VISITS IN COUNTY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stokes of Plainview, Nebraska, and their son, William Stokes of Roundup, Montana, with Mrs. Dave Carstens and daughter, Jean, have been visiting here with the relatives and friends for the past week. In this city they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stokes and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed, at Mynard at the home of Mrs. Laura Johnson and at Murray with the William Wehrbein family and Mrs. Alice Creamer. The occasion has been very pleasant to the members of the family and the first time that they have had the opportunity of being together in some time. Mr. Stokes is a brother of Albert Stokes and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Carstens, a niece.

DRILL TEAM AT AUBURN

The drill team of Mt. Zion commandery of the Knights Templar of this city, were at Auburn Thursday, taking part in the competitive drill held there by several of the commanderies of the state. The local team is under the command of Harrison L. Gayer, who has had them under drill for some time in anticipation of the Nebraska City meet. Mr. Gayer is a former captain in the army, serving in the world war and his military training has aided very much in the development of the team.

There are a large number of teams at Auburn and among the most outstanding are the drill teams of Omaha and North Platte, recognized as among the best in the state. Templars in attendance at the state conclave.

PICK UP RUNAWAYS

Friday evening Officer David Pickrel in his rounds of the city, discovered two young boys, strangers, loafing on the streets and questioning them discovered that the boys had run away from their homes at Council Bluffs earlier in the day. The boys gave their names as Wayne Stultz, 11 and Charles McGee, 13, their homes being at Council Bluffs. The boys were held here by the police until the parents could be communicated with by the officers and late last night the boys were returned home, much wiser after their dash into the world. The two boys were well pleased when the officer informed them that the parents were coming after them and they were glad to make the start back to their home.

Work of State D. A. R. Lauded in Washington

National Conclave Speakers Praise Program—Mrs. E. H. Wescott of This City Speaks.

Washington, April 21.—One of the new vice-presidents general of the National Daughters of the American Revolution elected Thursday in Washington was Mrs. Lue R. Spencer, resident of North Platte for many years who recently moved to Washington. She is a past state regent of Nebraska and a member of Sioux Lookout chapter at North Platte. She was the founder of the Lue R. Spencer circulating genealogical library used by Nebraska chapters.

Other vice-presidents general elected were Miss Helen Harman, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. James F. Trotman, Wisconsin; Mrs. Howard Bailey, Missouri; Mrs. John Carroll Coulter, South Carolina; Mrs. John W. Kirkpatrick, Kansas, and Mrs. Victor L. Warren of Maine.

Mrs. Wescott Speaks.
Honorary vice-presidents general named were: Mrs. John Laidlow Buel of Connecticut and Mrs. James T. Morris of Minneapolis.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott of Plattsmouth, in her state regent's report to the congress, declared: "Nebraskans are no less pioneers today than were the early settlers."

She pointed out that 29 chapters in Nebraska are fighting to eradicate illiteracy and establish sound ideals of Americanism in newcomers. Another important activity named was the student loan fund.

2,435 Nebraska Members.

Mrs. Wescott also told of the activity of the committee on national defense, headed by Mrs. John W. Gill of Omaha, which actively supports the R. O. T. C. and C. M. T. C. work and made several awards in gold to ranking men at the 1932 camp at Fort Crook.

Nebraska's membership she reported at 2,435 in the 50 chapters.

Nebraska was given national recognition in an address by Mrs. Donald K. Moore, chairman of genealogical records, who made special reference to Nebraska's traveling D. A. R. library, terming it "a project meriting attention and worthy of emulation by other states."

Tribute also was paid the Nebraska Daughters upon their participation in tree planting and other reforestation work in an address by Mrs. William Louis Dunne, chairman of the historical research committee.

GEN. THOMAS PROTESTS CUT

Omaha.—Brig. Gen. Amos Thomas, of the Nebraska national guard, Wednesday described the proposed 50 percent cut in the federal appropriation for the national guard as "very serious."

Thomas revealed that telegrams of protest against the cut had been sent to President Roosevelt and Secretary of War Dern by himself and Adjutant General Paul of Lincoln.

The cut, says Thomas, would abolish the fifteen day summer camp with pay, at Ashland. The camp was scheduled for the first two weeks in August this year. In the second place, the cut would mean only two armory drills a month, instead of weekly as is now the custom.

