PICK UP ORDER PROTESTED

Omaha.—A protest to the Union Pacific railroad against its order effective Wednesday granting free freight pick up and delivery service within approximately 300 miles of the shipping point in Nebraska, has been made by the traffic bureau of the Omaha chamber of commerce.

All railroads in Nebraska are granted the same privilege by the state railway commission. If tariffs of other lines contain the zone limitation, protests will be filed with them.

ROBOT TESTED BY NAVY

Seattle.—The U. S. navy has completed preliminary tests of a robot diving bell represented as able to plunge into the ocean, pick up a dome or a 25 foot locomotive crane, and carry workers into depths heretofore beyond their reach in salvaging stricken submarines and saving lives.

From Saturday's Daily

Judge C. S. Wortman and Oscar Zaar, well known residents of South Bend, were in the city for a short time today, Judge Wortman having some litigation in the county court to demand his attention.

OXFORD STUDENTS BOUNCED

Oxford, England.—Athletic black-shirt recruits of Sir Oswald Mosley, England's fascist leader, demonstrated their training as "bouncers" on Oxford university students. Sir Oswald brought his husky recruits to attend a meeting at which he spoke with reference to a resolution against fighting passed by the Oxford union. The reference caused an outbreak of disorder among students.

Blackshirt posse immediately hustled the hecklers to the head of a stone staircase, then released them and left individual blackshirts to finish the job alone. According to Mosley's training of his blackshirt recruits, each case must be handled by a single defender of the cause. Individual tussles continued until each student interrupter was thrown stairs.

OFFICERS GIVE HOT CHASE

Omaha.—Making a break for liberty, Frank Sexton of Long Beach, Calif., led a deputy United States marshal and fifty would-be captors a merry chase thru downtown streets here Friday before being recaptured.

The chase started while Marshal Cato was taking Sexton from the federal building to the county jail. It ended at a store entrance several blocks away. Cato said Sexton started his dash when a woman stepped between them for an instant. The 230 pound marshal found Sexton crouching in a doorway. He had been arrested here on a Mann act charge and Friday was ordered held for the grand jury.

Platters Trim Wahoo High by Topheavy Score

Platters Show Real Form as They Smash, Pass and Outplay Visitors to Win 38 to 0.

The young men that come from the land of the Wahoo Friday afternoon were at the receiving end of a decisive defeat at the hands of the Platters, the score of 38 to 0 being rolled up by the locals.

The local team had it on the visitors in all departments of the game and at no time were seriously threatened. All of the team showed fight and fire and the smashing attacks of Ronne and Armstrong wore down the morale of the visitors as their line was smashed repeatedly.

Wahoo kicked off at the opening of the contest and the ball was in a few seconds back in their zone and before the contest was many minutes old, William Ronne, local fullback, skirted the visitors right end for a touchdown and to start the fireworks.

The locals again returned the ball in speedy fashion with end runs and line smashes to advance the ball to the Wahoo thirty yard line and from where Kenneth Armstrong, alias the "Big Moose," tucked the ball under his arm and hit through the Wahoo center for thirty yards and the touchdown. The try for point failed and left the locals leading 13 to 0.

The Platters evidently deciding that thirteen was an unlucky number proceeded to annex themselves another touchdown in the third period when Armstrong and Knofleek carried the ball to successive first downs and to bring the ball to the thirty yard line. A nice pass from McCleary to Pletfooted "Hob" Hirz gained ground as the local end raced toward the beckoning goal of the visitors, but was forced out on the four yard line. McCleary carried the ball through the line for the touchdown but failed in the try for point.

Another score in the third was when Ronne again took the warpath and on play after play tore through for five, eight and ten yards, the visitors being unable to check the onrush of the battling fullback. The ball was carried by Ronne to the six yard line and Knofleek in an end run carried the ball over, some great interference being given by McCleary and Ronne. A pass over the line to Bill Edwards was good for the extra point and the score rested at 31 to 0.

