

EVERYDAY LOW PRICES for 1933

Here You will Find Quality Merchandise at the Lowest Possible Prices

Coat's Thread Large Spools 8¢ Small Spools 4¢	Belding's Silk Thread Per Spool 7¢
Boys' Overalls Heavy weight, full cut. Two pockets on bib. Large hip pockets. Sizes 2 to 16. Pair 49¢	STAR BRAND Work Shoes Outing Bal Oil tanned uppers, Composition sole. Men's or Boys' at $1.19
MEN'S Dress Oxfords Black Gun Metal calf. Blucher style—Per pair For Boys, pair $1.69 $1.79	CHILDREN'S STURDY Play Suits Heavy hickory stripe. Sizes 2 to 6. Our price now, only 59¢ 2 for $1
LADIES' ONE-STRAP Slippers Low heel. Black kid leather. "Star Brand" $1.19	Work Shirts Blue or gray Chambray. Full cut, triple stitch. Coat style. For Men For Boys 49¢ 39¢

Soennichsen's
The Largest Store in Cass County

Use your telephone for safety as well as business or pleasure. Call 9 at your convenience for dependable insurance, counsel and advice.

S. S. DAVIS
Ground Floor Bates Bldg.
PLATTSMOUTH

PLANES PASS OVER CITY

The residents of the city had the opportunity of witnessing the passage of a squadron of army airplanes, flying in combat formation, flying from Fort Leavenworth to Fort Crook. The planes were a beautiful sight as they passed at a great height over the city in perfect alignment. The planes were on a regular tour connected with their flying activities.

Journal Want-Ads get results!

SATURDAY SPECIALS

- EXTRA SPECIAL
2 lge. Colgate Tooth Paste and Tooth Brush, all for 49¢
- Mouse Traps, 6 for . 9¢
- Bleached Cotton Bats, each . 9¢
- Fair Sex Toilet Soap, 2 for . 9¢
- Gandy Peanut Squares, lb. 10¢
- Bias Seam Tape, 3 for 9¢
- Ladies Rayon Bloomers . . 19¢
- Fast Color New Prints, yd. 10-15¢
- Another Shipment of New Print Dresses. 49¢
- Jig Saw Puzzles, Valentines and Valentine Candies
- Knorr's Popular Variety Store
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

W. F. Hartsook Dies at Home Near Greenwood

One of the Prominent Residents of the West Portion of County Passes to Reward.

William F. Hartsook, one of the long time residents of near Greenwood, died Saturday at his farm home death coming after an illness of some duration from heart trouble. He had gradually failed in the last few weeks until death came to his relief.

The deceased was born at Xenia, Ohio, October 29, 1863, where his boyhood days were spent and in 1884 he came to Nebraska and settled in the vicinity of Greenwood where he has since resided. He was married on February 14, 1889, to Miss Elizabeth Foster of Greenwood, who survives his passing as well as the son, Arthur J. Hartsook, superintendent of city schools at Houston, Texas.

Mr. Hartsook was very prominent in the affairs of his community and successful in his business affairs and was esteemed by a large circle of friends for his outstanding character and services to his community.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at Greenwood and were conducted by the Greenwood Masonic lodge of which he was a member over a long period of years.

FIND WRECKED CAR

From Wednesday's Daily
The sheriff's office was notified this morning that a wrecked car was lying in a gully along the highway in the vicinity of Cedar Creek, apparently an attempt to fire the car having been made. The sheriff and party visited the scene this morning while en route from Louisville. The car had the gas tank smashed, evidently to allow the gas to seep over the car, as well as all license plates and numbers on the car being removed. The car was a deluxe coupe of the 1931 model of the Chevrolet cars. No trace of the ownership of the car or how it came to be in the vicinity of Cedar Creek was found.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

From Monday's Daily
The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Taplett was the scene of a very pleasant dinner party Sunday evening when the family entertained Mr. James E. Waga, whose marriage to Miss Irene Taplett occurred today. Albert J. Waga, brother of the groom to be was a guest at the happy event. The event was one that was enjoyed to the utmost by all of the family who joined in showering the bride and groom-to-be with their best wishes.

Receiver is Named for Western Limestone Co.

Theodore W. Metcalfe Selected on Filing Suit by Omaha Safe Deposit Co., Trustees.

A petition was filed in the district clerk's office here on Saturday afternoon entitled the Omaha Safe Deposit Co., of Omaha, plaintiff, against the Western Limestone Products Co., of Delaware, whose quarries are located at Weeping Water.

The petition states that the Western Limestone Products Co., incorporated in the state of Delaware, on November 25, 1925, authorized the issuance of $250,000 in bonds.

The plaintiff company was designated as trustee of the bonds and have in their care $160,000 of the bonds, on which there is due principal and interest, the plaintiff company being designated as trustee under agreement on July 2, 1931.

