The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Weeping Water, the discourse presented by the Rev. Geo. I. Morey, pastor of her church, a very patient sufferer for years and with a consolation that the Saviour was waiting over the river to receive her into that world where there is no sickness, sorrow or death.
