Mrs. Bert Roher was calling at the Gerald Roher home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parsell were calling at the Earle Dremer home Tuesday.

Mrs. F. E. Cook was hostess to the Women's Reading club on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary Creamer spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jewell.

The Misses Golda and Doris Klyser, of Lincoln were calling on Alvo relatives Monday afternoon.

John Banning and wife enjoyed a visit last Sunday from Joseph Banning and wife, of Union.

Mrs. Lizzie Lewis, Neal and Carl Lewis called at the Thomas Stout home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Loren Nickel, of Denton, Nebraska, were calling on relatives and friends near Alvo Tuesday.

While Simon Rehmeier and party were away, the work at the elevator was looked after by R. M. Coatman.

Mrs. Maybelle Winn and Miss June Weichel attended the project club meeting at Elmwood Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Vickers, of Eagle, has been visiting at the home of her son, Joe Vickers and family, the past week.

Mrs. Earl Dremer and Ralph spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Dremer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parsell.

Charles Cook and Lee Nickles, of Plattsmouth were calling on friends in this part of the county Wednesday afternoon.

Carl Lewis came in from Alliance, Nebr., Wednesday night to spend the winter with home folks and help with corn husking.

Mrs. Arzella Foreman and daughter, Marguerite, of Lincoln, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the farm with Mr. Foreman.

Mrs. Elmer Klyser drove to Lincoln Wednesday to be with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Larsen, who had an operation on her eye.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shearer and small sons, Hubert, Jr., Clifford, Charles and Clayton T. were Sunday dinner guests at the Thomas Stout home.

Quite a number from this neighborhood attended the program and plate supper at the Shady Corner school house Friday evening. Miss DeLoris Hill is the teacher.

Walter, Philip and Maggie Nickel drove to Arcadia, Nebr., on Sunday, where they visited several days with relatives, and while there the boys hunted pheasants. They report having had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Campbell drove to Palmyra Sunday, where they were guests of Mrs. Campbell's mother, Mrs. Maggie Wessel and family. Friends of Mrs. Wessel will be sorry to learn she has not been at all well lately.

Mrs. Winifred Murthey returned from Falls City, Nebr., Wednesday afternoon, where she has been helping care for her mother, who is ill. Mrs. Murthey will spend a few days at her home, then return to Falls City, at which place she will spend the winter with her mother.

Harry Toiburst delivered some lumber to Thomas Stout Tuesday afternoon, where it will be used to crib some of the big crop of corn which Earle Dremer, who farms the place this year, is husking, assisted by Omer and Myrtle Pyle, of Wymore. Mr. Stout says the corn, which is making from 50 to 65 bushels per acre is of the best quality he has ever cribbed and he has raised some mighty fine corn on his farm. Earl is to be congratulated on the fine crop he has raised.

Ladies Aid Meets
The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Edgar Edwards, where they enjoyed the gathering and were entertained by Mrs. Edwards. The ladies looked after what business was before them and planned their work for the coming winter season.

Are Doing Their Part
The problem of corn picking with the very low price of this cereal has been one difficult to solve. The firm of the Alvo Hardware and Implement company, Messrs. Edgar Edwards and John B. Skinner, have been taking days about picking corn for John Elliott, Sr. The younger Mr. Elliott has been cribbing about a hundred bushels a day, while Edgar Edwards, who sprained his wrist the first day out, was not making quite so much.

Makes Trip to Iowa
Simon Rehmeier, wife and the boys were guests at Clarion, Iowa, from Friday of last week until Tuesday of this week, during which time they visited at the home of Jacob Halverson, Mrs. Rehmeier and Mrs. Halverson being sisters. The party also visited at Lattimar, Iowa, where they visited at the home of Lawrence Heernbaum, brother of Mrs. Rehmeier. Simon, who is intensely interested in farm problems, says there is a wonderful crop in that portion of the neighboring state which he visited.

Blessed by Arrival of Son
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Foreman was singularly blessed on November 1st, when the stork brot to them for their very own a bouncing 11-pound baby boy. The mother and little son are getting along nicely, while joy reigns supreme and the happiness of the father knows no bounds.

Has New Gas Supply
James Hermance, who always seeks to give his patrons the best gas for the money they pay, has secured the celebrated White Rose gasoline and other auto supplies.

Freshmen Duly Initiated
The Freshmen class of the Alvo high school were regularly initiated on Tuesday, November 1st, when a very appropriate program was had and a general good time enjoyed by all. Now the members of the class are full fledged members of the Alvo high school and everybody's happy.

