

Weeping Water

Frank Hubbard and wife arrived in Weeping Water on last Sunday and visited for a number of days with relatives and friends, remaining until this mid-week and were also attending the Memorial celebrations as well as enjoying the visiting with their friends.

Mrs. John M. Leyda and daughter, Mrs. A. O. Moore and daughter of Plattsmouth, were visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Olive, and were attending the Memorial services which were held on last Tuesday.

Miss Ida Cappen, who is employed in Lincoln, was a visitor in Weeping Water for the day last Sunday and again on Tuesday, coming the latter time to attend the Memorial services.

Miss Mureal Wiles who is employed in Lincoln was a visitor in Weeping Water at the home of her parents last Sunday, returning to her work on Monday.

Harold Baker and wife were over to Union on last Monday where Mr. Baker was looking after business for the Weeping Water Republican and Mrs. Baker was visiting with friends.

George Scheesl and the family of Alvo and R. M. Coatman and family were all with many others from Alvo here to enjoy the Memorial services, all enjoying the occasion very pleasantly.

James Cole of the Cole Motor company, was called to Plattsmouth on last Monday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

E. M. Van Every and wife of Lincoln were visiting in Weeping Water from last Saturday until Monday visiting with their relatives and friends and being guests at the home of Wm. Van Every and as well visiting with their numerous friends.

Celebrate Memorial Day.

The day set aside in commemoration of the men who gave their lives for the keeping intact the union in the dark days of the civil war, and as time has sped, the men who fought in the Spanish-American war, the World war, and all who have sacrificed for the liberty and freedom of mankind, was duly observed on last Tuesday by the patriotic people of Weeping Water. The ceremonies were enacted by the members of the American Legion, the Auxiliary, the Boy Scouts of America and with the Weeping Water band, formed a procession which after the exercises at the speaker's stand proceeded to the cemetery where there were additional exercises, the graves having been decorated by a committee in the morning.

The Rev. Ralph Pinkham, pastor of the Congregational church, who is also the Scoutmaster of the Boy Scouts, was the presiding officer of the meeting.

Mrs. Charles Baldwin sang beautifully, with Mrs. Harmon at the piano which was followed by the address of the meeting delivered by the Rev. Pinkham which advised peace rather than war.

At the cemetery along with the exercises in commemoration of the nation's dead, the Lions club also honored the death of the first and only member of the Weeping Water lodge who had died, the honored mayor of Weeping Water, John T. Crozier.

All in all the exercises were well appointed and nicely executed. During the address of Rev. Pinkham he introduced Mr. W. H. Frelzel, who is the only member of the Grand Army of the Republic remaining in Weeping Water.

Has Wonderful Collection.

Marvin Kivett who is one of the Boy Scouts and who has a knack for curios has during the past few months collected from all sources over a thousand arrow heads and spear points, a portion of which he has purchased, some he has traded for and others he found himself, as he is continually looking for them. With these arrow points there is a world of history, extending away back when the red man inhabited this country and made history which as far as we know has never been written except in the legends of the Indians.

Buried at Oakwood Cemetery

The Hobson Funeral Home went to Omaha where they received the body of Robert Penton who had been taken from Cedar Creek, having died at the hospital on Friday and the funeral held at Weeping Water funeral home on Sunday. The interment was at the Oakwood cemetery. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Penton of east of Cedar Creek.

HOLD FAMILY REUNION

Nearly 300 attended a reunion of the Bornemier, Oehlkerking, Kunz and Reuter families of eastern Nebraska at Antelope park at Lincoln, Sunday. All the families are branches of the Reuter family, of which Mrs. August Bornemier, 82, of Elmwood, one of those present, is the oldest living member. At this fifteenth annual gathering many eastern Nebraska towns were represented, including Elmwood and Murdock, where most of the families reside, also Milford, Lincoln, Fairbury, Glenville and Alvo. A large picnic lunch was served and committees from each family were designated to arrange for next year's reunion.

