HITLERITES DENY STORIES

Berlin.—Germany still suffered Tuesday from election tension. In seven cities there were outbreaks of political violence. Meanwhile spokesmen for both the government and for Adolf Hitler's national socialist party denied reports published abroad that negotiations were under way for the purpose of bringing about participation in the government by the Hitlerites.

Many persons were injured in the day's disorders but there were no fatalities. The outbreaks came on the heels of a warning by Franz Bracht, deputy federal commissioner in the state of Prussia, that severe punishment would be invoked against persons involved in political disturbances. The Nazi organ Volkischer Beobachter blamed the outbreaks on the government, which, it declared, had proved itself unable to protect Hitlerites against communist terrorism.

FEAR FARM GIRL KIDNAPED

Ludington, Mich.—Police searched a lonely swamp west of Freesoil for Evelyn Sanford, seventeen year old farm girl feared to be the victim of kidnapers. She was last reported about 10 o'clock Saturday night, when a neighbor saw her walking along the road leading thru the swamp, bound for her home near Freesoil. Another neighbor, George Buege, told police he heard a woman scream about 10:30 Saturday night as he was walking along the swamp road but that he could see nothing in the darkness. Investigators said they found tire tracks along the road and beside them marks indicating that at least three persons, one of them a woman, had been engaged in a struggle.

POSES HUNT MISSING GIRL

Ludington, Mich.—A few blond hairs caught on a twig and marks of a struggle between a girl and at least one man in a swamp offered the only clue to the disappearance of seventeen year old Evelyn Sanford Saturday night. State police said they were convinced the pretty farm girl was abducted, probably by degenerates, as she walked along a road thru the swamp from Freesoil to her home, half a mile out.

George Buege, a neighbor, said he heard a girl's screams as he walked along the same highway Saturday night. Volunteer posse of aroused neighbors have aided in the search.

Nehawka

Fred Drucker was a visitor at Hastings with his parents for the week end.

Be sure and attend the Achievement Day program August 5th, at 2:30, which is to be held at the Murray Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Fred Drucker was quite seriously ill on last Saturday and Sunday but was showing some improvement on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Charles R. Troop and wife were over to Weeping Water on last Thursday where they were visiting at the home of R. A. Young and wife. Roy Edgerton and J. W. Hobson of Plattsmouth were at the home of W. O. Troop where they were making some repairs and changes on the stock well.

Mrs. Emma Lyons of Mynard was a visitor for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chappell, and where all enjoyed a very pleasant time.

George Troop and the good wife, who by the way is feeling much improved, were visiting with the parents of Mrs. Troop, Martin Stava and family, for over the week end.

Albert B. Rutledge and son Glen and his children and Mrs. J. W. Lloyd were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday, called there to look after some business matters for the morning, they driving over in their auto.

Mrs. Roy Jones of Kansas City was in Nehawka to see Miss Gladys Wolfe, the beauty culturist, and found that she had gone to Omaha. Mrs. Jones deals in beauty shop supplies and was also selling to Mrs. Trotter.

A. G. Cisney was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Monday, going to make the purchase of some stock hogs but when he got there, although they were advertised, they had been withdrawn from the market and his trip was for nothing.

Albert Anderson and the family were over to Lorton on last Sunday where they went to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steffens, who are the parents of Mr. Anderson. They report a very pleasant visit and trip notwithstanding it was raining a portion of the time.

D. H. Wilson and family of Crete. They had been spending a week with relatives at Iowa City and on their return stopped at grandfather and grandmother Stewart Rough for a visit and were joined there by the family of Martin Ross. The kiddies played games and the elder folks visited, all having a good time and an excellent dinner.

Will Visit in Missouri

A short time since Mrs. R. C. Pollard had her sister and family here from Missouri and on their return she accompanied them and has been visiting for some time at their Missouri home. On Wednesday of this week Mr. Pollard departed in his car for the south and will visit there for a time. When he returns home Mr. Pollard will accompany him.

Had a Great Trip

The families of Nels Anderson and Guy Reed were up to South Dakota last week, they being gone four days, and enjoyed the trip very much. They drove and only traveled during the day, stopping where night overtook them. They found the crops excellent but the prices very low.

The yield of wheat was very high and averaging over thirty bushels and some making as high as fifty bushels to the acre. Mr. Anderson says that the prospect for corn, with the single exception of the threat which the grasshoppers give, is excellent, being high and all tasseled out with an abundance of shoots.

The hoppers have not hurt the crop much yet but it is feared that they will injure the corn a great deal.

Having a Good Time

Thomas E. Fulton received a care from Herbert Kunts and the family who departed from Nehawka on last Wednesday and are now visiting with the mother of Mr. Kunts, at New London, Wisconsin. Mr. Kunts tells of them stopping along the road and sure having a good time on their trip.

We were glad for a good attendance at our services on Sunday in spite of the rain. Let us not be weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not. Come to Christ and be saved, then unite with the church to serve Him. Church membership doesn't mean a thing unless we have had our sins washed away in the blood shed on Calvary's cross, and are living a life separated from the worldly things such as the dance, moving pictures shows and cards.

CAR IS BURNED

From Tuesday's Daily

Late last evening the Oakland coach belonging to a man named Anderson, residing near the old ferry, was destroyed by fire on the Platte bottom road north of this city. The fire is supposed to have caught from defective wiring and the machine was soon badly burned. The members of the auto party were able to escape from the car and were later brought on home by passing automobileists.

Disappointed by the Rain

It is few that were disappointed by the rain of last Sunday for it was pleasant to have it come when it was so needed. But the Bible school class of the Methodist church were disappointed as they had arranged to go to Plattsmouth for a visit with the Giles family, and picnic, having their dinner cut under the trees but the coming of the rain spoiled the trip. But there will be other days when they will be able to go.

William Newman, living southwest of Weeping Water is reported as being quite sick at home with gall stones and other complications and is being cared for by his family physician.

John R. Stine of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday and was also looking after some business matters for a time and called at both the stone quarries while here.

Victor Clarence and the wife with their baby from Union were visiting Weeping Water on last Tuesday, called here to look after some business matters and to secure some repairs for farm machinery.

Theron Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole, who has been employed near Murray for the past two weeks assisting in the harvesting and threshing, having completed his work returned home on last Saturday.

Stirling Amick and wife were over to Murray on last Monday and also visiting at Omaha. His mother, Mrs. Nettie B. Amick, who was staying in Omaha returned home with him and will make her home with him for the present.

Dick Lane, who has been living in Lincoln for some time was in Weeping Water on last Tuesday and was visiting with his many friends here. He and his wife have purchased a cafe known as the "Irish Inn" which they took charge of on Wednesday of this week.

Alex Mitchell living west of Weeping Water has been in rather poor health and has concluded that it would be best to go west and see if the change in climate would not be beneficial to his health. His friend Frank H. Baldwin was out to visit him a few days ago and found him quite poorly.

There has been much work done on the apparatus at the Western Lime Stone Company in preparation to the beginning of their work of getting out the stone and also the converting of same into the desired product for paving. The Binger Lumber Company have furnished a large amount of material for the purpose.

Mesdames Zora Jourgeson, Myrtle Gusset and Jennie Reed, and Miss Maude Hillman were over to Lincoln on last Tuesday where they went to visit and to spend some time with their friend, Mrs. John Crozier who is convalescing following an operation which she underwent at the Bryan hospital last week. They report Mrs. Crozier as getting along nicely.

The Ladies' Aid society meets on Thursday, Aug. 11th.
