

3 RULES big help to BOWELS

What a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor:

- 1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day.
2. Get plenty of outdoor exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself.
3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour every day.

Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a thorough cleaning-out, and it won't hurt your insides weak and watery.

WHERRY DECLARES FARM MUST LOOK TO BANKS FOR AID

Clay Center, Neb., Sept. 22.—State Senator Kenneth S. Wherry of Pawnee City told a large crowd at the Clay county fair today that the farmer must look to the banks for real agricultural relief.

COTTON PICKERS NEEDED

Little Rock, Ark.—Police action to force unemployed loiterers to help pick this year's bounteous cotton crop had extended from Helena in eastern Arkansas to Bowie county, Texas, on the southwestern border.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria have him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels.

Castoria is sold in every drug store; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

They found an abundance of excellent ones and at very fair prices. They went via Plattsmouth and the pavement of the new highway No. 75 and found it an excellent roadway.

It is Now a Tamping Machine. The railroads have been disposing of a number of their men working on their tracks, and reducing the section as well as the crews making the sections of track work longer and in all ways reducing the force of workmen, in their endeavor to economize and make the roads pay during the depression. However they have just instituted a tie tamping machine which will do the work of many men and cost less as well.

Many Attend County Fair. Many of the people of Greenwood and vicinity were in attendance at the county fair assisting in swelling the numbers and all declare that this was the very best county fair which was held in Cass county during the existence of the fair.

Will Make Home in Northwest. Some time since George Tonak and the good wife were over to the northwestern portion of the state where they spent some time visiting at different places and while there secured the lease of a 1280 acre ranch, and where they will move in the near future to make their home. Mr. Tonak has lived east of town for some years and they both have gained many warm friends while residing there and who will dislike to see their good neighbors depart. All are however, extending best wishes for their health, happiness and success in their new home.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Paul Gelker of Lincoln, was visiting his friends in Murdock Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Newkirk of Greenwood, spent the week end with Dr. Lee and family.

Albert Stralisch was shelling and delivering corn to the Farmers elevator in Murdock on Wednesday of last week, getting ready for the placing of the new crop.

The Henry A. Tool family were enjoying a visit of the sister of Mr. Tool, Mrs. Pearl Bakker of Ackley, Iowa, who drove to Murdock on last Wednesday for a visit at the Tool home.

E. W. Thimigan was a visitor in Omaha on last Wednesday taking with him a load of hogs for the farmers and on his return trip bringing a load of lumber for the Tool lumber company.

Gravel has been hauled to the road running one mile east of the north line of the village of Murdock and which will make an excellent roadway for the farmers to get into the city when the roads are bad elsewhere.

Old Gang entertained the teachers at a wiener roast which was given at Pawnee lodge last week, and which was made up also of the young married people and some of the unmarried ones. They surely enjoyed a very good time.

Entertained Teachers. On Tuesday of last week, at the auditorium of the Murdock consolidated school, was held a reception and get-together meeting by the community, which had its end in the getting better acquainted with the teachers of the Murdock schools which were all new with the single exception of Miss Bernice Nickle, who teaches the 5th and 6th grades and who is a very excellent instructor. The new teachers being Mr. F. Parich, principle; Miss Ruth Heather and Miss Gertrude Dagenfelder, high school; Miss Romona Richards, 7th and 8th; Miss Bernice Miller, primary, and Miss Elva Coleman, 5th and 6th. All had a most enjoyable time.

Farmers Hold Meeting. The farmers of the vicinity of Murdock were holding a meeting at the M. W. A. hall on Tuesday evening of last week which was looking towards effecting an organization for the holding of their corn, both the old corn and as well as the crop which is being matured at this time. Fred Stock was selected as the president of the organization, while a committee consisting of H. C. Backe, Charles Bornemeier, Wm. Wm. Knaupe, Herman Kupke, Henry Schlueter and Gust Gure, who were to interview the farmers and ascertain their ideas as to how the organization should be managed.

Newly Weds Return Home. On last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McDonald returned from their wedding trip in the west and were accompanied by Lacey McDonald and wife, who accompanied them. They report a very fine time while away.

The following night some twenty-five young lads gave the newly weds a serenade, and on Tuesday evening some hundred of the friends of the bride and groom called and gave them a real charivari, of the old fashioned sort.

Changes Farm Work. With the change of the time of running the trains and also with the abandonment of the train numbers 27 and 38, and the stopping of trains 5 and 6, making them locals, the time which the farmers who ship their cream will necessarily be changed. The time now that the farmers must have their cream at the station is two o'clock in the afternoon. Unless it is there by that time, it must go over to the following day at the same hour.

Home Burns to Ground. The home of E. W. Palmeter, which was located some four miles north of Murdock, was consumed by fire a short time since. Mr. Palmeter had arose at about six o'clock and building a fire, put on the coffee pot and went to do the chores, and having more work to that morning, as he was placing some of his sheep over on the other side of the creek, accomplished this and following which he started to return to the house when he found the building on fire. He shouted for neighbors but they had gotten such headway that it burned to the ground. Mr. Palmeter sought to save what he could but was able to secure only two pillows and two blankets. The policy of insurance on the building was also consumed in the fire.

Enjoyed Picnic Thursday. The members of the eighth and ninth grades of the Murdock schools and which grades are presided over by F. Parich and Miss Romona Frederick, held a very enjoyable wiener roast at the Schewe grove and there enjoyed the evening to the utmost.

