

UNION ITEMS.

Miss Laverna Murdock has been having a struggle with the flu for the past week, but is much better at this time.

Font Wilson and family, of Murray were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Albert Wilson and family, where they all enjoyed the visit very much.

Elmer B. Chapman, county commissioner, was at Nehawka on last Monday, where he was called to look after some business matters for the county at that place.

Mrs. Ida Roddy was rather poorly for a few days, terminating with the beginning of the week, having a tussle with the flu, but at this time is considerably improved.

Delbert Todd, living midway between Union and Murray has a little daughter, who has been suffering a great deal from the flu, but is reported as being much improved at this time.

Mrs. Earl Greene favored the services at the Baptist church on last Sunday morning with a solo that was greatly appreciated by all who were fortunate in that they had attended the services.

Mrs. George Wessell, living northwest of Nehawka, has been rather poorly for a number of days on account of a siege of the flu. However, she is at this time reported as being much improved.

Miss Martha Upton was suddenly taken ill at school on last Monday and was excused so she could return to her home. It is hoped that she was able to return to her studies the following morning.

Ray Becker reported his crop of spring lambs at this time, February 13, to number 26 and many more to follow, as he has many ewes yet to bring lambs. He is expecting a large flock when they all arrive.

Mrs. Ogareta Austin, who is making her home in California, has been very sick with the flu for some time, but was reported as being some better at this time, but still not as yet recovered from her sickness.

While in Nebraska City, Carl Wessell, of Nehawka, who was parked on the street and was preparing to return to his home and was backing out of the parking space, when a truck came along, striking Mr. Wessell's car and damaging the car somewhat, but fortunate was Mr. Wessell that he was in no manner hurt.

During the past week work was abandoned on the bridge which is being built to span the Weeping Water and carry the pavement in Highway No. 24 east of town this coming summer. The extreme cold weather prevented the workmen from making satisfactory progress and so they decided to hold off for awhile.

Herman Kehrell, who some time since suffered a fractured leg and who is just now getting so he can get about without the aid of crutches, and it will be some time before he can return to his work. Barrett Kohrell and wife were visitors for the day at the home of the parents, and where all enjoyed the visit very much.

George A. Stites and wife were in Mynard last Sunday, they going over in order that Mr. Stites might confer with Rev. McKelvie regarding a Holiday meeting, which was to be held in Union on Tuesday evening of this week. They found Rev. McKelvie conducting funeral services for the late Jacob Smith, and so Mr. Stites had to make another trip on last Monday afternoon.

Horace Griffin and the family were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Griffin, parents of Mr. Griffin, and where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit. Mr. E. M. Griffin has had the misfortune to sustain a very serious sprain of one of his ankles, and which is at this time giving that gentleman much grief, although it is some better than originally.

Mrs. Martha Pickering entertained a number of friends at a very pleasant reception which was given in honor of her daughter, Miss Leora, and at which a large number of the friends were present, all enjoying the occasion very much. In departing, all expressed their pleasure at having been present each one also expressed a hope for another such enjoyable occasion in the near future.

Hallas Banning, who is making his home at Lincoln with the parents during the session of the legislature, was a visitor in Union for a few days during the past week, coming over on Friday and stopping at Alvo, where his aunt, Miss Pearle Banning, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banning and brought her to Union, where she is visiting for the present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Banning.

Entertained County Instructors
Superintendent James Marcell was host to the instructors of Cass county on last Monday evening at the auditorium of the Union city schools, when a welcome was extended to the instructors of other portions of the county, and with an appropriate and well appointed program and a very much appreciated oyster supper that was served to all the visitors and guests of the home town.

Missouri Pacific School Special
That the schools and all others who may desire man enjoy an opportunity to see Lincoln and observe the state legislature in session and as well the State University, now in the midst of second semester activity, the Missouri Pacific has arranged to run a special excursion train on Saturday of this week, from Falls City to Lincoln, for which a charge of only 50 cents for the round trip will be required. The train will pass through Union about eight o'clock Saturday morning, and returning, go through here about 4 in the afternoon. This will afford all school children an opportunity to see the legisla ture and as well the state university. Better take advantage of the very low terms. Remember the date, Saturday, February 18th.

