Many Seek Job

There were ten at Nebraska City to try for the examination for the supplying of the vacancy which is to occur at the Union postoffice, which was recently changed from a third to a fourth class office. From the list of those taking the examination, one is to be selected. The present postmistress has been giving excellent satisfaction, and but for the changing of the office to a fourth class office, she would have been retained until 1936.

Loading Stone on Barges

A large number of people from Union and other portions of the county were over to the river where the stone quarry has been opened on the John N. Larsh farm. The workers are getting out a large amount of stone and loading it on barges to be transported to near Nebraska City, where extensive work is being done on the river. A steam tug came from the south on last Monday to handle the shipping of the stone.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the relatives and friends for their assistance and sympathy at the tragic removal of our son and brother from this world, as well as for the floral tributes that were sent, and to the quartette that furnished music at the funeral, the pastor, Rev. Kunkel, and Rev. W. A. Taylor and Rev. W. A. Bowden, who assisted with the services.—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fletcher; Mrs. Leta Pugh; Miss Leora Fletcher.

Reception for Pastor

The members of the Methodist church and friends tendered to Rev. and Mrs. Kunkel a reception at the church Friday evening, October 6th.

They all came well laden with baskets and sacks and other receptacles containing a well assorted variety of provisions for the larder. A program of song, addresses and games was carried out, after which the ladies served a splendid luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Kunkel most heartily appreciate this token of the esteem of their friends.

Death of Robert Lee Drum

Robert Lee Drum, age 57, a cousin of the Eatons and uncle of Mrs. Fred Tigner, of Union, who formerly resided in and about Union, but has been a resident of Iowa for a number of years, making his home near the town of Thurman, died last Saturday and was buried on Monday. Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union, conducted the funeral services. Interment was in the cemetery at Thurman, Rev. Taylor motoring over to the Iowa town to conduct the service.

Many of the older inhabitants of Union and vicinity will recall when Mr. Drum resided in this vicinity.

Pioneer Citizen Passes On

George Lester Hathaway was born March 24, 1852 and died October 4, 1933, at the home a mile and a half east of Union, aged 81 years, 5 months and 10 days. The place of his birth was near Crown Point, Indiana, but he came with his parents to Nebraska in 1857, when he was but five years of age. Thus it may be said, he spent practically his entire lifetime in this vicinity.

When he was 21 years of age, he was married to Miss Addie Sherwood here in Cass county and they made their home on a farm in Liberty precinct for many years. His wife preceded him in death on March 10, 1924.

Ten children were born to this union, three of whom died in infancy. The names of the surviving children are Charles, Albert, Reuben and Loy Hathaway. Mrs. Hattie Eaton, Miss Cora Hathaway and Mrs. Rose Clark, all of whom reside in and near Union. He is also survived by one brother, A. D. Hathaway, a resident of Union. There are sixteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held from the Baptist church in Union last Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, who was assisted by Rev. B. N. Kunkel. Interment was in the East Union cemetery.

The pall bearers were D. B. Porter, J. C. Niday, Harry Gobelman, Herman Comer, Ed Dukes and Lee Farris. Special music was furnished by the male quartette composed of P. F. Rihn, J. D. Cross, D. Ray Frans and C. H. Whitworth, with Mrs. Ora Clarke at the piano.

Mr. Hathaway was one of those fine old pioneers of Cass county, who helped to bring Nebraska acres to their present state of fertility and to whom the present generation owes a debt of gratitude for smoothing the path that we may now enjoy comparative ease and freedom from the privations they went through in early days.

His passing brings a deep sense of regret among all who knew him.

Wymore Fletcher Funeral

Wymore, the only son of Edgar and Mary Fletcher, was born in Union, Nebraska, March 7, 1906, and died October 3, 1933, at the age of 27 years, 6 months and 26 days. He grew to manhood in this community and received his education in the Union public school.

He was in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad at the time of his death which came shortly after he suffered severe injuries in an auto accident near Fort Crook.