CEASE LOANING TO EUROPE. Colorado Springs—The position of the United States as banker for foreign countries was attacked by Sen. James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois. He declared in an address before the Colorado Bar association the United States would be unable to uphold the Kellogg peace pact and would be which money had been loaned.

Quickly we should adjust our loans with all nations, collect whatever we can, but promptly cease sending our money to foreign nations whose security is confessedly so weak as to promise bankruptcy to themselves and total loss to our people, while they drag us into annihilation or war to protect them, or our loans, said Senator Lewis.

Battle of Beer Shows Activity All Along Line E. Flynn Named Vice President of Burlington Road

Opponents of Amendment Heated by American Legion Action at Convention.

Washington—Repercussions from the American Legion convention and elsewhere Friday showed the prohibition question forward to the center of the political stage from which it had been crowded recently by economic problems.

While one congressional opponent of prohibition hailed the legion's recommendation for a new vote on the liquor question as "the death knell" of the Volstead law and the eighteenth amendment, dry leaders quietly stood their ground.

Representative Britten, Illinois, said the legion's vote sounded the "death knell" to the prohibition law. He added if the service organization and the American Federation of Labor would use "their tremendous persuasive power" they could bring about repeal of the Volstead law during the next session of congress.

Senator Glenn, another Illinois republican, said he was ready to vote for reestablishment of the eighteenth amendment as recommended by the legion or for beer if the opportunity should be presented.

Dry leaders in congress declined to comment on the legion's vote, but some of them said privately it would have a tremendous political effect. Among those who would not comment was Senator Watson, leader of the senate, who has previously advocated a referendum.

Declares Majority Dry. Ernest H. Cherrington, general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism, said repeated statements by wet newspapers that President Hoover would continue to support prohibition for political reasons was "a confession" that the majority of the voters of this country are dry.

Not a word came from administration quarters regarding the legion vote or the survey being conducted by Secretary Hyde to determine whether legalization of beer would help the farmers.

Commissioner Doran, of the industrial alcohol bureau said he was taking steps to prevent legal prescriptions for liquor from being filled with bootleg whisky. He pointed out that a New York druggist was recently indicted for filling prescriptions with illicit liquor.

The statement of Dr. Clarence True Wilson, general secretary of the board of temperance, prohibition, and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal church, that "numbers of staggering drunks disgraced the uniform and yelled for beer" at Detroit brought a rejoinder from the League for Modification of the Volstead act.

"I would suggest that Dr. Wilson put his own house in order and confine his criticism to those of his organization who vote dry and drink wet," said former Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota, national chairman of the league.—State Journal.

Composition books, crayolas, pens and pencils, tablets, history paper and all kinds of school supplies at the Bates Book and Stationery Store, where the price is right.

We are not sure whether the 6-hour day and the 5-day week would work or not. We would be willing to have them tried out in an experimental way on congress when it meets this winter.

Succeeds E. P. Bracken, Who Takes Spens' Place—Ex-Section Hand.

Edward Flynn, general manager of lines west for the Burlington railroad, with headquarters at Omaha, has been named operating vice-president at Chicago, effective at once. It was announced today at the office of President F. E. Williamson in Chicago.

Mr. Flynn succeeds E. P. Bracken, who becomes executive vice-president to succeed the late Conrad E. Spens.

Mr. Flynn was chosen for his new post at a meeting of the board of directors in New York Thursday.

Just when Mr. Flynn will go to Chicago is not known.

With Road 34 Years. Mr. Flynn has been with the Burlington for 34 years and in the railroad business for 42. He is 58 years old.

At the age of 16, Mr. Flynn got his first railroad job—as a track worker with the Wabash in his home town, Bement, Ill.

In 1899 he went to Texas, and though under the required age, got a job as brakeman for the Southern Pacific because he was a "large, strapping lad." In 1891 he returned to the Wabash in Illinois as a brakeman.

In 1897 he came to Lincoln as a brakeman for the Burlington, running between Lincoln and Omaha. Omaha was then a part of the Lincoln division.

In 1900 he was made assistant superintendent at Omaha and in 1908, when the Omaha division was organized, he became its first superintendent.

In 1912 he left Omaha to serve as superintendent of the McCook, Neb., and subsequently at La Crosse, Wis. Later he was made superintendent of terminals at Chicago.

In 1918 Mr. Flynn was made general superintendent of the Nebraska division, with headquarters at Lincoln. Four years later he went to Omaha as general manager for lines west.

Mr. Flynn lives at 3857 Harney street, Omaha. He has been active in Omaha civic affairs.

Today Mr. Flynn is out of Omaha, traveling on the Lincoln division. He expected to return this evening.

NEMAH RIVER AT FLOOD STAGE. Falls City, Sept. 25.—Waters in the swollen creeks and rivers of Richardson county Friday night were receding from the flood stage. Overcast skies threatened more rain, however.

The Nemaha river still was a raging torrent, and it was believed additional rain would cause serious damage. Little harm had been done by Friday night, however, by the more than four inches of rain which fell Thursday night.

Water to a depth of several inches covered Highway No. 73 south of here, but traffic was uninterrupted. A bridge over the Nemaha river near Preston was washed out. Railroad service continued on schedule.

The rain began about midnight and lasted four hours. Rainfall for the past week stood Friday at 7.56 inches.

At Alliance nearly two inches of rain has fallen here during the past 30 days, causing potatoes to show renewed growth. Growers predict the moisture will double the seed potato yield. Winter wheat also was aided greatly, farmers said.
