DEBATE NOTES

The individuals belonging to the Debate club, gathered at the high school Thursday evening.

The meeting was called to order by the president; the treasurer asked that all dues be paid by next Thursday evening. It was moved and seconded that the appointed time of meeting, 7 o'clock, would be changed to 7:15.

The major part of the evening was devoted to debating. The scheduled team consisted of Lois Meade and Fred Fricke, who upheld the affirmative, the opposing side was upheld by Mildred Cacy and Carl Hula. The Judge, Midge Garnett, rendered the decision in favor of the negative. It was a close score between the respective sides, the negative lead by a small majority of two points. Immediately after the completion of this debate, Mr. Figley summoned an extemporaneous debate. Ellen Kelly and Earl Lamberson were called upon to uphold the affirmative; Lorence Rhoades and Edgar Sietz upheld the negative. The debaters proved very alert in their extemporaneous speaking. Miss Garnett's decision favored the affirmative in a number of respects.

After the debates were completed, debate teams were formed which includes every member of the club. The squad will hold these debates at a convenient time for those interested.

A number of the debaters plan to attend a debate in Omaha at the Technical high school auditorium next Monday evening. Creighton University and Oxford University of England will participate in the event.

About three-fourths of the members were present, Margaret Yelick, Mary Jane Mark, Edna Mae Peterson, Virginia Trively, Mildred Cacy, Pearl Tompkins, Lois Giles, Lois Meade, Louise Bakke, Alice Jane Hinz, Ellen Kelly, Lorence Rhoades, Carl Hula, Fred Fricke, Edgar Sietz, Arthur Warga, John Cloidt, Floyd McCarty, Ed Hadraba, Arthur Earl Lamberson.

FUNERAL OF FRED STEWART

The funeral of Fred Stewart, who died on Wednesday at Broken Bow, was held on Friday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. B. Perry on west Granite street.

There were a large number of the old friends present to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the good friend that had gone on.

Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the First Methodist church, gave words of comfort to the members of the bereaved family and the friends, taking his text from the 14th chapter of St. John.

During the service Mrs. E. H. Westcott gave two of the well loved hymns, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" and "The Touch of His Hand on Mine."

At the conclusion of the service the body was borne to the last resting place in the family lot at Oak Hill cemetery, the pall bearers being old time friends, W. F. Evers, E. J. Weyrich, Judge A. H. Duxbury, John E. Schutz, George Hall and Frank Barkus.

Big Plans for Iowa-Nebraska Day at Lincoln

Parade of Thirty-five Bands and a Mass Concert at the Stadium Are Scheduled.

With plans calling for a street parade of at least 35 Nebraska bands and a mass concert before the kickoff of the Iowa-Nebraska game at Lincoln on Saturday, November 25, extensive arrangements for the observance of Iowa-Nebraska day are being made by a committee headed by C. W. Motter.

Invitations are being sent to all of the high school, civic and municipal bands in the state. Twenty-five have accepted and ten more are expected. Invitations are also being sent to Nebraska mayors to attend the Iowa game, and a reception will be held in Mayor Fleming's office during the morning. The parade will start promptly at 12:30 p. m. Iowa-Nebraska day badges are being designed for the visitors and headquarters for the visiting bandsmen will be at the chamber of commerce.

Trev Gillaspie will serve as marshal for the parade assisted by Carl Junge. Dr. H. C. Zellers is in charge of arrangements for the bands. Members of the committee are Roy Withers, Lloyd Marti, Trev Gillaspie, Dr. H. C. Zellers, Col. W. H. Oury, John Selleck, Carl Junge, Miss Margaret Alman.

WESTERN POETESS HERE

From Thursday's Daily

This morning Mrs. Minnie Johnson Hardy, of Salt Lake City, visited at Plattsmouth for a few hours in company with George B. Lenhoff and sister, Miss Mathilda, old friends of years ago when the Johnson family were residents of Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Hardy is a daughter of W. H. Johnson, who some forty-five years ago were residents of this community, the family later moving to Wahoo and from there to the west coast where they have resided and where another daughter, formerly Miss Eleanor Johnson, is located at San Diego, where also Mrs. Hardy has made her home a part of the time.

Mrs. Hardy is a member of the League of American Penwomen and one of the best known writers of the west coast and mountain states. She has been engaged in active newspaper work with the Salt Lake City Telegram, Tribune and Deseret News, contributing both poetical offerings and other lines of literary work. Mrs. Hardy has been a contributor to "The Leatherneck," official magazine of the marine corps, the Navy Review and other magazines of the country.

The services of this noted lady in the literary line has been recognized over the country and she is well known among the writing fraternity of the west. Mrs. Hardy is returning from a visit to the east and to the Century of Progress exposition at Chicago, taking advantage of the occasion to visit in Nebraska with old friends.

The Journal will print a number of the poetical works of Mrs. Hardy in the near future.

HIS HONOR AT 69

From Saturday's Daily

Today was the birthday anniversary of Mayor John P. Sattler, who rounded his sixty-ninth year with the best of health.

Mr. Sattler has spent the greater part of his lifetime in Plattsmouth where he came as a young man and he has served the city as its chief executive for many years, taking the office of mayor for the first time in 1909 when as president of the council he assumed the office on the removal of the then mayor, Henry R. Gering, to Omaha. Mr. Sattler served as mayor continuously until 1916 when E. J. Richey occupied the office for a term of one year, Mr. Sattler being re-elected in 1917. Mr. Sattler was out of the mayoralty office from 1918 to 1923 during the terms of H. A. Schneider and C. A. Johnson. He was elected mayor in 1923 and barring one term has been mayor since that time.

