MURDOCK ITEMS

Emil Kuehn was looking after some nesday of last week, driving over to the big town in his car.

Louis Newman and wife were in Alvo on Wednesday of last week, where they were looking after some business matters.

Kenneth Tool and wife, of Wahoo, were guests for the day Sunday at the home of Mr. Tool's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool.

Frank Bergmann, of near Manley, was a visitor in Murdock, looking after some business matters and as well visiting with his friend, William M. Bourke here last Wednesday.

A. H. Ward was over to Elmwood and on the road west looking after business on last Wednesday and as well distributing his high grade gasoline and oils to the dealers and the farmers.

The many friends of Eddie Craig were having some sport with this popular and clever barber last Wednesday, following the celebration of St. Valentine day, by reason of the very highly drawn comics that had been sent to this good natured citizen.

Wm. Wendt was shelling and delivering corn to the Murdock elevator, he disposing of some five thousand bushels last week. The price—11 1/4 cents per bushel—is certainly very low—less than the farmer can raise the grain for. No wonder conditions have gotten into the shape they're in. But, better days are ahead.

On Monday of last week occurred the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlueter, Mrs. Schlueter having been formerly Miss Martha Schlapoff, and who have resided here throughout their married life, making good citizens, working to the best interests of the community. For that reason, they have a host of friends who are extending hearty congratulations and best wishes for their future.

Wm. Lau was out to the farm one day last week, where he went to assist in the annual butchering day operations and while the day was nice and the duty of superintending the work was light he found that being out in the open and hustling was different than in the easy chair at the bedside and was glad it was over and the work out of the way. He and Grandma are feeling pretty good since getting over the flu.

Celebrating 55th Anniversary
Yesterday (Sunday) marked the passing of the 55th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neitzel, who were married in South Bend, Indiana, on February 19, 1878.

This couple came to Nebraska and cast their lot with this vicinity when Murdock was an infant and built here one of the first of the business houses in the town, locating here in 1891 when the townsite was first laid out and there was nothing but a siding and a box car for a depot, the name Murdock having been given the new town for one of the officials of the Rock Island railroad by that same name.

Mr. and Mrs. Neitzel have found this a very pleasant place to reside and have made many friends here. They have enjoyed prosperity and have worked hard to attain it. They have had good health and also much very serious illness, but have fought their way through with a faith in the heavenly Father and in each other as well as all humanity and are enjoying their advancing years nicely.

Departed by Byron, Nebr.
Judge and Mrs. W. E. Newkirk, who have been visiting here for some two weeks at the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. D. Lee, and husband, Dr. Lee, departed on Wednesday morning for Byron, Nebraska, where they will remain for some time visiting at the home of another daughter, Mrs. A. E. Palling, who resides there. Byron is located just inside of Nebraska, along the Kansas state line east of Superior.

Has the Catching Smile
The Copper Weekly, with a considerable circulation around Murdock, carried last week a picture of Conrad Miller, Jr., who is pictured as having a merry smile, which is winning this lad of one year many friends. The boy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Miller, of Ogden, Utah, who were former residents of Murdock and vicinity. The grandfather, Conrad Miller, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Miller, who passed away some years ago, making the lad a great-grandson of this early pioneer.

Will Make Home in Iowa
Henry Rueter and family, who have resided on the farm east of Murdock for a good many years and who have practically spent their lifetime there, are soon to leave Nebraska to make their home in Iowa. With the settling of the estate, of which Mr. Rueter was one of the heirs, the property was sold, going into other hands, and they have sought a home elsewhere, being successful in purchasing a farm near Beaver, Iowa, which is located some ten miles east of Grand Junction, and in the midst of a very fine country.

The family expects to leave for the new home between now and the 1st of March. In honor of the long friendship of many years standing, friends and neighbors went to their home on last Tuesday evening in large numbers, making a merry evening for this excellent family and showing them that their lives here, their good deeds and the very helpful manner in which they have helped the community, the church and the schools are duly appreciated and to also extend their best wishes for a pleasant home and a profitable one in the new community in which they shall locate in Iowa.

