

at University

Sketch of the Young People Who Comprise Students at the State University.

Lincoln-Fifty-three students rep-resent Cass county in the University of Nebraska this year, with nine of them coming from Plattsmouth; four from Alvo; one from Avoca; five from Eagle; three represent Elmwood, and four from Louisville. Greenwood has a delegation of eight while the same number are representing Nehawka. Four also come from Murdock, while Wabash has one student in the university. Six call Weeping Water their home.

where she is majoring in applied

She is a member of Phi Upsilon Omicro, honorary home economics so ber of the Newman Catholic club. Edgar Wescott, a senior in the school the college of agriculture, a member of the Palladian Literary society, an honorary member of Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary society, and he has played on the agricultural col-lege baseball team. He was gradu-ated from Weeping Water high school in 1927. Miss Sheldon, who was graduated from Nehawka high school in 1931,

America's largest multiple line is a freshman in the college of arts and sciences and pledged to Kappa through this agency, representing Kappa Gamma social sorority. Miss Writes of Condition in the Kappa Gamma social sorority. Miss Pollard is a senior in the college of arts and sciences, and is president of her sorority, Chi Omega. She is also society editor of the Daily Nebraskan > with the class of 1928. Vilas Sheldon, a graduate of Ne-hawka high school in 1930, is a enrolled in the college of business class of 1930 from Nehawka high administration where he is special- school and is now a sophomore ma-class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school, is now a junior in the teach-ers college and the school of fine arts where she is majoring in applied was graduated from Weeping Water Miss Marvin, like Miss Bell, is a man in the college of business admember of the Greenwood high school ministration. Mary Louise Clark is

FLATTSMOUTH SEMI - WEEKLY JOURNAL

Life

Insurance

THE TRAVELERS

INSURANCE CO.

Duxbury & Davis

Dependable Insurance

DONAT BLDG.

music. Elmer Johnson is a senior in teach-ers college, majoring in history. He was graduated from Plattsmouth high school in 1923. Teresa Liber-shal is a junior in the college of agri-shal is a junior in the college of agri-culture majoring in home economics.

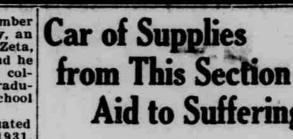

plays in the R. O. T. C. band and is a member of the Y. M. C. A. He is a candidate for the track team, and and a member of Kappa Sigma social icro, honorary home economics so-ciety, and the Y. W. C. A. Miss Lib-ershal was graduated from Platts-mouth high school in 1929. Report Livingston is a sophomore Miss Schmidt is a freshman in the Behert Livingston is a sophomore Alpha bight school in 1929.

in the college of arts and sciences, school of fine arts and is majoring organization for men, and Pershing in dramatics. Sne was graduated Rifles. Lloyd J. Ranney is a junior where he is majoring in pre-medical work. Mr. Livingston is a pledge to Sigma Chi social fraternity and is a member of the class of 1930 of Plattsmouth high school.

A graduate of Plattsmouth high school in 1927 is George Swatek, who is now a junior in the college of engineering where he is majoring in chemical engineering. He is a mem-ber of the Newman Catholic club of law. He completed his high school was graduated from Weeping Water course at Ashland high school in high school last spring is a fresh Mexican lace handkerchief and a seed pearl bag. Her corsage was of white school in 1928.

Wedding Takes Miss Koop's gown of bronze crepe was designed on slender lines, the flowing sleeves of raine green being trimmed in gold beaded bands. Her chapeau, slippers and hose were also of the bronze hue. Rust colored roses composed her corsage. High school in 1928. Jerry Adam, also of the same class as Mr. Wescott, is a senior in teach-ers college. He is a member of the varsity football squad, and the "N" Club. Vestetta Robertson is a fresh-man in the college of arts and sciences. She is a pledge to Delta Delta Delta social sorority and was graduated from Plattsmouth birt Patriotic Council Plans Washington

North Part of State

The car of supplies of food, cloth- the feed. ing and feed donated by the generand a member of the Cornhusker yearbook staff. Miss Pollard was the sponsorship of the American graduated from Nehawka high school Legion, has served to help the needy as a letter received states.

