RETURN FROM THE WEST

Misses Clara and Mary Bookmeyer, of this city, have just returned home from a most wonderful trip through the west, one that has led them into every state west of Nebraska as well as the national parks of the great wonderland of the west.

The party were with Miss Madeline Cohen, of Omaha, a teacher in the schools, they making the trip by car and enjoying the journey in a leisurely manner as they made many stops at the most interesting points.

Miss Cohen and Miss Marie Bookmeyer were the first to start and were later joined by Miss Clara for the journey through the west. They first drove to the Black Hills of South Dakota, the wind cave and then through the Yellowstone park and Teton range, then north to Glacier national park for a short stay and thence to Canada.

The party on their return to the United States enjoyed trips to the famous Crater lake in Oregon, also at Lake Tahoe in Nevada, one of the beauty spots of that section of the nation.

The ladies in addition to the enjoyment of the beauties of the parks, also found time for visits to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Hollywood as well as side trips to the Cataline islands to add to the interest of the trip. They also visited Santa Barbara and Santa Marie.

On their start back to the Nebraska home they took trips through the Yosemite and Sequoia parks, driving from there to the Mesa Verde park, then on to Arizona where they visited at the Taos settlements, also at the grand canyon, one of the wonderlands of the world.

The ladies took the opportunity while in the west to visit at Boulder dam, one of the great pieces of construction work in the world. The party stopped at Gallup, New Mexico for an Indian festival and also at Santa Fe, New Mexico, one of the oldest settlements in the country and which is filled with much interest.

The ladies feel that one, if not the greatest treats of their trip was that to Bryce canyon and the Zion national park in Utah. The trip was one always to be remembered.

Drowning one's troubles in the present 3.2 beer certainly would be a tedious job.

Cook Family Enjoys Its 20th Annual Reunion

Meeting Held This Year at Home of Mrs. S. O. Cole Near This City; Many in Attendance.

The twentieth annual reunion of the Cook family was held Sunday at the palatial country home of Mrs. S. O. Cole. Regardless of the rainy threatening weather, relatives from near and far came to attend this pleasant family gathering.

The weather not being favorable, dinner was served in the dining room and porch where four large tables were laden with good things to eat and plenty of fried chicken.

At 2:30 a business session was held, the meeting being presided over by President A. H. Weichel, of Elmwood. The group joined in singing an old familiar hymn, "He Leadeth Me," after which Rev. H. A. McKelvey led in prayer. Rev. Fred Cook of Stanton, Nebr. gave a splendid address. Rev. Cook is a son of the late J. D. Cook. The members of the Cook family enjoyed this splendid address.

S. T. Huebner of Burlington, Iowa, was heard in a short talk and touched upon some earlier history of the Cook family which brought back pleasant memories of the older members.

Gertrude Vallery and Adeline Cook favored the audience with two vocal duets. Miss Ramona Olson of Stanton, Nebraska, played the accompaniment.

Feeling that the program was not complete without a song from Raymond Cook, he finally consented. Miss Olson was the accompanist on the piano accordion.

The Cook family look forward each year to this great reunion, altho their hearts were again saddened this year by another missing link brought by the death of Mrs. W. D. Wheeler. Mrs. Wheeler was one of the members of this pioneer Cook family.

There are now six of this family of twelve children left, Phillip, John, Charles and Joe Cook, Mrs. T. W. Vallery and Mrs. S. O. Cole.

Those attending from out of the county were Rev. Fred Cook and family of Stanton, Nebr.; Andrew Mattsson, wife and daughter, Ramona; Helen Cook, Ord, Nebr.; George Cook of Hadar; Wm. Wenke and family, Pierce; Mrs. J. D. Cook, Ord; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trilety, Omaha.

CODES ARE AVAILABLE

The local NIRA committee which was organized some two weeks ago to assist in the work of preparing the carrying out of the drive for the success of the program for national recovery, has now a copy of the various codes.

This copy of the codes that covers all lines of industry, is at the office of the secretary, E. H. Wescott, where it can be seen by anyone who is interested.

This covers all of the various lines of industry and business in the country under what is known as the blanket code, effective until the adoption of the codes for each industry that they may prepare and present to the national government.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mrs. Ralph Hatt, who was taken to Omaha several days ago to undergo treatment, was operated on Tuesday at the hospital. Mrs. Hatt has been quite poorly and it was decided that the operation would be necessary to restore her to health. The patient is reported as doing as well as possible under the circumstances of the case.

Mrs. Everett Gooding and children, Clifton and Evelyn, returned Monday evening from their visit at Casper and Thermopolis, Wyoming. While at Casper they were guests of John Speck, a brother of Mrs. Gooding.

The new vogue of shorts as the essential part of the costume of champion women tennis players confirms a suspicion their limbs were the inspiration for the legs of the old style grand piano.

HAMMER-SCHUELKE

Miss Minnie Hammer, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Hammer of Ashland, became the bride of William H. Schuelke of Greenwood, at a ceremony Aug. 19 at 8 o'clock. Rev. G. A. Koschul of Eagle read the service. The background was formed by an arch of summer flowers, lighted with vari-colored bulbs. Mrs. Carl Hammer and Miss Marie Hammer sang preceding the ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of white silk net and her tulle cap was caught at one side by a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white and pink gladioli and baby breath. Miss Margaret Hammer, the bridesmaid, was attired in light blue crepe and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations and blue delphinium. Edna and Faye Parks were the flower girls, and Charlotte Anderson carried the ring in a calla lily. Clarence F. Schuelke served his brother as best man.

A wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother. Miss Martha Hammer had charge of the guest book, and Mrs. R. B. Todd and Mrs. P. G. Kriner presided in the gift room.

Following a trip to Chicago the couple will reside in Greenwood.