The Bank of Murdock
Murdock, like other places, has its problems, which sometimes are difficult to solve. Also, like the citizens of other towns, those living here are always anxious and willing to do their best to make this the best place in which to live and to have a home or conduct a business. To this end, the interest of one and the welfare of the entire community is the concern of all. Recently, under conditions that can be attributed to the fault of no one, and are directly the result of general depression, the Bank of Murdock found itself unable to collect a sufficient percentage of its outstanding loans to carry on the business, meet the unusual withdrawal demands which hard times always occasion and pay their own overhead expenses. It was a condition that had to be faced and met and consequently the business was suspended for a time until arrangements could be perfected for its continuance in an orderly manner and the collection of outstanding loans, which can not be accomplished in rapid manner. The depositors saw the logic of the situation and being anxious to aid the best interests of the community have agreed to certain restrictions in withdrawals provided in a new state law whereby banks can re-open to conduct a limited business, which is being done here.

Under the law moneys collected on outstanding notes by the bank are impounded for the benefit of the old depositors and cannot be reloaned or used in any other manner than paying off of the old indebtedness. On the other hand, the claimants and depositors agree not to withdraw more than 1 per cent of their deposit each month unless the bank is able to make collection on its assets faster and gives them permission so to do.

New deposits are handled in much the same manner as heretofore, being withdrawable in part or in whole at any time after being deposited, and like the money collected on outstanding bank loans, must be held as a trust fund and cannot be reloaned. Every protection is given the depositor to the end that maximum collection may be made on each debt owed the bank and the depositors get the greatest possible amount.

An announcement by the bank appears elsewhere on this page.

A Surprise Party.
On Friday evening, February 17th some friends and members of the Evangelical church northeast of Murdock came in and surprised the Henry Fornoff family. They all arrived about 8 o'clock. The evening was spent by the young folks playing games while the older folks visited. A delicious lunch was served by the people consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee, at a late hour. They departed for home wishing Henry Fornoff and family much happiness in their new home. They are moving from the Dan Panska farm to the P. H. Meisinger farm west of Plattsmouth.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Panska and daughter, Irene, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leutchen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Leutchen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leutchen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leutchen, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vogt and family, Clarence Denning, Frank Watzeneath, Wm. Dewitt, Leonard, Walter, Gilbert and Freda Fornoff, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fornoff.

Income Tax Receipts Show an Increase

First Payments Give February Addition $3,000,000—Expect to Get 490 Millions from Incomes

Washington, Feb. 17.—The first 1933 income taxes paid under the new and higher rates of the tax bill passed at the last session of congress are coming into the treasury and have caused a three million dollar increase in the federal government's February income tax collections.

Not actually due until March 15, enough of the new taxes had come into the treasury by February 15 to raise the income tax receipts for the first two weeks of the month to $11,746,722, compared with $8,724,939 for the same period last year, the treasury announced today. Before the fiscal year is over, the government hopes to get approximately 490 million dollars more from income taxes.

Small income taxpayers filing their returns and making their payments in January and February are responsible for the collections now coming in. It was explained at the bureau of internal revenue. By March 15, all returns must be in and at least the first quarterly installment of the tax paid.

While income tax receipts were moving upward in the opening weeks of the month, miscellaneous internal revenue collections, including those from the new excise taxes levied last year, also began to rise. Approximately $42,618,000 had come into the treasury from this source between February 1 and 15, an increase of $1,733,150 over the collections for the same period of January.—World-Herald.

DAIRY CALF CLUB

The Daisy Dairy Calf club held their regular business meeting Friday, February 17, 1933, at Kiser's home. The meeting was opened by the president. The roll call indicated eleven members present and one absent. The lesson was then discussed. After the meeting songs were sung and games played. Lunch was served by Mrs. Kiser. Next meeting will be March 17, 1933, at the home of Forrest Leonard.—Ella Mae Ruffner, News Reporter.

Grover C. Rhoden, who was confined to his bed for the past week with an attack of the flu has been making good improvement and is now able to be out and around again.

The Alter society of the St. Patrick's Catholic church, of Manley, gave a very interesting card party last Sunday evening at the Manley hall, which was for the benefit of the church.

Wm. Heebner, who is making his home with his mother, near Avoca, was a visitor in Manley for a few days during the first of last week. William will make his home with the mother the coming summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Koop, of Louisville were over to Manley on last Sunday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bergsman, and where all enjoyed the day and very fine dinner which was served.

