Passing of Former Resident of Cass County

Mrs. Alma Russell Gilmour of Custer County Called to Last Reward -Well Known Here.

The following from the Loup Valley Queen, of Callaway, Nebraska, tells of the death of Mrs. Joseph Gilmour, former resident of Cass coun

Alma Russell, third daughter of Elizur H. and Henrietta (Amick) Russell was born near Weeping Water, Nebraska, December 5th, 1862 and departed this life January 2, 1932 at the age of 69 years and 27

Her parents homesteaded in an early day on the present site of Elmwood, Nebraska. After her mother's death in 1868, she made her home with her maternal grandparents for bu. oats; several years. Her father remarried in 1869.

She received her education in the Cass county public schools. Under the pastorate of Rev. Wehn of Weeping Water, she was converted and joined the Methodist church there. For years her membership has been $11.00; in the Redfern Evangelical church. On February 14, 1883 she was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Gilmore of Weeping Water. To this union were born nine children: Henrietta, Russell, Reuben, Myrtle, Mary, Willis, Wilmer, Elma and

In 1890 she with her husband and infant daughter Myrtle came to Custer county locating on Redfern Table. They lived on their homestead until 1906 when they moved to their new home on an adjoining tree claim. Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore possessed the true pioneer spirit and they were always glad to respond to any call for service in their community. There was hardly a home in the Redfern locality to which Mrs. Gilmore has not ministered in time of illness and sorrow. Her many acts of helpfulness and kindness could not be numbered. The pastors of the surrounding community always found a hearty welcome in the Gilmore home and her liberality to them and to her neighbors was very commendable. She has also in her relation as mother rendered her full measure of loving service to her children. Just as her mother faced the hardships incident to pioneer life in Cass county, such experiences as Bess Streeter Aldrich's famous character Abbie Deal endured, so did Mrs. Gilmore in he early period of the Redfern community face them "with a song upon the lantern of love in

Her husband passed away November 11, 1931. The strain of his long illness severely; taxed her health. She had enjoyed the holiday period with her children and granchildren and her health was apparently improving when she was suddenly call-ed Home. Besides her husband she was preceded in death by her father, mother, two sisters and six children. Cass County Has Champion

Practical Poultry Producers of Eagle and Weeping Water Dairy Calf Clubs Are Winners.

The Practical Poultry Producers of Eagle and the Weeping Water Dairy Calf Clubs were declared the state champion poultry and dairy 4-H clubs. Each club now has permanent possession of the beautiful silver loving cup given by the Gooch Milling Company of Lincoln. The cups became the property of the clubs after having won them two years in suc-

The following is a brief outline of he activities of the poultry club: The Practical Poultry Producers won the Gooch Milling trophy last year with a membership of 24, which completed 100%. They had 38 entries at the state fair and also exhibited at the junior and county fairs. They had the state champion poultry judging team that placed sixth in the National contest with third high individual. Their demonstration team placed fifth at the state fair.

This year the club reorganized with 27 members that completed 100%. The club exhibited 175 birds at the Eagle Junior Fair, 135 at the Nebraska state fair, 125 at the county fair and 35 at the Cornhusker exhibition at Nebraska City. Winnings at the state fair this year were, 13 firsts, 9 seconds, 4 thirds, and 3 fourths. Only one pen was disquali-

Tht members averaged 188 chicks started and raised 139 of them or 74%. The net profit per member was $53.70. Each member averaged making two new pieces of equipment.

This club again had the state champion poultry judging team which placed second at Chicago with the high individual of the entire contest. The club's demonstration team placed second at the state fair this year, and because the team placing first could not qualify for the National show, the second team which represented Nebraska at St. Louis was from this club, and they placed fourth in that contest.

The club also had their usual tour and picnic, judging contests, and achievement day. They also sponsored a "chicken feed" to raise money for the Junior Fair.

The presentation of the loving cup to the Dairy club was made Thursday morning, by W. H. Brokay, director of extension, at the Nebraska Dairymen's Association meeting, at Organized Agriculture. The Dairy club erorganized this year with 19 members. This was an increase of two members over last year and 10 over the year before. This club has finished 100% for the three years it has been organized.

Last year they had the champion amount of foodstuffs and supplies dairy demonstration team at the state fair. It was also the champion Pounds farm demonstration team. This team represented Nebraska at St. Louis. DAWES SUPPORT GIVEN HOOVER

Chicago, Jan. 1 .- Charles Dawes, ambassador to Great Britain, Monday night issued a statement in which he said that any intimation to the effect that President Hoover would not have Dawes full and entire support is "an insult to me." Discarding talk of his possible candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination, as "the discussions of politicians seeking, as usual, to read petty political significance out of my return to Chicago." Dawes said he cherished for President Hoover "the highest admiration and deepest affection."

DEATH OF A PIONEER

Mrs. Charles Kroon, one of the pioneer residents of western Mills county, Iowa, died Sunday at the family home at Pacific Junction. The death of Mrs. Kroon came after a brief illness and was a great shock to the relatives and old time friends. Mrs. Kroon is widow of the late Charles Kroon, for many years engaged in the mercantile business at the Junction and well known in this city. Mrs. Kroon was seventy-nine years of age at the time of death.