The host of friends over the city will join in wishing the mayor many more years of success and good health.

RECEIVES PLEASANT NEWS

The announcement has been received here of the birth of a fine son to Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kalasek, of Milwaukee, the mother and little one doing nicely, and the occasion has brought to the father the greatest of happiness, this being the first child in the family. Mr. Kalasek is a former resident here and the message has brought a great deal of pleasure to the relatives and old time friends.

JOLLY WORKERS CLUB

The Jolly Workers project club met at the home of Mrs. Max Vallery on Nov. 7. The members had with them three new members and one visitor.

The lesson was on making toys for children, which was found to be very interesting. After the business was finished a few games were played.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Donald Born on Nov. 28.

The afternoon closed with the serving of delicious refreshments by the hostesses, Mrs. Wallace Warner and Mrs. Max Vallery.

W. R. C. Presents Flag to the Public Library

Fine Program Presented by the Young People as Part of Book Week, at Library Auditorium.

On Thursday afternoon the Woman's Relief Corps of this city, presented to the public library a beautiful U. S. flag that will be an appreciated addition to the library and an inspiration to the patriotic ideals that the flag represents.

The program was held at the auditorium of the building and was presided over by Mrs. Fred G. Morgan, patriotic chairman of the W. R. C.

The audience joined in the singing of "America" as the program was opened and was followed by two well selected patriotic readings, "The Flag Speaks," by Margaret Ann Pitz and a most inspiring number by Mrs. Lois Troop.

The pupils of the grade schools of the city presented a large part of the program of the afternoon and which was much enjoyed and showed the splendid ability of the young people of the several groups.

The second grade boys and girls gave a number of the patriotic songs in a most pleasing manner.

Ruth Mason and Charlotte Cotner were heard in a clever reading, "The Last Decoration," while Shirley Walling presented one of the patriotic features of the day in "America for Me."

A dancing number was given by Shirley Mason and Wilma Swatek, the clever dancers presenting the "Sailor's Hornpipe."

"The Story of the Star Spangled Banner" was given by Edward Warmecott, giving the history of the flag of the nation.

Mary Alice Ohlschlager was heard in a very pleasing number, "Hurrah for the Flag," which was followed by the "Pageant of the Colors," given by the boys of the fifth and sixth grades, a most inspiring part of the program.

The school section of the program closed with the flag salute and in which the audience joined as a tribute to the colors.

Mrs. Martha J. Petersen, who is the only charter member of the local W. R. C., was introduced and in an impressive manner presented to the library the beautiful flag as the gift of the W. R. C. which has been such a force in the community in the maintaining of patriotic endeavor.

The flag that was presented to the library is one that carries with it a great deal of sentiment, the flag having been one that was used for a great many years to cover the caskets of the departed civil war veterans at the last services. In the last few years the government has given individual flags for this use, but for many years this beautiful flag has served as the last honor of a grateful nation to the men that had worn the blue.

The acceptance of the flag on behalf of the library board was made by E. H. Westcott, president of the board, who expressed the deep appreciation of the gift.

The program was closed by Bernard Knoefick, of the music department of the high school, who was heard in the number, "When the Grand Old Flag Goes By," a most fitting finale to the splendid afternoon.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

The reports from Omaha are to the effect that Mrs. Harry Collins, formerly Miss Maxine Edwards of this city, is doing very nicely following an operation for appendicitis. While in serious condition for several days, she is now able to sit up in a wheel chair for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McCrary were in Omaha today where they spent a few hours with the patient.

Well Known Couple Wedded Last Evening

Mrs. Nora Egenberger and Mr. Edward Kelly Married at St. John's Parish House.

From Friday's Daily

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Father George Agius, pastor of the St. John's church, occurred the marriage of two of the well known residents of the community, Mrs. Nora Egenberger of this city and Mr. Edward Kelly of Cedar Creek.

The wedding was very quiet, marriage lines being read by Father Agius in the presence of Miss Mary Mrasek and Mr. Edward Egenberger, son of the bride.

The bride and groom will enjoy a short honeymoon and on their return will locate in the home on west Main street where they will be at home to their friends in the future.

The bride is one of the well known and popular ladies of the city and has grown to womanhood in this city and possesses a host of friends. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Martin, long time residents of the county. Mrs. Kelly has been engaged for the past several years at the E. A. Wurl store.

The groom is a member of one of the well known families of the county and was born and grew to manhood on the farm in Mt. Pleasant precinct, but in recent years has been engaged in the grain business and at this time is manager of the elevator at Cedar Creek.

The many friends will join in their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and for their future welfare and success.

UNDERGOING TREATMENT

Miss Mary Duda, who has been suffering for the past several weeks as the result of an ingrowing nail on one toe, is now at the Clarkson hospital at Omaha where she is undergoing treatment. The nail was removed sometime ago but an infection has developed that makes the foot very painful.

Mrs. Fred Duda, mother of the patient, has also been laid up as the result of a fractured collar bone and other injuries that she sustained in a fall, but is now improving very nicely.

DRAWS $100 FINE

Warren Harmer of Weeping Water, who was arrested several nights ago by the night police, was arraigned Thursday afternoon in the county court before Judge A. H. Duxbury. The charge preferred against Harmer was that of possession of liquor as well as intoxication. To the charge the defendant entered a plea of guilty and the court assessed a fine of $100 and the cost of prosecution. In failure to pay the fine and costs the defendant was remanded to the custody of Sheriff Homer Sylvester to board out the amount at the county jail.
