DEATH OF MRS. J. V. SANS

Mrs. Joseph V. Sans, a resident of this city some twenty-five years ago, passed away on Wednesday, December 7th, at the family home at Berthoud, Colorado. The death of Mrs. Sans occurred as the result of an attack of pneumonia from which she had suffered several days. The message was received by the relatives in Omaha on Monday that her condition was critical and Mrs. Victor Sherwood, a sister, started at once for the west and Mrs. M. E. Manspeaker, also a sister, on Tuesday, but Mrs. Sans passed away before they reached Berthoud. Mrs. Sans is survived by the husband, one son and one granddaughter and three grandchildren. There are also four sisters and two brothers surviving, among the former Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Victor Sherwood and Mrs. Margaret Manspeaker of Omaha. The funeral was held on Saturday at the home at Berthoud. The news of the passing of this estimable lady will be learned with greatest regret by the many friends in this city and vicinity.

SANTA'S GIFTS

Santa Claus has just send word to the committee that when he makes his mysterious appearance in Plattsmouth next Saturday morning about 10:30 he will have with him a bunch of gift tickets which he will give out to the kiddies immediately upon his arrival at his headquarters in the Masonic building. These gift tickets will be good for a toy gift of some sort—not candy—at some store in town. Santa has made arrangements with these stores and offices to take care of this for him. Be on hand by 10:30 next Saturday morning if you want to participate in these free gifts from Santa. Santa will be on hand at his headquarters until 12 noon and from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m. to talk and visit with any of his little friends, but the gift distribution will be immediately upon his arrival and not during the day.