"This will have the effect of cutting drill pay in half. National guardsmen have been required to attend drill once a week at their local armory. They get $1 for each drill, but the drills couldn't exceed forty-eight a year. I think it would be better to have forty-eight drills at fifty cents, rather than the proposed twenty-four drills at the old pay."

"It will be impossible to maintain the guard and keep its efficiency by drilling only twice a month," Thomas asserted.

HERE FROM ELMWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. John Box, daughter, Ruth, and Miss Elizabeth Box, sister of Mr. Box, were in the city Friday for a short time. Miss Ruth is preparing to graduate from the eighth grade at her school near Elmwood and expects to enter the high school next year. The party visited the court house and spent some time looking after business matters while in the city.

Death of Dr.

B. B. Davis at Omaha Hospital

Noted Surgeon Succumbs Following Operation—Once Principal of High School Here.

Dr. B. B. Davis, 73, one of the best known surgeons of the west, occurred Thursday at Omaha. Dr. Davis had undergone a major operation on Monday at the Immanuel hospital where for many years he had been the chief surgeon. He failed to rally from the operation and passed away Thursday.

Dr. Davis was probably the best known surgeon in Omaha and in his long practice of thirty-five years in Omaha he acquired a widespread reputation for his service in this field of work.

Dr. Davis was a resident of Plattsmouth for a short time in his younger years, being engaged here as principal of the local high school in the term of 1881-82 and later gave up his school work to enter the study of medicine.

Many Plattsmouth residents have had the services of Dr. Davis in surgical operations and his many acquaintances and friends here learned with regret of his death.

During the past 10 years he became widely known through articles he had published in medical journals.

He was a member of the Omaha-Douglas County Medical society and the Missouri Valley Medical association, and president of the Omaha Surgeons club. He had been professor of surgery in the college of medicine, University of Nebraska, since its inception.

He came to Nebraska with his family at the age of 10. He was educated in the public schools in Wisconsin and in this state, graduated with the A. B. degree in 1882 from the University of Nebraska and in 1884 took his degree in medicine at Minnesota Hospital college of Minneapolis.

He also attended the New York Polyclinic and practiced medicine at McCook for several years.

Dr. Davis was born on a farm near Fayette, Wis.

Surviving are his widow, Florence, and a son, Dr. H. H. Davis.

MORE PHEASANTS HERE

W. R. Holly, owner of the U. R. A. ranch along the Platte river, north of this city, has just received from the state park and game commission seven of the beautiful Chinese pheasants. These game birds Mr. Holly proposes to have released in the vicinity of the ranch and where they can find a fine place to propagate and to form the means of supplying a large number of the game birds for this section of the county. Mr. Holly is anticipating a great deal of pleasure in the birds and which will find in the wooded areas of the Platte river section ideal quarters.

HOLD FUNERAL SERVICE

The funeral of the late Robert W. Black was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home, being attended by a number of the old friends and neighbors. The service was conducted by Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the First Methodist church, who gave the scripture lesson and prayers for the departed.

At the close of the service the body was borne to the Oak Hill cemetery where it was consigned to the last long rest. The pall bearers were selected from the old friends and neighbors, A. J. Trilety, George Born, John Kaffenberger, T. E. and A. L. Todd and Fred Tritsch.

YOUNG LADIES ARRIVE

This community has had in the past week a number of charming little ladies arrive to add to the happiness of some three families in this vicinity. The homes that have greeted the girl babies at this time are those of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Topfiff, west of Mynard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buechler west of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hike, south of this city.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Speck, residing west of this city, are welcoming to their home a fine little daughter. The little one with the mother is doing nicely and the occasion has brought a great deal of pleasure to the other members of the household. Mrs. W. A. Becker of this city is at the Speck home looking after the household and the care of the little granddaughter.

PLEASANT RIDGE CLUB

The Pleasant Ridge community held a very pleasant meeting at the school house Friday evening, April 21st.

David Robinson, Otto Stodola, Anna Knieke and Louis Knohicek were present and gave a very interesting program. David "Cruso" sang several numbers to his own accompaniment which were pleasing. Otto gave a reading entitled "Jus' a Laka Dat."

Janet Westover gave several readings "Out to Old Aunt Mary's," "Dad's Old Cigar" and "1492," in her usual impressive manner which were greatly enjoyed.

Phyllis Jane and Shirley Speck sang two numbers, "Jesus Understands" and "Under His Wings."

Mildred Murray and Loute Wagner played several numbers on accordion and banjo; Catherine Meisinger also played two piano solos which were all appreciated.

Refreshments were served to complete the evening.