Conducted Services Here Sunday
On last Sunday, the Rev. G. L. Sharpe, of Omaha, a minister of the Baptist church of that place was down to Union and conducted services at the Baptist church here and was greeted by a large and very enthusiastic congregation who truly appreciated the very fine discourse that was rendered.

Services Next Sunday
There will be services at the Baptist church the coming Sunday and which will be conducted by the Rev. Ezra L. Duncan, pastor of the Baptist church of Omaha. Rev. Duncan comes well recommended and is a very devoted worker in the church and the congregation here are promised a very able and pleasing discourse both at the morning and evening service.

Short Visit at Sabatha
E. E. Leach and his friend, John B. Roddy had some business matters at Sabatha, Kansas, and when Mr. Leach went to Peru to take the daughter to school where she is attending, the two gentlemen continued on down to Sabatha, Kansas, where they looked after the business which they had at that point and returned home as fast as they could travel, considering the state of the weather, which was coating the windshield rapidly and preventing them from seeing. They tried to scratch the ice off, but with poor success. They stopped at a filling station and had the glass cleaned and coated with radiator alcohol, but which lasted for only a limited time. They finally were able to get home, however, and Ed wants some certain cure for ice on a windshield.

Called to Dunbar Sunday
The Rev. W. A. Taylor, pastor of Union, was called to Dunbar on last Sunday, where he was to deliver a funeral sermon at the burial of one of the life-long members of the church at that place. There was a large crowd of the friends and relatives and of those who had gathered to do honor to the excellent woman who had passed away.

Farm Holiday Movement
A good, lively Farmers Holiday movement has been organized and all things in that line are working nicely. There was a meeting held on last Tuesday night looking to the better workings of the movement and also making arrangements for a large number of those interested, to make the trip to Lincoln, where there will be a mass meeting of those who are seeking lower taxes and higher prices for farm products. The Rev. McKelvie, pastor of the Mynard church, who is an able speaker and cogent reasoner, was here and made an excellent address.

Mrs. Adelia Munn Walker.
Mrs. Adelia Munn Walker was born at Wooster, Ohio, January 18th, 1864 and passed away Feb. 10, 1933, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Jensen, Syracuse, aged 69 years.

At the age of three years she came to Nebraska with her parents, Abijah and Elizabeth Munn. They settled at Factorville. Her mother passed away when she was nine years old and she became the mother of four younger children.

She received her early education in the Munn district school and later attended Shalenberg Hall, Nebraska City. She taught school for six years in Kansas and was married on August 2nd, 1892, to James C. Walker, Dunbar. They came to their home south of Dunbar, where they spent their life.

To this union was born six children, E. Lucile, Deane C., Donald M., W. Allan, Jenna Dee and J. Keith. She was preceded in death by her husband, who passed away March 12, 1922, and her eldest son, Deane C., who passed away Oct. 21, 1918, while serving in France.

She is survived by Mrs. Lucile Janssen, Syracuse; Dr. Donald M. Walker, Omaha; W. Allen Walker, Dunbar; Mrs. Jenna Dee Hummel, Lincoln; J. Keith Walker, Lincoln; three granddaughters, a sister, Mrs. Clara Nicol and a brother, Wayne Munn, both of Colby, Kans.

She came of sturdy, pioneer ancestors and was noted for her hospitality and friendliness. Her courage was plainly exemplified during her bereavements and in her own recent illness. Her devotion to her family is a memory cherished by all who knew them.

She was a member of the Eastern Star, American Legion Auxiliary, and a Gold Star Mother.

Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church of Dunbar, Sunday, February 12th, conducted by W. A. Taylor of Union, Nebraska, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Cedar. Also a beautiful and impressive service was conducted by the Eastern Star. Interment was in Wyuka cemetery at Nebraska City.

ernoon and were entertained by the genial hostess.

