Fire Damages Piling Home.
On last Saturday afternoon about 3 p. m. fire broke out at the W. E. Pailing home in a store room on the second floor. Fire had gained quite a headway before Anna Pailing discovered something was wrong. She rushed upstairs finding fire in this room. The fire alarm was put in and by the time the fire truck arrived fire was going through the room. Chemicals and water put out the blaze, but the damage was large on account of water. The furniture was poorly on last Tuesday that he was not able to eat any dinner. So Rex brought him to town and upon examination it was ascertained he was afflicted with a severe case of appendicitis, as it developed when he arrived at the hospital at Lincoln, and the operation was had that the appendix had burst. E. L. McDonald, his uncle, who had him employed in the store a good deal, had been at Lincoln for goods and on his return was notified of the condition of his nephew and hastened to Lincoln and was with the young man during the time of the operation. Observed Armistice Day.
All business houses in Greenwood were closed during the afternoon and all who were employed in them had an opportunity to enjoy the celebration of Armistice day, while there was no general celebration in the city, all had the opportunity to go where they desired and to celebrate as they wished. The town seems rather out of the order from the hustling little city and seemed as though really a holiday from business. However all enjoyed the occasion and went their different ways.

Was Visiting at Sioux Falls.

Grading Nearly Done.
The strip of roadway west of town which is to connect the city with the gravel roads in Lancaster county leading to the west is completed and the spreading of the gravel is expected to occur in the near future, which will connect the town of Greenwood with the rich farming territory west of town during the very bad weather. This area is generally accessible for as general thing roads are good, but when they are not the section had been cut off from town.

Mrs. Newkirk Doing Fairly.
Mrs. W. E. Newkirk who had the misfortune to fall while at the home of her daughter at Murdock last week and who has been in the hospital at Lincoln from a fractured hip, resulting therefrom, is doing fair at this time, with the hopes of final mending of the fractured bones but it is expected that it will be some time before she will be able to leave the hospital.

How many people today are wishing they had been fitted with glasses when they were younger?
How many more who are now experiencing eye trouble and wish they had consulted a competent optometrist?
Your eyes are two of the most delicate organs of your body and when irritated require the attention of an expert. A safety first sign in a factory says: "You may get a wooden leg, a mechanical arm or false teeth—but so one can fit you with another pair of eyes."
Dr. Kingsley makes a special study of the eye and is thoroughly competent to fit you with glasses. He is well known throughout Omaha, and his practice as an optometrist is not confined to this district, as many persons from great distances come to consult him weekly, and the progress made in his profession is proof of his ability.
Dr. Kingsley can fit you with lenses of correct power and shape for each individual. And back of his work stands professional reputation and years of experience in Omaha. You can not be too careful with your eyes. If they are giving you any trouble, it will pay you to visit him the next time you are in Omaha.

VILLA CLUB

The Southern Garden
4922 Ames Avenue OMAHA Phone KEnwood 6363

"Where Things to Eat are Different." A Cheerful Welcome Awaits You by Mrs. Florence Gaines, Hostess.

Here is an establishment that is excellently located and appropriately decorated—known as the place "Where Things to Eat are Different." THE VILLA located at 4922 Ames Avenue, Omaha) is a very popular place for discriminating people to meet for evening dinner, and because of its perfect cuisine, has built up an excellent patronage.
At this popular inn one comes in contact with real American cooking—the kind that is practiced by the mothers and daughters of the best families of the country and one mission that this place is performing is the preserving of this art in the public life of the period.
THE VILLA presents an appearance that is distinctly different and has become unique in the entertainment circles of suburban Omaha, easily reached over "through-street" routes and yet located off the thickly traveled thoroughfares that enter the city. The lighting effects are colorful and pleasing, and the menu card with its wide variety including chicken dishes, etc., will stimulate to hunger the most jaded appetite.

Amidst its pleasant surroundings, one is lulled to forgetfulness of the humdrum of life, leaving memories of a most pleasant evening.
THE VILLA specializes in preparing dinners for groups who desire to have a rendezvous for their parties. The service is faultless and offers all the grace and hospitality of the American home, without any of the fuss and work, to say nothing of the added expense for decorations, etc., necessary for an "at-home" party.

Another thing, the Villa is located where parking accommodations are ample, making it a very popular place for those driving about to drop in. Tourists can stop here without the inconvenience and annoyance of thick traffic. Private parties and special groups will receive the cheerful welcome extended to all visitors. In this review, we are pleased to compliment Mrs. Florence Gaines upon the position her VILLA occupies in the social life of the period and to call the attention of Journal readers to the fact that it is one place where that desire for real American food can be thoroughly satisfied.