Will Give Entertainment
The members of the St. Patrick's Catholic church of Manley will in the near future give a three act comedy entitled "The Absent Minded Bridegroom." The play will be put on by the Manley Dramatic club, directed by George Rau. The cast will be composed of many of the young people of Manley, both young ladies and young men. Better keep your weather eye out for this play.

Secures New Housekeeper
David Brann has secured a housekeeper, who will look after the welfare of the home and at the same time will be one who will enjoy making her home in Manley. Mrs. Fred Krecklow, who formerly resided here and who with the husband resided in Council Bluffs, where the husband passed away some time since, is the lady secured for the position.

Number from Manley at Lincoln
Manley has a well organized branch of the Farmers' Holiday Movement, and at their recent meeting it was arranged that a number would attend the state-wide meeting and demonstration at Lincoln on February 15th and 16th. Among those in attendance were Teddy Harms, Joseph Miller, Matos Breckenridge and a number of others.

Many Attend Funeral Tuesday

Mrs. Ernest Pautsch, of Louisville, after a long illness, passed away on last Sunday at her home, the funeral being held on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Pautsch was one of the very finest of women and had a host of very close friends in and about Manley. The funeral was held on last Tuesday afternoon and was attended by a large number of friends from this vicinity. Mr. Teddy Harms was selected as one of the pall bearers. W. J. Rau, August Krecklow, C. E. Mockenhaupt and daughter, Miss Sue, and son, John, John C. Rauth and wife and many others who went to pay their last tribute of respect to this noble woman.

THREATEN RAIL STRIKE

St. Louis.—Employees of the Mobile & Ohio railroad have voted to strike rather than continue to accept a 20 percent wage cut, it was learned, and the wage dispute will be submitted to the United States board of mediation. Representatives of the thirteen railway brotherhoods who had been negotiating with the Mobile & Ohio receiver in St. Louis, would make no comment on the result of the strike vote beyond saying that the necessary two-thirds of the 3,500 employees involved had voted to strike unless the wage question could be settled by mediation.

Zangara Found to be Sane by His Examiners

Would Be Assassin of President-elect Roosevelt to Face Trial on Charge Next Week.

Miami, Feb. 17.—Giuseppe Zangara—the man who tried to kill the President-elect—was declared sane Friday by Dr. E. C. Thomas, county physician.

The examination was informal. It was made several hours after Zangara's formal arraignment was postponed again while doctors exerted their skill to save two persons he wounded seriously—Mayor Cermak of Chicago and Mrs. Joe Gill of Miami. Mayor Cermak's condition was reported "satisfactory" late Friday and Mrs. Gill underwent a second blood transfusion in a desperate effort to save her life.

Dr. Thomas' examination was made independent of a contemplated examination by a sanity commission.

Judge Collins called Zangara before him Friday, appointed counsel for his defense and ordered him to reappear at 10 a. m. Saturday for formal arraignment. His counsel's first step was to request appointment of a sanity commission to examine Zangara, who says he has pains in his stomach and thinks he should kill all presidents and kings.

Unshackled in Court.
The specific charges against Zangara are attempted assassination of Franklin D. Roosevelt and assault with attempt to murder Russell Caldwell of Coconut Grove, Fla., Miss Margaret Kruis of Newark, N. J., and William Shnott of New York.

Florida is awaiting the outcome of Cermak's and Mrs. Gill's injuries before it charges the 33-year-old Italian with a crime for wounding them in the barrage he fired at Mr. Roosevelt in the bloody finale of a celebration Wednesday night. Should either die, the charge against Zangara would be murder.

Zangara—his face gaunt—came into court unshackled Friday. He wore a light blue spotted shirt, open at the throat, and white trousers. He chatted with two deputies who stayed close by his side. The courtroom was packed, but there was no disturbance. Sheriff Hardie stationed 20 deputies throughout the courtroom to see that Zangara received every protection.

Judge Collins kept court in session only five minutes. He announced appointment of Lewis Twyman, J. M. McCaskill and Alfred A. Raia to represent Zangara and ordered the defendant brought back into court Saturday.

'Best of Counsel'
Zangara had said previously he didn't "want anybody to help me," but Judge Collins insisted he have the "best of counsel to forestall any accusation that the prisoner was railroaded."

Twyman is president of the Dade County Bar association, McCaskill is a past president of the association and Raia speaks Italian.

