MORE STUDENTS IN NEBRASKA SCHOOLS

Lincoln, Jan. 22.-More students are in school in Nebraska today than ever before, Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, director of secondary education in Nebraska, told the Lincoln Lions club in a talk, "Education and Present Emonomic Crisis."

"Business conditions have not affected education, and although Nebraska is spending $1,000,000 less for education this year we have more pupils in our schools," he said.

"Because of education," he continued, "the United States is facing conditions better than if its citizens were not enlight-