Held Festal Meet
On last Tuesday evening, the members of the Alvo Methodist Bible school held a very enjoyable Hallo-wen party at the basement of the church building, with a fine program, which was followed by games such as young people greatly enjoy.

Celebrate Anniversary of Wedding
Sunday, October 30th, being the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hill, their daughters, the Misses DeLoris and Perne, planned a very delightful surprise in their honor by inviting about 35 of their relatives and friends to help them celebrate the happy event.

To say they were surprised is putting it mildly, but upon recovering from the shock, they proceeded to make all welcome.

Everyone brought well filled baskets and dinner was served cafeteria style, the table being loaded with all kinds of good things to eat.

Following the serving of the dinner, a program was given.

Grover played several selections on the violin, Miss DeLoris Hill gave a couple of readings, "When Ma Writes Checks" and "The Back-Seat Driver," Ralph Dremer read "O'Grady's Goat" and "My Mother's Mince Pie," which were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Earl Dremer gave two readings, "It Takes a Heap of Livin' to Make a Home" and "My Neighbors" in her usual pleasing manner. The song, "When You and I were Young, Maggie," was sung by Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mrs. Mabelle Winn, Mrs. Earl Dremer and Mrs. R. L. Wiggs, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. John Fischer.

The rest of the afternoon was spent visiting, after which all left for their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hill many more happy years of married life.

Double Four Club
Wednesday afternoon, October 26, the Double Four club met with Mrs. Mabelle Winn at a Hallo-wen party. The house was decorated with the season's colors—orange and black—pumpkins, cats and owls being much in evidence. The guests were taken to a darkened room, where they were met by a tall ghost, who insisted on shaking hands with all.

The usual pranks were enjoyed, some receiving a "very" warm reception. After all were seated, with the president, Mrs. Wm. Bornemeier and the vice president Miss Kathryn Nickel, both absent, Miss June Weichel conducted the business meeting.

Roll call was answered with jokes appropos of the occasion.

The club songs for September and October were sung, after which we adjourned and Group No. 2 had charge of the entertainment.

Mrs. Earle Dremer and Mrs. Frank Dougherty read poems which were much enjoyed. Games were then played and fortunes told, causing a lot of merriment for all. Some found their fortunes in lilly ponds; others elsewhere?

The afternoon passed all too quickly.

Mothers' and Daughters' Council
The Mothers' and Daughters' Council met Friday afternoon, October 28th with Mrs. Charles Ayers as hostess. The president, Mrs. Mabelle Winn, opened the meeting. Mrs. Jesse Hardnock led the devotionals.

After a short business meeting, a motion was made that we adjourn. Mrs. Ellis Mickle had charge of the study hour. "Some Quilting Thots" was the subject and Mrs. Earl Bennett, Mrs. Charles Roelofs and Mrs. Elmer West read the lesson. Miss Helen Hardnock read a poem. Mrs. Vera Lancaster read a paper on "The Naming of Quilts." Mrs. Winn gave a paper on "Appreciation of Fine Old Quilts and Coverlets." Mrs. Ellis Mickle gave a poem. As it was so near the Hallo-wen season, four ladies, Mrs. Art Skinner, Mrs. Elmer Klyser, Mrs. Earle Bennett and Mrs. Mabelle Winn dressed as owls and cats and sang the Hallo-wen Concert, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Vera Lancaster.

The club songs for September and November were sung. There were fifteen members and sixteen guests present. The hostess, assisted by her daughters, and Miss Alice Kellogg, served a delicious lunch.

The lesson and program were greatly enjoyed by all. Much could be learned as to our lives and quilting, both. Many beautiful quilts and quilt blocks of both old and new designs were shown.

Two of the quilts, which were pieced by Mrs. Henry Hardnock, the mother of Jesse and Sam ardnock, were of much interest, the old-fashioned prints calling forth much comment. The lovely new designs were enjoyed as well.

Our next meeting will be on November 11th, Armistice Day, with Mrs. Ruth Taylor as hostess.

SOLDIER PAY RATE HIKED
Moscow.—Increases in pay ranging up to 100 percent in some cases were ordered for the army and navy as soviet Russia's fifteenth anniversary present to the nation's fighting forces. All classes from the lowest grade soldier to the highest ranking officer, benefit by the order, which was made effective Nov. 1. It was issued by the council of people's commissars in connection with the anniversary of the October revolution.

Increases of 100 percent went to the crews of warships. For officers of all branches of the two services, the pay rises ranged from 42.9 percent for a chief of squad (corresponding to an American army captain) to 83.3 percent for the chief of an aviation brigade. The actual pay of officers was not made public, but the common soldier will receive six rubles a month under the new scale, and a senior sergeant, the highest non-commissioned grade, will get 30 rubles (the nominal value of the ruble is 51 1-2 cents.)

