Col. Charles Muecke Lays Arms Down in Cuba

But American Who Fought in All the Island Revolutions Ready for a New Call.

Camaguey, Cuba.—Col. Charles Muecke, American who has fought in all Cuban revolutions beginning with that against Spain, laid down his arms the other day after two months in the field and came back to his home to "remain quietly—until the next one."

The veteran of the war for independence, who became a colonel in that war, went to Ciego de Avila to appear before Dr. Luis Cowley, special judge trying cases growing out of the recent movement against the government of President Machado and posted $300 bond for his freedom.

Thereafter he returned to his modest home in the Lo Mosca section of Camaguey.

"I took to the field," Muecke said, "because I learned I was going to be arrested on charges filed by a personal enemy of mine, a member of the army, that I was conspiring against the government."

"About the only thing I found in the field was hunger."

Muecke said he was given all requested guarantees and showed all possible courtesies in connection with his surrender.

Asked as to the revolutions in which he had participated, he replied:

"I was in all of them."

"I rose to the rank of colonel in the war for independence," he added. "In the uprising of August, 1912 (called the race war), I was chief dynamiter of the veterans' column. In the revolution of 1917 (against President Mario G. Menocal) I was chief of dynamiters with Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez (former president) blowing up several bridges close to the government forces under Col. Rosendo Collazo."

The remark was made that "You are now back at home, in peace."

"Yes," Muecke said, "until the next one."

The colonel said he had two daughters, one of them married, living in New York, and another, widow of an American army officer, in Washington. A son-in-law, he added, is a captain in the army at the Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds.

The board announced that the budget was drawn on the present valuation of Douglas county property and stated that if the board of equalization orders a further reduction in valuations, a new budget will have to be drawn, with still further cuts.

Branches of Mormon Church are United

Come Together at Memorial Service in Nauvoo, Ill., Honoring the Founder of Their Faith.

Nauvoo, Ill., July 26.—Two branches of the Mormon church, which went their separate ways when they were forced out of Illinois in 1846, and have since maintained their distance from each other, came together here today in a joyful yet solemn ceremony honoring the founder of their faith, Joseph Smith.

From Salt Lake City, seat of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Utah, came George A. Smith, of the council of the 12 Apostles of his branch. From Independence, Mo., came Dr. Frederick M. Smith, president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Missouri. With each of these leaders arrived a number of their faithful followers.

In a spirit of reunion the two groups, together, listened to each other's speakers and in concord dedicated a striking monument to Joseph Smith. It was here in Nauvoo that Smith (so he said) had a revelation from on high expressly approving and encouraging polygamy.

A striking memorial in this huge slab of quartzite his modern followers have placed upon the hallowed ground where once stood the founder's store. On either side of it are seats and in front a sun dial. It honors Smith, but also it honors the Mormon National Women's Relief society, founded in 1844. Both branches of the church had their part in the preparation of it. The reorganized, or Missouri branch, had landscaped the property, which it owns and the stone was set up by the Utah unit.—World-Herald.

Troops Ordered to Pennsylvania Coal Strike Area

Governor Pinchot Acts Quickly After Sheriff Refuses Demand — Gunmen Charge.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 29.—Governor Pinchot early today said he had ordered Pennsylvania national guardsmen to the Fayette county coal mine strike area.

The governor at his home in Milford, said he issued orders to Major General Edward C. Shannonn, Twenty-eighth division commander, to send men from Mount Getna rather than from home stations in western Pennsylvania because the movement can be effected much faster.

The governor said the troops will be sent as soon as the railroads can move them.

Earlier the governor had told Sheriff Hackney to remove his deputies or martial law would be declared. The governor told Hackney that he "was deliberately provoking strife and disorder" and that he was informed "that the Frick Coal company with your co-operation, was importing gunmen from New York."

In reply to this Hackney refused to withdraw his deputies, saying that he could not neglect his official duties. The governor then ordered out the guards.

Detroit.—A wage increase Aug. 1 for 200,000 workers in plants allied with the national automobile chamber of adoption was announced following adoption of a resolution by directors of the N. A. C. C. calling for a upward wage readjustment in factories of its members. The resolution was adopted at a meeting called to approve a trade code to be submitted to the president by the automobile industry.

At the end of the two day session it was revealed that no code has been formally adopted. It was announced, however, that a majority of the members agreed that the proposed code formulated at the meeting should be filed with the national industry recovery administration as soon as signatures representing a sufficient percentage of the industry could be obtained.

DRYS GRANTED INJUNCTION

Phoenix, Ariz.—Altho they failed to obtain enough signatures to place their own candidates on the ballot, Arizona's dry forces were awarded a temporary injunction restraining state and county officials from electing a state convention to act upon proposed repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

The state treasury, secretary of state, state auditor, and Maricopa county supervisors here were ordered to appear before Superior Judge Rodgers July 31 to show cause why a permanent injunction should not be granted. The election of the convention had been set by Governor Moer for Aug. 8. The injunction was granted Charles R. Osburn, acting for the Arizona Temperance federation. He said the bill setting up machinery for election of the convention was unconstitutional.

PLEA FOR FARM PAIR MADE

Minneapolis.—Letters were sent to Governor Olson asking him to intervene in behalf of two farmers who face thirty days work house sentences here. The farmers, Reino Tantilla of Sax and Arthur Boelke of Little Fork, were convicted of disorderly conduct charges growing out of a clash between police and hunger marcher demonstrators at the city hall here last November. Their sentences are to start Aug. 4.

James Flower, secretary of the United Farmers' league, said in his letter to the governor and to Municipal Judge Wright, that "These farmers were arrested and held in jail for the crime of defending themselves against the attacks of the police." He urged suspension of the sentences because of the harvest and haying seasons.