The plaintiff company in their petition recite that there is now due interest on the bonds and which is unpaid and the plaintiff petition that the entire issue be declared due and payable and that the court name a receiver for the company.

District Judge James T. Begley has appointed Theodore W. Metcalfe as temporary receiver of the Western Products Co., and who has entered on the discharge of his office.

HOLD FINE MEETING

The W. C. T. U. met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George L. Farley, a very large number of the ladies being in attendance at the event and enjoying to the utmost the excellent program that had been arranged for the occasion.

Mrs. Charles Troop, president, led the devotions of the afternoon.

There was a general round table discussion of the plans of the W. C. T. U. for the year both in the national organization and the local unit.

A short musical program was given by two of the talented young ladies of the city, Miss Louise Rishel and Miss Lois Giles, who were heard in solo numbers, "A Beautiful Vision," by Miss Rishel on the piano and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," a clarinet solo by Miss Giles. The accompaniment was played by Mrs. E. C. Giles. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to add to the pleasures of all of the members of the party.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS

From Monday's Daily
This morning Floyd Gerbeling of this city, received the sad news of the sudden death of his mother, Mrs. Charles Gerbeling of Elmwood. The death message was a great shock to the son as while the mother had been poorly for some time from the flu, her condition was not thought serious and it is thought that a sudden heart attack caused the death. The son left at once for the old home to be with the bereaved father. Mrs. Gerbeling is survived by the husband and two children, Floyd of this city and Mrs. A. W. Conger of Grand Island, Nebraska.

"See it before you buy it." The home store offers you this greatest of all shopping advantages—and their prices are at bedrock, too. Read their ads in the Daily and Semi-Weekly Journal.

INSURANCE FOR PROTECTION

YOUR Insurance policies should be carefully written, by a dependable agency, representing good, substantial companies.

False Economy

IT IS false economy to buy cheap insurance to protect valuable property. It may look like a bargain until a loss occurs, but may prove to be very costly after it is too late.

A Good Investment

ADEQUATE Insurance is a good investment. It gives real protection against loss and provides a feeling of security that is worth the small cost of the policy.

For Courteous, Dependable Insurance Service, See

Duxbury & Davis

Donat Bldg., Phone 56
REPRESENTING
The Largest and Oldest Insurance Companies in America

Mynard Community Club Has Pleasant Time

Fine Program Arranged Which Is Enjoyed by a Very Large Number of Auditors.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mynard Community club was held last Friday, the 27th, with capacity attendance. The new officers had charge of the meeting which was presided over by Roy O. Cole, president. After a short song led by Richard Spangler, the business meeting was held.

The East Side program committee presented a miscellaneous program. The Little German Band from Plattsmouth composed of Guy and Amos Houghson, Glen Rhoades and Eugene Bushnell were heard in a number of popular and old time selections. Mrs. Mary Wetenkemp Janney sang "One Fleeting Hour" and "Among My Souvenirs." Mrs. Pearl Cole and Miss Alice Barbara Wiles gave a piano duet and were followed by Miss Helene Perry who gave a musical reading "The Old Fashioned Girl" and a negro dialect reading as an encore. A novelty tableau called "The Old Family Album" was next seen and greeted by roars of laughter and applause from the audience.

Raymond Cook turned the pages of the family album and elaborated on each picture with humorous introductions. The "Wedding Picture" was posed by Mrs. S. W. Cole and Roy O. Cole as bride and groom. Mrs. Louise Robbins posed as "the old maid aunt." Sherman Cole was the cunning but hungry three month old baby. Lawrence was "Little Willie" and Mrs. Katherine Wiles "Little Sister." Ted Wiles was the family "Black Sheep," introduced as a combination of Mussolini, Baron Munchausen, and Barnacle Bill. "Grandma and Grandpa" were Mrs. Jennie Wiles and Royal Smith. The program closed with the characters posed as the "Family Group."

RIVER-VIEW CLUB MEETS

A very pleasant meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Herbert Campbell on January 25th. Most of the members were present.

After the business part of the meeting the members sang "Love's Old Sweet Song," accompanied by Mrs. Campbell on the piano. After this the leaders presented a very interesting lesson on "Some Food Economic Facts for the Homemaker," including comparisons of farm prices and of prices paid for commodities bought, farm and retail prices of food and cost of distribution for the years 1910 to 1932.

They also gave information on "Home Preservation of Meats." After this there was a demonstration on pork cuts and home curing of meats by Alex Campbell and George Brinklow.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Campbell, assisted by Miss Josephine Campbell. Cards were planned at the home of Mrs. Georgia Creamer on Friday where also the Christmas party was held, and a most enjoyable time was had on both occasions.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Gayer on February 28th.