Louis Fletcher who has been visiting for the past month at the home of his parents at Stoddard, Mo., arrived home on last Friday, and reports time about the same as here but people saying nothing about hard times or the depression. They, he says are getting along very nicely.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday and visited with his many friends here while on his way home from a trip to Avoca in answer to a call telling of the robbing of the cream and produce station there, where the thieves got away with two cans of cream, as there was nothing else which appealed to them.

Win Many Good Prizes.

There were a large number of the people and especially the musical fans, at Peru on last Friday where they enjoyed the musical contest which was put on by the M-I-N-K association. There were about a thousand entries at the contest, and Weeping Water was able to secure her share of the offerings, as is evidenced by the following winners: Boys brass orchestra, first place; Dayne Herman, trumpet, first place; Glen Wallace, low voice, first; Miss Montis Sloan, low voice, third.

Rob Cream Station.

On last Monday night or early Tuesday morning some culprit entered and robbed the cream station at Avoca, and finding no ready cash took two cans of cream which had been left there and away they went. They must have thought that the cream was as near cash as anything, for it demanded a check which could be cashed.

Entertained Their Neighbors.

The Methodist church and the Epworth League of Weeping Water were hosts on Tuesday of this week when they held open house at the Methodist church at which there was a very worthwhile program rendered and the entertainment was for the Epworth League of Louisville and the pastor of the Methodist church of that place, the Rev. Robert Murphree. A most pleasant time was had and the league and pastor, E. S. Pangborn, will return the visit in the near future.

Were Doing the Butchering.

Paul Ward the genial and as well very capable driver for the Blinger Lumber company, was called to the home of Mrs. Ward's parents to assist in the family butchering and as well the making of the sausage and rendering of the lard. While Paul was away from the lumber yard, his duties there were looked after by E. A. Stock.

Home Again and Glad.

Uncle Wm. Frizle who some three years ago moved from Weeping Water to Plattsmouth where he became acquainted with many excellent people and enjoyed making their home there, but things happened that the wife had an accident which caused her to go to the hospital for a time to correct an injury which was the result of a fall. When the wife had recovered sufficient that she might move, Mr. and Mrs. Frizle loaded their household goods and returned home where they had resided for so many years before, Weeping Water. They are now snugly located in the Tate property and there with old time friends whom they have known for years will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Frizle are excellent citizens and Weeping Water a good place to reside.

Make an Equitable Exchange.

P. H. Miller has an 80-acre farm near Pawnee City which he has had rented to a man there and who found with the low prices his inability to secure the cash to pay the rent on the farm, and had been compelled to have sold his stock and farming equipment to raise the rent he would have had to quit farming and join the ranks of the millions of unemployed. So he made this proposition to Mr. Miller that he will turn over one good farm team to Mr. Miller on the rent and with sufficient other horses to farm the eighty acres and Mr. Miller knowing him an excellent farmer accepted the team which he had John Jourgeson transport in his truck to Weeping Water, where they are for sale. Better see Mr. Miller if you are needing another team.

LADIES TOGGERY

SOCIAL WORKERS MEET

The Social Workers of the Methodist church met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph H. Anderson and with Mrs. Harry White as the associate hostess.

The ladies had their business session taken up with the discussion of the plans for a Washington birthday colonial party, this to be held at the church parlors on the evening of February 22nd.

Following the business session the ladies had the pleasure of hearing three of the young men students of the music department of the city schools, who gave vocal solos that were very much appreciated.

Oliver Taylor gave the well known song, "Duna," Donald Bushnell, "Venetia," and Bernard Knokeck, "The Light House Bell Is a Wedding Bell," the young men all showing splendid training in their work. Miss Cora Williams was the accompanist for the students.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

SCHOOLMASTER'S CLUB MEETS

The Men Teachers of the Cass County Schools, held a very pleasant meeting on Monday evening at Union where they were the guests of Superintendent J. D. Marcell.

The members of the group discussed the many measures in the state legislature affecting the schools of the state and the members of the teaching profession which served to make a most interesting session.

The plans for the county basketball tournament which will be held commencing on Thursday at Avoca, was discussed and the plans made for the event as well as pairings for the event.