DIES IN GEORGIA

Word has been received from Americus, Ga., by Mrs. D. O. Dwyer of the passing of Susie Haluska, who has made her home with the Dwyers for the past three years.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Dwyer took Miss Haluska south in the hope that treatment she would receive there would result in her complete recovery and upon her return, Mrs. Dwyer felt that she would soon be able to return to her work here. Her condition seems to have grown suddenly worse, however, and the end came rather unexpectedly.

IS SERIOUSLY ILL

The many friends of Rev. H. E. Sortor, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here will regret to learn that he is gravely ill. Rev. Sortor is now located at Potter, Nebraska, and in the past several months has not been in the best of health, being forced sometime ago to take hospital treatment. He is now in a hospital at Kimball, Nebraska, where he is suffering from an attack of pneumonia and which has made his case very serious.

HERE FROM DAKOTA

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Briggs and little daughter, Mrs. W. N. Keller, Miss Betty Briggs of Winner, South Dakota, and Mrs. George Amos, of Lynch, Nebraska, arrived here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Briggs, parents of Mr. Briggs. Mrs. Keller also visited at Omaha with relatives Sunday. The other members of the party with Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, motored to Lincoln to visit for the day with friends.

Mrs. Mable Reynolds has been quite ill for the past week and was feeling so poorly that she was compelled to close her place of business in order to take a rest. It is hoped that she may soon be feeling better and able to be at the store again.

George Ray, living near Murray, was a visitor in Union last Monday and was looking after some business matters. On last Saturday as Mr. Ray was taking a new two row cultivator to the field a young team becoming frightened at a passing car ran away, tipping the machine over and slightly damaging it. Mr. Ray, who was precipitated on the pavement when the machine turned over, is able to be about, but is very sore, but expects to be all right in a short time.

Ralph Murphy of Weeping Water, who has charge of Mt. Pleasant precinct in the care of the roads, has been caring for the work with some antiquated road machinery and has just been furnished some new machinery which he will use for the care of the roads. He has made a good success of the old machinery, and we may look for even better results with the new equipment. He was in Union on last Monday afternoon for a barrel of grease for the machinery.

Has Resided in Union Longest

D. Ray Frans was born in Missouri in 1881 and came to Union with his parents to make his home in 1887 when he was six years of age, and has resided here ever since. This makes him the oldest resident in points of years spent here than any other man, although some women may have lived here longer than he. The next to Mr. Frans in time of residence here are Frank and Joe Bauer who have also resided here forty-five years as well. They all have found this a good place to live during the time and still like Union as a home.

Make Trip to Oklahoma.

Frank Bauer, her, was over Sunday to see the sister and found her feeling somewhat better. He was accompanied by J. Lody on the trip.

Methodist News Is.

The regular services of the Methodist church of Union were had on the coming Sunday with single exception of the more service which will be omitted as pastor will conduct services at church at Wyoming.

Memorial Services at Union

Memorial services were at the church at Wyoming on Sunday and were conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, who delivered excellent address.

At the beginning of service there was but a small congregation at the church and some people departed as they feared a storm, which in a very few moments cleared away, and then the organ had left returned and withers the house was so well filled was not sufficient room for a

Will Hold Meeting

The First Nebraska Cation meets with the Baptist church in Union in an all day session beginning at ten o'clock Tuesday June 6th. Our state workers, E. Morton, Rev. Ezra Duncan, will be with us and will each give talks on the work. Rev. Wiseman, pastor of the Nebraska City Baptist church, will preach the annual sermon at eleven o'clock. Other able speakers will be present also. A good attendance is very much desired. Everybody is cordially invited. It is not just for Baptists alone, but for anyone who is interested in the Lord's work is welcome to come.

Methodist Church Services

The Methodist church of Union extends a cordial invitation to all who are not worshipping elsewhere to come and worship with us; also to join us in the study of the Bible school lesson, each Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Preaching services each alternate Sunday at 11, and the other Sunday at Wyoming. The Epworth League meets at 7:30 Sunday evening, this service also being open to all who wish to come.