With the game in its dying moments and the prospects of a victor's supper awaiting them, the Platters again started the attack on Wahoo who were forced to kick, but the kick was short and the locals had the ball back and were knocking at the goal of Wahoo. In this return Joe Graves, one of the substitutes showed some good blocking. In striking distance of the Wahoo goal, Bill Edwards, who was playing a sweet game, skirted the end for a touchdown and Maynard McCleary carried the ball over for the extra point for a total of thirty-eight to naught.

It was a game in which all had a part and the fighting spirit of everyone helped and the services of Oliver and Jess Taylor, Grosshans, Sietz on the line and the brilliant passing of Kalina were features of the contest.

PRESENT STAGE PLAY

From Saturday's Daily
The Hazel McOwen Players last evening opened their winter season at the Platz theatre, a large audience greeting their initial performance. The company is one that is well balanced and gives a real evening of enjoyment for the amusement lovers.

The opening play was "The Man I Love," a clever comedy drama and one that was well staged in the hands of the fine cast.

Specialties are also afforded during the progress of the play and which added to the enjoyment of the evening.

This company expects to play this city each Friday evening during the rest of the fall and winter season.

Conference is Held Regarding Labor on River

Civic Organizations Meet at Court House to Discuss Situation as to Local Labor.

The matter of the employment of labor from Cass and Sarpy counties in Nebraska and Mills county, Iowa, was taken up Friday afternoon at a conference held at the office of the local employment bureau in the court house.

The meeting was to discuss the number of men that are engaged in the work near this city on the Missouri river and was participated in by the city and county governments, committees of the American Legion, who have taken the initiative in the battle for local labor, the Chamber of Commerce, as well as other civic organizations.

The re-employment bureau will at once check the number of men that have been employed on the river work, the number dismissed or that have been assigned jobs other than that for which they were supplied, this data to be prepared for use in future action on the matter that may be decided upon.

The meeting was of the opinion that the intent of the creation of the work was to supply labor in localities near the work being done and this should be complied with as far as possible.

RECEIVES CERTIFICATE

Mrs. C. E. Hartford, one of the expert bridge players of the city has just received a certificate that she is very much pleased with, it being a certificate that authorizes her to teach the Culbertson method of bridge. Mrs. Hartford has been a devotee of this system for the past several years and her capability is recognized in the authority to represent this system.

Educational Week to be Observed Here

Teaching Demonstrations, Lectures on Teaching Methods and Programs to Feature Week.

The week of November 5 to 11 is set aside by the National Education Association for "Educational Week." The Plattsmouth schools will observe this week by teaching demonstrations, lectures on teaching methods and programs. The entire arrangement for the schools are not complete but special attention is called to the Patron's Day at Central building Thursday, November 9. Each parent or patron in Central ward is urged to visit Central building and observe the activities in the various rooms. There is no definite program but teachers will have school work that will be of interest to the citizens of Plattsmouth. The visitors may come at any time of the day and observe.

Columbian Building.
The observation of Educational Week at Columbian building will be in the form of teaching demonstrations by all of the teachers. Parents and patrons are invited to visit the Columbian school Tuesday afternoon, November 7. The afternoon's activities will start at 1:30 in the kindergarten room.

The following is the program:
1:30 to 2:00—Kindergarten, Miss Johns, teacher: Circus dramatization, including songs, rhythms and story telling.

2:00 to 2:30—Grades 1 and 2, Miss Quimby, teacher: A Home Activity demonstration: 1. Chart reading; 2. Story of "The Wonderful Porridge Pot"; 3. Songs. (a) Mother and Father. (b) My Baby-Bo; 4. Dramatization of "The Lost Child."
2:30 to 3:00—Grades 2 and 3, Miss James, teacher. Second grade presentation of new combinations:
2 4 6 6
-4 -2 -2 -4

Third grade presentation of checking in subtraction.
3:00 to 3:30—Grades 4 and 5, Miss Farley, teacher: Eskimo play by fifth grade. Written by Fritz Schackneis. The Eskimos were studied. The children learned about the Eskimo clothes, houses and food. The play tells about all these activities.

