EVICCTIONS START RIOTING

New York.—The eviction of tenants from seven apartments in "Paradise Alley," a writers' and artists' colony, precipitated a riot during which one man was injured so severely, he was taken unconscious to a hospital where surgeons said he probably had a fractured skull. Pistols were drawn, fights started and heads were thumped even before the riot broke out.

Six deputies and twenty policemen appeared at Paradise Alley during the morning with eviction orders. When they entered one apartment to evict the four tenants, they found the rooms filled with smoke and the furniture in ashes. Another writer threatened to shoot if the officers broke in. They drew pistols and

Farm Holiday Organization is Reaching Out

Branch at Mynard to Initiate Group in Center Precinct Tonight—Much Interest Shown.

From Thursday's Daily
The Farmer's Holiday movement, a child of the four years of depressed conditions under which the farmers of the west have labored, is spreading fast in this section of Nebraska and the keenest interest shown in the plans of the various groups.

This was evidenced by the largely attended meeting at the Mynard community building last evening and which was attended by farmers from all sections of east and central Cass county.

The Holiday association offers no general program, the local groups form their own particular plan of action to suit the locality and the emergency of the cases as they arise.

The meeting last evening at Mynard was addressed by Rev. H. A. McKelvey, the pastor of the Mynard church, who is an enthusiastic worker in the battle for securing equal rights for the farmers and laborers of the country. The address of Mr. McKelvey was one of inspiration to the members of the group. The state officers who had planned to attend the meeting were unable to be here owing to an interstate meeting at Des Moines, with Milo Reno, national president.

At the meeting last evening the permanent officers of the association were named, they being: Chairman—Charles Stretten. Vice-Chairman—Roy O. Cole. Secretary—Roy Smith. The Mynard unit has been asked to assist in the organization of a group in Center precinct and this evening W. F. Nolte and Mr. Stretten are to meet at the Philpot school house and perfect an organization. In Center precinct the taxpayers league there is being transferred to the holiday movement to give a broader scope to the work of the organization in that part of the county.

In addition to the general farm crisis confronting the country, the Mynard unit discussed many of the tax problems and methods by which they might be lightened. Attorney A. L. Tidd, of this city, who is also interested in tax reduction organizations, was present and gave a most interesting talk to the members of the unit.

There have been many requests for the local unit to assist in forming holiday branches at Union and Louisville and which will probably be taken up in the near future.

FISHERMEN SUFFER LOSS

The owners of fishing nets, lines and other equipment, who have shacks located along the Missouri river, have been suffering the loss of a great deal of their property in the last week.

The Grebe brothers, who have fished on the river for years and have a great deal of equipment that they use in the fishing activities, were the victims of the visit of the thieves a few days ago. They had been in the habit of leaving the motor to their boat as well as seines in the shack, but one night decided that it would be best to take them home. Their "hunch" was correct for the next morning when visiting the shack it was found that the lock had been forced and several pair of oarlocks as well as a fish dressing hook had been taken.

John Richardson also was a sufferer from the visitation of thieves who Wednesday night proceeded to make away with a large part of his fishing equipment.

There are a large number engaged in fishing this winter and the owners of seines and other fishing equipment are keeping a close watch that they do not lose these articles so necessary to securing a livelihood.

TAX PROPERTY BILL

The state house of representatives Wednesday took up the consideration of a measure which is of interest in Plattsmouth and other cities of the state. This is house roll No. 121 by Ratcliffe of Hitchcock and Wells of Jefferson. It is providing for sale upon affirmative vote of three-fourths of a city council or village board, of property acquired thru foreclosures on taxes or other liens and permits this to be done by ordinance.

As explained by its introducers and others it is designed to relieve the tax burden by putting more property back on the tax list.

Sheriff Sylvester Following All Possible Clues to Reveal Parties at the McCulloch Farm

From Saturday's Daily
The office of Sheriff Homer Sylvester has been busy the past few days tracing down all possible leads that might reveal the identity of the three young men who attempted the robbery of the McCulloch farm home last Wednesday morning.

