LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The American Legion Auxiliary held a very pleasant meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Webb and with whom was associated Mrs. Dave Pickrel, Mrs. James Farnham and Mrs. H. L. Gayer.

The ladies adopted the amendments to the by-laws to fix the dues at $1 per year in the future.

The greater part of the time was taken up in the discussion of the plans for the Washington party to be held on next Thursday at the Legion building, for the members of the Legion, Auxiliary and their families, the event promising to be one of the most pleasant that the two organizations have enjoyed.

The ladies also spent some time in the discussion of the plans for the spring activities which they will shortly start.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served that added to the enjoyment of all of the members of the Auxiliary who were fortunate enough to be in attendance.

HAVE INTERESTING MEETING

The St. Mary's Guild and the Woman's Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church held a very pleasant meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of the Misses Mia and Barbara Gering, a large number of the members being in attendance.

The report of the diocesan convention at Omaha was given by Mrs. Rea F. Patterson, delegate from the local church, while Mrs. W. J. H.

Petter gave a resume of her talk before the conference on the woman's work of the church.

Canon Petter gave a most interesting talk on the sixth chapter of the "Living Issues in China," which all of the members appreciated very much.

The roll call of the meetings in the future will be made on current events of a religious nature.

The world wide prayer service which will be held on March 3rd in this city, will be held at the St. Luke's church and in which all of the ladies of the city are invited to join.

The next meeting of the auxiliary in March will be held at the home of Mrs. R. F. Patterson and the St. Mary's guild at the home of Mrs. James T. Begley.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

GIVEN SURPRISE

On Wednesday evening Charles Gerbeling received a surprise when a car stopped at his cream station and asked if he had any beer for sale. He did not know what to make of it at first but the party said "you have been written on your window."

This was true for some one had written this on windows about town some time ago, and Charley had not erased this from his window. This was quite a joke on Charley, anyway he thought best to have the words removed from the window.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

Lancaster Store at Murray Again Suffers Robbery

Loss of Considerable Stock in Lines of Clothing Reported by Owner of Store.

The store of Earl Lancaster at Murray, which in the past has suffered robbery many times, added another to the list of the visits of robbers on Wednesday night or early Thursday morning. When Mr. Lancaster arrived to open the store Thursday he found the too familiar traces that someone else had been there first.

A panel in the rear door of the store had been broken out and which allowed the person to unlock the door and make entrance into the main room of the building.

The stock taken consisted largely of Sox, stockings, overalls, coats and shoes and other articles of wearing apparel and which is disposed of more easily than other lines as being seasonable and in ready demand. Some candy and cigarettes also were reported as missing.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Jarvis Lancaster, brother of the store owner, were notified and spent the greater part of Thursday in looking over the situation and endeavoring to secure some trace of the robbers.

The store in the past has been frequently robbed and the last attempt resulted in the capture by a posse, of the man robbing the store and who later named as his accomplice Ernest Verulie of this city, who was captured in Omaha and is now serving sentence for the offense. Since the capture of the former robbers the store has been un molested but is now apparently again being made the prey of the gang of store robbers that have visited the small towns of the east part of the state.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

At the Nebraska Masonic Home on Tuesday evening occurred the observance of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cooper, residents at the Home.

The evening was informally spent by the members of the Home in the congratulations to the aged couple and the friends joined in making it a most pleasant event. The guests of honor were presented with valentines and greeted with a program of the old songs by the members of the Home family.

During the evening the party was treated to a very pleasing duet by J. R. Tremble and J. W. Sears, and Mr. Tremble also gave a reading of an original poem composed for Mr. and Mrs. Cooper on the anniversary. Mrs. Frances Templar also gave a most appropriate reading. Mrs. W. F. Evers and son, Billy, were heard in a fine vocal duet and Billy also gave one of his pleasing violin numbers. Little Miss Mary Evers, costumed as Cupid presented an appropriate reading to the valentine day.

James M. Robertson, president of the Masonic Home association, who with Mrs. Robertson was present, gave a few remarks of congratulations to the bride and groom of a half century ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper were married at Rock Grove, Illinois, on February 14th, 1883 and shortly after their marriage came west to Nebraska and have since made their home in this state. They resided at DeWitt, Nebraska, for a number of years and where Mr. Cooper was a member of DeWitt lodge No. 110 for a long period of years.

SUFFERS A STROKE

From Friday's Daily
Mrs. Nancy Dixon suffered a severe stroke at her home last Friday evening as she was reading her daily paper. She had pursued her usual activities during the day, taking care of some of her patients who are ill, and had not mentioned not feeling well. She is being cared for by her two step-daughters, Mrs. John Wolff and Mrs. Phillip Hinz, of Plattsmouth, who take turns at coming up. Also by two sisters, Mrs. B. O. Bunn and Mrs. John Perry, of Nemaha, who will remain here for the present. Mrs. Dixon is unconscious. This is a sad blow to the many friends of Mrs. Dixon, whose greatest happiness was to do a kindness for some one and she has the best wishes of everyone for recovery.—Louisville Courier.

Frank Domingo, the Weeping Water banker and W. L. Hobson of the Hobson funeral home at that place were here for a few hours today to look after some matters at the county court.

Party Circle Bill Goes Before the Governor

State Senate Approves Measure to Put an End to Straight Party Voting.

Abolition of the party circle was voted Thursday by the state senate and the measure goes now to Governor Bryan, who has asked for it repeatedly.

The final roll call found thirty senators lined up for the bill and one, Dworak, against it. Previously it had been passed by an overwhelming vote in the house.