It is hoped that a large number of parents will visit both Central and Columbian buildings during these days.

VIGILANTES AT TWO TOWNS

Two Nebraska American Legion posts are making plans to organize vigilante committees, in line with the recommendations of Department Commander Kratz of Sidney. The posts were those at Nebraska City and McCook.

"I consider this a very favorable showing for only twenty-four hours after the commander's bulletin was issued," State Adjutant Dudley said. "We expect that scores of posts will fall in line with the plan within the next few days."

The vigilante plan was advanced by the state commander as a means of curbing a recent outbreak of bank banditry in the state. Nebraska City legionnaires expressed approval of the plan in a resolution in which they voiced a belief the statewide organization of vigilantes would be "a considerable aid to law enforcement agencies."

"We will be only too glad to cooperate with county and state authorities in their combat with bank robbers," C. M. Hansen, McCook commander said.

MAY DROP CHARGES

The charges which were preferred against William Turner, Denver young man, in which he was charged with stealing a diamond ring, will probably be dropped, it was stated today at the office of County Attorney W. G. Kieck.

The parties from whom the ring was taken have received the offer of the return of the ring and the payment of all costs and expenses that have been incurred in the pressing of the charges.

Sheriff Home rSylvester is at Pueblo, Colorado, where the young man was arrested and made the trip there with the expectation of returning him to Nebraska.

With the desire of all parties to drop the matter it is probable that the complaints will be withdrawn and the young man left at his home in the west.

END OF CONTROVERSY SEEN

Brockton, Mass.—An end to the troubles in the Brockton shoe manufacturing district appeared imminent with announcement of a decision by the national labor board directing a settlement of the controversy.

Disagreements between the rival unions, the Brotherhood of Shoe and Allied Craftsmen and the Boot and Shoe Workers' union, the latter an affiliate of the American Federation of Labor, have been affecting the industry here for weeks but only one plant, that of the W. L. Douglas company, had been the scene of recent disturbances as the company maintained its stand in holding to agreements with the Boot and Shoe Workers' union.

Thursday's developments prior to the decision of the national labor board included an attack on the board's chairman, Senator Wagner, by Frank A. Goodwin, adviser to the Brotherhood of Shoe and Allied Craftsmen. In contrast to his criticism of the labor board earlier in the day, Goodwin later issued a statement of commendation.

WANTS MURRELL RELEASED

San Antonio.—The San Antonio Express says Margot Ralls, sister of Blanch Ralls, 28, named in federal charges here as the victim of a criminal attack by Lieut. John N. Murrell, former West Point football star, has suggested to the United States attorney's office here that the charges be dropped.

IT MIGHT HELP SOME

Why welcome each event in life
As a harbinger of doom—
Broadcasting "sob stuff" in one's wake
Like a leaden pall of gloom?
This old world has its troubles,
Without inviting it to share
The personal grievances we have
And then put "on the air."
A glorious sunshine often gleams
Through a lowering, murky sky,
To brighten the outlook
That we saw through rueful eye.
If we would but help things along,
And keep on "sawing wood."
The time lost in regretful moods
Might do a world of good. "K"

VERY SERIOUSLY ILL

The many friends of Mrs. Harry Collins, of Omaha, will regret to learn that she is still in very critical condition at the Lutheran hospital at Omaha where she was operated on Wednesday. The patient was operated on for appendicitis but complications have set in and the heart of the patient has been giving her some trouble and adds to the serious phase of the case.

SECONDS PLAY BALL

The second string players of Coach Fred Rother's football squad Wednesday afternoon entertained the frosh of the South Omaha high school at the local Athletic field. The visitors were the winners of the contest 25 to 0 and both teams enjoyed some good experience and practice from the game.