O'CONNOR IS A WITNESS Washington - Chairman T. V. O'Connor of the United States ship-

The car was shipped a week ago ping board appeared before the house Saturday and has evidently been dis- merchant marine committee to desophomore in the college of arts and tributed through the areas where fend the efforts of his organization sciences, and is an active member of there has been suffering. Mr. and to build up the American merchant Sigma Chi social fraternity. Mr. Mrs. A. F. Seybert, who made some marine.

Greenwood high school in 1926, is Schomaker is also a member of the donations of flour to the car, have He said "increasing aid in recent James Begley is a freshman in the college of arts and sciences where he is majoring in pre-law work. He is a pledge of Beta Theta Pi social fra-ternity and was graduated from Plattsmouth high school in 1931. He is out for freshman basketball. Mil-dred Hall, who was graduated in the class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of class of '27 from Plattsmouth high school in 1930. She is a member of received a letter from a resident of years from the postoffice department"

THURSDAY, JAN. 21, 1932

no crops were raised and it was impossible to secure any food supplies for the winter. There are nine in the family of Mr. Block and they have been in hard straits as the result of the crop losses, having nothing to go on, the banks in that section being Aid to Suffering on, the banks in that section being sufferers with the rest of the community and many closing, no money in any of the communities and want on every hand. The drouth and the grasshoppers made it impossible to secure any feed for cattle and while some had been shipped in, there was no one able to secure funds to buy and Popular Columbus Lady Wedded on Saturday

A very pretty wedding took place at Evangelical Protestant church at f o'clock Saturday when Miss Linned Kuenzli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Thomas Koop, son of Mrs. Ida Koop, of Louisville, Neb.

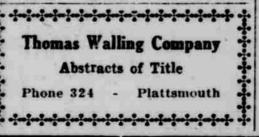

The vows were plighted before an embankment of palms and baskets of snapdragons, while the glow of tall cathedral tapers added further dignity to the scene. Rev. J. H. Steger. the pastor, officiated.

The day was of two-fold significance to the bride for it was the 26th we dding anniversary of her parents.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Cyril Hirsch sang, "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Harold Koop sang "At Dawning." The bridal party entered Louisville high school in 1923 and the church to the strains of the "Bridal March" from Wagner's Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Hirsch.

Miss Edna Koop, sister of the the best man.

The bride was lovely in a majola burgandy velvet gown of floor length. and Mrs. Koop left on the Portland fashioned with a square cut neck line. Empress Eugenie sleeves with moon. As a going away costume, the crushed cuffs which formed a point bride chose a black adrain dress with almost covering the hand and a gold nailhead trimming, black slique tightly fitted bodice fastened in straw turban with an ivory buckle front with a rhinestone buckle. Her and a dark green bag with a hand turban was of the same material Black slippers and lace hose completed her costume. Her only adornment was a triple strand of pearls, a Well Known Louisville Young Man was a white gold belt buckle engravschool last spring. ed with his initials. The bride presented Miss Koop with a crystal and white gold necklace. At 5 o'clock a wedding dinner was served at Hotel Evans for 20 guests. A color scheme of silver and white, spring.

to be carried out in the appointments, will find expression in a crystal bowl Frank Kuenzli, who reside southwest of white rose buds, silver candles in Ingwerson are Alvo's four represencrystal holders and nut baskets, which followed the nuptial theme. The place cards of dainty motif were designed by the bride.

culture where she is majoring in The bride, a popular young lady, was graduated from Columbus high home economics. She was graduated from Alvo high school in 1928. She school in the class of 1924, later enis a member of the Home Economics tering the Bishop Clarkson School club and the 4-H club. of Nursing in Omaha, where she com-Mr. Greer is a graduate student in pleted her course and received her degree as a registered nurse in 1928. Since then, she has been actively engaged in her profession in Omaha. She returned here last week in anticipation of the wedding.

