

UNION ITEMS. Dance!

Mr. Oscar Glatz left for his home at St. Louis, Mo., after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsey and Wm. Schlieff.

W. O. Troop and son, George of north of Nehawka, were looking after some business matters in Union on last Tuesday morning.

John Fitzpatrick was engaged in building himself an ice box for the cafe, working on the same at the Frans lumber yard shed.

The lumber yard received a car load of coal on last Monday, which was unloaded and placed in the bins by Joe Green and son, James.

Charles Land was a visitor in Plattsouth and Omaha on Monday of this week where he was looking after some business matters for the day.

W. H. Marks of Plattsouth was looking after some business matters and also was visiting with his host of friends in Union and all are his friends.

W. B. Banning was a visitor in Lincoln on last Saturday, driving over and remaining until Tuesday afternoon looking after some business matters in the big city.

W. R. Young of Plattsouth, and one of the very best auctioneers was a visitor in Union and guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach on last Monday evening.

Henry H. Becker was shelling corn for the next few weeks. Mr. Becker, who is seeking to get the shelling done before he has to accept the office on Monday of next week, January 25th. Mr. Henry Becker was also shelling for Leo Finkle.

Jay Austin was a visitor in Lincoln on last Monday where he went to visit with his sister and their father, A. H. Austin, and reports that the father is sick with an attack of the flu. However it is not considered as being serious.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cross were at Nebraska City where they were looking after some business matters and making arrangements for the funeral of the brother of Mrs. Cross, Mr. Theodore Buck, who died a few days since in the west.

H. W. Griffin was a visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday forenoon of this week. He was looking after a load of poultry, and which he is able to pay as high prices as any town in this vicinity even Plattsouth and Nebraska City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin with their children, Ella Ruthanna and Fred, were a visitor in Plattsouth where they were visiting with the parents of Mr. Griffin while the older girls were looking after the cafe during the absence of the parents.

Fred Marquardt of Avoca who is engaged in the grain business at that place, was a visitor in Plattsouth on last Tuesday morning and also was looking after some matters at Nebraska City. While in Union he was calling on Mayor George A. Stites.

Charles Atteberry, patrol man and mechanic for the county, who is getting the machinery in fine condition for the work of the coming spring as well as for the handling of the snows, was a visitor in Lincoln on last Tuesday where he went to secure some parts and repairs for the work which he has in hand.

The home of Sherman Hathaway was made joyous when the stork brought a very fine baby to their home only to have death claim the little one on the same day. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor and burial at the East Union cemetery. The funeral was held Monday at one o'clock. The parents have the sympathy of their host of friends.

Henry A. Chilcott was a visitor in Lincoln on Wednesday of this week where he went to meet Mrs. Theodore Buck, who was returning with the body of Mr. Buck who was away there on last Sunday. The account of the funeral and a sketch of his life will appear elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Buck lived north of Union and between here and Murray, moving west several years ago. Mr. Buck was a brother of Mrs. J. D. Cross.

Sorrow Follows Joy. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Burbee was made happy by the birth on last Sunday of twin daughters, but the joy was short, as the death angel came claiming their lives, they passing away the same day. The funeral was held Monday and was conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor, a close friend of the family, who spoke comforting words to the parents whose hearts were torn by the loss of the little ones. The interment was had at the east Union cemetery.

Will Hold Bank Meeting. On Thursday of this week, January 21st there will be held the annual meeting of the Bank of Union and at which time they will look after the business of the bank. They will also hold their annual election at this time.

Taking Soundings for Footings. A crew of state men have been in Union for some days making soundings of the bridge across the Weeping Water for the sinking of piers for the new bridge and which is to be a wider one and there will also be another and better and wider bridge builded across the west branch of the Weeping Water to replace the nearly new one which was builded but a short

RIVERS OF TEXAS SWOLLEN. Dallas, Tex., Jan. 18.—Although almost all streams in the northern portion of Texas are swollen and some already have reached flood stage, a report of prominent precipitation, the high waters are believed nearing a crest and are expected to recede without causing great damage, a survey revealed. Elm fork of Trinity river, fed by heavy rainfall over its entire watershed in Montague county, already has inundated portions of Leonard park at Gainesville, and continued to rise late Saturday. Both Elm fork and East fork of Trinity are spreading out into the lowlands north of Dallas and are covering a large area of farm land. West fork of Trinity late in the day had reached a 22.6 foot stage at Fort Worth, but is expected to reach a crest of about twenty-three feet, according to weather bureau observers. Twenty feet is flood stage at Fort Worth, but the river must reach a thirty-two foot level before going over the levees.

FACE DEATH FOR ACCIDENT. Moscow—Confronted with the possibility of death, eleven railroad men were taken to trial Monday night on charges of "breaking labor discipline" in a disastrous wreck two weeks ago. They were accused of being responsible for the deaths of 68 passengers and the injury of 128 more who were involved in a crash Jan. 2 when a passenger train collided with another on the Moscow-Kazan line near here. The death penalty may be imposed on some or all, particularly in view of the fact that the government is concentrating every effort to build up its lagging transport system. Four workers convicted of a similar offense recently in a wreck in Siberia were sentenced to be shot.

THE FUNERAL HOME. Modern conditions and standards of living have called into being an entirely new kind of institution for meeting a universal human need—The Funeral Home. Planned for the specific purpose which it serves, it offers greater efficiency and greater convenience than was possible in the past. We are proud to be able to offer the communities which we serve the use of such an establishment.

D. W. Livingston Files for Office of District Judge

Will Oppose Judge James T. Begley at the Primaries and Election in November.

D. W. Livingston, Nebraska City attorney for more than 30 years, former county attorney and for four years member of the Nebraska legislature, announced Monday that he has filed for district judge of the Second Judicial district, to oppose Judge James T. Begley.

"You may think I'm crazy," Mr. Livingston said as he made formal announcement of his candidacy, "but I'm in politics again. I have filed for the office of district judge, primary in April and election in November."

Mr. Livingston is a native son of Otce county, born in the neighborhood of Talmage. He obtained his legal education at University of Nebraska, has been a practicing attorney in Nebraska City for 30 years or more. He was a vigorous county attorney, participated in the prosecution of many of the county's most notorious offenders and made a good record in the Nebraska legislature for two terms. He was a member of the Nebraska City News-Press.

WINS PENSION RIGHT. Congressman Edgar Howard of the third Nebraska district, has after two years of effort secured the allowance of the claim of Herbert L. Graemeck, Nebraska veteran and former resident of Plattsouth. The claim provides that the veteran receives $30 per month in the future, but he will be given back compensation at the rate of $17 a month from August 1926 to August 1930, and $30 a month thereafter.

Mr. Graemeck was a resident here for some time, being in charge of the First Christian church, but in recent years has been living at Fremont. The many of his friends will be pleased to learn that he has received the compensation which his disability demanded.

STRIKING BACK AT HEFLIN. Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 18.—Building up a defense against charges of J. Thomas Hefflin supporters last week that irregularities existed in the 1930 election in which John H. Bankhead was elected to the senate, witnesses told a senate elections subcommittee that state convict guards were forced to contribute to Hefflin's campaign.

Several state guards testified they had been forced to contribute sums ranging from $25 to $50 to the Hefflin cause and one witness produced a cancelled check made to Hamp Draper, former state convict head. Charles Cullen, printing company employe said he printed and delivered letterheads of the "national secret service" to the office of Horace C. Wilkinson, Hefflin campaign manager.
