Jesus Comforts His Disciples.
John 14:1-8.

We have had some very valuable lessons as we have studied John's gospel. The "Son of God" has been the theme. We are approaching the last sad hours of the Savior's life; inside of twelve hours He will be nailed to the cross. Jesus had foretold His betrayer; also Peter's denial; further, that all would forsake Him. Consternation seized the disciples, they were greatly disturbed in their hearts; they had never heard the Master speak like that before. Jesus, noting their state of mind, comes to their aid with such comforting words, as only the Son of man could speak.

Our Lord designed the last supper as a joyful and peaceful feast, for he well knew the terrible hours that were to come. "Dr. Laenner, by his invention of the stethoscope, has increased the hearing capacity of the ear, and made it sensitive to the slightest change in the usual motion of the heart, thereby saving many a life and prolonging many another. There is another name greater than his and another discovery laden with greater significance. There is one who has laid his divine ear upon the troubled heart of man."

Oh! the blessed words of Jesus: "Let not your hearts be troubled." These words Christ are a command, as binding as any in the Decalogue, and Christ would not command the impossible. But how are we to obey Christ's command and keep our hearts from being troubled? "Believe in God." The first essential of the untroubled heart is faith in a Christ-like God. The next secret of the untroubled heart is a like faith in the Lord Jesus. "Believe also in me." Jesus gives the believer a tranquil heart. (verse 2) "In my Father's house are many mansions." It signifies a resting place. It means "home." After years of toil and labor and wanderings, His followers go home, to that "abiding city" of which the prophet Micah 2:10 says: "Arise ye and depart: for this is not your rest." Heb. 13:14 we read: "For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come." That is the "Home of the Soul." (verse 3) Heaven is a prepared place for a prepared people. Heaven is a place. "I will receive you into myself." What does this mean? It is the acknowledgment of Jesus that to him heaven is not complete without us. And if we believe in him and love him, surely earth and heaven are nothing without him.

The wonderful declaration in verse 6, has been the means of millions to find their way to Christ:

Ciel Gansamer who has been employed by C. V. Barrows during the winter at the Hi-Way Garage east of Mynrad, resigned recently and moved to a farm where he will farm this summer. Ciel is ready but the weather has to wait on the ground-hog which has some ten days yet to serve.

T. L. Amick and son, Ralph, were over to Platts-mouth on last Saturday where they were in attendance at the used car sale which was held at the Platts-mouth Motor Co. and while there Ralph became possessor of a Buick which he is breaking and when he has become acquainted with the new acquisition he will have a good car.

DIES VERY SUDDENLY

From Wednesday's Daily

C. H. Jensen, manager of the local exchange of the Lincoln Telephone Co., has returned home from Ord, Nebraska, where he was called last week by the sudden death of his brother, Edward Jensen. The death was very sudden and a great shock to the family as Mr. Jensen died while the other members of his family were absent from home. On the Wednesday preceding the death, Mrs. Ed Jensen had been taken from the farm to Ord and placed in the hospital for a gall stone operation. Mr. Jensen had been in to visit the wife and on his return home last Friday had told the two sons, Kenneth and Lloyd, to go on into Ord on Saturday to visit the mother. On Saturday the sons had gone to town and the father was engaged in hauling in some fresh feed for the stock. The two boys had returned home about 6:30 on Saturday evening and opening the door of the screened porch were startled to find the body of the father stretched on the floor and lifeless. A pencil was found beside the body and looking over the porch it was found that the father had scribbled a last message, stating that he was suffering a heart attack, death coming before he was able to finish the message. Owing to the condition of Mrs. Jensen it was necessary to postpone the funeral for several days until she had progressed enough to have the sad news broken to her.

The local American Legion post is taking up the matter of the securing of additional supplies which are so badly needed in the northern sections of the state. There the cold has added to the grim need of supplies for cattle and stock of all kinds. It is proposed to take all funds raised and purchase feed for the stock and as well as food supplies for the residents of the various communities. Those who may wish to donate feed or foodstuffs should call phone No. 48 and where they can find all necessary information.

Funds so far subscribed to aid in the purchase of needed food are as follows: Q. Z. Society, Pres. church, $10.00 St. John's Catholic church, 12.00 D. O. Dwyer, 10.00 R. A. Bates, 5.00 A Friend, 1.00

DEATH OF YOUNG GIRL

Miss Florence Sudduth, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sudduth of near Murray, passed away Monday night at the family home. The young girl had been suffering from an attack of pneumonia that followed a severe cold. Despite all that medical skill and care could do for her recovery, the little girl continued to grow worse until death came to her relief. The little lady was a student of the Lewiston school and one of the popular young people of the school. The passing has brought a great sorrow to the many that had the pleasure of knowing her. Funeral services were held today at Murray.