The investigation of the sheriff has revealed that on January 8th, Ed McCulloch, who resides with his mother and sister at the farm, had been stuck up by a man who visited the farm, but that on that occasion as was the case at the last visit, there had been nothing secured.

At the time of the previous hold-up, Mr. McCulloch was home in the evening when a stranger appeared and stated that his car was stuck near the farm and he wished the aid of a car or team to help pull the car. Mr. McCulloch offered to go and see if he could help push the car until it started, the man saying that his wife and child were in the car. As the two men came out of the front yard and had progressed down the road a short distance, another man joined the party and Mr. McCulloch was requested to turn over $5 or what money he had. Not having any money with him he was berated and threatened by the men with being "taken for a ride."

The men had a gun with a bayonet on it, McCulloch stated to the officers. After argument and convinced that the farmer had no money with him, the party of men drove away.

The night of the stickup was bright moonlight and the men in the party resembled very strongly the description of the trio of masked bandits who were at the farm last Wednesday.

Mr. McCulloch did not report the incident for fear of alarming the other members of the family. The fact that the farm is located off the main arteries of travel indicates that the persons who came to the farm made the trip with this particular farm as their objective and had not merely selected the place at random to stage their stick-up.

HOLD OFF ON LICENSES

County Treasurer John E. Turner has been advised by the motor vehicle division of the department of public works, that while they have not issued any order for the discontinuance of the issue of auto license plates, pending a new bill, that there is a change contemplated. Leaders in the state legislature, belonging to the house roads committee, have advised Nebraska car owners not to purchase their plates at this time. The legislature has a bill before them which if it is expected will pass, providing for the cutting in two of the license fees for the coming year. Those who have already paid the license fees will have to be rebated the sum in excess of any new fees, which will bring an expense to the counties. In order to escape the rebating it is asked that the car owners refrain from the present from securing the plates. Pending the passing of the emergency legislation the officers will permit the use of the old plates.

CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

From Friday's Daily
Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sydebotham are today enjoying the passing of the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, which occurred on January 27, 1878 at Oakley, Iowa. It was on that date that Miss Mary Lane and C. P. Sydebotham were joined in the bonds of wedlock and which covered more than the half century.

The bride and groom of so many years ago are numbered among the most highly esteemed residents of the community and for twenty-one years have made their home in Plattsmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Sydebotham and family moved to Nebraska from Iowa some forty-four years ago and have since made this state their home.

Both of the estimable couple are in the best of health at their advanced age, Mrs. Sydebotham being seventy eight and Mr. Sydebotham seventy-seven.

Three daughters represent the family that Mr. and Mrs. Sydebotham have reared, they being, Mrs. Roy Stine of this city, Mrs. John A. Johnson of Courtland, and Mrs. B. H. Swift of Portland, Oregon.

The anniversary was quietly observed today at the home where the bride and groom with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stine enjoyed a fine family dinner party.

WEDDED AT NEBRASKA CITY

The home of Mrs. Jacob Ehlers at Nebraska City, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon where her daughter, Clara, became the bride of Alvin Horn of near Nehawka. Only the relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present. Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union officiated. The home was beautifully decorated in pink and white.

The bride was attended by Miss Velma Munn of Nebraska City. Harold Krecklow of Manley was best man. Muriel Kettlehut, small daughter of Mrs. Mary Kettlehut of Nehawka, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow.

The bride was beautifully gowned in navy blue and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Munn wore dark brown and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Refreshments were served from the dining room table which was decorated with a large wedding cake and pink tapers. The couple departed for a short visit to Kansas City.

They will reside on a farm north of Nehawka after February 15. Both Mr. Horn and his bride are popular among a large circle of friends who extended congratulations and good wishes.

Plattsmouth stores offer every shopping advantage of the larger city, plus a personal contact between buyer and seller that means far more than the "opportunity of choosing from an extra shade or two of pink."
