Pretty Home Wedding Held at Louisville

Miss Voline Ann Nichols is United in Marriage Today to Andrew Lundteigen, Jr.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Nichols at Louisville, was the scene of a charming high noon wedding today when their youngest daughter, Miss Voline Ann, was united in marriage to Mr. Andrew Lundteigen, Jr.

The wedding ceremony was held in the large bay window of the living room which was arranged in the floral decorations of the early spring season. The marriage lines were read by Rev. Robert D. Murphree, pastor of the First Methodist church of Louisville.

Preceding the ceremony, Ross Nichols and Mrs. George Dolan, brother and sister of the bride, played two numbers on the saxophone and piano, "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning."

The bride wore a gown of chiffon organdie, carrying an arm bouquet of the bride roses.

Following the wedding the members of the bridal party enjoyed a charming wedding breakfast and immediately afterward the bride and groom departed on an auto trip to the south where they will visit New Orleans and other southern cities, returning to Louisville on May 1st when they will be at home to their friends in the beautiful new home that the groom has just completed.

The bride was born and grew to womanhood in Louisville where she is one of the popular members of the younger social set of that city and is loved and esteemed by a large circle of friends. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Nichols, are among the long time and prominent residents of Louisville.

Death of Mrs. Mike M'Cool Early Today

Long Time Resident of This City Dies After a Short Illness at Home Here.

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning at the family home on Washington avenue occurred the death of Mrs. Michael McCool, 75, a resident of this city for a great many years.

Mrs. McCool had not been critically ill until recently, but had gradually been falling in recent years. She was able to be up and around and down in the main section of the city just a short time ago.

The departed lady made many friends in the long years of her residence here and who regret to learn of the death of the friend and neighbor of the years past.

Mrs. McCool is survived by four sons, George, Albert and John Harkin of Omaha, and Michael McCool, as well as several grandchildren, one of whom, Howard Jolly, resides in this city. The husband passed away a number of years ago.

There has been no definite arrangements made for the funeral services, pending the arrival of members of the family.

UNION HOLDS ELECTION

The annual election for members of the village board as well as clerk and treasurer, was held at Union on Tuesday. A caucus of the voters was held two weeks ago to select a double set of candidates to be voted on by the voters. The election resulted in Ira Clark and Charles Green being named to the village board; D. Ray Frans, selected as village clerk and Elmer R. Witherow as the village treasurer.

The vote on the various offices was as follows:

Village Board	52
Ira Clark	52
Charles Green	50
Charles Land	18
James Fitzpatrick	17
Village Clerk	44
D. Ray Frans	44
C. Augusta Robb	25
Village Treasurer	41
Elmer R. Witherow	41
Edward Morris	28