He is survived by his father and mother; two sisters, Mrs. Sam Pugh and Miss Leora Fletcher, of Union; his aged grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Clarence, many other relatives and a host of friends.

Wymore was a liberal hearted boy and would share his all with relatives, friends or others in need. He was the chief support of his parents.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Union, in charge of the pastor, Rev. B. N. Kunkel, who delivered the address, assisted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, who read the scriptures and offered the invocation, and Rev. W. A. Bowden, a former pastor, now of Ulysses, Nebraska, who made the prayer.

Music was provided by a quartette composed of Messrs. Chas. Whitworth, P. H. Rihn, J. D. Cross and Ray Frans, assisted at the piano by Mrs. L. G. Todd. They sang "Is It True," "Fate, Fate, Each Earthly Joy" and "Some Sweet Day, Bye and Bye."

The pall bearers were Ralph and Wayne Surface, Lowell and Donald McQuinn and Loy and Victor Clar-

Willing to Go Limit in Saving Farm Homes

Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Head of Farm Credit Administration, Promises Aid to Farm Owners

A committee representing the National Farmers Holiday Association and the National Farmers Union, accompanied by Senator Lynn J. Frazier, of North Dakota, called upon Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Governor of the Farm Credit Administration, in Washington, D. C., a few days ago. The committee was composed of E. E. Kennedy, secretary of the National Farmers Union, Kankakee, Illinois; John Bosch, vice president of the National Farmers Holiday Association, Atwater, Minnesota; Harry C. Parmenter, state president of the Farmers Holiday Association of Nebraska, Yutan, Nebraska; R. S. Norman, of the Farmers Holiday Association of Texas, Plainview, Texas, and C. F. Lytle, of the Farmers Holiday Association of Iowa, Sioux City, Iowa.

Mr. Morgenthau requested that this problem be thrown in his lap and requested that any farmer who as yet has been unable to refinance his present mortgage indebtedness, and who is in immediate danger of being foreclosed, or whose farm has been sold under foreclosure and his period of redemption is about to expire, or where he is in immediate danger of eviction, be requested to wire Governor Morgenthau, collect, stating the facts in order that he may take the case up with the creditor and ask for the necessary extension of time in which to refinance his mortgage indebtedness. Mr. Morgenthau stated to the committee that he would do everything in his power to prevent farmers from being foreclosed and being evicted from their homes or losing their farms.

"It is our job to prevent farm foreclosures and evictions," Mr. Morgenthau stated, "and if the job gets too big for me, I'll frankly tell you."

If, for any reason, any farmer is unable to prevent foreclosure or eviction, after an appeal has been made to Governor Morgenthau of the Farm Credit Administration, it is requested by the committee that such farmer get in communication with E. E. Kennedy, National Secretary of the Farmers Union, Kankakee, Illinois, or Milo Reno, National President of the Farmers Holiday Association, of Des Moines, Iowa.

ence, cousins of the deceased. Interment was in the East Union cemetery.

Out of town relatives who were present at the funeral were: Mrs. B. Runyon, Percival, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. John Waite, Mrs. Anna Crumes and daughter and David Rakes, all of Nebraska City; G. W. Surface, Glenwood, Iowa; Mrs. Ada Surface, York, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Erwin, Omaha; Mrs. Stella Whaley, of Bruhl, Idaho; Orin and Doris Ewell, of Thurman, Iowa.

Card of Thanks.

Words cannot express thanks and deep appreciation to our neighbors and friends for the many words of heartfelt sympathy and kind acts and the beautiful floral offerings during the bereavement and burial of our father.—Children of George Hathaway.

Nehawka

Business called David C. West to Omaha one day this week, he driving over to the big town in his auto.

The City of Nehawka are giving their streets the once over with additional gravel and getting the streets and alleys in good condition for the winter season and a very fine idea, for when a city needs good roads is when cold weather sets in, and the time to put them in shape is right now.