Zangara seemed uninterested in the proceedings. After adjournment he was taken back to his cell on the 21st floor of the courthouse. He ate eggs Friday, the first solid food he has had since he tried to kill President-elect Roosevelt. His first nourishment was half a cup of coffee Thursday. Later he drank a full cup.

He is dieting, he says, because of pains in his stomach.

Friday he asked for eggs and deputies ordered the food brought up.

Confer with Assassin.
His attorneys conferred with Zangara a long time Friday, but made no comment. The counsel said they would decide Zangara's plea later.

"What we will recommend and what his plea will be," Twyman said, "we do not yet know."

McCaskill said: "He is not antagonistic like we heard he was. He was good natured this morning. We believe he is 100 per cent honest and 100 per cent courageous. He apparently won't tell a lie."

The maximum penalty for the charges now facing Zangara is 20 years on each count—or a total of 80 years.—Omaha Bee-News.

CAR OF HUEY LONG BURNS

New Orleans.—A small sedan owned by Senator Long was destroyed by fire in the garage of his home, Police Lieut. McNamara said it was caused probably by defective wiring. Shortly before the fire was discovered Richard Osborne, private night watchman, said he fired five shots at an unidentified man who ran from the rear of the Long residence and failed to heed his commands to halt.

Senator Long and his family were asleep in the house when the fire broke out. The flames were quickly extinguished. Joe Massina, guard for Senator Long was quoted by police as expressing the opinion the fire was incendiary.

Governor Lends Approval to Tax Cut Measure

Mrs. Gillespie's Bill for Revaluation of Lands This and Next Year, Approved by Governor.

Another bill intended as a tax reduction measure, H. R. 80, by Mrs. Gillespie, was signed by Governor Bryan Thursday. It provides for revaluation of real estate for assessment purposes in 1933 and 1934 and every two years thereafter instead of every four years as provided by the present law. It contains an emergency clause and is now in effect and will be enforced April 1 by assessors under instructions from State Tax Commissioner Smith.

The bill repeals a law which gave counties optional right to appoint a classification board to list real estate for assessment, a law enforced only by Custer, Saline and Nuckolls, but once adopted by Cherry and Gage.

The bill carries the old provision that a county having more than 175,000 population may once in ten years employ experts not to exceed a cost of $2,000 to aid in valuing real estate and buildings.

The bill is expected to result in lower assessed valuations and thus a reduction in taxes, providing taxing boards do not increase levies. Bills are pending to cut maximum levies which taxing boards order.

Under the old four year real estate valuation law the next revaluation would take place in 1934. A movement was started last year for a lowering of real estate valuations. Governor Bryan announced that this could not be done as the law did not provide for it. C. A. Sorensen, then attorney general, drafted a plan whereby county boards might reduce land values upon petition of property owners, and many counties did this. It was known as the Sorensen plan.

When counties reported lowered land values to the state board of assessment, Governor Bryan and other members of that board held a hearing on equalization as between counties and ordered a general reduction of 17 percent on lands, 15 percent on lots and 22 percent on personal property, and this resulted in a reduction of taxes because of the lowered valuation in most counties.

Don't send your money away if you want to see real prosperity in Cass county. Plattsmouth is the logical "big town" shopping point for every resident of the county.

ROOSEVELT GOES TO LODGE; SON IS MADE A MASON

New York.—Franklin D. Roosevelt tonight wore the white lambskin apron of a Free Mason and at a "communication" held behind the closely guarded doors of Masonic temple helped make his son, Elliott, a third-degree member of the ancient fraternity.

The president-elect himself has long been identified with the craft. He also is a Knight Templar and has attained the thirty-second degree in the ancient accepted Scottish rite. In addition he is a noble of the Mystic Shrine.