ganization. He was graduated from The groom was graduated from Peru high school in 1925. Miss Lucille Christenson is a junior in the college of agriculture where she is attended the Chicago School of Techmajoring in home economics. She nology in Chicago, Ill. He has been associated with the Lyman Richey was graduated from Alvo high school Sand company at Louisville during in 1927, and like her sister is a groom, served as bridesmaid, and the past seven years. He is affiliated member of Home Economics and 4-H John Koep, the groom's brother, was with the Elks and Odd Follows clubs.

Four students represent Murdock this year, including Mrs. Mildred F. Norenberg, Lester E. Thimgan, Noble Immediately after the dinner, Mr. E. Buell and Donald M. Schewe. Rose for a two weeks' eastern honey-Mrs. Sorenberg, who was gradu-ated from Milford high school in 1922, is now a sophomore in teachers college. Mr. Thimgan is also a sophomore in teachers college. Mr. Buell, a senior in the college carved Chinese ornament. An Alasof arts and sciences, is majoring in kan seal coat trimmed with Russian zoology. He is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity and was graduated from Murdock high school in 1928. Mr. Schewe is a jun-Out-of-town guests were Mr. and ior in the college of agriculture, majoring in vocational education. He squad. Mr. Schewe was graduated from Murdock high school with the class of 1929.

Wabash is represented by Russell E. Dorr, this year, who is a fresh-man in the college of arts and sciences Harold Besack, Art Hartman, Ger-

rude Brammer and Marion Jackman are the delegation from Louisville this year. Mr. Besack, who was graduated from Louisville high school in 1923, is a junior in the college of agriculture, where he is majoring in dairying and extension work. He is a member of the Dairy club, a mem-ber of the Ag club, and a pledge to Farm House social fraternity. Mr. Hartman is a junior in the college of arts and sciences majoring in English, and is a pledge of Beta Sigma Psi, social fraternity. He was graduated from Louisville high school in 1927. Miss Brammer, a sophomore in the college of agriculture, is ma-joring in home economics, and is a pledge to Phi Mu social sorority. She was graduated from Louisville high chool in 1930. Miss Jackman is a junior in the college of business administration. She was a member of the class of 1929, graduated from Louisville high Greenwood has a delegation of Nebraska this term including Nor-man Peters, Dorothy Bell, Helen Mar-vir. Ray Meyers, Yvonne Schmidt, Dwight Talcott, Ted Tow and Frieda Woitzel.

Birthday Ceremony graduated from Plattsmouth high 1928, is a freshman in the college of agriculture. Esther Wenzel is also enrolled in that college and is study-

Lloyd Wulf, a freshman in the col-lege of arts and sciences and the school of fine arts. He was gradu-in 1927 Avoca's sole representative is ated from Avoca high school last in 1927.

Chriswiser.

Elsie Rackenbaugh and Florence The Patriotic Council, comprising West are freshmen in the teachers Gertrude Christenson, Charles a large group of the organizations of college, and both were members of Greer, Lucile Christenson and Ruth the Eagle high school class of '31. the city, the Daughters of the Amer-Miss West is specializing in math-ematics and Miss Rackenbaugh is Legion Auxiliary, Woman's Relief tatives at the state university this year. Miss Gertrude Christenson is Corps, Woman's Club, Boy Scouts, majoring in fine arts. a sophomore in the college of agri-Catholic Daughters of America and William Tinker, who was graduated from Eagle high school in 1929, Camp Fire Girls, met last evening at is a junior in the college of business the E. H. Wescott home to perfect the plans for Washington's birthday. administration. Denice Greene, Ted Hall and Mar-

