CHILD IS SCALDED

Vernon Boetel, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boetel, formerly of this city, but now living in Omaha, was severely burned Saturday. The mother of the child had prepared a tub of hot water preparatory to giving the child a bath and the little one fell backward into the tub and suffered a severe scalding before he was rescued by the mother. The child was hurried to the south side police station where the burns were treated and the child made as comfortable as possible.

James Rivett,

Man, Passes On

Was Well Known Here and for Many Years Supervisor of Building Construction for "Q"

James Rivett, 80, retired supervisor of building construction of the Burlington, died at 9:30 Tuesday at the home of his son, Harry, at Omaha. He had been ill since fall and had recently been taken from his home at Lincoln to that of the son at Omaha.

Mr. Rivett was a well known figure in the Burlington circles of Nebraska and was a frequent visitor here in the years past when he was active in the affairs of the road.

Mr. Rivett, who was 80 years old, retired Dec. 31, 1922, after forty-two and a half years service with the Burlington. He had lived in Lincoln more than fifty years. Since retiring, he and Mrs. Rivett had traveled extensively in America and Europe, having visited his birthplace in England in 1928.

Born at Podington, Bedfordshire, England, Mr. Rivett was educated in parish schools there and served his apprenticeship with an English construction company for four years. In 1872 he emigrated to Nebraska, settling at Nebraska City where he worked for two years as a carpenter. He moved then to Weeping Water and was a contracting builder for five years.

In 1880 he joined the engineering staff of what was then the Burlington & Missouri River railroad as supervisor of construction of buildings. The Burlington at that time was beginning extensive construction of new lines in Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Wyoming and South Dakota. Mr. Rivett supervised building construction on more than 3,000 miles of new lines west of the Missouri river.

He married Carrie L. Logan of Tecumseh at Greenwood on Jan. 11, 1882. Besides his wife and son, Harry, he is survived by another son, Paul, also of Omaha; three brothers, Will and Charles, both of Lincoln, and Richard, of Ocean Park, Ore.; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Mitchell of Scottsbluff. The body was taken to Lincoln Tuesday night.

TO START BALL SEASON

"Play Ball," will be heard soon at the Murray ball park, the formation of a team for that place having been taken up Tuesday night. Practically all of the players of the last year team will be available for this season and should make a good fast organization that will make it tough for any of the amateur teams in this part of the west.

The lineup will include players from all of this section of Cass county. The team has not as yet selected their manager or made preparation for the opening of the season but are getting ready to practice, getting the old soup bone limbered up and the batting eye trained for the commencement of the season.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
