Two Men Injured in an Auto Crash Near Greenwood

Truck Driven by John Katt Strikes Coupe Which Is Badly Damaged and Men Hurt.

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning at 2:30 near Greenwood occurred a serious auto accident and as the result of which two men are now in serious condition at the Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln.

John Katt, 25, of Garland, Nebraska, was coming south on the D. L. D. highway, driving his empty truck and when near Greenwood saw a Plymouth coupe parked on the left side of the highway. The driver of the truck put on his brakes to slow down as he was passing and just as he was passing, the coupe started out and swung into the roadway in front of the truck. The impact of the truck was such that the coupe was knocked into a ditch along the road and badly damaged by the force of the collision. The occupants of the coupe were extricated from the wreckage by Mr. Katt and passing autoists, they taking the injured men into Lincoln.

Mr. Katt remained at the scene of the accident until the arrival of County Attorney W. G. Kleck and Sheriff Homer Sylvester on the scene to investigate the wreck and the causes.

It was determined by the officers that Mr. Katt was not at fault in the accident and the office of the state sheriff was notified to keep in touch with the injured men and report as to their progress at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rikil, well known residents of near South Bend, were in the city Wednesday afternoon and while here advanced their subscription to the semi-weekly edition of the Journal for another year.

"Americana 1933"

Selected by a jury of celebrated artists as the most typical American girl, Camille Bartlett, 21-year-old society beauty, of New York, was recently invested with the title of "Americana 1933." The jury which chose Miss Bartlett included Russell Patterson, John La Gatta and McClelland Barclay.

GUILD GIRLS MEET

From Wednesday's Daily
The Westminster Guild met last evening at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Cloldt with Miss Adelia Lee as hostess. The leader for the meeting was Miss Fern Stivers, whose topic was "The Philippine Islands." The lesson was of great interest to all.

A short song service was held next. Then the installation of the newly-elected officers took place. Mrs. Frank A. Cloldt presided and Fern Stivers assisted.

The business matters were then taken up by the president, Marjorie Lohnes. The minutes of the past two meetings were read. Some issues were brought up and decided upon. This closed the business meeting.

After a short social time, Adelia Lee with the assistance of Mrs. Cloldt and daughter, Frances, served dainty and delicious refreshments.

Some of the abandoned midget golf courses of the 1930 era still look pretty hopeful, and we shouldn't be surprised to see some of them coming out as beer gardens ere long.