There are many people coming from Missouri just now desiring to pick corn. W. O. Troop put three to work Tuesday morning. This makes four teams he will have in the field, and with that force they should be able to make the ears fly against the gangboards.

Mrs. D. Ray Frans, of Union, was a guest of the Woman's club and also enjoyed attending the gathering for the first program of this year.

Parr Young was looking after some business matters in Omaha for the day last Friday, viewing the cattle at the stock yards.

W. O. Troop was a visitor in Omaha on Monday of this week, where he went to see his little granddaughter, Miss Levina Troop, who has been at a hospital in Omaha, where she was receiving treatment.

Frank L. Anderson and wife and Anderson Lloyd were visiting for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein.
Eugene Hamlin and his parents, who formerly resided in Missouri, departed last Saturday for their native state and will spend some two weeks in the Ozarks, where they will enjoy a very fine visit.

Stuart Rough was a business visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday afternoon, making the trip in his auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rough were in Oakland, Nebr., last Sunday, where they were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rough, and found the crops very good, the corn being even better than here.

James Miller and wife were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Eastrich, of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Eastrich being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Last Sunday John Noddleman and Fred Nutzman had their cattle shipped to Omaha, this being the last of their present feeding, and they will fill up the feeding yards again soon, and start all over.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nutzman left last Monday for Chicago, where they are spending the present week attending the World's Fair.

Walter Wunderlich and wife spent a week in Chicago attending the Century of Progress exposition that is nearing the end of a very successful five months run. They were well pleased with the many sights of interest at the fair.

Miss Ruth Palmer, who is teaching in the public schools at Johnson, was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer, for over the week end.

Thomas Mason and wife were enjoying a visit at the home of friends in Omaha, driving over to the metropolis in their car.

Visit in Iowa and Missouri

John Opp and family and Amos Plunkett were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Jasper Curtis and family, Mr. Curtis being a brother of Mrs. Opp, at Rockport, Mo. They made the trip in their car.

Opening of Club Season

The Woman's club held their first meeting of the fall season last week, with Mrs. Hope Taylor and Miss Virginia Stone as hostesses and Mrs. George C. Sheldon as leader. Mrs. Nelson Berger, club president, presided over the business session.

Mrs. E. M. Pollard was present and gave a splendid address, while her daughter Mrs. Mary Pollard-Hall gave an exhibition of the Joslyn Memorial as well as a lecture on the same, which was enjoyed by all.

Murray Family Hold Reunion

The Murray family held a reunion near Weeping Water last Sunday, at which time there were a large number of the family present, comprising those living in this part of the country and some from distant points. Leonard Murray and family came up from Oklahoma for the gathering, being accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Alford, while from Summerfield, Kansas, came Guy Murray and family, C. C. Murray and daughter, of Louisville, were also among those present. They all enjoyed a fine time and will make the event an annual affair. The Rev. C. A. Murray and family were also present.

PLEASANT RIDGE PROJECT CLUB

The Pleasant Ridge Project club met Tuesday, October 3rd at the home of Mrs. Ceasar Baumgart. Mrs. Paul Hill and Mrs. Max Burmeister were assistant hostesses. Mrs. Earl Iske the new president, presided over the business part of the meeting, giving a brief outline for the year's work. The lesson for this meeting was "Tailored Finishes Made Easy," and was put on in a very clever way by the project leaders, Mrs. David Rutherford and Mrs. Earl Iske. A delicious lunch was served and all present thought the afternoon well spent. The next meeting will be October 21st at the home of Mrs. Herman Hennings.

PROGRAM CHANGED

The date of the program to be presented at the high school under the auspices of the high school and junior high school faculties has been changed from Friday, October 20th to Tuesday night, October 24th. This change was made in order to avoid a conflict in classes with another local organization. The program is in process of completion at this time and it promises to be one of the outstanding programs of the year and one of the first sponsored entirely by the faculty.
