Local Firm Wins Case on Appeal to Supreme Court

In Case of Retail Merchants Service vs. John Bauer & Co., High Court Affirms Verdict.

The state supreme court has filed their decision in the case of Retail Merchants Service Co. vs. John Bauer & Co., of this city, in which the district court decision of the defendants, Bauer & Co., is affirmed.

The action was to recover for the alleged advertising service which it was claimed the defendants had contracted with the plaintiffs in the action. On the decision here in favor of the Bauer Co., the plaintiffs carried the case to the supreme court and where the lower court finding was sustained.

In the decision of the supreme court given by Justice Paine, the court found:

If the answer specifically denies that the plaintiff is a corporation, and no estoppel is either pleaded and proved, or supported by a preponderance of the evidence, then the entire failure to meet such issue may warrant a dismissal of the plaintiff's action.

NUMBER ATTEND FUNERAL

From Monday's Daily

The funeral of the late Louis A. Janda was held this morning at 9:30 from the St. Patrick's Catholic church at Havelock, of which Mr. Janda has been a member since locating in that city.

The services were attended by a large number of the relatives and old friends from this city where Mr. Janda was born and reared and where three of his sisters, Mrs. Kate Hiber, Mrs. Hermie Svoboda and Mrs. Thomas Svoboda, and brother, Tone Janda, as well as his daughter, Mrs. Edgar McGuire, reside.

The death of Mr. Janda in the prime of life has brought a great sorrow to the many friends here who have known him through the years and who share with the family the grief that his calling away has brought.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY QUIET

From Monday's Daily

With the date of the observance of the birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln falling on Sunday this year, today was the legal holiday as set by law. The day was without any community observance of the occasion, the banks of the city being the only institutions to close for the day. The offices at the court house were functioning as usual and all other activities of the community carrying on as on any other day. The passing of the birthday of Lincoln was recognized in the services of the churches Sunday.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our loved one. We wish also to thank the ones who sent flowers, and those who sang at the funeral. Your kindness will always be remembered.—Mrs. Jessie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fulton and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg and Family.

Local Team Wins One Sided Contest from Louisville

Two Town Teams Play Contest in Which Plattsmouth Quintet Wins 28 to 8.

From Wednesday's Daily

The Plattsmouth town team last evening took an easy victory from the Louisville town team by the score of 28 to 8, both teams playing a loose game and in which the visitors were unable to connect with any accuracy with the baskets.

The locals opened the hostilities with Knoflieck placing in a field goal for the start of the scoring, while Galloway galloped down the court to spill two good ones. McCrary, local guard with a free toss brought the total to seven for the Plattsmouth team and no counters for the visitors.

In the second quarter of the game Knoflieck again registered as did Donat who made a field goal and two free tosses to bring up the Plattsmouth total to thirteen. Robinson of the visitors annexed two field goals while Merriam and Johnson each secured a gift shot.

The third period was another blank for Louisville while the locals were able to advance their lead. Yelick, Donat and Spangler each scored a field goal and Forbes a free toss in this part of the game.

In the last period of the game with the score at 20 to 6, the Plattsmouth quintet unloosed another attack and field goals were secured by Knoflieck, Yelick and two by Richard Spangler for a total of 28. Masters of Louisville scored a field goal for his team in the last period.

Manager John Svoboda sent in his entire string of players in the fray and all were able to get warmed up. The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

ENJOY FINE MEETING

Last Friday evening, Feb. 10th the members of the Four Mile Community club entertained their families at a valentine party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kehne.

The evening was spent playing pinocle and rummy and visiting. The first prize for rummy was won by Mrs. Donald Born and Mrs. Henry Born was winner of the booby prize. Leonard Steehr was the lucky winner at pinocle and Mrs. Elmer Tritsch, the consolation.

February 9th being the twenty-second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mayabb and February 11th the fourteenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kehne a mock wedding was held.

The wedding procession was led by the minister (Mrs. Henry Born) singing a song as the party marched through the dining room to the center of the parlor where the ceremony was performed. The bride (Mrs. Earl Becker) was very charmingly dressed and carrying a beautiful bouquet composed of a large ear of white corn tied with large bows of green and white tissue paper. The groom (Mrs. Elmer Tritsch) wore the conventional overalls, while the bridesmaid (Mrs. Leonard Born) wore a lovely overall kitchen apron of pink and white. The best man (Mr. Will Kehne) carried the large brass harness ring on a pillow of newspapers in a market basket. The bride and groom received the heartiest congratulations of everyone present.

A delicious lunch of sandwiches, pickles, cakes and coffee was served which ended a very pleasant evening. Congratulations were extended to Mrs. Joseph Bierl and Henry Nolting whose birthdays were within the week.

The members extend their sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Ingerson because of the recent death of Mr. Ingerson's mother.

The next club meeting will be held at the home of Miss Helen Hunter, February 28th at 1:30.

Religious Side of Life of the Martyr Hero

Judge A. H. Duxbury Addresses Members of the Y. M. B. C. of the Methodist Church Sunday.

The members of the Young Men's Bible class of the Methodist church had the opportunity of hearing a discussion of the life of Abraham Lincoln, given by Judge A. H. Duxbury, that gave light on a little discussed side of the life of the martyr president.

Judge Duxbury, who has devoted a great deal of time to the study of the life of Lincoln, took up the religious aspect of the life of the great civil war president. Many of the historians and authorities have held that Abraham Lincoln was not a believer in the Christian faith and in this view Judge Duxbury gave a very fine answer.

From the intimate writers of the civil war period as well as the writing and state papers of Lincoln, Judge Duxbury showed conclusively that the great war president had a deep religious sentiment and that he had been one of the presidents whose papers had carried constant reference to the spirit of God and in his every action in the dark days of the civil war he had borne out his belief and appreciation of a divine being. While not a member of any particular church President Lincoln had been a devout Christian man in thought and action.

Several of the patriotic songs were given as a part of the Lincoln day program.

DEATH OF LOUISVILLE LADY

The many friends over Cass county were called upon to mourn the passing of Mrs. Ernest Pautsch, well known resident of Louisville. Mrs. Pautsch had been poorly for some time and was taken to the Methodist hospital at Omaha on January 20th and was operated on there on January 25th. The operation was successful and the patient was doing nicely until a sudden heart attack caused her death on last Saturday.

Mrs. Pautsch's maiden name was Amanda Lau, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Lau. She was born at the farm near Louisville on November 6, 1867. On March 14, 1889 she was married to Ernest G. Pautsch and the family made their home on the farm until in 1908 when they retired and moved into Louisville where they have since made their home.

Mrs. Pautsch is survived by the husband and one daughter, Lydia, at home, as well as one sister, Mrs. August Pautsch and one brother, William Lau.

The funeral services were held at the Lutheran church southwest of Louisville. Owing to the illness of Rev. Theodore Hartman, the services were conducted by Rev. G. A. Zoch, pastor of the Murdock Lutheran church. The interment was in the Lutheran cemetery.