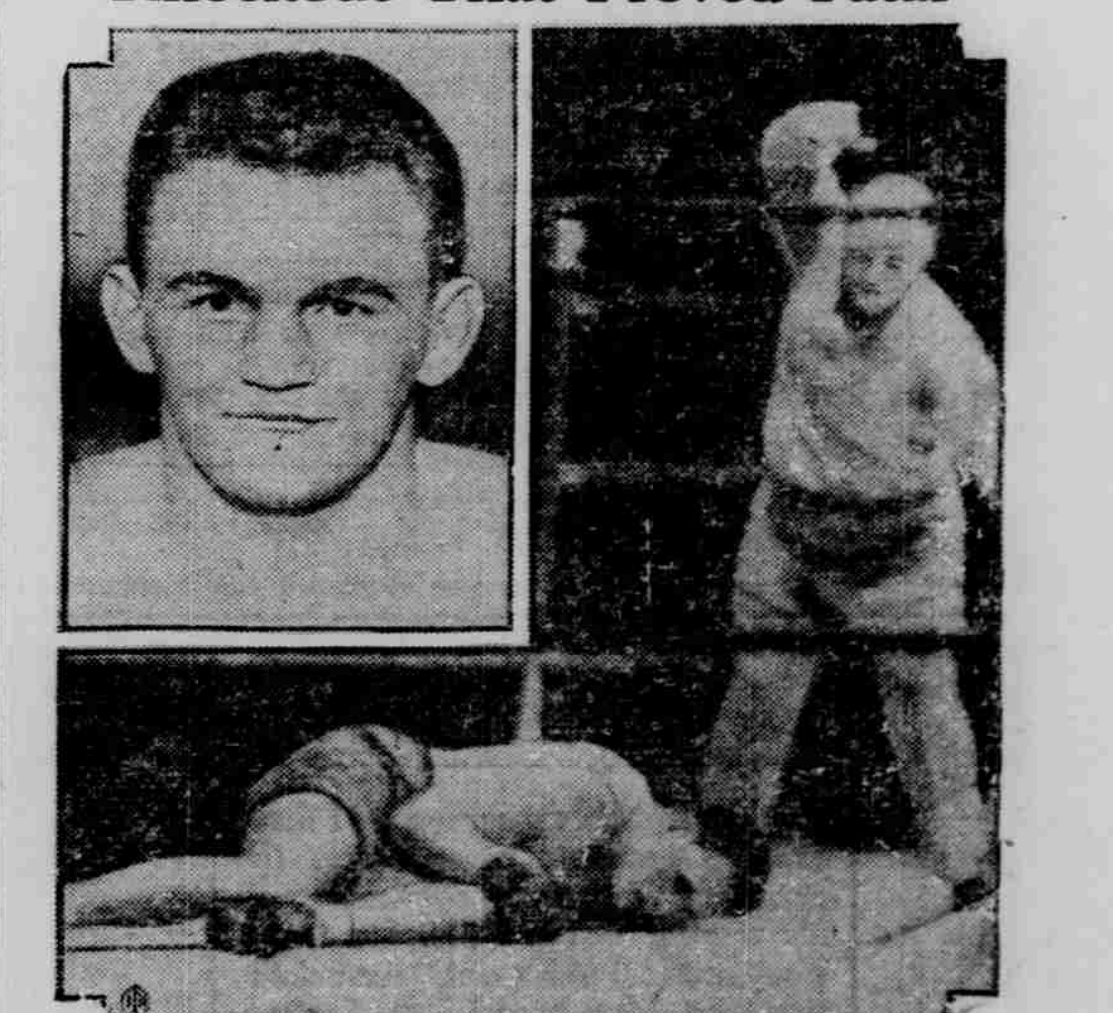

The ceremonies were conducted by the Architects lodge in the auditorium of the grand lodge, before an assemblage of more than 1,500 "Blue lodge" Masons.

Admission was by invitation only. Twelve policemen, all Masons, were detailed as a special guard.

PUBLIC SLOW TO GET CASH

Detroit.—Detroit banks put $30,000,000 on the counter, but the public wasn't in any hurry to get it. Decision to pay out 5 percent of deposits on this, the third day of the eight day banking holiday, was followed by preparations for a rush of business. But in every instance relatively light withdrawals were reported. Bankers expressed themselves as "surprised." They said they had looked for greater demand for money.

Knockout That Proved Fatal

Here is an excellent closeup showing Ernie Schaff's unconscious form on the canvas as he was counted out following his knockout at the hands of Primo Carnera, giant Italian, in Madison Square Garden, New York, recently. The stricken fighter never fully regained consciousness and died following an operation for inter-cranial hemorrhage (blood-clot on the brain) at the Polyclinic Hospital. Inset is a closeup of Schaff before the fight. He had only recently recovered from an attack of the flu when he engaged in the bout with the gigantic Carnera.
