'KIDNAPING' BY TRUCKERS

Omaha.—A reported kidnaping in South Omaha Tuesday night was revealed by police as having been the result of a citywide search by 150 truckers for two men who recently stole two tires from a truck parked at a terminal operated by Robert Mellam, Omaha. Mellam said that after the truck tire theft had been noted, one of the truckers had recalled the number of a light car he had sighted parked near the truck. The truckers organized and started in search of the car.

Three carloads of truckers sighted the car they sought. They forced it to the curb and two young men in it, Don Goldsberry and George Givins, both of Omaha, were forced to alight and enter one of the cars of the truckers.

This resulted in police receiving the kidnaping report. Later Mellam called police and soon afterwards appeared at headquarters with Goldsberry and Givins. Police said Goldsberry confessed taking part in the truck tire theft. Givins denied he had taken part in the theft.

HERE FROM BEATRICE

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Timpkins, of Beatrice, Nebraska, are here to enjoy a visit for a few days with the relatives and friends. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Meisinger and will, during their stay, visit with the other relatives in and near this city. Mrs. Timpkins was formerly Miss Anna Steppat, member of one of the well known families of this section of Cass county.

'Living Music Day' will be Feature at Lincoln

Event to Be Held August 17, Will Be Participated in by Many of the Nearby Communities.

Invitations have been extended to seventy-one communities near Lincoln to send bands and musical ensembles to that city to participate in its second annual "Living Music Day" August 17, according to word received from Luther G. Andrews, general chairman of the event.

Residents of communities near Lincoln have been cordially invited by Mr. Andrews to visit Lincoln on this day and to lend support to the home-town band.

According to Mr. Andrews, "Living Music Day" was recognized as one of the outstanding musical events in the state last summer. He predicts a superior program in every respect this year.

At least forty bands are expected to visit Lincoln and take part in the day's program, highlights of which will include a two-hour parade and a huge mass band concert at the University of Nebraska stadium. More than ten thousand people attended the mass concert last year.

Following the custom of last year, Mr. Andrews said, there will be continuous musical entertainment throughout the entire afternoon.

A dinner will be served by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce to all visiting musicians.

Honorary chairman of the event is Mayor Penton B. Fleming of Lincoln. Vice-chairmen are Alan C. McIntosh, president of the Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce, H. F. McCulla and John E. Curtiss.

MAY PLAY AT CHICAGO

W. R. Holly and C. E. Ledgway, two of the veteran band men of the city, are now engaged each week in practice with the band of Omaha post No. 1 of the American Legion. The band is preparing to attend the national convention of the Legion to be held in Chicago this fall, one of the best known organizations in the national Legion circles hopes to be there. Mr. Ledgway has attended several of the national conventions as a member of the organization. The convention this year is expected to be one of the most colorful and largely attended in years, the convention being held in one of the cities easy of access to both east and west and with the great Century of Progress exposition as an added feature of the meeting.

Nehawka

W. A. Stoll was shelling and delivering corn to the Farmers elevator on Monday of last week.

Frank Dill shelled and delivered corn to the Farmers elevator in Nehawka last Monday afternoon.

George Lopp was over to Omaha on Tuesday of last week with a load of stock for the market at that place.

Julian J. Pollard was a visitor in Avoca on last Monday morning, at which place he had some business matters to look after for a short time.

Forest R. Cunningham, who is operating the threshing machine of Vilas Sheldon, began the fall campaign at the home of Nelson Berger on last Monday.

Glen Rutledge was called to Nebraska City on last Monday to look after some business and on his return stopped at Union to look after some matters as well.

George Hansen was a visitor in Omaha on Monday of this week, where he was called to look after some business matters and shipped cattle the following day.

Victor Wehrbein and family and W. O. Troop and wife were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where they were visiting with friends and also looking after some shopping.

In the Hollywood Premier at the Ritz theatre in Plattsmouth last week, Dorothy Yost won the first prize when she impersonated Madge Evans, and received a cash award for her efforts.

Prof. E. C. Stimbirt and wife have been enjoying a visit from the sister of Mrs. Stimbirt, who recently arrived from Warrington, and is visiting here with the Stimbirts, thus making a very fine visit for both families.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Gilman and the family, of Nebraska City, were guests in Nehawka for the greater portion of the week, and while here were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton, Messdames Gilman and Burton being sisters.

Prof. E. C. Stimbirt, who is attending a summer school at the state university, will have concluded the term on August 10th, and will then be at home for the opening of the Nehawka schools, which will occur a few weeks later.

Miss Mildred Nellor, a former teacher in the Nehawka schools, but who will teach in South Dakota this year, was a visitor with her many friends here and will also visit the Century of Progress at Chicago before the opening of her school.

Guy Rood and the family, of Burr were visiting for the day last Sunday, and were guests for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson, where all enjoyed the occasion very much, and especially the little girl who has stayed for some time recently at the Anderson home.

