MARRIED AT MYNARD

On Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage of the United Brethren church at Mynard, occurred the marriage of Miss Mildred Motis of Archer, South Dakota, and Milton M. Toman, one of the well known young men of the Mynard community.

The marriage lines were read by the Rev. H. A. McKelvey, pastor of the church and the ceremony was witnessed by John Svagera and Ann Svagera, the latter a sister of the bride.

The wedding came as a surprise to the friends of the contracting parties as they had made no announcement of their intention to join their hearts and lives. The young people will start housekeeping at once on the farm south of Mynard where the groom has been engaged in farming for some time.

The groom is one of the successful farmers of the Mynard community where he has resided in the last few years. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Toman of that community. The bride has a very large circle of friends at Archer where she was reared to womanhood and is a lady who will make a most helpful aid to the husband on the farm. The many friends join in their well wishes to the young people.

NEBRASKA SOIL TO PORTLAND

Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans, national committeewoman of the American Legion Auxiliary, when she goes to the national convention at Portland, Oregon, is taking with her on the journey, soil from the state of Nebraska.

A memorial tree is to be planted at Portland which is to be set in soil taken from every state of the union. In making the selection of the Nebraska soil Mrs. Rosencrans decided to have the soil taken from around a tree planted at Arbor Lodge by President Cleveland in honor of J. Sterling Morton. The soil from the home of the founder of Arbor day was considered as the most appropriate to be used in the tree planting ceremony.

Those boys and girls can't do good work without proper equipment. Save Book Store can supply every student need at the new low price levels.

Charge Four with First Degree Murder

Everett Daniels, John Daniels, Ival Daniels and William Falk Are Charged with Killing.

From Wednesday's Daily
This morning a complaint was filed in the county court by County Attorney W. G. Kieck, charging Everett Daniels, John Daniels, Ival Daniels and William Falk with first degree murder.

The charge is the outgrowth of the stabbing to death of James Zoubek, Jr., Monday night on south Lincoln avenue, in a fight in which the four defendants, Zoubek and Earl Newton were engaged.

The complaint charges the four with stabbing Zoubek to death with a knife or sharp instrument unknown to the state.

The witnesses to the fight as well as the defendants were questioned by the sheriff and county attorney Tuesday and but little additional light was thrown on the tragedy which has resulted in the taking of the life of Zoubek.

In statements to the county attorney, the defendant, Everett Daniels, claimed that a stranger had come up and gotten into the fight, that he had later disappeared and no one knew whom he was. The defendant denied having a knife or any sharp weapon that might have inflicted the fatal wound.

The defendant Falk, who had accompanied the Daniels' on the night of the fight and was involved in the struggle in the highway near the Zoubek place, denied any knowledge of a knife among any members of the party.

The filing of the first degree charges will bring the necessity of the state showing premeditation in the killing on the part of the four defendants.

This morning at 11 o'clock the four defendants were arraigned before Judge Duxbury and entered a plea of not guilty to the murder charge. The defendants were represented at the arraignment by Attorney W. A. Robertson. The preliminary hearing of the four was set for Saturday, September 17th.

ROTARIANS HOLD MEETING

The Rotarians met Tuesday afternoon at the Hotel Riley in their regular luncheon and at which time the custom of entertaining two students of the high school during the school term was resumed. The boys who will meet with the Rotarians for September are Sam Arn, senior and Gerald Keil, junior. The boys were introduced and greeted by E. H. Westcott, who is one of the leaders in boys' work in the club.

L. O. Minor gave a review of the Rotarian for the current month, touching on the many interesting facts and articles that the magazine is offering the members of the International organization.

Robert M. Walling gave a most cleverly presented talk on "My Operation," he having just recently joined the operation club by parting with his appendix. The talk was of a humorous nature and touched many of the incidents of hospital life.

Judge A. H. Duxbury, veteran editor of the Wheel, while no longer able to regal the members with the printed edition of the weekly paper, gave a verbal presentation of the deceased paper.

RETURNS TO CHARGE

From Wednesday's Daily
Father Marcelles Agius, of Valparaiso, Nebraska, who has been here to assist in the forty hours' devotion being held at the St. John's church, returned this afternoon to his charge in Saunders county. He is kept quite busy in the new parishes as he has churches at both Valparaiso and Agnew to serve. During his stay here he was the guest of his brother, Father George Agius, pastor of the St. John's church.

HOLD PLEASANT MEETING

The Social Workers of the Methodist church met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. C. O. Troy, Mrs. Otto Keck being associate hostesses. The business session was largely given over to the discussion of the waffle supper which will be held on September 14th. The ladies also enjoyed two excellent readings, given by Mrs. Jameson and Shirley Keck.

Harms Store at Manley Robbed Monday Night

Large Amount of Goods Taken by Robbers Who Break Into Back Door of Store.

The general store of Theodore Harms at Manley was visited by burglars some time Monday night and a large amount of goods taken from the store.

The burglars made their entrance to the store by boring holes in the door in the rear of the building and which permitted reaching through and turning the bolt that secured the door.

The robbery was discovered this morning about 6:30 when Mr. Harms opened the store for business.

The amount of goods taken as far as could be ascertained by a hasty check showed that 150 pairs of overalls, two dozen shirts, ten bolts of dress goods, a large amount of cigarettes as well as boys' coats and jackets had been taken from the store.

Sheriff Thimgan, who had spent the greater part of the night in the investigating of the Zoubek murder, hurried out to the scene of the robbery this morning and checked up on the case. The robbery seems to be the work of a gang that has invaded a large number of the smaller towns in eastern Nebraska.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT NOTES

From Monday's Daily
The Cass county tennis tournament now in progress has advanced to the semi-finals. Following are the results:

Mason advanced to the semi-finals by defeating Aldrich of Elmwood, 6-1, 6-2, and Clements of Elmwood, 6-0, 6-2. Sayles advanced to the semi-finals in defeating Rodriguez by default and Fitch 6-3, 6-2. Mason and Sayles play the semi-finals today in the upper bracket.

In the lower bracket Giles of Plattsmouth advanced to the semi-finals by defeating Robert Hartford 6-1, 6-4 and Hadraba 9-7, 6-4.

In the lower part of the bottom bracket Patterson and Larson are to do battle to see who plays Giles, Ray having defeated Swatek 6-4, 6-1, while Patterson eliminated Iverson 6-1, 6-3, and Westcott 6-8, 6-2, 3-1. Ed and Mr. Patterson were so closely matched that they decided to finish the third set by the best 3 out of 5 games. This is the first time a Cass county tournament has been attempted in years and we hope it will become an annual affair.

MARRIED AT M. E. PARSONAGE

The wedding of Philip E. Hipes of Creston and Thelma M. Lovelace, of Villisca, Iowa, occurred on Sunday at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Troy. The bridal party later returning to their home in Iowa.

Rev. Troy was called upon to join in the bonds of wedlock Miss Lola M. Reed of Creston, Iowa, and Clifford V. Smith of Red Oak, Iowa, who securing the necessary permission called upon the pastor to pronounce the words that would make them as one.