Has Record of Economy and Efficiency in Office

District Judge Begley in a Signed Statement to Voters Points Out Instances of Economies

There has been mailed to the voters a post card stating that a change is needed in this Judicial District. The statement is purely an assertion and not supported by facts. If made in a Court pleading the opposing lawyer would immediately move to strike it out as being a conclusion.

Our fathers in framing the constitution made a distinction between the judiciary and other departments, in that they provided that Judges should serve for life or during good behavior. They recognized that judges were skilled men and acquired knowledge from service. In the districts to both the north and south of us, they have judges who have sat on the bench for more than 25 years, and they are considered able jurists. Most of our Supreme Judges have served for long terms. Some state laws provided for a term as long as fourteen years. The tendency is to keep a judge on the bench as long as he is efficient and economical.

When I was appointed to the bench, I found the docket was about a year behind. I called special terms and by working long days and many nights, caught up with the work, and now have every case determined that I can get to trial. I have held court for fellow Judges in 16 counties outside my own district. During the past year I have, in addition to my own work, held a term of court at Pender, Nebr., spent two weeks in trial work at Omaha; 2 weeks at Falls City and 3 weeks on the Supreme Bench at Lincoln, all without extra pay. I submit this to show efficiency.

As to economy, I work twice as many hours as any judge in the state. The lawyers from Omaha generally admit that I hear cases in one half the time taken by their courts. There is a case now being tried in the Federal Court at Omaha that is dragging into its fourth or fifth week and will, probably last that much longer. I could hear and determine this case in one half the time and save the taxpayers about $2500 to $3000 in jury fees alone.

No thinking person will want a change without good reason, and I think that my service in this office is an asset to the district.

If you think I have handled the affairs of this office fairly, economically and efficiently I would appreciate your support at the polls on Nov. 8, 1932. Yours respectfully,

JAMES T. BEGLEY.

Three Men Arrested as Kidnap Suspects

One Tells of Writing Notes to New Jersey Police and Col. Lindbergh.

New York, Oct. 30.—The interstate police teletype system tonight reported the arrest of three men at Llanders, Long Island, as kidnaping suspects.

One of the prisoners, the police message said, admitted having written letters to the New Jersey state police and to Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh regarding the kidnaping of Lindbergh's son.

When arrested, the message said, the men were driving in an automobile with New Jersey license plates.

The message was sent out by the sheriff and Suffolk county at Riverhead, who asked if the suspects were wanted by police in New York or other cities.

He gave their names as Joseph Rigno, alias Joseph Martin, of Franklin, N. J.; Mike Haduno, and another man using the name Rigno and Martin.

One of the men had several newspaper clippings, in his pocket, the message said, pertaining to the Lindbergh and other kidnapings.—World-Herald.

Manley News Items

August Krecklow has not been feeling the best for several days, but has kept at the work just the same.

Word was received that Miss Isabel Stander, who was one of the teachers in 1931 and 1932, is very ill at a hospital in Lincoln.

Miss Teresa Rauth, who has been living in Plattsmouth, moved to her farm southwest of Manley one day last week and will reside here until spring.

Little Jimmie Scheehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scheehan, Jr., was quite ill for a few days during the past week, but at this time is greatly improved.

A. H. Duxbury, county judge, was a visitor in Manley on last Wednesday and was looking after his political fences as he is a candidate to succeed himself.

Republican candidate for governor Griswold and Lloyd Dort, who is a candidate for railway commissioner, were in Manley on a campaign tour last Wednesday.

Troy Davis, of Weeping Water, who is a candidate for state senator, was a visitor in Manley and was meeting his many friends as well as making new ones.

Harold Krecklow and his mother, and Mrs. Robert Wiles, a sister, were in Omaha last Thursday, where they were visiting with friends as well as doing some shopping.

Mesdames A. R. Dowler and E. C. Hogue were guests for the day last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Rauth, where the ladies enjoyed a very pleasant time.

There was a large and very enthusiastic crowd at the democratic rally, which was held at Manley on last Saturday night when the principal speaker was a man from Lincoln.

Herbert Steinkamp last week purchased a new E-4 Ford coach which he will use in his work as salesman on the road and will be accompanied by Mrs. Steinkamp a portion of the time while looking after this work.

George Rau and Clyde Jenkins are busy these days chopping wood on the farm of Wm. J. Rau, where they are doing double duty in getting wood for the winter and also clearing some lands which have been encumbered by a growth of trees.

