The Tobin Quarries, with headuarters in Kansas City, Mo., are pening and operating a new quarry it Nehawka. Some of the equipment arrived here Tuesday evening and the next morning men were busy drilling holes for the first "shot" and preparing to face a strip of hillside where the stone will be removed.

The Tobin Quarries, one of the largest quarrying firms in this section are now operating several stone quarries in Missouri and are also operating another on the John Larsh farm northeast of Union. The stone secured at the Union quarry is being used in the river work below Nebraska City. Since this quarry started, a number of Nehawka men have been employed there and it is understood they will be transferred to Ne-

The foreman of the local quarry announced that they would work about thirty men and expect to load out six cars of rip rap stone each day. It will be used in river work near Omaha where it will be delivered to the Kansas City Bridge Co., who have the river contract.

The hill where the new quarry is being operated is on the R. C. Pollard farm west of town. It is the hill formerly used by the Nehawka Gun Club to shoot blue rocks. Although not a large hill, there is a large amount of stone in ti and very little dirt to contend with. # Platters Drop Game to Tecumseh by Score of 6 to 0

Johnson County Team Wins When Plattsmouth Kickoff Returned for a Touchdown.

The Plattsmouth-Tecumseh battle at Tecumseh Friday afternoon was annexed by the host team by the score of 6 to 0.

The score was the result of one of the sensational plays that happen once in a blue moon when Tecumseh taking the Plattsmouth kickoff, raced it sixty-five yards for a touchdown, the locals being unable to check the speed of the young man assigned the ball carrying task.

In the opening portion of the game the Platters showed well and were threatening the Tecumseh goal, Ronne and Armstrong, powerhouses of the locals gaining much ground. The Plattsmouth team had the ball on the Tecumseh five yard line in the third, but were unable to shove it over the line for the necessary mark-

The second quarter saw Tecumseh show more effectively on the defense while on the Plattsmouth defensive play Armstrong was effective.

Plattsmouth gained a great deal in their passing attack, several nice passes from McCleary to Jensen gaining ground.