County Surveyor Robert Fitch, of Plattsmouth, and Mr. Quinton Palmer, accompanied by Misses Virginia and Leona Pollard enjoyed a fishing party the first of the week, but following their fishing for a number of hours they had no fish for sale, although they fished steadily while they were there. They were also accompanied by Miss Ruth Palmer, all enjoying the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwartz, of California, are visiting in Nehawka guests of his mother and also visiting with his sister and as well with his brother, Henry A. Schwartz and family. After some time spent here they departed for Merna, Nebraska to visit other relatives, and later departed for Chicago, where they will visit the Century of Progress exposition before returning to their home in the west.

Clarence Hansen was a visitor in Omaha last Monday evening, where he was attending the tri-state school, which is being conducted there by the manufacturers of Plymouth cars for their salesmen and mechanics, as he is the representative for this popular make of automobile in this territory and believes in keeping abreast of the times, learning everything it is possible to learn about their care and servicing.

Business is Good, Thank You

That is what the manager of the Farmers Oil company, Mr. R. C. Pollard, has to say about the trend of the times, adding that their trucks are kept on the go most of the time and some times they can hardly get the delivering done. They sure are hustlers, however, and know how to serve the public in the best manner possible.

Will Put on Two Shifts

The Nehawka quarry, which now is employing 14 men for the day shift, will soon give employment to a night shift and will endeavor to load some five cars per day, and with this additional employment, the labor problem of the hustling city of Nehawka will be greatly solved.

New School Board Functioning
The new school board for the Nehawka schools organized and appointed their officers and committees, the chairman being Mrs. M. M. Tucker, the secretary John H. Steffen, and the treasurer George C. Sheldon. J. W. Murdock will have charge of transportation, while Mark Burton was selected at a meeting some time since as janitor for the buildings and grounds.

Came Near Filling
W. A. Hicks, the veteran well man, while assisting with the work on the well of Clyde Palischman, which had refused to work, slipped and came near going into the well. The well had refused to pump and on examination it was demonstrated that the well needed work, which was given it by these two gentlemen.
The pump was repaired and a new platform placed over the well and this makes it in excellent condition, even if it did require a trip to Union by Clyde.

Meets With Accident.
While Stuart Rough was working about the elevator and a trap door had been opened, Mr. Rough, not knowing of this fact, stepped into the open doorway and fell down into the jump of the elevator which is many feet below. Mr. Rough thought this very rough, but was greatly pleased when he picked himself up and discovered that no bones had been broken or other serious injuries sustained. He is, however, feeling quite sore from his unique experience.

Millions to be Used in Highway Construction

Gigantic Construction Program for Spreading Employment and Increased Purchasing Power

Chicago.—About 600 million dollars is being poured into industrial and labor coffers by the states and federal government, joining in a gigantic highway construction program to spread employment and to increase purchasing power. The government has made available to the states 400 millions for construction of roads in the federal-aid highway system and on secondary roads. The states will add about 200 million to that sum, a survey showed.

Half a dozen states, including South Carolina, Louisiana, North Dakota, Alabama, Wisconsin and Oklahoma, will spend no money for roads except the federal funds allotted to them. Unbalanced budgets or highway department deficits were principal causes of their decisions. But Missouri will spend 40 millions, Illinois about 88 millions and Texas about 11 millions, as their share of the vast movement to increase the purchasing power of those who lay concrete ribbons across the land. The government will add 12 millions to Missouri's expenditures, 17 millions to those of Illinois and 24 millions to those of Texas. It will give New York 22 millions, Pennsylvania, 18 millions, California 15 millions and Michigan 12 millions among the largest sums.

West Virginia, Nebraska, Iowa, Massachusetts and California do not know how much they will spend for highways during the coming year because of pending legislation, funds frozen in closed banks, reorganization of highways departments and new budget systems. These states however will spend various federal sums on their roads.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Sunday evening Carl Sattler, of Los Angeles, California, arrived here from the west to enjoy a visit with his parents, Mayor and Mrs. John P. Sattler as well as the other relatives and friends. Mr. Sattler will spend some time here renewing the acquaintances with the relatives and the old time friends.

H. A. Chilcott of Union was in the city Tuesday afternoon for a few hours and while here was a pleasant caller at the Journal, renewing his subscription for the ensuing year to the semi-weekly edition of the paper.

MELLOWED
YEARS

While the Brontosaurus browsed in OKLAHOMA

Millions of years ago—even before the ancient Brontosaurus lived—Nature formed the Cambro-Ordovician oil pool in Oklahoma. Today this oldest of Mid-continent crudes is piped to the great Sinclair refineries where it is refined, blended, de-waxed, freed from petroleum jelly and made into Sinclair Opaline—a product resulting from 80 million years of filtering and mellowing. Try a crankcaseful of Sinclair Opaline—note how it stands up in the heat of fast driving. Note especially at draining time how little oil has been used up—positive, visible proof of protection for the last mile as well as the first!