A number of the road workers of Manley and vicinity were over to Union last Wednesday, where they went to witness the new power machinery in operation, among them being Oscar Dowler, Herbert and Andrew Schleifer and John Gruber.

Rudolph Bergman, having a crib for corn and seeing that there were many who wanted groceries instead of the corn, has been giving 20 cents in groceries for a bushel of ear corn, piling the same up in his crib from day to day as it came in, until now he has the crib full.

Mrs. Emma Andrus departed last Tuesday for Los Angeles, and made the trip via rail, going to Omaha on the Missouri Pacific and taking the Union Pacific out of there for the west coast. Her ticket thru to destination was secured by Missouri Pacific Agent Henry Osborne.

Mrs. Harry Clarke, a sister-in-law of John C. Rauth and aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth, who has been visiting here for some time, departed last Sunday for her home at Iowa Falls, Iowa, after having enjoyed a very pleasant visit. Mrs. Clarke was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth. Mr. and Mrs. Rauth also attended the stock show while in Omaha.

Had Wonderful Time
Otto and Arnold Harms and Carl and Frank Peters, the latter from Talmage, returned home a week ago Saturday night from a trip of a number of days into northeastern Nebraska, where they visited at Wayne and Winside and enjoyed a pleasant hunt for pheasants, of which they were able to secure their full quota.

TWO PLANES LOST AT SEA

San Diego.—Two navy fighting planes were lost at sea in quick succession. It was learned, and the pilot of each was rescued by the scouting force destroyer Tarbell. Chief Aviation Pilot T. A. Driscoll was forced down one-half mile astern of the U. S. S. Lexington off Coronado Islands. His plane sank as the Tarbell arrived. Chief Aviation Pilot H. H. Pavlet brought his plane down in the water near the Lexington when it developed engine trouble. The plane sank as he was being rescued by the Tarbell.

Roosevelt Bids Republicans Join in His Support

Tells Aims to Secure for American People Work and Security—Speaks in N. Y.

Metropolitan Opera House, New York, Nov. 3.—From the focal point of opera's famous golden horseshoe, Franklin D. Roosevelt tonight addressed an invitation to republicans to join the democrats in working out the program he said had been designed to the end that the American people might have work and security.

The democratic presidential candidate spoke just a few minutes after Owen D. Young had told the meeting, sponsored by the Republican-for-Roosevelt club, that he had no fear for American business if Franklin D. Roosevelt were elected president.

"Let us rest assured that voting as we feel will bring a result which we can look forward to with confidence and optimism the morning after election," Young said.

The appearance of the candidate precipitated a three-minute demonstration that brought paper tumbling down from the high upper galleries to sprinkle the bare shoulders of women in evening gowns in the plush lined boxes below.

Spectacular Demonstrations.
Mr. Roosevelt had come to the opera house from two of the most spectacular demonstrations he has seen since he opened his campaign. In City Hall square in Newark and in Journal square in Jersey City, many thousands had gathered in a cheering throng to see the candidate while there was a steady rumble of bursting bombs and rockets sent colored flames showering across the sky.

In Jersey City the police estimated the crowd that heard Governor Roosevelt briefly as numbering 150 thousand. The Newark crowd was estimated at upwards of 65 thousand.

The candidate rode in an open car through the crowd that upheld hard against police lines and came to the very fenders of his automobile. He swept quickly back through the Holland tunnels for his speech in the opera house.

Mr. Roosevelt told the crowd at the Metropolitan that the president was conducting a campaign of fear and quoted Mr. Hoover as saying that the grass would grow in the streets of American cities if the policies he advocated were not continued.

Speaks Again Tonight.
"Well, the grass has little chance to grow in the streets of our cities now," he added. "It would be trampled into the ground by the men who wander these streets in search of employment."

Mr. Roosevelt referred to the statement he said Calvin Coolidge had made in 1920 that a party long in power reached a point where it failed to reflect the will of the people and should be "relegated to the role of critic."

"This is the sober conclusion of a cautious public man, not long ago president of the United States, Calvin Coolidge," said Roosevelt. "With every word of it, I heartily agree."

The speech was the first of three he will make in the New York City area. He will appear with Alfred E. Smith tomorrow night in Brooklyn and on the following night in Madison Square Garden.

Richard Washburn Child, a republican, introducing Young, said he was going to vote for Mr. Roosevelt. Child's introduction of Roosevelt loosed another storm of applause. Showers of paper cascaded down from the five tiers of spectators.

The governor's mother waved a white gloved hand to him as he stood smiling in a beam of blinding lights.—World-Herald.