ENJOY VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Ebinger and son, Carl, of Plainview, were in the city for a short time Monday to visit the relatives and the many old time friends in this city where the Ebinger family were residents for so many years. They drove from their home to Havlock Sunday where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kroehler, the latter a sister of Mrs. Ebinger, coming from there to this city. They returned Monday evening to Lincoln where Mr. Ebinger will attend the state hardware dealer's association which is meeting at that place and will visit there for the next few days.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME

Sunday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock the fire alarm was turned in from the south portion of the city where the residence occupied by G. E. Lillehardt and family, on Gold street, was on fire. The firemen with the temporary truck hastened to the scene where it was found that the flames had gained considerable headway on the roof of the house. The firemen were able to confine the fire to one side of the roof but the building was damaged to considerable extent by the blaze. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been from the chimney of the building.

Journal Want-Ads get results!

Black & White

For over 40 years H. M. Soennichsen has been building prestige with high quality, service and lower prices. You can save with safety at the Black and White.

Prices Effective Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 3-4-5

LIBBY De Lux Peaches Sliced or Halves 2 for . 29¢	Hershey Cocoa 1/2-lb. 9¢ 1-lb. 15¢ Tin Can	PORK & BEANS Van Camp's Med. can 4¢ Limit 6 Cans
---	---	--

Fresh Picnics	Per Pound 5¢
Spare Ribs Lean and Meaty.
Fresh Ground Hamburger
Pure Pork Sausage
Pork Liver
Bulk Kraut Long Thread.

BUTTER Casco, Solids—Per 1-lb. Carton 17¢ Quartered, 18¢ Lb.	CHEESE Nebr. Full Cream "Tasty" PER POUND 13¢	BEANS Great Northern or Michigan 10 POUNDS FOR 29¢	CORN First Prize Country Gentleman MED. SIZE TIN 7½¢
---	--	---	---

Beef Roast Fancy, Corn Fed. Per lb. 12¢	Loin Patties Clear. Per lb. 17½¢
Round Steak Fancy, Per lb. 15¢	Pure Lard Home rendered. Per lb. 6¢
Sirloin Steak Per lb. 20¢	Pork Butt Roast Per lb. 7½¢
Pork Chops Center cuts. Per lb. 9¢	Cottage Butts Smoked. Per lb. 15½¢

Maxwell House COFFEE Per Lb. 27¢	Oatmeal 10 lb. bag 25¢	SUGAR 100 lbs. $4.59 10 lbs. 46¢
---	---	---

Libby Pears, No. 2½, each 21¢	Oysters, lge. size, each 15¢
Pancake Flour, IGA, each 15¢	Crackers, 2-lb. Krispy 23¢
Quaker Oats, lge. size, ea. 15¢	Crystal Wh. Soap, 10 bars 25¢
Corn Flakes, IGA, lge. size 10¢	Chips, lge. size, each 13¢
Bran Flakes, IGA, each 10¢	Catsup, Happy Vale, each 10¢ Large Size

Super Suds

7½¢
Regular 10c Value

Fanchon

A French Milled Toilet Soap!

5c
Regular 10c Value

Palmolive Beads Pkg. 5¢

VETERAN PRINTER DIES

William G. Matthews, 58, who for more than 40 years had been a printer on Omaha newspapers and for several years with the Plattsmouth Journal, died Monday morning at an Omaha hospital after a lingering illness.

Mr. Matthews was born and reared in Omaha and when a youth entered the printing trade, continuing active work until two years ago when ill health forced his retirement. Mr. Matthews came to Plattsmouth some twenty years ago and made his home here for several years, later returning to Omaha where he was engaged on the Journal-Stockman, News and Bee. The family resided at 1013

Thomas Walling Company
Abstracts of Title
Phone 324 - Plattsmouth

South 52nd street, Omaha.
Mr. Matthews is survived by the widow, Mrs. Anna Matthews, one son, George, his mother, Mrs. Mary Matthews, all of Omaha; two sisters, Mrs. J. F. Lozier of Banner Grove, Illinois and Mrs. I. J. Copenharve, of Omaha.

M. E. AID SOCIETY

The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the church parlors. There will be a program following the business session comprising, a reading, "Which Loved Best," trumpet solo, a violin solo, reading, "The Last Laugh," perhaps a German song or two. It is desired to have a large attendance and the hostesses, Mesdames J. V. Hatt, R. B. Hayes, J. C. Comstock, C. C. Westcott and Roy Swinniker, cordially invite all members and friends to be present.

See the goods you buy. Glowing catalog descriptions are often misleading. The only safe way is to trade with your home town merchant who stands ready to make good any inferiority.

Everything for school—most complete line in Cass county at Bates Book Store.

Highest Prices

FOR YOUR Farm Produce

We want your Eggs and Poultry and will pay the top Cash price for same.

Also Buy Hides

Soennichsen's
Plattsmouth, Phone 42

Journal Want-Ads get results!