The organizations had planned to garet M. Liston represent Elmwood have the dedication of the park on at the university this year. Miss Webster boulevard on February 22nd. engineering, where he is a member of Green was graduated from Elmwood but owing to the general severe win-Sigma Tau, honorary engineering sohigh school in 1930 and is now a ter conditions it was decided to lay ciety, Phi Tau Theta, Methodist sophomore in the college of arts and this over until flag day, June 14th, men's fraternity, and Wesley Playsciences and the school of fine arts when the park will be in much beters. Methodist students dramatic orwhere she is majoring in art. She is ter shape for the event.

a member of Alpha XI Delta social At the meeting last evening it was sorority and Alpha Rho Tau, honor- proposed that the showing of the ary art organization, and Y. W. C. A. motion picture story of the life of Mr. Hall and Miss Liston are both Washington be offered here on Febfreshmen in the university and mem- ruary 22nd for the general public, bers of the class of 1931 from Elm- this matter being placed in the hands wood high school. Mr. Hall is en- of Superintendent R. E. Bailey of the rolled in the college of arts and city schools.

sciences and a pledge to Theta Xi The high school and grades will social fraternity. Miss Liston is tak- also have special exercises for the ing her work in teachers college and two hundredth anniversary of the is a pledge to Alpha Xi Delta, social birth of Washington and plans for sorority, and a member of the Y. W. which are now being carried forward.

Nehawka is represented by the fol-On Sunday February 21st, the iowing eight students at the univer- churches of the city will be asked to sity this year: Leslie J. Behrns, make a special recognition of the anniversary in their services, all de-Charles L. Livingston, Jesse E. Livington, Elizabeth Jane Sheldon, Virnominations being asked to particiginia R. Pollard, Vilas E. Sheldon, pate in this as far as possible. Verner F. Schomaker and Carl G. One of the suggestions offered was that special urge be made of the display of the American flag from every Mr. Behrns, who was graduated from Nehawka high school in 1929, home of the city on the birthday of is now a junior in the agricultural Washington.

is a member of the varsity track college. Mr. Livingston is a sopho-The patriotic spirit is urged for more in the agricultural college and the entire year in the various holiwas graduated from Weeping Wa-ter high school in 1929. He is a member of the Palladian Literary Memorial day, flag day, fourth of Society, and has played on the base-ball and football teams at the agri-ensuing year.

cultural college Jesse E. Livingston is a junior in W. C. T. U. MEETING

> The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a very pleasant meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. O. Troy, Mrs. Wil-liam Baird being the associate hos-

Mrs. Aidlaide Boynton had charge of the devotions of the afternoon. A very interesting program of readings was given, Mrs. Troy pre-senting "American Royalty"; Mrs. senting "American Royalty"; Mrs. John Elliott, "A Challenge to the Wets"; Miss Elizabeth Spangler, "Liquor Out of Date";; Mrs. V. T. Arn, "New Alcohol Danger"; Mrs. W. P. Propst, "The Waning Alcohol Wave"; Mrs. Adelaide Boynton, "Total Abstention, True Patriotism." County Attorney W. G. Kieck was present, giving the ladies a very fine resume of the laws pertaining to the prohibition enforcement as well as a general review of the work of the office of the county attorney. The address was very much enjoyed and followed with the closest interest by all of the members of the union. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served.

fitch completed her outfit. gift of the groom. She carried a Mrs. Harold Koop, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Koop, Mrs. Cyril Hirsch, Miss Mari Etta Koop, John and Allan Koop, all of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Bergman, of Manley, Misses Charlotte and Edna Koop and Miss Lucille Berigan, of Omaha.-Columbus Telegram. Journal Want-Ads get results!

lodges.

A Reduction! on top of A Reduction!

or a "Depression in the Depression!" Last Fall the price of Suits and Overcoats was set back to prices of 15 years ago. NOW we have even reduced these prices to effect quick clearance. At these super-low prices-

$11.75 - $17.75 - $23.75 You are Getting the GREATEST VALUES ever known in Clothing-Let us Prove It!

Choice

Eighty

on Graveled Highway

west of Murray

Good set of buildings;

near school - on mail

route. Very desirable

Possession March 1st

Priced to Sell

Davis

for a home.