Two other measures passed were the Boelts bill to require a 75 percent vote for authorization of bond issues, and the Stewart bill allowing depositories of public money to pledge their assets for the protection of those deposits. The votes were 31 to 2 and 32 to 1. Both bills were sent to the house.

Jury service for women, recommended by the governor and approved in part by the house, was turned down by the senate on the report of its judiciary committee for indefinite postponement of the house bill. No one spoke for the measure, but there were a few votes against postponement.

The senate plunged soon afterward into debate of the Neubauer auto fee bill which it started to discuss Wednesday.

As the situation stands, the Neubauer bill sets a straight fee of $3 for passenger cars against the $3, $5 and $8 fees in the Stringfellow measure in the house. The latter, however, has a lower scale for commercial trucks, altho both are reduced considerably from present levels.

The senate allowed a 10 percent tolerance on listed loads, specified that licenses be granted on maximum instead of advertised capacity, and made the fee for trailers the same as for trucks. It cast off several other amendments dealing with capacity and defeated one by Van Kirk to make refunds payable only after July 1. These refunds would be made to persons who have bought licenses already at the old rate.

TALE OF UNIVERSITY DAYS

In the February issue of the Nebraska Alumnus, official paper of the Nebraska Alumni association, appears an interesting article by Ned C. Abbott of Nebraska City. Mr. Abbott has for many years been the superintendent of the School for the Blind at Nebraska City, officiating between a term there to be the head of the Plattsmouth city schools.

It was back in the days of mauve nineties that Mr. Abbott was a gay blade at the state university, thereby hanging the interesting story. The now dignified and staid school head was one of those selected to take part in a Greek play at the Charter Day observance in 1894. The article had a striking picture of the genial Ned C. in all of the glories of the costume that might have been worn by the dwellers of Athens in its prime. The origin of the costume is the spice of the story and is delightfully related by Mr. Abbott and should afford many an old grad a pleasant memory. Former governor Arthur J. Weaver was also one of the cast of the play. Beg, borrow or steal a copy of the Alumnus and read the history of "The Tyndarus Costume."

HALT ANOTHER FARM STRIKE

Scottsbluff, Neb.—More than 1,000 farmers gathered at the Peter Swanson farm eight miles west of here Wednesday afternoon and forced the cancellation of a sale scheduled to satisfy the requirements of an unpaid mortgage.

The action followed a meeting Tuesday night at Mitchell in which Mrs. L. A. Pearson of Sidney, militant vice chairman of the Cheyenne county Farmers Holiday association, delivered a denunciation of conditions affecting farm holiday obligations.

Her speech was signaled by the temporary organization of a Scotts Bluff county branch of the State Holiday association.

The sale was called off by Swanson, owner of the farm by agreement between himself and M. B. Quivey, prominent Mitchell business man and landowner. It was advertised as an ordinary farm sale.

Further action by farmers in attempting to halt sales under foreclosure is expected here within the next ten days at least twenty-four farmers in the county are facing dispossession. Mrs. Pearson said state organizers would be called into the territory and a mass meeting called preliminary to permanent organization of County Holiday association.

EPISCOPAL REPRESENTATIVES AT COUNCIL

From Thursday's Daily
Henry Herold, Judge J. T. Begley and Rae Patterson answered the roll call at Trinity cathedral, Omaha, yesterday as delegates from St. Luke's parish to the annual council of the Episcopal diocese of Nebraska. The Bishop in his opening charge given at the morning service urged greater spiritual aggressiveness during the coming Lenten season. It is desired that every parish shall arrange a week's preaching and teaching mission, as a part of this program and also that every adherent of the parish shall be visited in their homes. The business sessions listened to reports of many varied branches of religious work and voted to cut the expenditure of the diocese by about one third. Rev. Canon Petter was appointed chairman of the committee on incorporation of new parishes. He also addressed the Woman's Auxiliary on missionary work, specially dealing with the eskimo and Indian missions of the Hudson Bay territory.

Wednesday he was able to return to his home where he resides alone. The kind friends and neighbors joined in cleaning and making the home ready for his occupancy and he is now back at his own residence and feeling very much improved.

THE LAST RUN

On this mundane sphere of action, man finds himself just now. The stage is filled with attraction, and the actors are preparing to bow.

Some are on duty at every moment, To run when the chief commands, For to reach that lofty summit, One should obey when duty demands.

We must often encounter resistance, But faithful to duty we run, And never faltering we trust for assistance, And receive it from the Father and Son.

No questions should be asked when the call comes, But to duty we should quickly bound, Whether we sing the words to the music, or just hums With no melody within to resound.

The fires may burn within with fury, And consume the most unwelcome dross, But for the last run we should hurry, And bow at the foot of the cross.

When this stage of action closes, And we survey its stages o'er, Life's dream is pictured in silent poses, And the curtain is dropped, but then is more.

The scene opens on another great plain, When the last run is stayed for the end, And visions of harmony have banished all pain, As the scriptures most surely defend.

SEES HAND OF COMMUNISM

Madison, Neb.—George B. Clarke of Tilden, an attorney for the Nebraska Farmers Holiday association and a member of the state executive committee, Thursday "deplored the communistic movement" at Lincoln and said Madison holiday members would follow the leadership of Harry C. Parmenter of Yutan, state president.

Clark said the holiday movement itself is not communistic and said A. O. Rosenberk of Newman Grove and Harry Lux of Lincoln did not represent the Holiday association.

The Tilden man said the farm holiday movement stood firmly for observance of law and "warned the public against accepting the leadership of Rosenberg or Lux."
